

Democratic Watchman

Bellefonte Pa. Sept. 15, 1905.

Correspondents.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

A new steel paneled ceiling has been put in the store room of Katz & Co.

Sheriff Taylor now has nineteen regular boarders in the county jail.

The enrollment of pupils in the Phillipsburg schools for the first week aggregated 695.

Judge H. M. McClure, of Union county, presided at argument court here this week.

John Anderson is now employed as bartender at the Brookerhoff house in place of Warren Wood.

In one afternoon, last week, the Howard canning factory turned out 8,600 cans of corn and tomatoes.

A large number of men now are at work at the Whitebrook quarries in giving Pleasant Gap and vicinity a very boom-like appearance.

Frank Miller, who works for the Potter-Hoy Hardware company, was severely injured, Wednesday morning, by a stove falling on him.

Miss Helen Schaeffer has been made stenographer to Dr. William Frear, professor of agricultural chemistry, at the Experiment Station, State College.

Owing to temporary financial embarrassment on the part of the driller, the drilling for oil and gas in Pennsylvania has been suspended for the present.

William H. Berry, Democratic candidate for State Treasurer, is booked to appear in this place and make an address Wednesday, October 18th.

Durbin Gray has accepted a position with the Beech Creek Coal and Coke company and went to Patton last Thursday to enter upon his new duties.

There are peach orchards in Centre county in which the fruit is allowed to go to waste because the owners are too busy with their other farm work to gather and market the fruit.

Misses Marie White and Eva Crisman will open their dancing school, in the Bush Arcade hall, this evening. Immediately after the lesson an orchestra dance will be held.

Application will be made to the board of pardons, at its meeting on September 19th, for a pardon for Edison Faltz, convicted at the April term of court for participation in the robbery of the Eby brothers, at Woodward.

The Centre county teachers' institute will be held unusually early this year, beginning on Monday, November 13th. This will be Superintendent Eiders' first institute and he proposes making it one of exceptional interest.

About every livery horse and rig in Bellefonte is already engaged for Sunday by persons intending to drive to Centre Hall to attend the Sunday afternoon exercises at the Granger's picnic. If the weather is propitious there will likely be a good attendance.

Next week will be the Granger's picnic, which will begin informally tomorrow evening with a festival by Progress grange, to be followed by the Harvest Home services Sunday afternoon. A full program for the week will be found on the inside of today's WATCHMAN.

The opening of the foot-ball season at State College will take place tomorrow afternoon when State will try her mettle with the Lebanon Valley college boys. The contest should be an interesting one in that it will afford an opportunity to get a line up of the new men who will appear on the State gridiron this year.

From a notice in the advertising columns of the WATCHMAN today it will be seen that beginning October first the Centre and Kishacoquillas Turnpike company will charge toll for the running of automobiles and bicycles on the pike between here and Centre Hall. If you are an owner of either one of the above look up the rates, etc.

Messrs. R. M. Foster and M. S. McDowell and Dr. John J. Robinson purchased the general mercantile store of W. L. Foster at State College, the beginning of this week, and will take charge today. They also bought out McCalmont's livery and will conduct same in the future. The WATCHMAN wishes the gentlemen all possible success in their new business ventures.

That the Noll brothers of Pleasant Gap do not intend to get left on any of the business that may accrue from the opening up of the new Whitebrook limestone quarries in that vicinity is evidenced from the fact that they are now at work enlarging their store building. A large addition will be made it one of the most commodious store rooms in the county outside of Bellefonte or Phillipsburg.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Schofield to Mr. Charles Larimer will be solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents, Hon. and Mrs. James Schofield, West End, next Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock, Rev. John Wood officiating. A wedding breakfast will be served to about fifty guests after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Larimer will live at the Lenox house, Clearfield, where the groom is in the employ of the Huntingdon and Clearfield Telephone company.

CENTRE COUNTY VETERAN'S PICNIC.

The thirty-first annual picnic of the Centre County Veteran club was held at Hecla park on Saturday. The day was an ideal one and the attendance was good, though not nearly so large as the crowd that used to gather from all parts of the county in former years to attend this annual reunion—one fact more than any other that tells the story of just how fast the ranks of these battle-scarred veterans are being thinned out. But even as they went forth heroes in the fratricidal strife of the early sixties they now courageously face the deploring declination of their number and when they meet together year after year it is with the same old-time geniality and hospitality that has always characterized these gatherings.

The Veteran's reunion is held mainly for the purpose of fostering the association and for social intercourse and general good cheer. There is no pretense to a program of amusements for the entertainment of the crowd. The one diversion, therefore, at Saturday's gathering was the music, which was furnished by the State College and Zion bands; and they were not at all stingy with their wind, either.

The first meeting of the association was held in the main pavilion at 11 o'clock in the morning. Gen. Beaver, president of the club, called the meeting to order and appointed Col. Austin Curtin, M. M. Musser, Henry Heaton, T. E. Royer, Wm. Emmerich and P. H. Haupt a committee on the election of officers, and Hiram Thompson, W. S. Tate, S. B. Miller, W. H. Fry and George Young a committee on the place of meeting next year.

George M. Boal, treasurer, reported that the club had a balance to its credit of $1,100 in the treasury and on motion it was voted to make the association's contribution to the soldier's monument fund $1,200. Gen. Beaver told just how far along the work on the monument was and the probable time of its dedication as the middle of November. He further stated that the monument would contain the names of about 3,500 Centre county soldiers.

Following the meeting in the morning came the dinner and that was the time when all the old soldiers appeared as at dress parade, at their best; for you all know if there is anything a battle-scarred veteran loves it is to make a charge on a full basket of good things to eat. And they are not any ways ashamed of the fact, either.

At 1 o'clock there was a meeting of representatives of the Forty-fifth regiment, held for the purpose of consulting regarding the gathering of data for the publication of a regimental history. Then came the general speech-making meeting with Gen. Beaver presiding. The first man introduced and the principal speaker of the day was Judge Reese G. Richards, of Steubenville, Ohio. Judge Richards was captain of company G, 45th regiment, Penna. Vols. Since the war he has been Lieutenant Governor of Ohio and is now a district court judge. His address was not only one of historical interest but an eloquent one as well. Brief talks were also made by Joel A. Herr, president of the Clinton county veteran's association; Dr. L. M. Holloway and A. A. Hubert, also of Clinton county; Col. J. L. Spangler, Rev. Dr. H. C. Holloway, of this place; Col. John A. Daley and others. Mr. Hubert, of Look Haven, who claims to be the youngest soldier who enlisted in the Civil war, also read an appropriate patriotic poem.

The committee on election reported the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Gen. James A. Beaver; vice presidents, W. H. Fry and Wm. C. Patterson; secretary, W. H. Musser; assistant secretary, S. B. Miller; treasurer, George M. Boal. By a vote of 45 to 35 Hunter's park was selected as the place for holding the annual reunion next year.

FELL OUT THE WINDOW.—Mr. J. Fearon Mann, of Lewistown, well known to Centre countians from having been a resident of Bellefonte most of his life, fell out of a second story window of his home, at 3 o'clock Tuesday morning of last week, and sustained serious and painful injuries. Mr. Mann has not been in good health for some time and of late has been quite ill. Tuesday morning he got up and went to the window, evidently to get fresh air and in some way lost his balance and tumbled out. His fall was broken somewhat by striking one of the shutters of the first story window. As it was, however, the flesh on his left leg was badly torn and bruised while, he sustained a number of other cuts on various portions of his head and body, though fortunately no bones were broken and there were no serious internal injuries. He is now getting along as well as can be expected for a man of his age.

ACCIDENT AND SUICIDE.—The usual quiet of Osceola was considerably agitated Saturday and Sunday. On the first named day John Shearer, nineteen years of age, was fooling with a revolver when it was accidentally discharged the ball penetrating the young man's stomach. He was taken to the Cottage hospital, at Phillipsburg, where he now lies in a critical condition.

On Sunday afternoon R. H. Wells, a prosperous baker of Osceola, went upstairs in his own house and shot himself through the head with a revolver, dying almost instantly. No reason can be assigned for the man's rash deed. He was prosperous in business, was a member of the Presbyterian church, and a prominent member of the Knights of Malta and Golden Eagles. He left a wife and two children.

R. B. Montgomery went over to Lewistown last week and passed a very successful examination for appointment on the new State police force.

An iron bridge over Elk creek near Aaronsburg sunk on Tuesday morning under the weight of a traction engine.

The new M. E. church at Mackeyville is now ready for the inside finishing.

Quite a number of fish baskets have recently been built in Penns creek for the purpose of catching eels.

The family of the late Mrs. Mary A. Smith, of Milesburg, desire to thank their many friends who were so kind during their bereavement.

On their way home from the Granger's picnic the Media Dramatic club, under the management of Will Flack, formerly of this place, will stop in Bellefonte and on Friday night, September 22nd, will play "Alabama," at Garman's.

The Centre county Commissioners have at last pledged their word to the residents thereabouts that the bridge at Beech Creek will be rebuilt without further delay, whether the Clinton county Commissioners agree or not.

Robert F. Seohler, mail agent on the Lewisburg & Tyrone railroad, at a meeting held in Harrisburg recently, was elected one of the five delegates from Pennsylvania to the national convention of postal clerks to meet in Cincinnati, October 3rd.

The DuBois Express office has just been equipped with a new linotype machine and now the paper comes out every evening looking as epic and span as a girl in her teens out on dress parade. May the Express prosper in the future as it has in the past.

Though the season for shooting squirrel does not open until October first reports come from various sections of the county that already hunters are out shooting the bushy-tails. The fine for shooting a squirrel out of season is ten dollars and law-breakers had better beware.

The barn of J. C. Nason, at Julian, was totally destroyed by fire early Monday morning. All the live stock was saved but the crops and farm implements were all burned. The fire was undoubtedly of incendiary origin. Mr. Nason estimates his loss at $2,500 with $1,000 insurance.

Friday, September 1st, William R. Schenck, of Liberty township, was fifty-one years old and his good wife and children gave him a genuine surprise by inviting in about seventy-five of their friends and neighbors to spend the day with them. There is no gaining saying the fact that the day was a very enjoyable one for all. Rev. E. M. Aller, of Howard, was present and made a fitting address.

Many people in Centre county very pleasantly remember Miss Letitia A. Whitney, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Walter R. Whitney, who filled a number of pastorates in this county, and will be interested in the announcement just made that she was secretly married on June 21st, to David B. Good, of Wheeling, W. Va., the ceremony being performed by Bishop Whitehead, of the Episcopal church. The bride last year was a teacher in the Grant University, at Chattanooga, Tenn.

There was more or less disappointment over the opening play at Garman's, last Friday night; not because John Griffith, in Richard the Third, was not as good as he had been represented to be, but because the company, which came here from Lewistown, missed the train connection in Tyrone and did not arrive in Bellefonte until on the 8:16 train in the evening, so that it was 9:20 o'clock when the curtain went up on the first act. Nevertheless the audience enjoyed the play.

Just at the present time there is no busier man nor one who is succeeding better in a business way than R. M. Foster, at State College. Some time ago he opened up a large coal yard up there; the beginning of this week he with two other gentlemen purchased the general mercantile store of W. L. Foster and the McCalmont livery and to crown all Mrs. Foster, in the beginning of the week, presented the Honorable with a big, brand new girl baby. This may account to a certain extent for some of his expansion.

Bellefonte is soon to lose another of her young men, a fact which only goes to emphasize the assurance that they are educated here to fill any one of the many walks of life; and to the outside world we say: If you need a man for anything at all, come to Bellefonte and you can be supplied. The person referred to in this instance is Harris B. Heylman, for a number of years past one of the very efficient clerks in the First National bank, who will leave Bellefonte in a month or five weeks to accept the responsible position of cashier of the Citizens National bank, at Indiana, Pa., a new institution just being established. May success attend him.

One time in discussing the trials of a ministers life, Rev. Morris Swartz concluded by saying: "I have made up my mind that if success does not come to me it will be the fault of Morris Swartz and not of his trustees or congregation." The wisdom that led him to such a conclusion has led him now from one success to another until he now ranks as one of the most popular young ministers in the conference. He has been asked to accept the pastorate of the Bloomsburg Methodist church, as Dr. Ewald leaves there to become president of Dickinson Seminary. In case Morris accepts this call, Rev. Edgar Heckman, of State College, has been offered the charge at Patton.

BELLEFONTE GUN CLUB.—A meeting of local shots was held, Wednesday evening of last week, and the Bellefonte Gun club organized by the election of the following officers: President, John L. Knisely; vice president, Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick; secretary and treasurer, John J. Bower; board of trustees, H. C. Quigley, John J. Bower and R. Russell Blair.

It is the purpose of the club to get together and practice on clay pigeon shooting so that when the game season opens it will not be necessary to first catch the birds and tie them in order to shoot them. To this end a range will be established on east Curtin street and beginning this week weekly shoots will be held. In the shooting line as in everything else Bellefonte has some good material and it would not be surprising to see some of the members develop into experts. At a second meeting held on Wednesday night of this week the list of charter members was closed, so that those who now constitute the membership are as follows:

John L. Knisely, C. Bruce Garman, Charles Moerschbacher, Thomas Beaver, H. F. Gerberich, L. H. Gettig, J. A. B. Miller, Frank Warfield, R. Russell Blair, Geo. A. Beezer, John J. Bower, Frank Graham, J. S. Knisely, Geo. Miller, E. J. Ekenroth, W. Gross Mingle, H. C. Quigley, W. D. Zerby, Jas. C. Furst, Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick, A. Linn McGinley, Clyde Blackford, Milton Kerns and A. O. Furst. The first shoot will be held this afternoon.

LOST HIS POCKETBOOK.—D. Harry Shivery, the dairyman, is out about $168, owing to the loss or theft of his pocketbook. He came to Bellefonte from his Buffalo Run home, last Friday evening. He purchased some hardware at Olewille's hardware store and paid for it, and that is the last time he recalls seeing his pocketbook. He went home and when he undressed to go to bed hung his trousers up in a closet. Saturday evening he put on the same pair of trousers and came to Bellefonte but when he came to look for his pocketbook it was missing.

Whether he lost it in Bellefonte, on the road up Buffalo Run or about his home; or whether it was stolen he knows not. But he does know that the pocketbook is missing and with it a one hundred dollar gold certificate, thirteen five dollar bills, a two dollar bill and about a dollar in change. Mr. Shivery has suspicions as to the whereabouts of the pocketbook and money and the person who has it will save himself trouble by returning same.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONVENTION.—The thirteenth annual convention of the Centre county Christian Endeavor union was held at Lemont Wednesday and Thursday of last week. Forty societies throughout the county were represented with a total of eighty-two delegates. The largest delegation present was from Boalsburg. Among those who were present from a distance and made interesting and instructive addresses were Rev. Luther DeYoe, of Philadelphia; Rev. Kennedy, of Everett, and Rev. S. S. Bergen, of Petersburg. Rev. J. M. Boal, of Centre Hall, and Rev. S. M. Carver, of Milesburg, with Mrs. Carver and Mrs. Holzworth, of Unionville, also took a prominent part in the proceedings. When it came to choice of officers for the ensuing year James Pratt, of Unionville, declined a re-election as president because he intends going away to college and the officers selected were as follows: President, James Glenn; vice presidents, Miss Cornelia Dale and Irvin Noll; secretaries, Misses Nannie Fisher and Susan Shipley; treasurers, H. G. Ebbs and James Ralston.

PANTHERS.—The Panthers, Bellefonte's deer hunting club, after slumbering since their return on December first last with four fine deer, have again begun to stir around and on Monday night held their first meeting for this season, at the Garman house. The officers elected for the ensuing year were as follows: President, A. L. McGinley; secretary, W. C. Cassidy; treasurer, R. S. Brouse. The several committees necessary to get things in shape for the annual hunt this fall were appointed. Andrew Knisely, of Shamokin, was elected a member of the club which completes the roll of twelve members, the limit of the organization. In addition to transacting the above business a number of other things were discussed, among which was the re-devotion of the club will select for their hunt the last two weeks in November.

Although no action was taken on this matter it is generally understood that they will again go into camp in the Scottoe region where they have had such good success in former years.

LEASED SPRING MILLS HOTEL.—Warren Wood, who the past four years has been bartender at the Brookerhoff house, has leased the hotel at Spring Mills and bought out the present landlord, Philip Drumm. Application was made last Saturday for the transfer of license and as soon as this is made, which will be in the beginning of next week, Mr. Wood will take charge and will then be a full-fledged landlord. In this change Mr. Ray, at the Brookerhoff house, loses a first class bartender but the people of Spring Mills and the traveling public who patronize that hotel have gained a most agreeable young man as Mine Host of the hotel there and one deserving of a big measure of success.

DR. HOLLOWAY TO LEAVE US.—At the time Dr. H. C. Holloway resigned as pastor of St. Johns Lutheran church in this place it was thought that he would make Bellefonte his permanent home for the pursuit of the literary work he contemplated doing after his retirement from active ministry. His plans have been changed, however, and next week he and Mrs. Holloway will move to Harrisburg to reside.

News Fairly Personal.

Walter Furst has entered the Freshman class at State.

Mrs. Margaret Meek, of Altoona, is now visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Keichline.

Bond Valentine has been visiting Mrs. Pugh and the Misses Valentine for the past few days.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Tate, after an extended visit at the sea shore, arrived home on Monday.

Charles Miller, son of Editor John C. Miller, of Barnesboro, is visiting friends in Bellefonte.

Herbert Long returned to Bellefonte, on Tuesday of a week's visit at his home in Sunbury.

Miss Ursula Bayard has gone to Canton, Ohio, for an extended visit with friends in that place.

Miss Margaret Cook will return to Philadelphia next Tuesday to resume her work for the winter.

Miss Jennie Showers departed, last Friday, for Philadelphia where she expects to spend the winter.

Ben Shaffer, one of the instructors in the Huntingdon reformatory, was a Bellefonte visitor on Monday.

W. A. Lyon, the butcher, made a trip to Lewisburg, Tuesday afternoon, returning on Wednesday.

Mrs. George B. Klump and Miss Swartz, of Williamsport, have been guests the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Harter.

Mrs. Willard closed her house here and went yesterday to spend the winter with her son, Ward, now in the theological seminary at Madison, New Jersey.

Mrs. Hannah Ayres, who has spent most of the summer with Mrs. Mary Laurie Gray, went to Chestnut Hill last Friday; later she will go to Fla. for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Cruse and Templeton Cruse, of Pittsburg, were in Bellefonte the past week, called here by the death of their sister's child, John Andrew Woodring.

Mrs. and Miss Hibbs and James Aull, of Philadelphia, who spent ten days very pleasantly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richard, left for their home on Wednesday.

The Misses Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris departed for New York, on Tuesday morning. After a stay of a few days in the metropolis they will go to Atlantic City to spend the remainder of a two weeks rest the doctor is taking from his practice.

Miss Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris departed for New York, on Tuesday morning. After a stay of a few days in the metropolis they will go to Atlantic City to spend the remainder of a two weeks rest the doctor is taking from his practice.

Miss Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris departed for New York, on Tuesday morning. After a stay of a few days in the metropolis they will go to Atlantic City to spend the remainder of a two weeks rest the doctor is taking from his practice.

Miss Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris departed for New York, on Tuesday morning. After a stay of a few days in the metropolis they will go to Atlantic City to spend the remainder of a two weeks rest the doctor is taking from his practice.

Miss Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris departed for New York, on Tuesday morning. After a stay of a few days in the metropolis they will go to Atlantic City to spend the remainder of a two weeks rest the doctor is taking from his practice.

Miss Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris departed for New York, on Tuesday morning. After a stay of a few days in the metropolis they will go to Atlantic City to spend the remainder of a two weeks rest the doctor is taking from his practice.

Miss Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris departed for New York, on Tuesday morning. After a stay of a few days in the metropolis they will go to Atlantic City to spend the remainder of a two weeks rest the doctor is taking from his practice.

Miss Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris departed for New York, on Tuesday morning. After a stay of a few days in the metropolis they will go to Atlantic City to spend the remainder of a two weeks rest the doctor is taking from his practice.

Miss Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris departed for New York, on Tuesday morning. After a stay of a few days in the metropolis they will go to Atlantic City to spend the remainder of a two weeks rest the doctor is taking from his practice.

Miss Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris departed for New York, on Tuesday morning. After a stay of a few days in the metropolis they will go to Atlantic City to spend the remainder of a two weeks rest the doctor is taking from his practice.

Miss Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris departed for New York, on Tuesday morning. After a stay of a few days in the metropolis they will go to Atlantic City to spend the remainder of a two weeks rest the doctor is taking from his practice.

Miss Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris departed for New York, on Tuesday morning. After a stay of a few days in the metropolis they will go to Atlantic City to spend the remainder of a two weeks rest the doctor is taking from his practice.

Miss Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris departed for New York, on Tuesday morning. After a stay of a few days in the metropolis they will go to Atlantic City to spend the remainder of a two weeks rest the doctor is taking from his practice.

Miss Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris departed for New York, on Tuesday morning. After a stay of a few days in the metropolis they will go to Atlantic City to spend the remainder of a two weeks rest the doctor is taking from his practice.

Miss Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris departed for New York, on Tuesday morning. After a stay of a few days in the metropolis they will go to Atlantic City to spend the remainder of a two weeks rest the doctor is taking from his practice.

Miss Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris departed for New York, on Tuesday morning. After a stay of a few days in the metropolis they will go to Atlantic City to spend the remainder of a two weeks rest the doctor is taking from his practice.

Miss Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris departed for New York, on Tuesday morning. After a stay of a few days in the metropolis they will go to Atlantic City to spend the remainder of a two weeks rest the doctor is taking from his practice.

Miss Helen and Jo White went away Monday, the former to become a student in the Anderson school of gymnastics, New Haven, Conn., the latter to attend the West Chester Normal.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Motter, of Oak Park, Ill., are guests at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Harper, on east Main street. Mrs. Motter will be remembered as Miss Maude Schroyer before her marriage to the doctor.

Philip H. Beezer made a business trip to Buffalo this week.

Andrew Knisely, of Shamokin, spent a couple days in Bellefonte this week.

Robert F. Hunter returned, on Wednesday, from a week's business trip to Phila.; this time coming home on the train.

George Keichline, of Pine Grove Mills, was in town on Saturday attending to a little business and visiting his brothers, John and Peter.

Harry F. McManaway, that staunch young Democratic worker from Wolf's Store, spent yesterday in Bellefonte on a brief trip of business and pleasure combined.

Miss McPherson, of Gettysburg, whose engagement to Dr. David Dale was recently announced, is visiting at the home of Dr. Dale's parents in Lemont and spent yesterday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Carson, of Buffalo Run, were Bellefonte visitors on Friday and we were very pleased to have Mrs. Carson spend a portion of her time in the WATCHMAN office while her husband was attending to some purchases she did not care to bother with.