THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

Only three more days until the opening of the squirrel season. The time is well nigh here when chestnutting parties will be en-regle. The Kelsley brothers now have their new cigar, "The Tango," on the market. The great "Kennedy Players" will be in Bellefonte all of next week. See them at Garman's.

To-morrow's foot ball game at State College will be between State and the California Normal eleven.

Conductor Ross Parker looks real handsome and dignified in that spic and span new uniform of his.

Mr. and Mrs. Lepard, of east Lamb street, are rejoicing over the arrival of a new girl baby in their home.

The first of October is about here and as yet that "first consignment" of the soldiers' monument has not arrived.

Madam Lockhart, the daintiest woman in the business, will make a balloon ascension each day of the fair next week.

Cadder's have the concession for the eating stand on the Fair grounds next week, which is a guarantee that the food offered for sale will be of the best.

Miss Myrtle Showers, who has been staying with her uncle, Samuel T. Brooks, since the death of his wife, fell down stairs, Monday morning, and broke her arm.

Dr. R. G. H. Hayes has moved his household goods to his new residence on east Linn street, the family expecting to take up their abode there in the near future.

Harry Otto has rented the rooms over the Gazette office, formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wood, and with his wife will go to housekeeping there in the near future.

Having failed in their efforts to induce the Western Union to open a telegraph office at State College an effort is now being made to have the Postal people locate an office there.

Miss Catharine Curtin, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. H. R. Curtin, of Roland, departed on Monday to begin a course in the young ladies school, at Walnut Lane, Philadelphia.

Beginning October 15th the hour for holding services in St. John's Reformed church will be changed from 10.30 to 11 o'clock for preaching, and from 9.15 to 9.45 o'clock for Sunday school.

To-morrow will be the Jewish New Year 5666, and beginning tonight at 6 o'clock all the stores in Bellefonte conducted by members of the Jewish faith will be closed until tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock.

A colossal monument of fruit and grain is being built by Mr. Stromeir, the artist who designed the shaft for the Grangers picnic at Centre Hall. This will be something entirely new for many people in the county.

There will be pigs in abundance at the Fair next week and the two that Henry Hooser intends bringing will beat anything in Nittany valley this fall, so Henry thinks, but then there will be others that might make Henry's look like little ones if they are displayed.

It is now reported that a new paper is to be started in South Williamsport with J. Milton Furey as editor. Mr. Furey is an old Centre county boy, having been born and raised at Pleasant Gap, and if he embarks in the newspaper business he is sure of the best wishes of his many friends hereabouts.

Burns Crider became so excited, on Tuesday, when he heard of the fire at State College that he jumped on the train and went to State College in the belief that the Logan had been sent for and were on the same train; and his consternation was something to behold upon arrival there to discover that the fire was all out and everything quiet.

The Bellefonte shirt factory closed down, Tuesday morning, for two weeks during which time some needed repairs will be made as well as some few changes in the plant. During the past year or two the entire output of the factory has been men's drawers, made especially for one wholesale house in New York, but now the proprietors, Mr. Ray, intends to increase the capacity of his plant and put out a staple line of men's shirts which he will handle himself direct to the retailers.

Rev. John A. Wood Jr., went over to Curwensville last Saturday and on Sunday preached at the reopening service of the remodeled Methodist church; the occasion also being the dedication of the new pipe organ installed by the family of the late Senator A. E. Patton. H. J. Patton, son of the late Senator, made the presentation address and Roland D. Swoope responded in behalf of the congregation.

Mr. W. I. Fleming last week was the recipient from the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Pennsylvania, of the full jeweled official badge of the Grand Commander. It is a beautiful piece of workmanship in gold, the cross and crown being studded with five diamonds while on the pendant is the following inscription: "To Past Right Eminent Sir Wilson I. Fleming for eminent services in the cause of Christian Knighthood, May 24, 1905, A. O., 987, A. O. E. P., 108."

ARRESTED AND ACQUITTED.

Dean Baker was arrested in Lock Haven on Saturday by constable H. H. Montgomery and brought to this place on the charge of stealing the pocketbook containing $168 lost by D. Harry Shivery on September 9th. Baker was given a hearing before just ice of the peace W. H. Musser, Monday morning, but there being no evidence to show that he had taken the money the young man was discharged. It developed at the hearing that Baker had gone to work for Shivery some time last July, and was a steady, industrious young man, well liked by everyone. When Mr. Shivery missed his pocketbook he naturally became suspicious of everyone employed by him, Baker included. The latter realized that he was suspected and watched and he became ill at ease and finally decided to look for another job. Last Wednesday he got a dollar from Mrs. Shivery, saying he was going to the Granger's picnic, but when he came to Bellefonte he changed his mind and went to Look Haven to look for a job, finally getting a position as bartender. He at once wrote to Mr. Shivery and told him he had another job with better wages and that he would send him a small sum of money he owed him as soon as he got his pay. Taking his leaving as a suspicious event Mr. Shivery swore out a warrant for his arrest and Mr. Montgomery went down and brought Baker back.

BIG ODD FELLOW'S GATHERING FOR BELLEFONTE.—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 16th, 17th and 18th, will be big days in Bellefonte and it is none too early for the property owners and citizens of the town to be thinking about preparing for the event and making arrangements for suitable and proper decorations. The occasion will be the annual Communication of the Grand Encampment of Pennsylvania I. O. O. F., and the Department Camp Patriarchs Militant. The gathering will consist of not less than three hundred representatives while fully three hundred additional visitors and a number of Camps will be here, which will swell the crowd anticipated to over six hundred. Members of the local order are already hard at work getting things in shape for the big gathering. The local committee of arrangements is composed of M. L. Altenederfer, chairman; H. B. Pontius, W. P. Kuhn, W. S. Scholl and J. Kennedy Johnston. In addition there are committees on finance, decorations, etc. Bellefonte has always been noted for its hospitality and it does not want to be behind in the character of the reception and entertainment meted out to the visiting Odd Fellows.

INCREASED CAPITAL STOCK.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Hayes Run Fire Brick company, held at Orvis, last Friday, it was decided by a vote of 1961 to 40 to increase the capital stock from $125,000 to $225,000. This action was considered necessary because the plant, though now running to its full capacity of forty thousand bricks per day, is not large enough to meet the demand the company has for brick, as they have a number of large orders ahead in addition to an offer from a New York firm to take all the building brick they can manufacture at a price two dollars better per thousand than what they are now receiving. This company was organized only two years ago and have had their plant in operation only about a year and already Orvis is quite a town, with a general store and postoffice, a church, school house, etc. The company owns seventeen dwelling houses there and will erect fifteen or twenty more. Judge Ellis L. Orvis is president of the company and a number of Bellefontenars are stockholders in the concern.

CHICKEN THIEVES.—Residents up Buffalo run have suffered considerable loss the past few weeks from the depredations of chicken thieves. Last Thursday evening when Mrs. J. C. Hunter went into her hen house to secure some fowls for a local buxster she discovered two men in hiding behind the house. She went for help but the two rascals evidently knew they had been discovered and made good their escape in the darkness before assistance could be secured. When an examination was made it was found that the men had already out a big hole in the wire fencing, ready to pounce upon the chickens at the first opportunity. A few nights previous to Mrs. Hunter's experience Benner Kephart shot six times at a couple men whom he thought were trying to steal his chickens. Chicken stealing has been perpetrated so extensively up the valley the past few weeks that the farmers are all laying for the depredators and unless the thing is stopped at once somebody will be marked with about an ounce or two of cold lead.

SIGMA CHI HOUSE DAMAGED BY FIRE.—Tuesday forenoon fire broke out on the roof of the Sigma Chi fraternity house at State College and before the local fire company could get on the ground the roof was burned off and the third floor badly damaged while the lower rooms were inundated with water. Most of the furniture and personal effects of the members were removed by the students so that the loss in this respect was not great. Fawkes, one of the football candidates, had one leg badly sprained while assisting in removing the furniture. While the loss is not very large the fire put the members to the inconvenience of hunting other quarters. It is hardly possible that the building will be repaired for use as a fraternity house as the Sigma Chis have now a plot laid out on the campus for the erection of a new nineteen thousand dollar house.

Edward Fleming, who had been a patient in the Bellefonte hospital, ill with typhoid fever, has recovered and been discharged from that institution.

The first real big frost of the season occurred on Tuesday morning.

The walls of the new convent on Bishop street are now up and ready for putting on the roof and finishing inside.

The irrepressible Newton Kline is again in durance vile; all because he inhumanly beat a horse hired from liverman Charles Bartley.

Among the cattle to be seen at the Fair next week will be Jerseys, Herefords, Alderneys, Poll Angus, Black Belted and Guernseys. There will be a great cattle exhibit.

The time worn iron fence has been removed from around St. John's Reformed church and other improvements are being made which will greatly beautify the property.

Jacob Kerschner and Miss Mary Heaton, both of Unionville, came to Bellefonte, on Friday, took out a marriage license and were married inside a half hour by Squire W. H. Musser.

Betting on baseball is about as uncertain as betting on politics or a horse race, even when one team is away ahead; a fact that at least a couple Bellefontenars know more about now than they did a month ago.

One day last week J. Albert Walton, teller in the Mohannon National bank, purchased the handsome residence of Mrs. Susannah Todd, on South Front street, Phillipsburg, and will move there with his family November first.

Walter Voysey, who lived at Gearhartville and carried the mail from Phillipsburg to the Victor postoffice, died suddenly of dropsy, last Wednesday. He was forty years old and survived by a wife and several children.

The exhibit of agricultural implements at the fair next week will be something the like of which has never been seen in this county. The National Harvester company is going to make a great display but the others will not be behind them.

Andrew J. McClintick, of Lamar, one of the most substantial and prominent citizens of that locality, died on Tuesday night at the age of 77 years. A more extended notice, one befitting the useful life of this good man, will appear in next week's paper.

The bricklayers are now at work putting down the pressed brick casing on Howard and Spring streets. And though they are not yet far along with the work, the frame skeleton presages a very commodious residence when completed.

The steam heating company now has a force of men at work digging a ditch from the plant on Lamb street to the court house and jail for the purpose of laying a three inch return pipe. This will give the county buildings the advantage of a complete return system which will assure a better heating radius than under the old trap system.

Among the exhibits at the Granger's picnic last week was one by the Pennsylvania Telephone company of their new farmers' telephone set. It was gotten up and placed by Charles Donahy, manager Leas' popular and efficient assistant, and not only was complete in every detail but was in full working order and was daily patronized by many farmers talking to their homes or to their friends.

At the annual conference of the United Brethren church, which adjourned in Johnstown, Sunday night, Rev. J. I. L. Ressler was appointed presiding elder of this district and the following assignments were made for this county: Bellefonte, A. Davidson; Houserville, A. S. Wolf; Phillipsburg, R. J. Head; Port Matilda, G. W. Shires; Runville, C. C. Bingham, and Sugar Valley, H. T. Weninger.

The Seventy-fifth anniversary of the Centre Baptist association will be held in the Milesburg Baptist church, Milesburg, Centre county, Wednesday and Thursday, October 4th and 5th, 1905. The associational sermon will be preached by the Rev. H. C. Broughton of Altoona. The Woman's Missionary society meets Tuesday afternoon, October 3rd. For orders for excursion tickets, address, with stamp enclosed, Mr. Edward Bell, Sabbath Rest, Blair county, Pa.

State College is one of the biggest booming places in the county today. Not only the College itself, but State College borough. On Saturday I. N. Harvey purchased the Craig residence for $2,900, a house that was erected less than two years ago at a cost of not quite $2,000. On Monday he bought out Charles Cheasley's bakery and cigar store, paying $4,000. It is Mr. Cheasley's intention to open a furniture store in the Krumrine and Foster block just as soon as the Pierces move to their new location in the new hotel building.

"BUCKTAIL" REUNION.—The nineteenth annual reunion of the famous "Bucktail" regiment will be held in Curwensville, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, October 3rd and 4th. Big preparations are being made by the people of Clearfield county for the welcome and entertainment of this old body of famous fighting men. There will be a number of speeches on Tuesday while Wednesday will be devoted to memorial services with a camp fire in the evening. All the meetings will be open to the public and all are cordially invited to attend.

BAILEY—MATTERN.—Quite a fashionable wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Mattern, near Franklinsville, Huntingdon county, at noon Thursday of last week, when their daughter, Miss Charlotte Mattern, was united in marriage to Edgar Warren Bailey, of Johnstown, a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Scott Bailey, of State College.

The Mattern home was very prettily decorated for the propitious event with evergreens and flowers. An arborway of evergreen was erected in one corner of the parlor from which was suspended a huge wedding bell of choice flowers. Beneath this the happy couple stood when Rev. R. S. Stair, of Tyrone, pronounced the ceremony which united them for life. The attendants were Miss Maude Bailey, a sister of the groom, as bridesmaid; Jessie Mattern and Nellie Miller, flower girls, and George Mattern, a brother of the bride, as best man. Miss Mame Weaver, of Altoona, played the wedding march.

Following the ceremony a brief informal reception was held after which an elaborate wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey departed on the afternoon train for a brief wedding trip after which they will take up their residence in Johnstown where the groom is in the employ of the Cambria Iron company.

Among the guests present at the wedding were T. Scott Bailey and wife, the groom's father and mother; his sisters and brother, Misses Maude, Sue, Nannie, Mary and Foster Bailey, all of State College; George Mattern, of Altoona; Miss Weaver, of Altoona; Mrs. E. K. McCarthy, of Newton Hamilton; Mrs. James Miller, Dorsey Miller, Nellie Miller, of Pennsylvania Furnace; Mrs. Cline, of Franklinville, and Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Stair, of Tyrone.

DAVIDSON—GARBRIK.—A quiet wedding was celebrated at the home of Mrs. Harry Swabb, in Centre Hall, Tuesday evening of last week, when Willis Davidson, formerly of Union township, but now of Pitscairn, and Miss Mabel Garbrick, daughter of Mitchell Garbrick, of this place, were united in marriage. They left the same afternoon for their new home in Pitscairn, where the groom is stationed as a postal clerk on the Pennsylvania railroad. The bride is very well known in Bellefonte having made her home with Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Spangler since the death of her mother, and last year being one of the county's successful school teachers.

WHITE—BLACK.—Adam White, of Carbondale, Cambria county, and Miss Lizzie Black were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Black, in Phillipsburg, at 2:30 o'clock last Wednesday afternoon, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Clero in the presence of a large number of invited guests. The attendants were Miss Margaret Black as bridesmaid and George Black as best man, sister and brother of the bride. Following a reception and dinner Mr. and Mrs. White took the train for their new home in Carbondale.

WOOMER—IRVIN.—At the M. E. parsonage in Port Matilda, on Wednesday, Sept. 20th, Hosea B. Woomer, and Miss Mary T. Irvin, both of Olivia, were quietly married by Rev. J. C. Durkee. Mr. Woomer is an industrious young railroad man while the bride is a bright young lady. After a brief wedding tour in the east they will reside in Tyrone.

A HARVEST HOME.—Washington Grange No. 157, will hold a harvest home picnic and festival in Johnson's grove, Pine Hall, all day to-morrow, September 30th; and they promise that the gathering will be the biggest and most interesting of anything of the kind held in Centre county this year. There will be a full program of speeches by such able men as Hon. A. L. Martin, deputy secretary of agriculture of Pennsylvania; Hon. W. F. Hill, master of the State Grange; Prof. H. A. Surface, state economist and zoologist, and M. S. McDowell, of State College. There will be lots of band music during the day and a basket dinner the like of which has never been surpassed. In the evening there will be a festival at which ice cream and cake, coffee and sweet cider will be served. Of course, everybody is invited to attend.

DIED FROM HIS INJURIES.—John Keigley, who deliberately attempted suicide by jumping in front of a moving passenger train at Mill Hall, on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad, Thursday morning of last week, an account of which appeared in last week's WATCHMAN, died of his injuries at 9 o'clock Friday morning in the Lock Haven hospital. The remains were brought to this place on the 1:05 train, Friday, and taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. John H. Lee, near Zion, from where the funeral was held on Sunday morning.

BE WISE.—If you contemplate going to the fair next week dress yourself warm enough so that you will be comfortable. It is so late in the season that you cannot expect anything else than cool weather.

While the bright sunshine that is hoped for may look warm enough you will find it quite cool if you sit down to rest and when it will cost you nothing to carry a coat or wrap with you it should not be forgotten. A very little bit of exposure sometimes brings on pneumonia, therefore it behooves all to take the proper precaution against it.

The entrance fee for exhibits at the Centre County Fair, next week, is but $1.00 and this entitles the exhibitor to four single tickets. In addition, the one dollar fee entitles anyone to enter not only one article but as many articles as desired. This is a fact exhibitors want to make a note of.

Hats, Lovely Hats! You should see them at Joseph's!

News Purely Personal.

Col. J. L. Spangler was a passenger west Monday afternoon.

Miss Margery Knowles, of Richmond, is visiting Mrs. Florence P. Dale.

Noah H. Swayne II, returned, on Wednesday on a business trip to New York.

Dr. George W. Atherton was a Bellefonte visitor between trains, Tuesday morning.

Mrs. W. R. Gainfort departed, on Wednesday, for a visit with friends in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hoffman, of Pleasantville, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. Harrison Walker.

Miss Stella Cross, of Phillipsburg, has been in Bellefonte this week visiting her sister, Mrs. H. S. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gross spent Sunday in Altoona visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lose.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Y. Stitzer are attending the Lutheran conference in session at Pine Grove Mills, this week.

Mrs. R. S. Brouse went to Williamsport, on Wednesday, for a couple days visit with friends in the Lumber city.

Miss Margaret Hicks, of Tyrone, who was a week's guest of her friend, Miss Nellie Conley, left for her home on Monday.

Mrs. H. S. Cooper and daughter, of Galveston, Texas, are again up north and are now visiting the Misses Benner in this place.

Miss Grace Smith, of Centre Hall, is keeping house this week for her brother, Witmer, while Mrs. Smith is visiting in Williamsport.

Messrs. Emanuel Noll and Hammou Sechler attended a reunion of their old regiment, the 131st Pa. Vols., at Selinsgrove, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Green have returned to their home in Altoona after a ten days visit with friends in Centre and Union counties.

After a delightful visit at the Gettig home on Thomas street Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tomlinson left, on Monday, for their home in Wilkingsburg.

Hon. J. W. Kepler came down from his Ferguson township farm, Monday morning, and at 1:05 o'clock took the train west for Phillipsburg.

Mrs. D. Wagner Geiss and Mrs. Bruce Garman, for a two weeks sojourn in Atlantic City. They were accompanied by Mrs. Louisa Harris' who will visit friends in Philadelphia.

Thomas and Michael Nestor, both former Bellefonte boys, but now Phillipsburg business men, are in town for a visit with their aunt, Mrs. O'Leary, of south Spring street.

Charles R. Kurtz is lavandating around with the members of the State Editorial association at their annual meeting in Pittsburg this week; with headquarters at the hotel Schenley.

Rev. A. L. Miller and Mrs. Miller, of Altoona, passed through Bellefonte on Monday on their way to State College for a visit with the latter's parents, Capt. and Mrs. W. C. Patterson.

After a brief visit with their aunt, Mrs. D. O'Leary, of south Spring street, Miss Mary and Roger Nestor, both former residents of Bellefonte, left for their home in Pittsburg on Tuesday.

Burdine Butler, of Howard, was a Bellefonte visitor, on Wednesday, and between times dropped into the WATCHMAN office just to tell us that for once there was nothing new happening down the valley at this time.

Fred Blanchard Esq., came in from Chicago the beginning of the week to attend to some business demanding his presence in Bellefonte; looking as if the climatic and other conditions of the Windy city agreed with him to a dot.

W. F. Smith, of Millheim was in Bellefonte, Monday, doing the wind work at the Gettig's harness sale. He returned home on the first train, Tuesday morning, as Mrs. Smith is just convalescing from a long spell of sickness.

George W. Rumberger who, during his term of office as Register made one of the most popular officials ever around the court house, came down from his home in Unionville, on Wednesday, just for a little look around and to attend to a few business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Meyer went to Rochester, N. Y., last Thursday, and spent the past week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCalmont, in that city. The McCalmonts expect to come to Bellefonte in a couple days to spend a few days here and take in the Big Fair next week.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thompson and two children, Hazel and Robert; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lonsbury and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Caldwell with their son James made up a jolly party that drove to Snow Shoe to spend the day, returning chuck full of enthusiasm over the good time they had; though in what particular way we are not informed, because it is too late in the season for a trout dinner at Redding's famous hostelery and a few weeks too early for a saddle or roast venison.

Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Judge are really in a dissipating mood at this time. Last week they were host and hostess for a German smoker and this week they are away on a jaunt visiting friends in Tyrone, Phillipsburg and other places. It is a rare occurrence when Mr. Judge can divorce himself from the freight station of the Bellefonte Central railroad long enough to take a trip anywhere and it is to be hoped that he will enjoy this one to the utmost limits.

Dave Meek and Frank Armstrong left the Blair county National bank and Tyrone paper mill to run themselves over last Sunday while they had a quiet (1) little visit here and at State College. Dave is contemplating a change in his business relations and will very shortly leave the bank to become one of the merchants of Tyrone. His many years of experience in the bank have given him a wide circle of acquaintances, which, added to his well-known desire to please is sure guarantee of great success in his new undertaking.

A very agreeable caller at the WATCHMAN office, bright and early Monday morning, was Rev. S. M. Selbert, retired minister of Newport, Perry county, and father of our townsmen, Dr. J. L. Selbert. Some time ago Rev. Selbert, who is now in his eighty-second year but who does not look a day over sixty-five, buried his wife and feeling the awful loneliness following upon such a sad misfortune, started out for a little trip through the west, going south as far as St. Louis then up to Chicago and east through the important cities, arriving in Bellefonte, last Thursday, after a five weeks trip. He left for home, Monday evening, to dispose of his personal effects in Newport after which he will divide his time between his two sons, Dr. Selbert here and one a lawyer in New Bedford.

Mrs. J. M. Decker spent a couple days in Williamsport the beginning of this week.

Miss Mary Crider will depart tomorrow for Forest Glen, Md., to resume her studies in the National Park Seminary.

Mrs. W. C. Cassidy left on the 1:05 train, yesterday, for an extended visit with friends in Pittsburg and Canton, Ohio.

Mrs. Daniel Delaney, of Lock Haven, spent Saturday in town as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sherry, of south Spring street.

It is quite evident that our subscribers are not inclined to encourage improvidence of any sort for last week we called upon them for remittances in order that we might indulge our selves in a few glasses of lemonade and possibly a ride on the merry-go-round at the fair next week but up to this time W. H. Coldren, Ellis N. Hall, C. M. Fry, Mrs. Thos. Mallory, P. W. Toot, and Thomas A. Nestor have been the only ones inclined to make the little outing we had planned a success—according to our way of thinking of it.

Of course the editor always gets into the fair for the boost he has given it in his paper, but when it comes to the conditions that go to make a fair feel like a fair, that's different. The average fair treats us as if we were made of money and to tell the honest truth we always keep up the bluff until the last sou is gone. Anyhow, we'll see you at the fair next week and if we have any of the good money our friends mentioned since we left we'll invite you to help build it in, so be sure to be there.

A GREAT COMPANY.—"Kennedy Players" who open a week's engagement at Garman's, next Monday night, are considered one of the best repertoire companies on the road. They play only the largest and best cities and towns in the East and their repertoire contains some of the latest and most successful comedies and dramas. The company is headed by Mr. John J. Kennedy and Miss Nellie Kennedy, supported by an excellent company of capable people. The "Kennedy Players" carry their own scenery and are therefore fully able to stage every play in first class style. They also introduce a number of high class and pleasing specialties at every performance. Popular prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents only. Monday night ladies will be admitted to any part of the house for 15 cents.

BELLEFONTE CENTRAL R. R. FAIR WEEK EXCURSION.—On account of the Centre County fair, in Bellefonte next week, the Bellefonte Central railroad company will sell excursion tickets from any point on their line, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 4th, 5th and 6th, at a single fare for the round trip (minimum rate 25 cents.) And for the accommodation of those desiring to attend the fair will hold the return train from Bellefonte to State College and Pine Grove Mills until 5:30 o'clock in the evening.

Remember that there will be no Big Day at the Fair this year. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday will all be big days and if you want to see the whole show you should be there every day. Go early and spend the day on the grounds. Everything will be wide open at 9 o'clock in the morning, the band concerts will begin at ten and from that on until dusk there will be a round of amusement for you.

One dollar will entitle any man, woman or child to exhibit one article or two dozen at the Centre County Fair, next week, and in addition will secure them four single tickets, enough to admit them every day of the Fair or take four people on one day.

There are few women who are not interested in fancy work and something beautiful in that line will be an exhibit at the Fair of needlework of every description from the Lock Haven Exchange. Miss Brown, who will have this in charge, will also have for sale all necessary materials.

The Sophomores won the wrestling bout from the Freshmen at State College, on Wednesday night, although the tussle was one of the hardest in years.
