

Pine Grove Mention.

H. Y. Stitzer and wife spent last week as the guest of J. G. Hess.

Frank B. Krebs, of Spruce Creek, visited his aged mother part of last week.

D. L. Miller and wife, Sundayed with friends at Pine Hall.

Mrs. Levi Krebs, of Lemont, visited Mrs. D. H. Weaver last week.

John Neidigh and daughter, Blanche, spent last week with friends at Patton.

Judge Hess, of Bellefonte, attended several sessions of the Synod last week.

Mrs. Charles Strouse, of Fillmore, spent Saturday at the Strouse home, in Pine Hall.

William Glenn and wife spent Sunday at Mrs. Thos. D. Decker's home, near State College.

Edward Wakham, of Winburne, visited relatives in Centre county with a view to locating here.

J. Cal Neidigh, a lumber employee for the Pennsy, spent his vacation with his parents in Pine Hall.

The Centre county fair held in Bellefonte this week was well attended by people from this section.

John Bohn and wife, of Linden Hall, were visitors Monday, at the J. H. Witmer home, at White Hall.

We are sorry to note the serious illness of little J. Hugh Mitchell, who is suffering with an attack of dysentery.

From the amount of firing heard on old Tussey mountains on the first day of the hunt squirrels must be plenty.

L. W. Koon is waiting on the many customers of the Union Tea company and meeting with good success as a salesman.

John Hubler and wife are receiving congratulations over the arrival of their first born, a little girl, which came Sunday.

John Snyder is quitting the farm and going to his new home at State College. His son, James, will take charge of the farm.

Linn S. Bortoff took a few days off from his business cares up in the Mountain City to spend with old chums here and boast of his big boy.

On Monday James J. Thompson and family moved to York, Pa., where Mr. Thompson will be more centrally located for his large implement trade.

The venerable David Rossman, of Pleasant Gap, was a welcome visitor in this section the beginning of the week when he visited his boys, George and McClellan.

The man of hammer and tongs at Lemont, Wm. Rishel, was a visitor at the Peter's home in the Glades, Monday, looking after his share of the frisky tribe.

Cashier C. M. McCurdy and James Potter enjoyed a spin behind one of Jim's fine pair of steppers, Sunday morning, in time for Rev. Harnish's preach.

J. B. Louder and wife, Ed. Sellers and wife, of Oak Hall; J. H. Ross and wife, of Linden Hall; C. M. Dale and wife, J. F. Kimpfort and wife, of Boalsburg, were within our gates Sunday.

The Granger picnic held at Pine Hall Saturday was favored with ideal weather for a basket picnic in the woods. The State College band rendered some of its choicest music. Promptly at 1.30 p. m. Prof. Mairs, of State College, called the meeting to order, and presided as master of ceremonies.

Rev. A. A. Black evoked the divine blessing. Hon. A. C. Martin, deputy secretary of agriculture, Hon. W. F. Hill, master of Penn. State Grange and Prof. Surface, delivered excellent addresses on agricultural subjects, pointing out the great success achieved by the fraternalism that has strengthened the confidence of the agricultural classes in their ability to successfully meet greater responsibilities in local and State affairs.

The festival in the evening was well attended, and both the State College bands made the night air ring with choice music. The Grange treasury bank account was swelled by $65.00.

Sunday evening brought to a close the Central Penna. Lutheran synod, which was in session five days, and was an event long to be remembered by all present. Elaborate preparations had been made by the homelayers for the coming of the clergy and lay members. The church was in good order all week, and the pulpit banked with flowers and ferns. Everybody had open doors and the latchstring on the outside, and as many more could have been accommodated. Early in the evening a move was started to elect W. K. Diehl, of Middleburg, president, and he was an easy winner. Rev. W. D. E. Scott, of Lloydsville, was made secretary; Rev. C. T. Aiken, Treas.; Rev. T. C. Houtz, statistician. C. A. Wiser and L. C. Henry were licensed to preach, and W. A. Gus and H. O. Reynolds were ordained to preach. The souvenir programs distributed freely to everyone present, gave a brief history of the church organized in 1831 by Rev. Luther Moser, who served until his death, March 6th, 1864. He was followed by Revs. Fletcher, Klemper, Kruse, Sell, Earhart, Hay, Smith, Long, Koser, Felton, Warner and the present pastor, C. T. Aiken. The credit of this book is due Rev. Aiken and J. H. Ward, who photographed the views of county, town and church. Mr. Aiken in his usual happy manner thanked all those who have contributed to the success of the occasion. Especially those of other denominations who so generously offered the hospitality of their homes and made it possible to entertain so many people. The fifty second session of the Lutheran Synod adjourned with the hymn "God be with You till We Meet Again." The next session will meet next year in Middleburg.

The Ladies Circle of the Reformed church will hold a sociable in Odd Fellows hall, Saturday evening, Oct. 14th. The proceeds for the benefit of the church. Fine refreshments will be served and several interesting contests for a handsome rocking chair and rug will be features of the entertainment.

Miss Leach Dunlap, who has been visiting here for a week has returned to her work as nurse in the Norristown hospital.

LOOK UP A Case of Want.

A prison visitor recently asked one of the prisoners how he came to be there.

"Want," was the answer.

"How was that, pray?"

"Well, I wanted another man's watch. He wasn't willing I should have it, and the judge wants me to stay here five years."

OCT. 7th.

Do you ask what about it? Its last day that you can pay your State or County tax, in order to secure your vote this fall. Go and attend to this

NOW.

Spring Mills.

Mobiles are becoming quite common on the pike.

Politics are very quiet here just now, possibly its the calm which precedes the storm.

From what I learn where "merchants most do congregate" Spring Mills was largely represented at the Bellefonte fair this week.

C. P. Long is erecting another fine residence on the avenue. This will be the fifth residence he has erected on the same street.

All our merchants report a very satisfactory business last winter. Commercial agents stopping here report traffic in the road from fair to middling.

Miss Lizzie Stover left, on Tuesday last, for Philadelphia and New York, to purchase her usual fall and winter stock of millinery goods. Opening day on 12th inst.

H. W. Allison, of our village, who had an operation performed at the Lock Haven hospital a week or ten days since and had fifty or more gall stones removed, is improving rapidly.

The firm of Feidler & Weaver, lumber merchants at Penn Hall, has been dissolved. The business will be continued by H. W. Weaver, who will introduce new and improved machinery in the mill and add other improvements in order to engage extensively in manufacturing lumber. Mr. Weaver is an experienced lumberman.

Ripka's cash store is evidently a live establishment. They are doing a large and increasing business. They always have something new. Not much chance for old stock to accumulate. If anything seems to drag or fails to meet with a ready sale, they sell it regardless of cost. Go it must, first lot is always best, that's business. They pay cash for produce.

Dr. White, the popular Democratic candidate for Treasurer, was here for a day or two last week looking up old friends and in doing so made a host of new ones. Evidently from the present outlook the doctor will poll a heavy vote in this Democratic Gibraltar, Mr. Tuten, Republican candidate for Register, was also here last week, of course fixing up his political fences.

Some monstrous pumpkins are reported in this neighborhood. W. Buck has one 37 inches in length and 46 inches in circumference.

Squire Hering has one he raised from seed received from Paris measuring 32 inches in length, with a circumference of 52 inches.

C. E. Long has also a monstrous pumpkin, about the size of two sugar barrels. Pumpkins the size of an ordinary wash tub seem to be common.

Col. T. B. Jemison, one of our prominent citizens, in doing a large insurance business. He represents only the very best companies. To my knowledge, in several instances he has handed parties checks for their insurance 48 hours after the destruction of their property. With his companies there is no dispute, no quibbling, and no procrastination. Is it any wonder that they are doing an extensive business?

LETTER TO J. K. JOHNSTON BELLEFONTE, PA.—Dear Sir: Pay more for Devoe; be glad to. It is full-measure and honest.

Paint is a watch-dog. How would you like a watch-dog that wouldn't watch from two to five o'clock in the morning? That's short-measure.

How would you like a watch-dog that had a way of wagging his tail at a burglar? That's false paint. The burglar is rain and snow.

Go by the name: Devoe lead-and-zinc.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & Co., New York.
