PLUMMER AGAINST LABOR

Miners' Legislative Committee Convicts Him of Duplicity.

He Deliberately Blocked Legislation Favorable to Workingmen, Repeatedly Violated His Pledges, and His Friends Boisterously Applauded the Epithet, "The Miners Be Damned."

The official report of the legislative URES THE RING WAS DESIROUS OF PASSING. committee of the United Mine Workers for the Second district of this state covering the session of the legislature of 1905, would make exceedingly interesting as well as peculiarly appropriate campaign literature at this time. At a convention for the district held in Altoona in 1904 certain legislation of interest and advantage to miners was | outlined and endorsed. A committee consisting of Edward Fisher, James Hamilton and George B. Parks was named by the convention to present the proposed legislation and urge its favorable consideration. The report in question is the official account of their labors, experiences and operations in Harrisburg.

The proposed legislation consisted of three measures, the hope of the passage of which has long been cherished by the miners not only of that district but in all parts of the state. They were respectively an employers' liability bill, a bill providing for the eximination of mine superrintendents, foremen and miners, and a bill for the appointment of a commission to revise the mining laws generally. The miners had been promised all these measures and the committee of the Second district entered upon their duties serenely confident of success. They knew exactly what they wanted, precisely how to convey their thoughts to others and had the industry and persistence necessary to achieve re-

Failure of Fond Expectations.

But the gentlemen of the committee soon realized that their fond expectations were destined to be disappointed. The machine managers sitting in the seclusion of the Boas mansion were serving the corporations rather than the people and promptly issued orders for the defeat of all the bills. They were not to be executed in a brutal manner, it is true. On the contrary, the greatest delicacy was to be exercised in the operation and the influential gentlemen of the committee were to be "jollied" along in the most soothing manner. The committee worked night and day and argued incessantly while the legislators listened attentively and professed the deeperest in the subject. But the interest was not in the passage of the measures. It was in the defeat of them without betraying the purpose in advance of the event. In other words the scheme was to kill the proposed legislation while professing sympathy for the policies expressed in the measures. It was to fool all the miners all the time.

Two of the bills, that for the examination of mine superrintendents and foremen and that for the revision of the mining laws carried appropriations and having been referred to the committee of which J. Lee Plummer was chairman, that gentleman received most of their attention. He was profuse in assurances of friendliness but never reported any progress with the work. Finally the reasons of failure in this respect were revealed in an accidental way. Representative Smith, of Indiana county, had been urgent for the bills at various times and at a meeting of the committe importuned with unusual ferver where upon Chairman Plummer rebuked him sharply and threatened his legislative interests. This so incensed Smith that he left the room,

Report of the Committee. The official report of the miners' committee is signed by Messrs. Fisher and Hamilton and is voluminous and explicit. In part it says:

"March 28 .-- Up to this date none of our bills has been reported from the several committees, but ever since we several committees, but ever since we submitted them to their care we have used every effort and every possible means we could think of in urging their consideration in order that they might be presented before the house.

"The liability bill had another hearing today. National Secretary Treasurer Wilson spoke in behalf of the bill and showed the necessity for the passage of such a bill. The house having an afternoon session all further hearing on the bill was postponed until 8 P. M. The committee reconvened at 8 P. M. when the opposition to the liability bill was again given a hearing.

"When the hearing was finished the committee went into executive session. Many of the committee were not present when the vote was taken to have the bill sent to the house. The motion to present was lost by two votes. The bill was then referred to a sub-committee for the purpose of con-votes. The bill was then referred to a sub-committee for the purpose of considering it and referring it to the committee again on Thursday.

"March 29.—Boulton informed your committee that McWhinney had waived a hearing on the other three bills claiming that the commission bill would cover all. The commission bill is still in the hands of the appropriations committee.

OF PASSING.

"This Representative Smith, of Indiana, and Boulton, of Clearfield, had refused to do up to this time. Smith, of Indiana, accompanied your committee just before the house convened this afternoon to see Plummer, and endeavor to get the bill out of committee. At first we could get no satisfaction. Finally Brother Hamilton informed Plummer that he understood that he, Plummer, was aspiring for the nomination, and that if he was successful in securing the nomination and intended to run for state treasurer at the next election, that his attitude in connection with our bills would not entitle him to expect any support from the miners of District No. 2 or the workers throughout the state. Plummer then promised to give the bill his careful attention at the earliest opportunity."

ity." Plummer's Attitude Toward Labor Interests.

The report continues: "In harmony with the statement made at the commencement of our report, we desire to present a more detailed statement in connection with the attitude of Plummer in the treatment of our bills. We stated that one of the reasons we had in view in presenting our report We stated that one of the reasons we had in view in presenting our report was that the friends of labor and its enemies, both open and concealed, should be unveiled for the future benefit of all concerned, both to those who might be sent in the capacity of legislative committees to Harrisburg and to the voter who might inquire for the record of any candidate serving at present as representative and who

to the voter who might inquire for the record of any candidate serving at present as representative, and who might again solicit their suffrage in electing him to some elective office.

"Representative Plummer is aspiring for the office of state treasurer, one of the most important offices within the gift of the people of this commonwealth. This office should only be filled by men of the most sterling worth and character. He must by all means be clean and honest, pure and open and above board, in all his dealings.

"As Mr. Plummer was the chairman of the appropriations committee, he was the principal member of this committee with whom your committee came in contact in looking after the measures submitted to the care of the appropriations committee. Whether Plummer voiced the sentiments of the majority of the committee in the majority of the interviews with us or not we are unable to say, or whether his expressions and attitude were individual and simply his own personal expressions.

"His expressions according to your pressions.

"His expressions, according to your committee, were not considered as friendly to the legislation submitted." friendly to the legislation submitted by the miners. That he was not open and above board your committee thinks the statement already made in connection with his offer to Representatives Smith and Boulton, offering them to give this bill submitted to his committee consideration if they would support one of the most rotten measures presented to the legislature, a measure so unfair that it had already leen vetoed twice by the governor, who gave as one of his reasons for vetoing it that it was not necessary, and thus created a means for a useless expenditure of money.

Will Continue to Serve the Machine "IT IS THE OPINION OF YOUR COMMITTEE THAT A MAN WHO WILL SCHEME AND WORK FOR THE CREATION OF USELESS OF THE CREATION OF USELESS OF IN LUXURY, THUS CAUSING THE EXPENDITURE OF LARGE SUMS OF THE PEOPLE'S MONEY USELESSLY, AT ONE TIME, WILL CONTINUE TO DO SO WITH INCREASED OPPORTUNITIES.

ED OPPORTUNITIES.

"To substantiate our reasons for stating that we did not believe that his attitude to our bills would entitle him to fill the capacity of a representative of labor, he was a representative but he was not a representative of the people and representing other interests in which the following summary review of our dealings with him while at Harrisburg, and a few citations from the conversations brought out during our interviews will prove:

tions from the conversations brought out during our interviews will prove:

"During one of our conversations after the commission bill had passed the house on second reading and had been referred to the committee on appropriations, the failure on the part of this committee in reporting any bills until on or about the 21st of March, your committee, as before stated, realizing the importance of getting the bill out at the earliest possible moment, sought to use every effort to accomplish this purpose. We were informed that our bill would be presented in the order in which it was received, that this was the rule.

Plummer Discriminated Against

Miners.

"We did not wish to deviate from any established rule, even if it were possible for us to persuade the committee to do so. If this was their method of doing business and they followed it out unbiased, we considered their method fair; but FOR SOME REASON UNKNOWN TO US PLUMMER WOULD NOT LET THE COMMISSION BILL COME BEFORE THE COMMISTITEE. We demanded an explanation from Plummer for his attitude in connection with refusing to allow this bill to come before his committee, and thus blocking it from committee, and the state of the committee and the committee, and the state of Miners.

mittee again on Thursday.

"March 29.—Boulton informed your committee that McWhinney had waived a hearing on the other three bills, claiming that the commission bill would cover all. The commission bill is still in the hands of the appropriations committee.

Plummer Suggests a Corrupt Bargain.

"March 30.—Your committee received the information from Representatives Boulton and Smith that Plummer, the chairman of the appropriations committee, WOULD GET THE COMMISSION BILL OUT FOR THEM IF THEY AND CERTAIN OTHER MEMBERS FROM THE COUNTRY DISTRICTS WOULD GET IN LINE AND VOTE FOR CERTAIN MEAS—

"To this Mr. Smith replied that he considered the coal miners needed protection; that it was a craft fraught with great danger, both to health and life of those engaged in this particular industry. The miners demanded this legislation, and in his opinion were in a position, should it become necessary, to take care of themselves and get their demands enforced in the future. The actions of Plummer were so biased that Mr. Smith left the committee room in disgust with Plummer's attitude. "MR. SMITH CLOSING THE DOOR WAS SUCCEEDED BY BOISTEROUS LAUGHTER BY PLUMMER'S FRIENDS, WHO JEER-INGLY REMARKED: "THE MINERS BE DAMNED.""

"The using of this epithet by Plummer and his friends was reported to

Mr. Greenawalt the following morning by one of the members of the committee who remained and was trienally to the miners.

committee who remained and was irienally to the miners.

"Next morning Smith went to Plummer and asked him if his attitude of the previous evening was to be considered as an indication of the policy he intended to pursue in connection with the miners' bill; if he, Plummer, intended to stand by his actions of the previous evening. Mr. Smith threatened to report his action to your committee, coupled also with the threat, which seemed to be the only thing that could be used to get him to promise fairly, that if his attitude was reported to the committee it would do Plummer considerable injury. Plummer again promised Smith that he would have the bill reported out the following week, the house having adjourned for the present week.

Plummer is Unfriendly to Labor.

"After the house reconvened and the bill was not reported by Plummer's committee, we came to the conclusion that it was a continuation of his old policy of evasion. We then determined to get after some of the Republican politicians who were considered to be Plummer's superiors in the party. They also elicited a promise from him that he would take action on the bill immediately. He delayed this until the time was too short to get it through the senate.

"PLUMMER'S WHOLE ATTITUDE IN CONNECTION WITH THIS BILL WAS ONE OF EVASION AND UNFULFILLED PROMISES.

"Your committee would be charitable to all men, and in rendering this report it is not our desire to present any charge against any person or persons who did not concede to all our Plummer Is Unfriendly to Labor.

able to all men, and in rendering this report it is not our desire to present any charge against any person or persons who did not concede to all our wants and requirements. Every man has a right to his individual opinion, and your committee would honor every man who renders an expression of his individuality. We would not judge and condemn any man as being unfavorable to us and the measures committed to our charge simply because he did not coincide with us in all our methods and measures; but in reporting to the officials and the executive board of this, the strongest representative organization of labor in Central Pennsylvania, we are passing our unbiased opinion on Mr. Plummer's attitude to us and our bill as evidence. WE WOULD SAY TO OUR FELLOW CRAFTSMEN IN DISTRICT NO. 2, WHOSE SERVANTS WE WERE DURING OUR ATTEMPT TO SECURE THE PASSAGE OF THE VARIOUS BILLS. THAT MR. PLUMMER IS NOT FOR US, AND THAT HE WHO IS NOT FOR US, AND THAT HE WHO IS NOT FOR US, ACCORDING TO THE EXPERIENCE OF YOUR COMMITTEE, IS AGAINST US.

Plummer Against the Liability Bill

On April 3 the house again reconvened. When the time came for the presentation of resolutions, Representative Schofield presented the following resolution:

"'Resolved, That house bill known as the general liability bill be taken out or the hands of the judiciary committee and come before the house as mittee and come before the house as a committee of the whole."

"Both Scofield and Garner made lengthy and very able speeches in favor of the bill and the resolution. Garner named the judiciary committee the 'legislative graveyard.' It is needless to say, with the antagonism shown by those who were antagonistic to the bill and the methods used by those who were representatives of the those who were representatives of the entire people in the practice of their retarding policy, with the evidence submitted, that the hill was over-whelmingly defeated. The vote stood 14 for placing the bill on the house-calendar and 111 against.

Influential Outs "On April 4 we interviewed Smith and Boulton and they interviewed Plummer and secured the promise from Plummer, as previously stated.

"April 5—Still no report from the committee, but we were assured that it would be reported out that night before the house convened. Evening again came, with Plummer's promise unfulfilled.

"April 6—Brother Hamilton went to

"April 6—Brother Hamilton went to Captain Delaney and asked him if he could not do something to get the bill out. Delaney stated that there was but one chance left. He would see

"April 7—Delaney reported that he had seen Durham and Durham had notified Plummer to discontinue his opposition to the bill. This Plummer promised to do, stating, however, that it was impossible to report before Monday morning.

it was impossible to report before Monday morning.

"Your committee, realizing that the session was too far expended to encourage any possible hope of getting the bill through the senate and to continue staying in Harrisburg, when, in the estimation of your committee, the purpose of our mission could not be accomplished at this session, was only a needless expenditure of time and money, left for home."

PLUMMER HAS NO CLAIM

Life-Long Republican Denounces the Republican Candidate For State Treasurer As a Toady of the Gang. (Robert J. Bolton in Philadelphia Public Ledger.)

The writer has voted the Republican ticket on national questions for 40 years, and for about 25 years has just as conscientiously voted against the various rings and gangs who have steadily robbed this city and state as a corrupt and criminal combination masquerading under the stolen name of the Republican party. The time for which he has long hoped now seems to be coming; a bright ray of light is shining ahead, and to win, all that is centrated energy. While the City Party is mainly interested in the city offices, still the writer fails to see any reason why any voter who prefers purity in city affairs should vote for corruption in state affairs by supporting for state treasurer that toady of the gang, Plummer, who was forced upon the party by the Penrose gang solely as a reward for his conduct in the state legislature. Plummer has no more right to the support of any Republican who owns himself than has the stool pigeon ticket concocted by Durham, McNichol. Lane, Martin and the rest of the despicable gang who have brought the once-honored party of Lincoln in Philadelphia down to be a reproach throughout the length and breadth of the United States. Mayor Berry, of Chester, the candidate of all parties who are against the Penrose gang, is the peer of any man on our City Party ticket and just as deserving of election as they are.

ancels an Engagement to Address Philade phia

Cincinnati, Oct. 10. - Because of troubles at Philadelphia and the impropriety of his participating therein, United States Senator Foraker has canceled his engagement to speak in Philadelphia October 18, having sent the following letter in explanation:

"Hon. W. R. Andrews, Chairman, Philadelphia-I am satisfied from reports I am receiving from Philadelphia that if I go there to speak at this time it will be interpreted as having direct reference to your local troubles and differences, with which I cannot with propriety have anything to do, instead of national politics, about which and in behalf of your state ticket alone I was invited to speak. While I think this is unreasonable, and while I dislike exceedingly to recall an appointment that has been announced, yet I am unwilling to be put in such attitude, and therefore, cancel my engagement for the 18th.

"J. B. FORAKER." In an interview Senator Foraker said: "The telegram from New York to the effect that the administration is offended because I accepted an invitation to speak in Philadelphia is ridiculous throughout. Where I shall speak and what I shall say are questions that I answer for myself, and no one concedes my right to do so more thoroughly or cheerfully and cordially than President Roosevelt. "Neither in accepting the invitation or in cancelling the engagement did I have any thought of the administration one way or another, and would not be influenced thereby one iota if I had. I have not made any attack upon the administration. I have supported the administration in all its propositions and policies, agreeing with it thoroughly, excepting the proposition to remedy railway evils by conferring the rate making power on the interstate commerce commission. I believe in remedying these evils and that the administration is to be commended for calling attention to them and asking congress to legislate on the subfect, but I do not believe the best way to do this is to confer the rate making power on the interstate commuerce commission or any other governmen-

IMPERSONATED DEAD MAN

Had His Salary Raised From $600 to $1200 On Day of Arrest.

New York, Oct. 10.-After working two years as a trusted clery in the bureau of assessments and arrears, appearing on the records of the civil service board in the name of a dead man, Joseph Ford, who has served sentences in prison aggregating more than 23 years, for mansfaughter, assault and larceny, was arrested at his office by detectives from the district attorney's office and locked up at police headquarters. Ford is charged with having impersonated a cousin, Frank A. Stiney, who died a year ago, civil service examination for a junior clerkship. In assuming the name and personality of Stiney, Ford gave his own correct age, which is 51 years, while Stiney was carried on the civil service rolls as 28. So thoroughly were the officials hoodwinked, however, that on the day when the warrant was obtained for his arrest. Ford had his salary raised from $600 to $1200.

Death of Mother and Unrequited Love Made Frank Houghton Melancholy. Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—Heir to a fortune estimated at $50,000, Frank Houghton, 32 years old, son of Charles W. Houghton, a wealthy physician, committed sucide by inhaling gas. After the death of his mother, about 18 months ago, he became melancholy, and this, added to brooding over his unrequited love for Mrs. Horace Houghton, his sister-in-law, is said to have prompted the deed. Houghton was at one time engaged to the young woman, who married his brother, and he had several times threatened to end his life. A few weeks ago a wealthy relative died, and Houghton's share of the estate would, it is said, have been $50,000.

Two Killed In Rear-End Collision. Pottstown, Pa., Oct. 9 .- Two members of the crew of a fast freight train on the Philadelphia & Reading railway were killed in a rear-end collision which occurred at Royersford, near here. They were Christian Zimmerman, the fireman, of Harrisburg, and George W. Montgomery, a brakeman, of Reading. The men were riding in the engine cab, when the train crashed into the rear end of a coal train. and both were pinned under the wreckage, dying before assistance could be secured. The accident was due to a dense fog.

Close of Portland's Exposition. Portland, Ore., Oct. 10.-This week will mark the close of the Lewis and Clark Exposition after a successful career not anticipated by even the most enthusiastic supporters of the project. Before the closing day is over the fair will have recorded an attendance of practically 2,250,000 persons, which, considering the fact that the combined population of the old Oregon Territory is hardly equal to that number, is almost phenomenal.

menry VIII. and Puddings. Bluff King Hal, otherwise Henry VIII. of England, was exceedingly fond of puddings. At one time he gave a certain Mistress Cornwallis a house in Aldgate for herself and her heirs forever "in reward of fine puddings." In King Henry VIII.'s private accounts occur again and again entries of his rewards to different housewives for bringing him puddings. A typical instance runs thus: "Item. The same day paid to the wife that made the king podings at Hampton corte, vis. viiid." This would be about $1.75, but its value was much greater when the entry was made. This love for "fine puddings" explains much in the familiar rotund figure of King Hal.

A Matter of Gender. The English language is supposed to be very simple in the matter of genders, but foreigners who triumphantly handle questions of gender of inanimate things in their own languages often have their difficulties with the English. A Frenchman recently came to grief over his English. "I fear I cockroach too much upon your time, madame," he remarked politely to his hostess. "En-croach, monsieur," she smilingly corrected him. He threw up his hands in despair. "Ah, your English genders!" he sighed.

People cured of lame, weak and aching back, kidney weakness and urinary troubles never tired of letting others know of the remedy which did it; Doan's Kidney Pills. The cures are permanent cures, as people who were cured years ago now testify. Here is a case of the thorough working of Doan's Kidney Pills here in Bellefonte.

James Rine. carpenter, of 239 High Street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured me in 1897 and the statement I made for publication at that time recommending this remedy was a true statement good to-day. I therefore have no hesitation in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills again. I was so weak before I took the first dose that I could not put on my shoes and was hardly able to drag myself around. There were severe pains all through my back and all through my limbs. During all the years since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me I have not been troubled in this way. I recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to a good many people and have sent many suffering to F. Potts Green's drug store for the first box. In no case has the result been other than satisfactory."
