Mayor BERRY, the Democratic and people's candidate for State Treasurer, was in Pittsburg the other day in the course of his campaign tour, and declared that he is entirely pleased with "the conditions in Allegheny county." That is to say, he found not only an aroused and earnest Democratic organization actively at work but encountered a vast number of independent Republicans who intend to vote for him. "I will have a larger vote here than I originally figured on," he remarked to a reporter of the Pittsburg Post. "There is a big independent Republican element about until I had the pleasure of mingling with the people of Allegheny county. I am assured of their support."

That is precisely the condition in all parts of Pennsylvania. There is an independent element in every community which is keeping its own councils but has determined to swipe the machine this fall alone in Philadelphia that the public con science is stirred. The reformers are making more noise in that city than elsewhere, probably, and the public hears more about from the plunderers is just as etrong in Pittsburg as in Philadelphia and quite as deep-seated in the rural districts as in urban communities. The people have become aware of the iniquity which has been despoiling them and are determined to end

Of course Mr. BERRY is satisfied with the political conditions in Pittsburg as he the conditions to arrive at a fair conclusion. the people's money. Messrs. MILLER and must be with them in all parts of the Scate. The conditions are auspicious for his success and though that fact, personally considered, would not move him, probably, to great enthusiasm, for he didn't and don't personal glory. But present political conditions promise something more important important and unsought office. They promise the restoration of integrity to the publie life of the Commonwealth and common honesty in the administration of political affairs. That is something to rejoice over and in common with all good citizens Mr. BERRY welcomes the signs.

-It is easy to vote bad men into office, again. Remember this on election day. Commissioners.

For Sheriff. ELLIS S. SHAFFER.

For Recorder, JOHN C. ROWE.

ELLIS S. SHAFFER.

The above named is the democratic nominee for Sheriff of Centre county, and, unless all predictions fail, will be duly elected to fill that important office in November. He comes from one of the best families in Centre county—pure Pennsylvania German stock—noted for their industry, thrift and sterling worth; and as such he will fill that high office to the full satisfaction of the voters who approve of his candidacy, and the general public who may have occasion to transact business in that department. For down in Miles township is where they grow good, strong, stalwart men, of which this gentleman is a fitting type.

Among the pioneers of this county were the Shaffers, and his grandfather, ludge Lohn Shaffer, was among the first. Judge John Shaffer, was among the first to clear the forests and till the soil in the fertile section known as Brushvalley which is long famed as the finest agricultural district in this part of the state. Ellis S. Shaffer is a son of Adam Shaffer, Jr., and was born on his father's farm, the Shaffer homestead, near Madisonburg, in 1856. His parents and grandwere farmers and the greater portion of his life was spent on the farm, as he remained with his parents until 1881, and for seven years thereafter conducted the farm himself. 1889 he moved to Madisonburg and while there devoted most of his attention to farming. For several years he was engaged in reconstructing the pike leading across to Millheim and controlled the stage and mail route between those points. For over a year he was employed by Simon R. King, whose health was failing, as manager of the Musser House, Millheim, after which he returned to Madisonburg and since then has been employed in farming and other pursuits.

He is known in his community as a kind and generous hearted man, always ready to extend the helping hand to those in need.

So we do, but the trouble with ABE is that he evidently ers from start to finish, being repeatedly thinks there is only one veteran to remember. For the past twenty-two years he has been remembered with public office of some sort or other, while other veterans have been entirely ignored or forgotten.

It would take columns to enumerate the other veterans who have tried for office in this county and been turned down, while ABRAM's star has been shining ou. Not only was he bowled out of the race for the post office in Howard, but when he undertook to have his name entered as a candidate for Commissioner before the last Republican county convention he was sat down upon in such a way as would lead any thinking with all its energy and force. It is not man to the conclusion that none but a favored few can get a chance to run for office on the Republican ticket. We don't know whether Mr. HOLTER took this view of it or not, but we presume he did and he the purposes they have in view. -It is merely a case now of whether it will be MILLER or BAILEY. Both DUNLAP and WEAVER are certain of election and it remains to be seen which one of the other two can get the most votes in mitteemen, urging them to keep up the but a very difficult thing to get them out order to tetain his place on the Board of good work until the polls close on Tuesday

Candidate Berry in Beilefonte.

Mayor WILLIAM H. BERRY, Democratic candidate for State Treasurer, has come and gone, but the impression he made upon the voters of Centre county will be worth many votes toward defeating J. LEE PLUMMER, the tool of the gang and electing an honest, upright business man to assume control of the State Treasury. Mr. BERRY did not come to Bellefonte with a blaze of trumpets or amidst the glare of colored lights and the din of brass bands. He came, modestly and in a businesslike way, as becomes the man he is.

He arrived on the 1:25 train in the afternoon, was met at the depot by a number of the leaders of the party and escorted to the Brockerhoff house where he and those with him had dinner and then au hour's The balance of the afternoon was spent in cordial greetings to all who called upon him.

The meeting in the court house in the evening was held at 8 o'cleck and at that hour the room was well filled. Though not crowded the audience was perhaps the largest that has attended a political meeting here in several years; and a very noticeable fact was that everybody stayed until the end, so interested were they in hearing every word of the scathing arraignment of the gang and its undeniably corrupt methods. Many Republicans were in the audience and they joined in the liberal applause with which the speaker was greeted.

Col. J. L. SPANGLER presided at the meeting and there was a long list of vice presidents. No time was wasted in useless preliminaries, Col. SPANGLER at once in-He further is one possessed of sound troducing as the first speaker of the evening three years more of a certainty and can idea of the two young people to go away entirely to a full enunciation of PLUM-MER's perfidious career as a member of the Legislature. Mr. BERRY spoke for over an hour and held the closest attention of his hearinterrupted by applause. Though not a brilliant talker he is a man of intense mag netism, and every word he utters carries with it the conviction of truth. He started out by telling of the trail of crime, suicide and untimely deaths that for a generati on has followed in the wake of the State Treasury, from the time BLAKE WALTERS shot himself almost thirty years ago down to the suicide of T. LEE CLARK, cashier of the wrecked Enterprise National bank, in Allegheny, on Wednesday. He told of the incontrovertible accusations of fraud and corruption made against the gang which today stands uncontradicted-even unanswered. He spoke of the iniquitous legislation enacted at the instance of the machine candidate and portrayed most vividly the deplorable conditions now existing in Philadelphia and daily spreading throughout the State; closing with an appeal to the voters to use merely proper business discretion coupled with good common sense when it come to casting their ballots and there would be no question as to the result.

-Quite an enthusiastic meeting of the Democratic county committee was held at Democratic headquarters, Wednesday afternoon. The reports from every member were most favorable and showed a strong prevailing interest for Mayor WILLIAM H. BERRY, for State Treasurer. Sen. WILLIA M C. HEINLE made a brief address to the comvening, November 8th.

JOHN C. ROWE.

For the past three years the above gentleman has filled the position of Record-er of this county and therefore is known to most of our readers. He was elected to that office by a nice vote in 1902, on the democratic ticket and during the present term he has been faithful to every duty in that position. He is known as an obliging and agreeable official. The work in that department has always received his best care and attention, and we have the first complaint to hear from anyone in that direction.

Personally, John Rowe is above all a perfect gentleman, and one who has nade many friends since he moved here from Philipsburg. As it is customary to reward competent and faithful officials in that office with a second term, he was unanimously accorded a re-nomination and we believe his re-election is assured.

Mr. Rowe was born at Pittsburg in 860, and at the early age of nine y found it necessary to go to work and secured employment in a glass factory.
After that he learned tailoring, attending school at night. For a number of years he conducted a tailoring establishment in Philipsburg, until elected Recorder, when with his family he removed to Bellefonte. He is worthy of your support and will appreciate your vote.

-Did you pay your taxes before Oct 1st? If you did you got 5 per cent. off, but what did that avail you. Next year you will have to pay more to make up for the deficit the county will have because MILLER and BAILEY were afraid to raise the millage to the point it should have been to meet the expenditures they have made. They are running for re-election and if they get back into office again they won't need to care, because they will then have debt. Either misfortune would be of no consequence to them, because another term would end them, according to party prec-
