Last Sunday was a busy day for Rev. C. T. Aiken, the popular pastor of the Lutheran congregation. At 10:30 a. m. he held his closing service at Pine Hall church which was filled to overflowing and at 2:30 p. m. communion service here. Long before the hour the church was filled to standing room, everyone eager to hear his parting words which he based on Paul's letter to the Corinthians, strongly urging charity, love and gentleness, giving his flock good counsel for the relationship between people and the new pastor whomsoever he may be. His last official act as pastor was the confirmation into the church of four young people—Ella Sausserman, Charles A. Kepler, Samuel Hess and his own son, Claude. This was followed by the baptizing of baby Miles Leslie Walker and Nadine Bretmart Fortney and the administering of the Lord's Supper to 156 communicants. The statement of his long service of 17 years is as follows: Sermons preached 2924, officiated at 240 funerals, baptized 374 children, officiated at 193 weddings, members enrolled, 180 in Pine Grove charge, 130 in Pine Hall charge and 105 in the Gatesburg congregation. Pastoral visits, 1420; miles traveled by horse and buggy at his pastoral work 28000. Salaries including funeral and wedding fees $13,410; benevolent fund $6,380; appeals, $12,000.00; general expense $4000.00; building and repairs, $32,636. A glorious record to leave behind! For the last dozen years he was one of the banner charges in the Central Pennsylvania synod always coming up to the 100 per cent mark. The report was heard with feelings of gladness mingled with regret for while his people are glad of the honor that has been conferred upon him in being made president of the Susquehanna University they view with sorrow his departure from the community in which he has labored so busy and faithfully. Our people only begin to realize what a loss they have sustained. A man among men, his efforts were not directed alone to the moral uplift of the community but to the improvement of business affairs as well and any university is indeed fortunate in securing the services of such a man. Mrs. Aiken is a woman of culture, gracious and winning personality—just such a woman as is ideal for the wife of a college president. Rev. and Mrs. Aiken bade adieu to their friends at 7 p. m. Monday when they stepped into their buggy for the journey spending the night with friends in Boalsburg; the second night at Mifflinburg, expecting to arrive at their destination on Thursday evening. They are favored by the well wishes of an entire community who hope that their harvest of good in the new field may be most abundant.

LETTER TO F. W. CRIDER, BELLEFONTE, PA.—Dear Sir: Good yarn: How we got our agent at Delhi, N. Y.

Gladstone & Paine were agents for—; we musn't tell names. We wanted 'em. Paine was painting his big Colonial house. Said it took 10 gallons of white for the trim.

We sent him 10 gallons and said: if you get it all on, no pay; if you have any left, return it and pay for the rest. Agreed.

He returned four gallons and took the agency. Four or five years ago. He knows now that his old paint was and is adulterated: that's why it took ten gallons to six of ours.

Go by the name; there is but one name to go by: Devco lead-and-zinc.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & Co.,
New York.
