THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

Russel Blair bagged three nice, plump pheasants on Tuesday.

Just now the old weather prognosticators are busy prophesying a cold winter.

The ladies of the Reformed church will hold a "Country store" sale during the last week in October.

The visiting Odd Fellows had an exciting time, Wednesday morning, watching the big trout in spring creek.

The Gazette this week installed a new full-medium, Golding job press, an evidence of the prosperity it now enjoys.

William Daley returned home from Harrisburg, last Saturday evening, fully equipped with artificial limbs.

The lady residents of Allegheny street gave Dr. J. L. Seibert a novel birthday surprise party, Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick K. Carter, of Centre Hall, have just harvested their second crop of cultivated raspberries.

The late potato crop throughout the county is better than was expected and tubers will likely fall in price.

A new eight foot wide and three inches thick flag stone pavement is to be put down on High street in front of the Y. M. C. A. building.

An episther's convention is an entertainment the ladies of the Methodist church are arranging to hold in Petriken hall, probably Friday evening, October 27th.

Quite a number of bets were paid up last Saturday evening as a result of the New York Nationals defeating the Athletics in the world's championship base ball series.

Harry Clevenstone, in the employ of Gamble, Gheen and Co., has moved his family into the S. A. McQuisition house, corner High and Thomas streets, lately vacated by E. L. Gettig.

Rev. J. A. Morris, who served the A. M. E. church here the past three years as pastor, has been transferred to Erie. Rev. Morrisham, of New Bedford, Mass., is the new pastor of the Bellefonte church.

What is described as one of the most sensational and yet merriest of this year's melodramatic successes, "At Sunrise," with Dick Huffman in the congenial role of an army scout will be seen at Garman's tonight.

It has been rumored that Clayton Brown is to take the tobacco business of Mrs. Charles Rine but no definite arrangements have yet been concluded. Mrs. Rine has under consideration a recent offer from a man in Lancaster.

The assembling of the soldiers' monument is being retarded because of the non-arrival of the granite. Three car loads were shipped over a month ago but up to this time only two car loads have arrived and as much of this as possible has been placed in position.

Last Saturday State College defeated the Gettysburg foot ball team, on Beaver field, by the score of 18 to 0. The Bellefonte Academy went to Snow Shoe and lost to the team of that place by the score of 6 to 4, while in Look Haven the Bellefonte High school boys were beaten by the Normal team 38 to 0. Tomorrow State will play Yale at New Haven.

Tomorrow the Bellefonte Academy foot ball team will play the State College scrubs on Beaver field and the Bellefonte Central railroad will take advantage of the occasion to give their annual low-rate excursion to students and members of the faculty of the Academy and members and teachers of the Bellefonte High school. A special car will be attached to the 10:15 a. m. train for the accommodation of those desiring to go, and the fare for the round trip will be just 25 cents.

Mrs. John P. Harris had a few friends in to spend Monday evening with Mrs. Belle Elliott as it was the last evening of her stay in Bellefonte. While it is a great pleasure to Mrs. Elliott to be here in the summer she feels like migrating to Knoxville at the first suggestion of cold weather, especially now that she is not enjoying the best of health. We wish she might have waited to enjoy with us the big Democratic victory that is to be ours this coming election.

Friday evening Geo. Brown, (colored) janitor at the Bellefonte Academy, had a lot of old paper and rubbish in the furnace room he intended burning in the furnace, but in raking out the ashes a spark fell among the paper which was soon ablaze. An alarm of fire brought a large crowd to the Academy but no damage was done aside from badly smoking the interior of the building. To prevent a similar and perhaps worse catastrophe in the future a separate boiler house will be built.

John Wood, son of Rev. J. A. Wood Jr., has secured a good position in Pasadena, Cal., and will leave for the Golden state next week. At the same time the body of Gilbert Wood, who died in the early summer, will be raised from its resting place in the Union cemetery and will be sent west on the same train which will convey John, to Pasadena, where it will be permanently interred in the Wood lot in the cemetery at that place; a fact which means that at some time in the not very distant future Rev. Wood and family will also return to the land of their nativity.

THE DEATH OF AUSTIN D. BREW.—Years of meditation and experience are usually counted to the making of a philosopher but if Thomas May be right "The wisest men are glad to die; no fear of death can touch a true philosopher," then had Austin Brew attained to it at an early age. Young says "That man lives greatly, whatever his fate, or fame, who greatly dies," and better illustration of a great life could not be found than in the death of this young man whose last words to his mother as she tried to raise him were "Oh, mother, I was just about in Heaven." What a life must be that of the man who can thus wrap the drapery of his couch about him and lie down to pleasant dreams! In such a death we realize the fallacy of measuring—as we, too worldly, are apt to do—the success of a man's life by the riches and honors accrued. For five years Mr. Brew unsuccessfully battled for his life against pulmonary tuberculosis but defeat in this was triumphed over in the victory of his death. It would ill become us to be selfish enough to mourn our loss in his so great gain.

He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Brew, formerly of this place but now of East End, Pittsburg, where he died at three o'clock last Saturday morning. He was twenty-five years of age, was born in Tyrone but later moved with his parents to this place and when W. W. Montgomery was appointed postmaster six years ago, Austin was made his assistant. The work he over, was too confining for his precarious health and he was compelled to resign. He went with his parents to Pittsburg five years ago and during that time has visited many resorts seeking health.

Surviving him are his parents and one sister, Mrs. Albert D. Riley, of Plainfield, N. J. The remains were brought to Bellefonte, Tuesday noon, the funeral services being held in the Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Rev. Dr. Laurie officiating. Interment was made in the Kline lot in the Union cemetery.

BOAK.—In the death of Mr. George R. Boak, which occurred at his home at Pine Glen, at one o'clock last Thursday afternoon, Burnside township lost one of its most popular and progressive citizens; a man who created the first garden spot in that wild section of the Allegheny mountains. Mr. Boak's death was from heart failure and was as sudden as it was sad. He had gotten up from the table, after eating a hearty dinner, and went out to look at his plans. A quarter of an hour later he was found there dead.

Deceased was a son of James K. and Sarah Boak and was born in Burnside township, 65 years ago. His family was one of the pioneer settlers of that locality. Early in life George R. embarked in the lumber business with his father and brothers and later engaged in the mercantile business at Pine Glen, where he built himself a magnificent home and established perhaps the first deer park in this State. At the time of his death he was also postmaster at Pine Glen. In politics he was a Republican though not aggressively so.

Mr. Boak was married three times, the last time to Miss Sarah Newcomer, of Burnside township, who survives him. He never had any children but leaves the following brothers and sisters: James, Cameron and Theodore, of Hughesville; Mrs. Mary E. Shaw, of Hagerstown, Md.; Mrs. Annie Weakley, of Harrisburg; Mrs. A. J. Cook, of Bellefonte; and Mrs. H. M. Ash, of Oriole, Pa.

The funeral was held from the house, at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, interment being made at Moshannon.

MINGLE.—Mrs. Eve Mingle, relict of the late H. A. Mingle, of Aaronsburg, died early Monday morning, from the infirmities of old age, she having been in declining health the past seven years. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bower, of Haines township, and had she lived until next February would have been 83 years old. All her life was spent in the township in which she was born. A descendant of one of the pioneer families of that locality she was a woman known and revered by all. She was a life-long member of the Reformed church and an estimable christian lady.

Early in life she was united in marriage to H. A. Mingle, who years ago served two terms as county commissioner. Surviving her are five sons, namely: W. B. Mingle, of Centre Hall; D. H., of Maxwell, Iowa; Thomas, of Minneapolis, Minn.; A. C., of Bellefonte; and Edward, of Aaronsburg, with whom Mrs. Mingle made her home and where she died.

The funeral was held at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, interment being made in the cemetery at Aaronsburg.

MUSSER.—John Musser died at the home of his mother in Altoona, Tuesday afternoon, of dropsy, caused by eight years affliction with locomotor ataxia. Deceased was a son of the late Jonathan Musser and was born on the well-known Musser farm at White Hall, forty-five years ago. His boyhood days were spent on the farm and when he arrived to manhood he came to Bellefonte and went to clerking in McFarlane's hardware store. He remained there until fifteen years ago when he went to California. His health failed him in the Golden State and several years ago he came east and lived with his mother in Altoona until his death.

While in California he married and raised a wife and one child in that far-off western State. He is also survived by his mother and the following brothers and sisters: Luther Musser, of Missouri; Samuel, Roland H., Mrs. John A. Weaver, Mrs. O. B. Krebs, Corn and Mary, of Altoona, and Mrs. Clem Fortney, of Tusseyville. The funeral will be held this afternoon.

HOCKENBERRY.—Simon Hockenberry, an aged and respected citizen of Milesburg, died at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Charles Caldwell, at 6 o'clock Saturday evening, after an illness since last March with kidney trouble. Deceased was 83 years of age and was born in Milesburg. All his life was spent either in the town of his birth, Bellefonte and Spring township.

His wife, who prior to marriage was Miss Catharine Werts, died about fifteen years ago, but surviving him are seven children, as follows: Mrs. Charles Caldwell, Milesburg; Mrs. James Brown, State College; Mrs. Carrie Hall, Rook View; Mrs. Frank Gebert, and George, John and Harry, all of Bellefonte. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock, Tuesday morning, the remains being brought to Bellefonte for interment in the Union cemetery.

FENLON.—Mrs. Katharine J. Fenlon, widow of the late John Fenlon Esq., of Ebensburg, and mother of Harry E. Fenlon, of this place, died at her home, at 8 o'clock Saturday morning. Mrs. Fenlon had gone to Pittsburg to assist in nursing her daughter, Mrs. George L. Bearer, who was seriously ill, and was herself taken sick. Monday last week she was taken home but continued to grow worse until her death. She was aged 76 years. Surviving her are the following children: John, of New Orleans; Paul, of Philadelphia; Philip, of Donora; Harry E., of Bellefonte; Mrs. Katharine Blair and Miss Grace Fenlon, of Ebensburg. The funeral was held on Wednesday morning, interment being made in the Catholic cemetery at Ebensburg.

FOREMAN.—Charles Foreman, son of James Foreman, (colored) of this place, died in Philadelphia, last Friday evening, of typhoid pneumonia. He had been working for some time as porter in a hotel and about two weeks ago secured a position in the Elk's club. At the time he wrote home and told his father he was not feeling well but failed to state what was wrong with him and this was the only information he had of his illness until word came of his death. He was aged 22 years. The remains were brought to Bellefonte, Monday morning, the funeral taking place that afternoon from the A. M. E. church.

Mr. N. C. Hamner, of Howardsville, Va., one of the assistant chemists at the State College Experiment Station, is critically ill with pneumonia at the private sanatorium of Drs. Hayes and Dale.

"AT SUNRISE."—The above attraction will make its first appearance at Garman's tonight. Thrilling climaxes and sensational scenes surround it, which keep the audience in a state of excitement from the rise to the fall of the curtain. Specialties are introduced during the action of the play in such a way as not to interfere with the plot of the piece.

SUICIDE AT STATE COLLEGE.—Considerable excitement was caused at State College, last Friday night, by the suicide of Miss Margaret Williams, a Welsh girl employed as a domestic at McAllister hall. Miss Williams came to the College about three weeks ago from her home at Nanticoke, Pa., and at times seemed very much depressed in spirits, giving as the reason domestic troubles at her home. About 9 o'clock Friday evening she drank a large quantity of carbolic acid and, though everything possible was done for her by attending physicians the girl died at 11 o'clock after two hours of terrible suffering. The remains were shipped to her home in Nanticoke Saturday morning.

COUNCIL MEETING.—Eight members of borough council met in session Monday evening and about all they did was to hear the borough treasurer report that he had received from the county treasurer $300 as the county's share of expense for laying the big sewer on Allegheny street; instruct the Water committee to investigate as to the amount of water used by the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania and report at next meeting; approve the following bills and then adjourn:

THE Y. M. C. A. BUILDING NEARING COMPLETION.—Monday morning, Haupt Bros. began laying the concrete in the basement of the Y. M. C. A. building. When this work is done, all that remains to make the building ready for occupancy is the putting on of the finishing. This work will be hurried along as fast as possible. The amount necessary to complete the building, aside from the amount yet to be received from the $5000 mortgage which will remain on the property unless some of our generous friends help to reduce it, has all been subscribed. One payment is to be made the contractor yet before he finishes the work, the balance payable when he turns over the building complete. Collections to meet this payment are now being made and all subscribers should see the necessity of responding at this time. A small fund is already on hand towards the furnishings and a committee of the board has been at work selecting the gymnasium apparatus and will order the bowling alleys as soon as a representative of the company handling them can meet the committee.

GRAND ENCAMPMENT AND PATRIARCHS MILITANT, I. O. O. F.—About two hundred representatives were in Bellefonte this week attending the seventy-sixth annual Communication of the Grand Encampment of Pennsylvania, I. O. O. F., and the twelfth annual session of the Department Council Patriarchs Militant. They were not here for any show or street pageantry but the gathering was one of considerable importance, nevertheless. Many of the representatives arrived on Sunday and by Monday evening all the hotels in town were filled to overflowing.

PATRIARCHS MILITANT. Monday was Patriarchs Militant day and two sessions were held, at 9 o'clock in the morning and 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Morning Commander Major General J. B. Andrews, of Altoona, presided. The roll call showed a larger number of Patriarchs present than have attended any similar gathering in five years. The various reports showed a good increase in membership throughout the State as well as a flourishing financial condition.

One of the chief features of the day was the election of five members to the high honor of the Grand Decoration of the Cross of Chivalry. The men so honored were as follows: Lieut. Col. W. W. McFarlane, of Canton Lancaster, No. 25; Capt. A. J. Pitzer, of Altoona, No. 32; Major C. W. Fox, of Altoona, No. 12; Mayor Eugene Dunn, of Altoona, No. 12; Ensign Eugene Dunning, of Altoona, No. 1.

At the afternoon meeting considerable routine business was transacted of interest only to members of the order and which was not given to the public, the sessions closing with the election of the following officers for the ensuing year:

President, Major Gen. J. B. Andrews, Canton Altoona, No. 24; vice president, Brig. Gen. William Tonkin, Canton Lancaster, No. 25; treasurer, Lieut. Col. J. A. Batroff, Canton Philadelphia, No. 1; officer of the day, Brig. Gen. George A. Cassel M. D., Canton Lancaster, No. 25; aid, Major William J. Schaefer, Canton Erie, No. 12; sentinel, Capt. L. J. A. Lesser, Canton Ridgway, No. 34; picket, Lieut. Charles J. Gutwatt, Canton York, No. 14; chaplain, Lieut. Col. E. T. Davis, Canton Scranton, No. 4.

THE GRAND ENCAMPMENT. The officers of the Grand Encampment came in on Monday and by Monday evening most all the representatives were here. The officers were as follows:

Grand Patriarch, Cleon Gioquelais, Pittsburg; Grand High Priest, Herman W. Roller, Philadelphia; Grand Senior Warden, Philip J. Vetter, Scranton; Grand Scribe, Usher A. Hall, Philadelphia; Grand Treasurer, J. Henry Bethe, Philadelphia; Grand Junior Warden, Peter Fritz, Philadelphia; Grand Representatives, Amos H. Hall, Philadelphia; David E. Dale, Butler; Grand Marshal, H. A. Hoffman, Pittsburg; Grand Sentinel, Wm. Rhydderch, Pittsburg.

Tuesday morning the representatives of the Encampment under escort of the Patriarchs Militant and led by the Colewill band marched from their headquarters at the Bush house to the court house where a public meeting was held. J. C. Meyer Esq. presided and introduced W. Harrison Walker, burgess, who delivered the address of welcome to the visitors. It was responded to by Grand Patriarch Cleon Gioquelais who thanked the people of Bellefonte for their hospitable welcome, paying a merited tribute to the town's illustrious citizenship. He closed by telling of the great work of Odd Fellowship both in this and foreign lands.

Following the meeting in the court house the representatives marched to Odd Fellows hall where a morning session was held. The business transacted was mostly routine, including the reports of the various officers, committees, etc. In the afternoon two hundred visitors took advantage of the free excursion to make a trip to State College and the magnitude of that institution made the majority of them gasp with astonishment, while they were all loud in their praise of what they saw in the three hours allotted to their stay there. Tuesday evening a school of instruction was held which was open to all Royal Purple Degree members.

WEDNESDAY'S WORK. Only one session of the Encampment was held on Wednesday and much of the work done was routine. The roll call showed 103 representatives present, which did not include the officers or Patriarchs Militant. The report of the committee on finance was adopted as printed. The report of the Grand Scribe showed that during the past year the increase in membership was 1066. $62,848.50 was the amount of relief furnished to over two thousand Patriarchs.

York, Norristown and Conellsville put in applications for the place of meeting next year but York was selected on the first ballot by a big majority. Peter Fritz was elected trustee to the Odd Fellows Hall association, Philadelphia.

The business of the Communication closed with the installation of the grand officers for the ensuing year, all of whom attained their rank by the right of succession except three, who were appointed by the Grand Patriarch. Those were the grand marshal, Joseph Crier, No. 286; grand inside sentinel, Louis Muth, No. 7; and grand outside sentinel, Joseph W. Derr, No. 51, all of Philadelphia.

News Parly Personal. Mrs. Coulter, of Altoona, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nagney.

Miss Nettie McFarlane was a week-end guest of Miss Margaret Stewart, of Linn street.

Mrs. D. H. Hastings departed, Tuesday morning, for a visit with friends in Philadelphia.

James M. Cameron, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday at "Burnham" as a guest of the Misses Valentine.

J. I. Kline has gone to Youngstown, Ohio where he has secured a good position in a chain factory.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bartley spent a couple days this week visiting their son, A. W. Bartley, in Lock Haven.

Walter Rankin, son of Wm. B. Rankin, spent Sunday at home. He works in the Juniata shops at Altoona.

Mr. Dale, of DuBois, spent the beginning of the week with his brother, Martin Dale, of east Beaver street.

James K. Boak, of Hughesville, and Preston Thomas, of Philadelphia, were in town yesterday, guests of Mrs. Andrew Cook.

A. G. Morris, of Tyrone, spent part of Tuesday morning looking after the interests of the American Lime and Stone company.

Sol Schmidt, of Phillipsburg, was one of the visiting Odd Fellows who attended the annual communication here in the beginning of the week.

Charles Newcomer, who is assisting purchasing agent for the York Bridge company, spent Sunday at the home of his father, D. B. Newcomer.

Mr. Charles Adams, of Montgomery Station, was a representative at the Odd Fellows convention and was a guest at the residence of L. A. Schaefer.

Charles M. Tripple, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday in Bellefonte while making one of his periodical trips through this section as a match salesman.

Miss Ollie Mitchell, the very efficient stenographer in Gen. Beaver's office, left on Monday morning for a ten day's trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

C. M. Clement Esq., of Sunbury, was a Bellefonte visitor on Tuesday, called here through his position as president of the Bellefonte furnace company.

Col. James P. Coburn, William P. Humes and Charles M. McCurdy attended a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. John N. Lauth, at their home in Howard, last Friday evening.

Miss Alice Tait went to Atlantic City, on Tuesday, where she will enjoy two weeks of the ocean as it is her first sight of it and even the Boardwalk before that.

Mrs. H. S. Ray went to Altoona on Monday to visit Mr. Ray's mother who had the misfortune to fall on Tuesday and break her arm. Mr. Ray went yesterday to be with her.

Ed. Schofield, son of Hon. and Mrs. James Schofield, left on Wednesday, for Philadelphia where he has accepted a position as salesman in the harness department at Wanamakers.

After two weeks spent very pleasantly with his mother on east Howard street, Wilbur F. Harris with Mrs. Harris and their little daughter left for their home in Mechanicsburg Tuesday noon.

Joe Fox, son of Mrs. Joseph Fox, of east Bishop street, who spent the past two years in Kansas and Oklahoma, came home, last Friday for a few weeks visit with his family and friends here.

Martin Reese, the accommodating conductor on the Bellefonte and Snow Shoe railroad, is now taking his annual two weeks vacation and with Mrs. Reese and their daughter Marie, are away on a trip to Reading, Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Ellis Shaffer, Democratic candidate for Sheriff, circulated among his many friends in Bellefonte the early part of the week; and from the many hearty handclaps extended him by men of both parties it is plain to be seen he is growing in popularity.

Miss Mary Bradley will leave for Philadelphia, November first, where she will spend the winter in the study of music under able instructors. So far there has been no selection of an organist to take her place in St. John's Episcopal church.

Mrs. Harry Keller with her boys and Miss Caroline Orvis were week-end-guests at Miss Keller's, in Bousburg, where Miss Ella Rhone is now visiting. Miss Rhone still not now returns to her home in Pasadena, California, but will spend the winter in New York doing graduate work in one of the hospitals.

Wallace Reeder, son of the late Col. Wilbur F. Reeder, who the past summer has been employed by Thomas A. Shoemaker as time-keeper on his railroad contracts, may leave for Arizona in a few weeks, where he has been advised by his physician to go for the benefit of his health.

F. E. Wieland, of Linden Hall, farmer, merchant, grain dealer and enough of other things to make him a very busy and important man spent a few hours in town Monday morning and took time for a hurried call at the WATCHMAN office in order to be sure that he owed no man anything.

Tom Brew was up from Hazleton on Tuesday to attend the funeral of his nephew, Austin D. Brew. While in good health now Tom says he had rheumatism this spring and had to go to Hot Springs, Arkansas. Do you believe he is old enough or rich enough for such a malady? Would not the gayeties that mark the opening of the base ball season be a more plausible reason?

Miss Margaret Stewart, after a three month's visit with her mother, Mrs. Patsy Stewart, returned to Wilkesbarre, on Wednesday.

Asher Adams came up from Sunbury this week to see that the Odd Fellows convention was properly appreciated by his old friends here.

After the funeral of their son, Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brew did not immediately return to Pittsburg but went to Plainfield, New Jersey, for a little visit with their daughter and son, Mr. and Mrs. Riley.

The Misses Anna and Christine Blanchard, are now visiting Mrs. Evan Blanchard. They left Chicago the first of October but only arrived here on Tuesday as they have spent the intervening time in Morristown, N. J., and Lock Haven.

Capl. W. H. Fry, of Pine Grove Mills, the one man in Centre county who is kept busy from morning to night and sometimes to morning again doctoring up sick horses etc., was a Bellefonte visitor on Wednesday. Being an Odd Fellow we supposed he came down to attend the wind-up meeting of the Grand Encampment but instead it was to render aid to a sick horse owned by one of the Bellefonte liverymen.

PUBLIC SPRAYING NEXT WEEK.—The first practical demonstration in the State's campaign against the San Jose Scale is to be held in the large orchard belonging to Colonel Reynolds, between Bellefonte and State College, Friday forenoon next week, from 10:00 to 11:30 A. M.

Public addresses will be given upon the subject of scale insects and how to save trees from destruction by them. This will be illustrated by making and applying the best known insecticides for these pests. The San Jose Scale is only starting in Centre county and very few persons in this region understand how exceedingly destructive it may possibly become. In the southeastern quarter of Pennsylvania it has destroyed millions of dollars worth of fruit and ornamental trees and shrubbery, and this extensive effort to show how to fight it will be appreciated by all persons who understand the importance of the subject.

All interested persons are invited to attend this demonstration and to bring with them specimens of twigs and fruits infested with San Jose or other pests. These will be inspected at the meeting and information will be given concerning them. If infested orchards are found in other portions of the county, arrangements will be made to treat them and make due announcements of the dates and places of demonstrations.

The Jackson, Mich., Morning Patriot, of October 7th, is authority for the statement that Chauncey F. York, the Malena man of Warriorsmark, had become the owner of the Palmer cottage, on the north shore of Clark's lake, Mich., which he will make his summer home in the future. The Patriot also intimates that Mr. York is considering moving his factory from Warriorsmark to Jackson, a fact which, if correct, is news to everybody hereabouts.

A novel situation for melodrama is the finish of the last act of "Dora Thorne." Not a word is spoken for fully three minutes before the final curtain, and the most remarkable thing about it all is, that the most excitable and restless in the audience especially in the gallery, remain quietly seated until the very end of the play, which is brought about quite naturally, and to the eminent satisfaction of all concerned. In the opera house, Wednesday evening, Oct. 25th.

Oriental Rug Sale. At Katz & Co's is proving a big success. The expert knowledge, and long experience, of Mr. Sleyman in selecting oriental rugs has proven a great advantage. Inspections are cordially invited. 50-41-tf

Philadelphia Markets. The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening.

Bellefonte Grain Market. Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER.

Bellefonte Produce Markets. Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.

The Democratic Watchman. Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Pa., at $1.00 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $1.50, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and 25 cents per paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher. Papers will not be sent out of Centre county unless paid for in advance. A liberal discount is made to persons advertising by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows:
