THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

A new son came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Young, of Spring street, Friday morning.

For the second time the gutter on the south side of the Race bridge was relaid this week.

There was no preaching in the Presbyterian church, last Sunday, owing to Rev. Dr. Larrie's absence attending Synod at Greensburg.

Jacob and Andrew Knisely expect to open up their pool and billiard room and cigar store combined at State College by November 15th.

The ladies of St. John's Reformed church will hold their "Country store" in the Bush Arcade, November 2nd, 3rd and 4th.

If you want to be entertained go and see Uncle Tom's Cabin, at Garman's, next Monday evening, and November 7th go to the polls and vote for Dr. White for County Treasurer.

John Porter Lyon has had a new run-way put down from Water street into his garage in the Bush Arcade which makes it much easier to get in and out with his automobiles.

The ladies sewing circle of the Milesburg Presbyterian church will hold a fair December 15th to 18th. Kindly give them a call before you purchase Christmas gifts elsewhere.

F. E. Nagney put down a flagstone pavement in front of his store on Allegheny street, last week, and this week W. Homer Crisman is having one put down in front of his property on Thomas street.

On Monday the Bellefonte Gas and Steam Heating company repaired the tar pavement in the Diamond dug up recently to put down a return pipe line from the jail and court house to the steam heating plant.

Most of the farmers throughout the county have the big end of their corn crop holed. And now if they will go to the polls and vote for Ellis Shaffer, for Sheriff, on November 7th, they will rest comfortably all winter.

The many friends of Mrs. John McGinley, who underwent a second and very serious operation in the Bellefonte hospital, on Sunday, will be glad to know that she is getting along as well as can be expected with every chance favorable to her recovery.

After the WATCHMAN went to press last week T. Clayton Brown closed his deal for the purchase of the Rine cigarette store. He will now move his shooting gallery here from Atlantic City and install it in the rear of the room occupied by him in the McClain block until next spring.

John D. Sourbeck has been hard at work this week getting his candy factory in shape for operation in the basement of Petriken hall, and by next week expects to have it in full working order, when he will be in the market with anything from a stick of lasses candy to high grade caramels.

The quail and rabbit season will open next Wednesday, November first. The deer, however, will not open until November 15th, and not on the first, as reported in some of our exchanges. Quail are not very plentiful in Centre county, but rabbits are said to abound in large numbers, while deer are also reported quite plentiful.

On their way to the Klondyke the "Spinners" will tarry long enough in Bellefonte to give an entertainment in Petriken hall tonight, and if you want to see something real funny, as well as entertaining you want to go and see them. With your idea of what a spinner is or should be it will surprise you to see how young and giddy those are who will appear in tonight's entertainment.

To-morrow night Edwin J. Hadley will be at Garman's with his celebrated moving pictures and if you want an evening of rare entertainment and enjoyment you want to go and see them. All his pictures this year are new—not the old ones of last year—and the kind that will interest you and everybody else. The entertainment is for the benefit of Gregg Post, a very good reason why you should go.

Monday evening a dozen or more Academy students went around town indulging in the game, "Follow me." They kept it up until they became a very decided nuisance, marching in and out of stores and playing the Old Nick generally until the police nabbed a couple of the ring-leaders and locked them up when the rest of them quit the game of "Follow me" and spent the balance of the evening trying to get their leaders out of the coop.

Mr. E. H. Richard has accepted the position of secretary of the new White-rock Quarries corporation. This will necessitate his withdrawal from active connection with the firm of F. C. Richard's Sons, jewelers, and his brother Charles will continue the business alone. The White-rock offices are now being fitted up at the Nittany furnace where president Swayne and Mr. Richard can be in constant communication concerning the conduct of the new business. The plant will probably begin operations on November 15th.

DEATH OF MOSES MONTGOMERY.—The great uncertainty of life was never more forcibly demonstrated than in the sudden and deplorable death of Mr. Moses Montgomery, on Wednesday morning. One of the best known and most familiar figures in Bellefonte; the picture of mature robust manhood, the grim reaper marked him for his own in a space of time so short that many of his friends did not even know he was sick.

For six weeks or more Mr. Montgomery had been ailing to a certain extent, with what he believed to be bowel trouble. On Monday, October 16th, he was at his desk in the First National bank, as usual, but that evening complained of severe pain in the bowels and went home early in the hope that the morrow would bring him relief. Tuesday morning he was no better and a physician was sent for. Even then his condition was not considered serious and it was not until Friday morning, when there was a consultation of physicians, that the alarming fact was disclosed that he was a victim of appendicitis. His condition was such that it was deemed best to take him to the Bellefonte hospital, which was done Friday morning. All attempts to break up or spread the disease proved futile and Saturday morning it became plainly evident that the only hope of saving his life was by an operation. The German hospital in Philadelphia was called by telephone and Dr. J. A. Deaver asked to come to Bellefonte and perform the operation. Not able to come himself he sent his brother, Dr. Harry Deaver, who arrived here on the night train and the operation was performed between 10 and 11 o'clock Saturday night. For forty-eight hours Mr. Montgomery's condition was such as to warrant the hope of his recovery but Tuesday he grew worse and continued to do so until his death at 11:07 o'clock Wednesday morning. The operation itself was a success, his death being caused by uraemic poisoning.

Deceased was a son of John and Catharine Montgomery and was born in Bellefonte, in a house on the site of the present Curtin residence, October 5th, 1845, thus making his age 60 years and 20 days. His education was received in the public schools of that day and when a young man in his teens he entered the law office of McAllister & Beaver as a clerk. He remained there but a year or so, until the breaking out of the war and the enlisting of Gen. Beaver in the army, when he went into the bank of Humes, McAllister, Hale & Co. as a clerk in the spring of 1862. When the above bank was merged into the First National bank in 1884 Mr. Montgomery was made bookkeeper, a position he held until his death, with the additional responsibility that some five years ago he was made assistant cashier of the bank. In his work in the bank he was an expert, with few equals and no superior.

In his everyday life Mr. Montgomery was a unique character. A member of one of the best known and most prominent families in Bellefonte, in a position to command public and political favors he was retiring and unassuming to seek or even accept anything of the kind. He was content at all times to do the work he had in hand without seeking for any more advantageous preferment. In a business way he was a wise counselor and his advice was frequently sought by his many friends. He was a man respected and admired by all who knew him. He was exceptionally charitable to the shortcomings of others while he was a liberal contributor to every worthy cause. His usually familiar presence will be missed as much, if not more, than any man in Bellefonte.

Mr. Montgomery never married but lived at the old homestead on Allegheny street, supporting his mother until her death and then keeping up the home for his niece and nephew, the Bullock children. Of a family of eight children only three now survive, namely: W. W. Montgomery, postmaster of Bellefonte; C. F., the clothier, and Capt. Henry Montgomery. Deceased was a member of the Episcopal church and Rev. George Israel Brown will officiate at the funeral, which will be held from the house to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Montgomery lot in the Union cemetery.

WALKER.—Adam Walker, the oldest resident of Ferguson township with but one exception, died at the home of his son, Stine Walker, on the Branch, last Friday forenoon at 11:30 o'clock, after a week's illness with paralysis, aged 86 years, 1 month and 13 days. Deceased was a native of Kishacoquillas valley, where he spent his earlier days as a farmer. In 1866 he purchased the old Staker farm in the Glades. His wife, who prior to marriage was Miss Catharine Stine, died about eight years ago, but surviving him are seven children, as follows: Ex-sheriff W. Miles Walker, of Bellefonte; L. Walker, of Tyrone; Isaac, of Spring Mills; A. Stine, of the Branch; Mrs. Joseph Hettinger, of Boalsburg; Mrs. Henry Meyer, of Bowling Green, Va.; and Miss Clara Walker, of Baltimore. He was a member of the Methodist church and was laid to rest by the side of his wife, in Meek's cemetery, at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning, Rev. Edgar Heckman officiating at the services.

BLOOM.—Mrs. Sarah J. Bloom died at her home in Milesburg, Friday afternoon, of diseases incident to old age, she being 72 years, 4 months and 15 days old. Her husband died a number of years ago but surviving her are three sons and seven daughters. The funeral was held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Rev. W. B. Cox officiating at the services. Interment was made in the Milesburg cemetery.

EVEY.—Charles Allison Evey died at the home of his uncle, Adie Honseman, of Altoona, at 9 o'clock Monday evening, after a lingering illness with consumption. He was a son of William H. and Mary Elizabeth Evey, and was born at Boalsburg, this county, twenty-two years ago. With his parents he moved to Altoona a number of years ago where he was employed as a stationary engineer until his illness compelled him to quit work. His father, who is a traveling salesman; one brother, Walter, of Roaring Spring, and one sister, Miss Florence, a trained nurse in a Philadelphia hospital, survive. He was a member of the Lutheran church. The funeral was held at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the home of his uncle, interment being made in the Oak Ridge cemetery.

TAYLOR.—Mrs. Harriet Noll Taylor, widow of the late Curtin Taylor, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Abram Armstrong, on south Water street, Wednesday last week, of diseases incident to old age, having been born in Berks county more than eighty years ago. She was a faithful member of the Methodist church and a woman highly respected by all. Surviving her are three children, George and Irvin Taylor and Mrs. Abram Armstrong, all of this place; also one sister, Mrs. S. C. Harmon, of Portsmouth, Ohio. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock Friday morning, the remains being taken to Pleasant Gap for interment.

BIDDLE.—Mrs. Wesley Biddle died quite suddenly, Friday evening, at her home in Buffalo Run, of heart trouble. She was aged 35 years and was a woman highly esteemed by all who knew her. Surviving her are her husband, two daughters and one son. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon.

Rev. L. M. Fleck, of Zion, will preach in the Lutheran church both morning and evening on Sunday.

Word has just reached his parents that Louis Daggett is ill with typhoid fever at the Tome Institute, Port Deposit, Md.

Miss Kate Brisbin has been selected as organist in the Episcopal church during Miss Mary Bradley's absence in Philadelphia the coming winter.

The Bellefonte Athletic club football team will be in Bellefonte tomorrow and play the Academy eleven at the fair grounds. Admission, only 25 cents.

By an axe flying off the handle at the Bilger lumber operations, on Nittany mountain, James Calahan had his leg almost cut off below the knee, the instrument striking him as if shot from a cannon.

Policeman George Jodon tried the experiment the past week of eating beef-steak with plaster-of-Paris gravy; Mrs. Jodon having made the mistake of using the plaster instead of flour when she made the dressing.

In the last issue of the WATCHMAN it was stated that there was a possibility of Wallace Reeder's going to Arizona for his health. Wallace is not at all certain about going and his friends need not be surprised to learn of his landing in a fine position in the east.

Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin is coming, and this fact alone is enough to make all the boys in Bellefonte rejoice, as there is sure to be a street parade, with blood-hounds, etc., but if the voters in Centre county want to have occasion to rejoice they want to turn out to a man and vote for Dr. White; and to be sure you are doing it right vote the full Democratic county ticket. They're all worth it.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a fair for the benefit of Petriken hall beginning either November 14th or 15th and continuing several days. The ladies will have for sale all kinds of fancy articles suitable for Christmas presents, while various attractions will be added to the fair to make it of interest to all. Contributions of fancy work, etc., from all persons interested are solicited and will be thankfully received.

It will only be a week or two more until the branch from the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad to the White-rock quarries at Pleasant Gap will be completed. By that time two kilns will be done and ready to begin the burning of lime. The quarry has already been opened up and inside of a month or six weeks at the farthest operations will be in full swing out there, with the building of four more kilns well under way.

This Morning is the time when the farmers of Centre county will have an opportunity to see the practical and scientific methods of spraying for the destruction of insects and the San Jose scale, demonstrated by Prof. H. A. Surface and his corps of assistants on the Col. W. Fred Reynolds farm in Benner township. This is knowledge every farmer in Centre county should have; and another thing they should know is that if they want to keep the expenses of running the county down to a minimum they must elect Dunlap and Weaver County Commissioners. This latter is just as important as the former.

A FATAL SHOOTING AFFAIR.—Ralph M. Williams is dead and Bert Delige (colored) is in the Bellefonte jail as the result of a shooting affair at Scotia, which is claimed by the latter to have been purely accidental.

The shooting occurred just after noon, last Friday. Delige was starting out on a hunting trip in the adjoining woods. As he passed the school house where a number of boys were playing young Williams hailed him, saying: "Wait a minute, I want to tell you something." He started toward him and as he did so Delige threw his gun off his shoulder, with the declaration: "Look out, or I'll shoot you." Hardly had the words passed his lips until the gun was discharged and the boy fell to the ground, the charge of shot tearing away the calf of one leg while some buried themselves in the other leg and in the body.

Delige assisted in carrying the boy to a physician's office where the wound was dressed. He had lost considerable blood before this was accomplished and it was advised that he be taken to the Altoona hospital. His father started for Altoona with him but the boy continued to grow weaker and died on the train at Bellwood.

News of his death was telephoned to Scotia and to the authorities here and a warrant was sworn out for the arrest of Delige, who made no attempt to escape but was taken into custody early Saturday morning, brought here and lodged in jail. Though he claims that the accident was purely accidental Delige is at least guilty of involuntary manslaughter for so carelessly and wantonly handling firearms. At the best he bears an unsavory reputation as he was convicted at the August term of court, 1900, for shooting at John Hangh, merchant at Scotia, the bullet going through his hat, for which he was sentenced to the reformatory. Since that time he has served a term in the Centre county jail for assault and battery.

Ralph N. Williams, the victim, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Williams and was past thirteen years of age. He was a bright, inoffensive boy, well liked by all his companions. The body was prepared for burial by undertaker Lafferty, in Altoona, the remains being brought to Scotia, Saturday afternoon, the funeral being held on Sunday.

YOUNG-GOSS.—George A. Young, of this place, a demonstrator for the National Bicent cent company, and Miss Anna E., only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Goss, of Philipsburg, were quietly married at the M. E. parsonage, Morrisdale Mines, Saturday evening, September 30th, by Rev. R. W. Runyan. The wedding was kept a secret as long as possible but it finally leaked out and the young people are now receiving the congratulations of their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Young arrived in Bellefonte, October 14th, and went to the home of the former's mother and brother, L. H. Young, on Spring street, where the groom has made his home for some months past.

The bride is one of Philipsburg's most popular young ladies and is an expert stenographer and bookkeeper. The groom is a popular and intelligent young man, speaking five languages fluently. He served three years in the regular army, a private, corporal and sergeant in company B, 21st infantry, most of his term of enlistment being spent in the Philippines.

FRIDAY—HARBESBERGER.—On Tuesday last week John H. Friday, of Vail, and Miss Mary E. Harbesberger, of Post Matilda, were united in marriage at the parsonage of the First Lutheran church, Tyrone, by Rev. F. L. Bergstresser. The attendants were George Harbesberger, a brother of the bride, and Miss Goldie Goss, of Tyrone.

GETTING READY FOR THE DEER.] SEASON.—Hunting clubs all over the county are now getting their affairs in shape for the opening of the deer hunting season, on November 15th. Inasmuch as the season this year is only for fifteen days most every deer hunter in the county will go out for the opening and most of them will stay to the finish. "The Panthers," Bellefonte's crack club held another meeting, Monday evening, to complete arrangements for their two weeks camp. They will likely go out on November 14th so as to be on the ground for the opening day. Those who will make up the party this year are L. C. McGinley, R. S. Brouse, John L. Knisely, W. C. Cassidy, M. A. Jackson, Bruce Garman, Andrew Knisely, Russell Blair and Harry Gerberich, of this place, and Al. Shawley, of Marsh Creek.

Gottlieb Haag returned, last Saturday, from a three weeks visit with his sister in Warrensburg, Mo. He had not seen her for twenty nine years and did not tell her that he would visit her, but stepped in on her as an unknown caller. She did not recognize him and when he made himself known it may be easily imagined how delighted she was. The following notice of him appeared in a Leavenworth, Kansas, paper:

Mr. Gottlieb Haag, a sturdy and wealthy German citizen, of Bellefonte, Pa., and who is a spry old gentleman of 70 years, and who was never west of the Pennsylvania line before in his life, is making a couple weeks' visit with his only sister, at Warrensburg, Mo. He is taking in a few of the western cities and spent a couple of days with nephew, G. H. Heidenberger, of the Great Western Manufacturing company, in this city, this week. Mr. Haag was fairly delighted with his visit here, especially at Fort Leavenworth and the Soldiers' Home. He also spoke of the wonders of the west—metropolis, Kansas City, saying he had no idea of the great business centre.

Mr. Weller sustained a bad scalp wound by being caught in a machine belt, while at work at the crusher of the Arner gap quarries of the American Lime and Stone company, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Gross Mingle entertained with cards on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Austin O. Furst and Miss Furet were hostesses for a "Thimble party," on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at their home on west Linn street.

Something more serious might have happened than did on Wednesday evening when the six o'clock train from the College ran into an open switch.

Lovers of football should go to State College tomorrow and see the game between State and Villa Nova. The latter is a strong team this year and should make the contest with the white and blue an interesting one. After the game is over ask all your friends to vote for Ellis Shaffer, for Sheriff, and don't forget to do so yourself on November 7th.

Henry Linn left, Wednesday night, for a hurried business trip to New York, expecting to return on Sunday. Let us congratulate ourselves that he is hurried for since even now his wife always create such a desire to squander money, what would it be if he had more than a few days in New York?

Rev. and Mrs. John Wood Jr. have both been out of town for the past week. Mrs. Wood went to Philadelphia on Tuesday while Mr. Wood spent two days attending the Institute in Lock Haven and will today attend the exercises incident to the inauguration of Dr. Erieland as president of Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport.

W. D. Dukeman, who used to be deputy recorder under W. Galer Morrison and who now holds a good position in a coal office in Wyburn, drove across the mountain to Bellefonte, Tuesday evening. He will spend a few days visiting friends in this section and incidentally figure up just how big the Democratic majority will be this fall.

Mrs. Joseph Apt with her little son, Willard, departed for Williamsport, last Friday evening, where they will spend the winter. Mr. Apt having secured a good position in that place. They will not move their household goods to the Lumber city before spring when, if they are satisfied with the location, they will locate there permanently and go to housekeeping.

William Burnside and Dr. Joseph Brockerhoff started for Roneever, W. Va., Tuesday noon, both on business interests. Not indifferent to the atrocious climate. If it prove salutary as anticipated, Mr. Burnside will probably remain there, much to the regret of his many friends here. This rather sudden exit was perhaps due to the Spinners' Convention to be held in Petriken hall this evening, for always susceptible to charming girls, Will never could have resisted the beauties that Professor Makover will turn out. Discretion was the better part of valor, sure enough, this time.

Messrs. Philip D. Foster, Henry C. Quigley, H. and P. Harris, W. L. Fleming, Harry Keller, Edmund Blanchard and Hon. H. R. Curtin departed on the 1.25 train, yesterday afternoon, for Bradford to be present at the house-warming to-day of Congressman S. R. Dresser. Mr. Dresser has just completed and moved into a new home which is described by people who saw it as a veritable palace, and is taking time by the forelock in having open house to-day, ostensibly to get and entertain his friends by showing them his new house but in reality making the day the occasion for announcing his candidacy for the nomination for a third term in Congress.

It seems strange that often in seeking an explanation for the financial wreckage of a family, it should be attributed to the carelessness of women in incurring debt with no thoughts of how the obligation is to be met. This surely could not be applied to Centre county women, for if the men were as prompt in paying as are the women subscribers to the WATCHMAN, we would have no concern over the depletion of our cash account. Two of the staunch Democrats who gave us profit and pleasure in their calls to us this week were: Mrs. L. A. Sunday, of Pennsylvania Furnace, who spent Tuesday shopping in town, and Mrs. Calvin Waltz, of Pleasant Gap, who made a visit of a few days with Mrs. Jared Harper on her way home from a five weeks stay with Mrs. George Davis, in Belmont.

It is always a pleasure to hear from old friends now residing in other States, and especially when their letters contain an enclosure for another year's subscription to the WATCHMAN, but when both are accompanied with such words of praise as "I find the WATCHMAN the most interesting paper that comes to my home," we are under double obligations to the sender, Mr. John Pfundfoot, of Pasadena, Cal., who lets Bellefonte over twenty-four years ago to locate in that garden spot of the Golden State.

State College put up a strong game against Yale, on Saturday, being defeated by the small score of 12 to 0. The Bellefonte Academy went to State and were defeated by the scrubs 35 to 0. To-morrow State will play the strong Villa Nova team on Beaver field, at State College. If you want to see a good game go up; and afterwards if you want to have good county government vote the whole Democratic ticket on November 7th.

A reunion of the survivors of the 22nd Pa. Vol. cavalry will be held at Mt. Union, Thursday, November 9th, 1905. All old members are invited, whether of six months or three years service. The secretary does not know the address of all and hope they will consider this notice enough of an invitation to attend. A. R. McCarthy, Mt. Union, is the secretary.

A number of Centre countians, among whom were Misses May and Anna Graham, of this place, attended the fiftieth birthday anniversary party given to J. D. Earon, of Colebrook township, Clinton county, one day last week. Col. John A. Daley, of Howard, was one of the guests and made a very happy address appropriate to the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. John Milton Clark, of Alexandria, La., now east on their wedding trip, arrived at the home of the groom's brother, J. Irvin Clark, near Blanchard, last Friday and that evening were tendered a reception by Mr. and Mrs. Clark. Twenty-five guests were present and a most delightful evening was spent by all.

Fifty-two old comrades, survivors of the 110th regiment Pa. Vols., were present at their annual reunion and camp fire held in Tyrone, last Friday. The meeting was quite an interesting one and at its close it was voted to hold next year's reunion in Philipsburg, the third Thursday in October.

The Pennsylvania railroad company will soon begin the paving of High street from the Race bridge west about one hundred feet. This will be a great improvement but a greater improvement can be made in the Commissioner's office by voting for Dunlap and Weaver.

The outfit for the howling alley and fixtures for the gymnasium at the Y. M. C. A. have been ordered and will be here in a few weeks. In the meantime if you want to practice up in bowling just bowl Miller and Bailey out of the Commissioner's office on November 7th.

The brick casing on Mr. M. I. Gardner's new house, corner of Howard and spring streets, is now almost completed and the building is ready for the inside finishers.
