Berry and Reform Sweep Pennsylvania

The Grafters Crushed by the Greatest Defeat Ever Known in this State.

REFORM WINS IN PHILADELPHIA.

Centre County Stands by Her Democ racy.

The WATCHMAN does not pretend to claim the election of William H. Berry as a Democratic victory alone, because it was not. His maguificent majority was rolled up by the voters of Pennsylvania who recoguized the time as opportune to turn down the corrupt gang of men who posed as the Republican party and elect a man who, it is well known, will run the office of the State Treasurer on the same business like principles that has made him a success in private life.

But aside from the good result of Berry's election the wave of reform which swept like a whirlwind over the State had good results in Democratio victories in various counties while in almost every county there were good Democratic gains. In Berks county the Democrats reelected Judge James N. Ermentrout by a large majority; in Montour county Blee was elected associate judge; York county elected Nevin M. Wanner judge as well as the entire Democrat ticker; Hyde was elected associate judge in Elk county with the full county ticket; W. Rush Gillan was elected judge in Franklin county by a majority of 824 over his Republican oppouent; Ingram, Democrat, was elected judge in Greene county, David Cameron in Tioga. P. M. Dann in Schuylkill, and R. S. Holt in Beaver. The Repub icans elected judges in Allegheny, Venango, Washington, Westmoreland and Jeff roon counties and two in Philadelphia. On the various county tickets throughout the State the Democrais made large gains.

Berry's Plurality is Over 85,000. Upheaval was the Greatest in Many Years in Keystone Commonwealth.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.-Complete returos from sixty-one of the sixty seven counties in Penn-ylvania give Berry, Democrat, for State Treasurer, a plurality over Plummer, Republican, of 81,026 votes. The counties yet to be heard from are Arm-

Atkison, (Dem.), probably elected State Comptroller. MASSACHUSETTS -Curtis Gould, Jr. (Ren). elected Governor by plurality of VIRGINIA-Clande A. Swanson, (Dem.) elected Governor. Not the least remarkable of the results esterday was the overthrow of the Republican organization in Onio and in Cincinnati. For the former the country was not unprepared. The temperance question, was only indirectly involved, broke party lines in both directions; but apart from this there was a general resentment at the act of the Republican leaders in abolishing the spring elections so that they could use the national party name with greater effect in' local contests. This increased the power of the machine and was a blow to the independent voters. They have retaliated by defeating the Republi can candidate for Governor. For the result in Cincipnati the conners was not prepared, and George B. C.x, the R-publican boss of that city, is probably the most astonished man in the country There was scarcely a thought of breaking the power of the machine in Concinnati until two or three weeks ago, when Secretary Taft made his speech in Akron, in the course of which he denounced Cox and his organization, and said that if he was in Cincinnati he would vote against the Re-constitution defeated by a decisive vote. from the Mayor was the only punishment. Two weeks ago in commenting on editorials aroused by Dr. HARPER's action in appointing an official newspaper agent for Chicago University we claimed that he was justified in desiring "that only reliable news of his University should be published." In no profession is accuracy so neceseary as in ours for it is the new-paper that largely creates public sentiment and it is therefore an obligation that the news it publishes should be without error. Deliberate inaccuracy cannot be too strongly con demned but inadvertent errors occur for which no editor is really responsible. The patronage of a paper depends upon the news it gives and as this is a legitimate business we consider it our prerogative to publish things that sometimes do not please a whole reading jublic, but have always tried to be just in exercising this prerogative. Many times cooperation on the part of an individual in giving "straight" news when he or she is approached by a reporter. would save the publication of what is often an inaccurate happening. It is much better to extend courteous treatment to a newspaper representative and give him the ruth or frankly state why it is desirable to suppress the facts for there are few of our oraft-and they are not worthy the namewho will not return with interest any raciousness accorded.
