

Howard.

Ben Harris, who has been clerking at Bitumen, visited Howard recently.
Low Dorman and wife, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with W. Holter and family.
Miss Marie Holmes spent a week among relatives at Lock Haven and reports having a good time.
Maude Longee, who has been at Williamsburg assisting her brother Curt, was home during last week.
Joseph L. Holter and wife returned this week from an extended visit to Pittsburgh and surrounding towns.
Eugene Pletcher and Miss Alice, his sister, who are employed in Philadelphia, spent a week home with their parents.
Geo. Long, son of W. C. Long, now a student at the Lock Haven Normal, came home last Saturday to spend Sunday and sample the cookies prepared by his kind mother.
Miss Rhue DeHaas, one of Howard's handsome young ladies; who has been at attending school at Philadelphia, was called home last week on account of her father's illness.
Harry Robb, one of the instructors at the Huntington reformatory, and former principal of Howard High school, spent a week among many of his former friends here.
Herbert Decker and wife, of Pitsaun, spent a brief time with Mrs. Walter Cook to say that they were having a good time would be a mild way of expressing it, but they are of the people who mean to enjoy life and be cheerful and happy.
A nephew and niece of Thompson Allison arrived here last week from Pueblo, Col. They are children of Robert Allison, formerly of Cedar Springs, but now an engineer along the "Gorge" in Colorado. The young people are enjoying themselves to the utmost.
Last week while a team of Mr. Lowery's of Nittany, was left standing at the mill of W. H. Long, the cars running from the clay mines to the brick works frightened the horses which started to run away. Mr. Lowery spied it and leaped into the hind part of the wagon, secured the lines while the team was running at a rapid rate and stopped them.
Geo. Long, one of the most esteemed and aged citizens of Howard, was buried last Sunday, at Bellefonte. Services were held here by Rev. Aller. Deceased was a life-long member of the Methodist church and always found at his post of church duty. Mr. Long was a mason and plasterer by trade and always known as an honest, up right citizen. He was aged 78 years.
The borough council took action at its last meeting and enforced an ordinance to prohibit street loafing, yelling and all boisterous language on the streets. Clyde Long has been appointed a policeman to take charge of all disreputable characters. This is one of the best actions this council has ever taken, the actions on past occasions have been a disgrace to the town. During the recent visit of an evangelist to the church people of the town could scarcely wend their way to the services on account of the street loafers on the corners.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

"The President and the Boys" is the title of an article which Maurice Francis Egan has written for an early number of St. Nicholas. It will tell of the warm interest which President Roosevelt takes in the doings of American boys, of his sense of comradeship with them, and of his cordiality toward one particular boy whose visit to the President is described in the article. The "Pinky Perkins" stories by Captain Hammond of West Point, which have been appearing in St. Nicholas during the past year, have been gathered into book form and appear from the Century Co.'s press. These stories have been very popular with the young folks, and it is said that Capt. Hammond has been prevailed upon to continue them, and to write more of Pinky's experiences for the coming of St. Nicholas.
FANCY COOKERY FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS.—What would Christmas be without the traditional dinner with the good old-fashioned plum pudding and the numerous other reasonable delicacies? But something new in this line is the practice coming in favor, of including various forms of cookery among one's Christmas gifts. In the December Delicacies there is a suggestive chapter in "The Making of a Housewife," by Isabel Gordon Curtis, giving many useful hints on this purpose. "Suggestions for a Child's Christmas Party," "Various Plum Puddings and Harmonious Sauces," and "Quaint Little Cakes for Holiday Occasions" prove to be useful, as well as something new to add to one's menus, and "Home-Made Holiday Beverages" and "Table Decorations for Children's Christmas Parties" close this very valuable department of the magazine.

LETTER TO JUDGE ORVIS, BELLEFONTE, PA.

Dear Sir: There are these five ways of badness in paint:
(1) stuffed out with chalk, or something like that;
(2) barytes, better than chalk, but no covering to it; nobody knows it's there;
(3) benzine in the oil, water, or other such stuff;
(4) too thin—too much liquid, whatever it is, for the solid;
(5) short measure;
Now will you buy by the price per 'gallon'?

We furnish our agents with a state chemist's certificate of analysis that tells what's in Devoe.
Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOR & Co.,
New York.
