Our Vocabulary Largest.

A German investigator announces that the English language has the largest vocabulary of any now in use. It heads the list with 260,000 words; Germany, with 80,000 words, coming second, and Italy, with 75,000, third. The authors of the English dictionaries certainly deserve a great deal of praise, although we can think of several English words in general use that might be dropped without injuring the appearance of the vocabulary in the least. Possibly the amount of slang in our dictionaries may explain the difference of 180,000 words between the English and German languages.—Exchange.

The following variation of Lew Dookstader's edifying ditty "Everybody Works but Father," has been composed by a protesting father:

Everybody works but mother,
She gads around all day;
Goes to women's meetings;
Takes in the matinee.

Father toils and worries,
He has a good time—nil;
Everybody works at our house
But Ma—she's quit.

Two women in heaven one man newly arrived.

"I was his wife," said one.

"I his sweetheart," said the other.

St. Peter said to the man: "Go down to the Other Place—you have suffered enough."

take it to my home in England," the prince said, "as a souvenir of this interesting morning."

Before his departure for Annapolis Prince Louis said:

"I have thoroughly enjoyed my too brief visit to Washington, and I appreciate highly the courtesy, cordiality and kindness that have been shown us by the president, members of the cabinet and officers of the army and navy. This is the first time I believe that a British admiral has been received by the president at Washington. Now I would like to see an American president received by the king in London. Such a meeting would be peculiarly appropriate, as both the king and President Roosevelt have rendered such distinguished services to the cause of the world's peace. I am sure nothing would give greater pleasure to the British people than to welcome the president of the American republic on British soil.

"From New York we go to Gibraltar. Our first port on this side was Canadian, our last will be American. We have been visiting people of our own race and language. We have felt at home, and nowhere more so than in the United States."

Forty-two British officers who have been the guests of the American navy for a several days visit at the Arlington hotel, also left for Annapolis.

MAY BE A MURDER

Negro Suspected of Killing Woman and Placing Body On Tracks.

Camden, N. J., Nov. 6.—Four negroes were arrested here on suspicion of having caused the death of Clara Anderson, a colored woman, whose body was found on the tracks of a street railway company on the outskirts of the city last Tuesday. Notwithstanding the statements of the crew of a trolley car which struck the body of the woman, that the body was cold when picked up, the coroner rendered a verdict of accidental death. Detectives were put on the case by County Prosecutor Lloyd, which resulted in the arrest of the four men.

Prosecutor Lloyd had the prisoners under examination. He discharged three of them. The man still in custody is Daniel Stence. He is being held for a further examination.

TWO MEN BURNED TO ASHES

Were Caught in Mold When Fiery Stream Poured Down.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—Working in the mold room of the Midvale Iron Works, two laborers were cremated by the accidental opening of a valve which allowed a stream of molten metal to pour down upon them.

Men who were working nearby and saw the accident say that when the metal descended upon the two victims their bodies shriveled up with the heat, not even their ashes being left. So terrible was the heat that death must have been instantaneous.

There were five men working in the huge mold loft at the Midvale works shortly before the accident occurred, but two of them left, thus escaping a terrible death.

Conscience Worried Him.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 7.—Conscience-stricken while attending a big revival which is being held in this city, Charles M. Oldham passed a sleepless night and telephoned the central station from a down town hotel that unless he was arrested within an hour he would commit suicide. When Oldham was taken to the central station he told a story of having forged a check eight years ago and of suffering from the ever-present thought that the police were after him. According to Oldham, he forged a check for $100 on the Bay State Trust Co. of Boston.

Dan Patch Equals World's Record.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 4.—Dan Patch equalled the world's pacing record, going the mile in 1.59 1/4, equalling Star Pointer's time. The mile was made with a runner at his side. No regular meeting is being held here, and it is not thought the record will stand.

Run Down On Trestle By Train.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 7.—Mrs. John Dolan was walking on a trestle a few miles from the city, holding by the hand her 6-year-old daughter. Behind her were her daughter Lizzie, aged 9, and Lillian Mariotti, also 9. A train came up from the rear, struck the two older girls and killed them instantly. The mother with the younger child jumped into a canal alongside the track. She and the little one were saved uninjured.

Colonel Henderson at Point of Death.

Dubuque, Iowa, Nov. 6.—Colonel D. B. Henderson, former speaker of the national house of representatives, is at the point of death. He has been removed to a hospital. Physicians say an operation may be performed in a last attempt to save the life of Mr. Henderson, who is suffering from partial paralysis.

Industrial Exposition For Atlanta.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 7.—About 50 leading business men of Atlanta met and decided that an industrial exposition of the resources of the south will be held in Atlanta in 1910. A meeting to form a permanent organization is to be held within a few days.

Judge Faxson's Widow Dead.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Mary Hughes Bridges Faxson, widow of former Chief Justice Faxson, died last evening at her home at Bycot House, Bucks county.

Killed in Navy Department Elevator.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Margaret McIlvaine, 35 years old, a char woman, was instantly killed in an elevator at the door of the office of the secretary of the navy. The elevator was in charge of a watchman instead of the regular conductor and as the woman entered the cage she stumbled, the elevator suddenly started up and her head, which protruded from its door, was caught between the floor of the elevator and the ceiling of the building.

Fitzsimmons and O'Brien Matched.

New York, Nov. 7.—Bob Fitzsimmons, of this city, and Jack O'Brien, of Philadelphia, were matched in this city to battle for heavy-weight pugilistic honors before the Yosemite Athletic Club in San Francisco, on a date to be selected between December 20 and December 31. The men will fight for 60 per cent of the gross receipts, divided on the basis of 75 per cent to the winner and 25 per cent to the loser.

Medical.

SCROFULA

It is commonly inherited.

Few are entirely free from it.

Pale, weak, puny children are afflicted with it in nine cases out of ten, and many adults suffer from it.

Common indications are bunched in the neck, abscesses, cutaneous eruptions, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, rickets, catarrh, wasting, and general debility.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA AND PILLS

Eradicate it, positively and absolutely. This statement is based on the thousands of permanent cures these medicines have wrought.

"My daughter had scrofula, with eleven sores on her neck and about her ears. Hood's Sarsaparilla was highly recommended and she took it and was cured. She is now in good health." Mrs. J. H. Jones, Parker City, Ind.
