Bellefonte Pa. Nov. 10, 1905.

lished unless accompanied by the real nat

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-Clement Dale Esq., had a new roof put on his bouse the past week.

-Only five days more until the opening of the deer hunting season.

- Toner Hugg's candy store at Miles burg was burned on Sunday morning.

--- Turkeys made their appearance in market, on Saturday, a sure sign that Thanksgiving day is not far off.

-The cold and inclement weather of the past week has put a stop to the work on the soldiers' monument.

-The Burke-McCann company, a ten twenty and thirty cent attraction, will be at Garman's three days next week.

-Memorial services over the death of the late Andrew Lucas were held in the Salvation Army hall, Tuerday evening.

-Now that the election is over it he hooves everylody to dup politics for the time being and devote the time to husiness

-Don't forget the doll bazaar and fair to be led in Petriken hall next week by the ladies of the W. C. T. U. It will be the very place to buy Christmas presents.

Mrs. J. M. Dreker was admitted to the Bellefonte hospital, last week, and on Saturday morning underwent a serious operation. Her condition since is very favorable for a speedy recovery.

Mis. Hutchinson, on east Howard street, has improved the dramage of her property by digging a large cess pool at the corner on Penn street, in towhich a four inch sewer pipe will be laid.

-All members of the Bellefonte Castle, Knights of the Golden Engle, are requested to attend the meeting next Tuesday evening, November 14th, as there will he business of special importance to trans-

-The Bellefonte school hoard has decided to enforce the compulsory attendance act and parents who have children under sixteen years of age not in school have been notified to see that they attend, as the law will be enforced.

-George Grav, of Milesburg, was eighty-four-years old, last Saturday, and his friends gave a party in honor of the celebration. Among those present were nine children, seventy-one grand-children and forty-four great grand children.

- A new store is to be opened in the Bush Areade in room next to Doll's bakery by Mr. H. L. Finkelstine of Harrisburg which will in general be a 5 and 10 cent store with side line of notions, toys, house furniture, novelties, hosiery, china, etc.

W. Galer Morrison has moved his family from Curins Works to his new east Bishop street where he is now cosily esconced for the winter, though he still goes down to Curtin every day to do his part in running the store of Morrison and Glenn.

-The paving of High street by the Pennsylvania railroad company, near the passenger depot here, is an improvement that might well be emulated in some other portions of the town; especially as it can now be seen just how great the improvement is.

-Mr. and Mrs. Benner W. Way have issued cards announcing the marriage of their daughter Ida May to Philip Benner Meek. The wedding having taken place on the first day of November at the Way home at Waddle. Benner Meek is a son of D. L. Meek, of Waddle's.

-John Nolan, son of the late Jerry Nolan, moved his family from Tyrone to Bellefonte, last week, and is now occupying the Keichline house on Thomas street, formerly occupied by Christ Young. Mr. Young has stored his furniture and will spend the winter with his wife's father, Mr. David Barlett.

-The Bellefonte fish batchery is a busy as well as an interesting place these days, the force of men in charge being engaged in a moving the spawn and placing is in the batching troughs. With good luck five mill on trout fry should be turned out from the Bellefonte hatchery next spring.

-The Panthers will come out of their lair bright and early, next Tuesday morning, and hie away to the wilds of the Alleghenies where, in the vicinity of Fisher's Hill, and among a lot of other hills, they will trail for deer. May they return, November 30th, heavily laden with the choicest

-The ladies of the Reformed church with their usual phenominal financial suc cess, closed their country store Saturday night with a clear two bundred and fifty dollars to add to there chapel fund, which building they hope to begin in the early Spring on the ground reserved for it directly back of the church.

-John McCoy with a couple of friends went up on the mountain, above McCoy's works, last Friday, to hunt for wild turkeys. "Duffy" had his two dogs along and they proved equal to the emergency, chasing up a flock of fourteen nice turkeys which flew across to the other point of the mountain, but none of the hunters even saw them.

-At its annual session in Philadelphia, last week, of the general committee on church extension of the Meshodist church an appeal was made for churches in four college towns, one of which was State College, this county. This is deemed neces-Metholist stuleats attending the college. family of seven children and two brothers, to see the struggle.

LONG -Mr. George Long, an aged and highly respected citizen of Center county, passed away at his home in Howard, Pa., Thur-day evening, November 2nd, after a proto nged illness of more than six months. Deceased was born at Snow Shoe, nearly 7 9 years ago and belonged to a family of en children, all of whom preceded him to the grave but one sister and brother.

Until last spring Mr. Long enjoyed robust health. About a week before his death he became paralyzed in his right side the end. He lived in Howard since a child of five years and spent his long and useful Coleville. life there. As a citizen he was held in high esteem by all who knew him. He was a stone mason by trade, and such was his skill as a mechanic that his services were sought far and near.

When but nine years of age he was converted and soon thereafter joined the Methodist Episcopal church, remaining a faithful member of that communion until the day of his death. He filled every and at the time of his death was a member of the board of trustees

Mr. Long was thrice married and is survived by his third wife, Mrs. Annie Rothrock; one daughter, Mrs. William Shank, of Bradford, Pa.; one brother, John, of Be llefente; one sister. Mis Mary Price, of Altoona; seven grand children, and eight great grand children.

The funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcolal church at Howard, the pastor, Rev. E M. Aller, officiating, assisted by Rev. J. F. Shuliz Interment was made in the cemetery at B. Hefonte, on Sunday, where Rev. J A Wood Jr., performed the last sad rites at the grave.

McGINLEY. - Mrs. John McGinley died in the Bellefonte hospital, between six and seven o'clock, Sunday evening, after an illness of about a month with peritonitis and other ailments, during which time she underwent two operations. Deceased, whose maiden name was Miss Effie Hamilton, was aged 42 years. She was married to John A. McGinley thirteen years ago, the result of which union was one child, Hester, who is about twelve years of age.

Mis. McGinley was one of those highearted, sunny-dispositioned women, whom it was a privilege and a pleasure to know. Though her pathway through life was not a hed of roses, owing to a couple years unfortunate illness of her husband, she bore all ber trials with christian fortitude always trusting in a Supreme being and hoping for brighter days to come. And now, when happier days were her lot it is greatly de ploted that her death followed, just as she reached the full bloom of matured

In addition to her daughter she is survived by her husband and a large number of relatives. The funeral was held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. John A. Wood officiated and interment was made in the Union cemetery.

day morning, after a lingering illness with that latal disease consumption. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Poorman, of Boalsburg, and was but twenty-six years of age. In addition to her husband she is survived by two small children; her parents and one sister and a brother, Mrs. Harry Markle, of Waddle, and Sydney Poorman, of near Centre Hail. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, Rev. Stonecypher officiating at the services. Interment was made in the Boalsburg cemetery.

-The people only who have been to the Epworth League's chicken and waffle suppers know what a delicious supper a waits them in the lecture room of th chuich this evening.

HARNISH .- Antis B. Harnish died at the home of his son Harry, in Lock Haven Wednesday night of last week, after an illness of more than a year with general debility, aged 78 years. Deceased was an old soldier and a native of Centre county. In addition to his son, with whom he made his home, he is survived by two sisters and three brothers, as follows: Mrs. F. T. Mich. a-ls, of Lock Haven, Mrs. Kate Showers, Bellefonte; Jacob, of Pine Grove Mills; William, of Hecla, and John M, of Miles burg. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon.

GREGG .- Miss Ellen Gregg died at the home of her sister, Mis. G. Dogs y Greeen, at Briarly, in Buffalo Run valley, at 9 o'clock Friday morning, after a long illness with a complication of diseases. Deceased ing her active years of life much loved and respected by all who knew her. The funeral was held at 11 o'clock, Monday morning, and was private. After services at the house the remains were brought to Bellefonte and interred in the Union cemetery.

CLARK.-Mary Clark, wife of W. M. Clark, of Liberty township, died on Friday morning after a brief illness. Deceased was past sixty years of age and was a woman held in high esteem by all who knew her. She is survived by a large family of children, mostly grown up. The funeral was held, at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning, interment being made in the cemetery at Blanchard.

TATE. - Mis. Mary Tate, widow of the a e William Tate, of Huntingdon Fornace, died at her home in Spince Creek valley, Oc ober 29 h, from infirmities of old age, she being 75 years old. Deceased was a woman well known by many people game before the contest with Dickinson, at

WAITE .- Mrs. Florence Waite widow of the late John Waite, died at the Bellefonte hospital, at noon Saturday, after a number of week's illness with a complication of dis-

Decraved was aged 29 years and was daughter of the late Jacob Cole, of Coleville. She was united in marriage to John Waite, who died less than two years ago, leaving her with one small daughter, Miriam. She is also survived by the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. William Sprankand remained in a helpless condition until le, Mrs. Arthur Eckley, Carrie, Jennie, Vada, Gussie, Otterbein aud Darius, all of

The funeral was held, Tuesday morning, interment being made in the Union cemetery.

-Miss Mildred G Smith has issued invitations for cards for Thursday, November sixteenth.

- C. W. Boozer, who the past couple years has been with the Commercial telephone company at Gentre Hall, has resignoffice in the gift of the church to laymen, ed his position and gone to Burnham to engage in brick laying as being more

> -Only an average house greeted Campbell Stratton in 'The Sign of the Four," at Garman's Monday night, and those who were there were impressed with the fact that there was plenty of room for improvement in the company.

- Rabbus are said to be unusually plentiful down about Millheim where a number of the hunters already have scores this line. All exhibits will be fittingly arof from twenty five to thirry and upwards ranged by a committee in charge so as to to their credit. Pheasants are not quite so pie antiful while wild turkeys are scarce.

- The fourth quarterly meeting of the Centre county Pomona Grange will be held at Centre Hall, November 28th. This will be an important meeting as the election of officers for the ensuing year will be made and the report of the encampment committee submitted.

- It may be of interest to quite a few persons in Bellefonte to know that Harry P. Bush who has been away the past winter, as well as much other valuable innine years, sailed from Valparaiso, Cinle formation that every teacher should read on the 4 h of October for America expecting to land on or about the 20th of November. Harry's business interests have been in Valparaiso for the past four years.

- Washington camp P. O. S. of A., of Salona, will celebrate the tenth appiversary of its organization by giving an entertainment in the methodist church there this evening. A good program has been of which will be an address by W. I. occasion. Swoop Esq., of Clearfield, the state presi-ly of Philipsburg but now of Oak Grove, HOMAN. - Mrs Charles Homan died at her afternoon, the remains being taken to Ail. Ashville after December first.

- Aaron Thomas, of Centre Hall, makes a business of growing Belgian har s pens with wire netting in front and were supposed to be safe from the depredaweek some dogs made a raid on the pens. broke through the wire netting and killed one hundred and fifty hares

-The railroad from the Lewisburg and Tyrone road at Pleasant Gap to the Wniterock quarries is about completed and it will not be long before operations there will be in full swing. Two kilns are about completed and two more well under way while the walls of two more are up. It is expected that the battery of six kilns will be completed and in operation before severe winter weather sets in.

-The Curtin township hunting club, which includes such well known dead-shots as Bob Mann, Lew and John Heverly, Sam and Jake Bathurst, Jake Heaton, Al Shawley and Bob Confer have everything in readiness for their annual deer hunt this year. They will camp on Panther run, in the Scootae region, and will go out next Tuesday, the 14th, so as to be all fixed up and ready for the opening of the season the following morning.

-Miss Ida Haldeman, formerly of this place but la e of Tyrone, has just completed a course of training in the missionary training school at Nyack, N. Y., and will shortly sail for China to take up missionary work in that benighted land. Including Miss Haldeman Tyrone claims the diswas 67 years of age and was a woman dur- tinction of having three women missiona ries in the field; the two others being Miss Florence Dayton, also in China, and Miss Fannie Buck in Central America.

-John D. Sourbeck now has his candy factory in the basement of Petriken hall in full swing turning out toys of all kinds. shapes and sizes, as well as other kinds of candy for the holiday trade; and as an attraction for the small boy and girl that place has now not an equal in town, for what youngster can resist the temptation to stand outside and gaze through the window at the piles of different colored toys,

-- Last Saturday se emed to be a hard luck day for most of the big college foot ball teams and along with them State went down to defeat before Annapolis just when all her supporters thought she would have walkover, the score being 11 to 5. Tomorrow State is scheduled to play Geneva on Beaver field and as this will be the last Williamsport, a good crowd should be there

CENTRE COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE. has completed arrangements for the fiftyninth annual teachers' institute, which will be held in the court house here, next week, November 13th to 17 h inclusive. A good corps of instructors has been secured for the week which includes the following: Dr. D. C. Murphy, of Slippery Book, Pa.; Supt. James M. Conghlin, Wilkesbarre; Supt. H. C. Krebs, Plainfield, N J .: Prof. C. H. Albert, Bloomsburg, and Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, Bellefonte, with Prof. Philip H. Meyer, of Bellefonte, musical director, and Miss Bessie M. Dorworth, pianist.

The entertainments will be as follows Wednesday evening, November 15th, 'The Lyric Glee Club." Thursday evening. November 16th, lecture: "We the Prople," by William Hawley Smith, author of "The Evolution of Dodd."

The institute will be larger this year than ever before as the number of teachers in the county now aggregate 305, and all of them will be expected to attend, unless there is a very good reason why they will be unable to do so. .

The enrollment of teachers will begin immediately after the arrival of the first trains, Monday morning, so that everything will be in readiness for the opening of institute at 2 o'clock p. m. A new feature of the institute this year will be the display exhibition of the best work of the pupils, and teachers are urged to bring along the best work of their scholars in show to the best advantage.

The officers of the institute, are: President, David O. Esters; vice president, J. E Wagner; secretary, Miss Maime Bell: enrolling clerks, Irvin O. Noll and Frank W. Dillen; ticket agent, James B. Strohm. In the institute manual, which has been sent to every teacher in the county will be found a full list of all the committees as well as a complete list of the time and place for holding the various local institutes throughout the county the coming and know

HUDSON-ZIEGLER. - Quite a fashionable wedding took place at 6 o'clock Thurs. day evening of last week, at the home of Mrs. Henrietta Foster, of Philipsburg, the occasion being the marriage of her granddaughter, Miss Henrietta Foster Ziegler to William C. Hud on, of Ashville, N. C. The house, which was thronged with invited both came home for Tuesday's election. prepared for the occasion, the chief feature guests, was beautifully decorated for the

The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. P. Miller, of the Preshyterian church. -John Vinton, the seventeen year-old Mrs. F. C. Todd, a sister of the bride, was son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vinton, former. matron of honor, her only attendant, while the groom's best man was his brother, Hodied there on Wednesday of last week of ratio A Hudson, of Ashville. Following typhoid fever. In addition to his parents a delicious wedding dinner Mr. and Mis. he is survived by two brothers and two Hudson departed on the night train on a sisters. The funeral was held, Fildey brief wedding tour, and will be at home in

STEWART-REED. - Quite a pretty wedding was celebrated, at noon on Wednesday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert for market. The hares were kept in strong Reed, on Buffalo Run, when their daughter, Miss Katharine, was united in marriage to A. T. Stewart, of Altoona. The tions of other animals, but one night last ceremony was performed by Rev. D. K. Kapp in the presence of a house full of invited guests. The bride is a charming young lady and held in high esteem by all who know her. The groom is an industrious young man and holds a good position as clerk in a large store in Altoona, in which city they will make their future

STONEBRAKER-ETTERS.- Dr. Samuel Lee Stonebraker, of Sandy Ridge, and Miss Catharine Elizabeth Etters, of Olivia, were quietly married at the M. E. parsonage, Port Matilda, Wednesday, November 1st, by Rev. Darkee. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Scott Sassaman, of Vail. The groom is a practicing physicion at Sandy Ridge, where the young couple will take up their residence.

BECK-CHARLTON. - Jerry Bock, of Philipsburg, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Charlton, of Wynburne, were married, Wednesday evening of last week, at the M. E. parsonage at Munson, Rev. W. C. Charlton efficiating. Both young people are well known and highly esteemed in the communities in which they lived.

CHANGE IN SCHEDULE -The winter time table on the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania went into effect, on Monday, and there are slight changes in the time of four trains which passengers should make a note of. The morning train, both east and west, runs on the old time, but No. 3, which formerly left here at 230 p. m., now leaves at 2 45, and returning arrives here at 5.20 instead of 5 10. The night train which left here at 6 40 now leaves at 7 05 and returning arrives in Bellefonte at

THAT DOLL BAZAAR.-Just now the ladies of the W. C. T. U. are holding their annual doll bazaar and fair in their rooms in Petriken hall and it is truly remarkable what a display of inanimate babies is to be found on exhibition there. If you have little friends, you want to make a Christmas present you couldn't do better than to give them one of those beautiful dolls. Then there is an abundance of other fancy work suitable for older persons. Visit the fair and you will be sure to buy.

Of the 695 pupils enrolled at the West Coester Normal school this year Miss Josie P. White, of this place, is the only one from Centie county.

-Henry Unl and Miss Annie Shaffer, | -County Superintendent David O. Eiters of Madisonburg, were granted a marriage license in Lock Haven, last Friday.

-According to a notice in another column the parties who have been piffering pictures from the various froms in the Brockerhiff house had better quietly return same and refrain from any more such

- Mis. Amelia Love, widow of the late Winfield Scott Love and a sister-in-law of Judge John G. Love, of this place, lefs the latter part of last week for Mexico ou a visit to her son, William, who is in husiness in that country but whose health has not been very good of late. Mrs. Love is well known in the upper end of the county where she was born and raised and b r many friends will wish her a pleasant trip and safe return.

News Purely Personal.

-Col. E. R. Chambers with his daughter Helen, spent Thursday and Friday in Altoon -Mrs. Thomas Jennings, of Mannington, W Va., is visiting friends in Bellefonte

-Isaac Longacre came home from Pottstown to vote and pay a visit to his family here. -Gen. James A. Beaver and Col. J. L. Spans ler were Lock Haven visitors on Sunday. -Mrs. Samuel Wallach, of New York, is visit ing at the Emil Joseth home on High street -Harris Cook was one of the Bellefonte boys ho came home from Altoona for the election. -Herb Hassinger came in from Pittsburg, last Saturday, to be present for Tuesday's election. -Fred Trafford, son of John Trafford, came up from Williamsport to cast his first vote on Tues-

-Mrs. Cassie Tanner, of this place, attended Creighton. the funeral of Mrs. James H. Baird, at R nove on Sunday.

-Hon. A. A. Stevens and A. G. Morris, of T yrone, transacted business in Bellefonte, on Wednesday.

-Miss Catharine Dale, daughter of Dr. J. Y Dale, of Lemont, has gone to Spartansburg, S. C., for the winter.

-Miss Elizabeth B. Meek went Monday to Atlantic City, where she may spend the few weeks until Thanksgiving. -Ward Fleming, who is now taking a law course in the University of Pennsylvania, was home for the election.

-Mrs. Morris Otto came down from Niagara Falls, Friday, and was a guest of Mrs. Hamilton Otto until Monday noon.

-Harvey McClure, son of James I. McClure, came home from Youngstown, on Sunday, to be here for the election on Tuesday. -Dr. J. C. burn Rogers of the State hospital at Hazleton, spent a few days the past week visiting his mother on allegheny street. -Harry C. Weaver, of Philadelphia, and Philip B. Weaver, of Princeton, sons of J. C. Weaver,

-Charles Haines came in from Beaver Falls, on Saturday, for a brief visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Haines, in this place. -Orin Ishler, who holds a good position in Wilkinsburg, visited his parents, ex-sheriff and Mrs. W. A. Ishler, in this place the past week. -Hon. Henry Wetzel returned home, the latter part of last week, from West Virginia where he is engaged on a U. S. surveying expedition -Dave Meek, of Tyrone, stopped in Bellefonte a short time Monday on his way home from a weeks rest with friends in Elmira, N. Y.

-Miss Ella Rhone left Monday for Wilmington, for a short time before going to New York for the -Mr. Charles McCafferty, of Philadelphia, was Bellefonte visitor the past week -coming here, we suppose, to see how the election would go on Tuesday. -Mrs. Laura Strunk came up from Howard, on cidentally spent a couple hours with friends in -Frank Shaughensey, son of Mr. and Mrs.

Thomas Shaughensey, Jr., of Howard street, came nome, on Sunday, for a brief visit as well as to vote on Tuesday. -Miss Mary Bradley departed, on Monday, for Philadelphia, where she will take a five months urse n music. Leaving her organ in charge of Miss Dora Myers -Mr. Tommy Waddle, of Jersey Shore, the youngest old man who comes into our midst, was in Bellefonie this week called here by the funeral of Mrs. John McGinley. -Mr. Robert Urell of the Bush house, went last Friday to see his people and friends in Tioga county, and indirectly to put his shoulder to the Democratic wheel. -John W. Hess, of Altoons, was in town Tuesday to visit his father Michael Hess Esq., of Willowbank street, and contribute his share to ward lifting the lid on the State Treasury. -Ed. and Frank Woomer, sons of Mr. and Clearfield, arrived home, Saturday, for a visit wit their parents and to vote on Tuesday. -Harry T. Fitzgerald, who is now traveling for a large wholesale dental house in Columbus Ohio, spent Sunday in Bellefonte in the interest of his trade and also on a brief visit with his parents.

Mrs. John Woomer, who are now employed in

-J. G. Nighart, of Johnstown, made a visit of a few days this week, with his friends in Milesburg and Bellefonte, for the same reason that brought back to Old Centre many of our good Democrats.

-Mrs. Joseph Ceader, Mrs. Mollie Valentine Mrs. Frank Montgomery and Mrs Wm. A. Lyon all went down to Philadelphia Monday, possibly to see the political fight on there and possibly to do some shopping. - Howard Sergent, of Philipsburg, was a busi ness visitor in town on Wednesday and had he been "it" himself he couldn't have been more pleased than he was over the election of that White triend of his. -Sheriff and Mrs. H. S. Taylor with the former's mother will leave this morning tor Philadelphia for a few day's trip of sight-seeing and pleasure, among which will be the Pennsy va nia-Harvard foot ball game tomorrow. -Mr. and Mrs. David O. Etters with thei family lett Belletonte Thursday for their new home at State tollege. We regret indeed this move of Mr. Etters' but congratulate the people of State College upon what they have gained. -Among the young men of Bellefonte who came home to vote, on Tuesday, were Bert Blair of Philadelphia; Roger T. Bayard, of Ashtola Thomas Fleming, of Beaver Falls, and Edward Fleming, Logan Long and Edward Gross, of

-Jerome G. Harper, who is now in the employ of the krie railroad com, any, and at present stationed at Bellast, N Y., came home on Sunday to help swell the Democratic vote, on Tuesday Railroad construction work must agree with Jeronie as he looks the very picture of health and says he never felt better in his life. He returned to Belfast on Tuesday.

INSTITUTE ENTERTAINMENTS. - Superintendent Etters has arranged for only two entertainments during institute next week and those on Wednesday and Toursday evenings. The Lyric Glee Club will be the attraction, Wednesday evening, and it is said to be very good. Rev. Hovis, of Union Mills, Ind , said: "The concert last night was the best ever given here and The Lyric Glee Club will always be welcome." This is only one of many similar testimonials.

Of William Hawley Smith, author of 'The Evolution of Dodd,"who will becure on "We the People," on Thursday evening, the Milwankee Sentinel says: "Mr. Smith beholds with eyes that are beaming with laughter or filled with tears, and his mind catches and translates the most commonplace things which are beautiful and a joy forever."

The price of admission to each of the above entertainments is but 50 cents and the court bouse should be crowded each night.

--- The new Methodist church at Mackeyville was dedicated on Sunday with impressive services. The old church which stood for more than twenty years, was destroved by fire just a year ago. At the time the pews, cushions and furniture was saved. The new church was built at a cost of $2,800, of which amount all but about $700 had been pledged. At Sunday's servic s $713 were raised so that the church was dedicated free of debt. The dedicaory sermon was preached by Rev. J F. Anderson, of Altoona, while other ministers who took part were Revs. B. B. Uhl, G. A. Johnson, I. J. Reeser and Samuel

The Ladies Aid society of the Preshyterian church have under way arrangements for a musicale, to be given in the court house, Friday evening, November 17 h, that should be a rare treat to all music lovers. Those from a distance who will take part are Miss Marie Stoddart, a musical artist of exceptional ability, of New York; Mr. Tollefser, the violinist, of New York, and Mr. Daniels, pianist, Williamsport. Mr. John Hosterman, of this place, will sing one or more pieces. The price of admission will be but 50 cents.

-Last Friday afternoon Drs. Kilpatrick and Sebring drove out above Runville, near the foothills of the Alleghenies, on a quail hunt. That they knew where to go was proven by their game bag when they returned in the evening with a string of twelve fine quail and two woodcock. And they showed the birds, too. This is probably the most successful half day's hunt of any two sportsmen in the county.

-Dave Wireman, with Frank C, won two races at Baltimore last week, the 2 18 pace and 2 20 trot, for each of which the purseswas $500. The fastest time made in the 2 18 event was 2 153. Mart B. Garman was along with Dave and it would not be at all surprising if he cleaned up a small stake on the side.

-The funeral of the late A. L. Bolger, of Philipsburg, was held on Saturday after

PICTURES STOLEN. -Saturday night another valuable picture was taken from the office of the Brockerhoff bouse. Having lost so many pictures a suitable reward Monday, to do some winter shopping and in- will be paid for information that will lead to the apprehension of the thieves

H. S RAY, Proprietor.

Sale Register.

Nov 23RD—At the McKnight farm, on the Buffalo Run r ad, near Hunter's Park, Horses, Cows, Young cattle, lersey Bull, implements and all necessary farm accessories. Sale at 10 o'clock a.m. Wm. Goheen, Auc.

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening. -Mixed new lour-Winter, Per Br'l. -Favorite Brands. 11.00m 12 50 7.0@14.00

Rellefonte Grain Market. Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, The following are the quotations up to six 'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes

Barley, per bushel....... Fround Plaster, per ton ckwheat, per Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.

Potatoes per bushel.

The Democratic Watchman.

I'ublished every Friday morning, in Bellefonte, Pa., at $1.00 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $1.50, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county unless paid for in advance. Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un-less paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertig-ing by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows:

SPACE OCCUPIED One inch (12 lines this type. |$ 5 | $ 8 | $ 16 7 | 10 | 15 10 | 15 | 20 12 | 20 | 30 20 | 35 | 55 35 | 55 | 100 Advertisements in special column 25 per cent

l'ransient advs. per line, 3 insertie cal notices, per line. and dispatch. The Watchman office has bee itted with Fast Presses and New Type, everything in the printing line can be exe