Extra Session Penna. Assembly. Called by Governor Pennypacker to Enact Reform.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 13.-Governor Pennypacker has called an extra ses-Bion of the legislature, to convene on January 15. The governor's action was a great surprise to his official associates, although it had been rumored that he would reconvene the legislature in extra session. Those who profess to have the governor's confidence ridiculed the report. The legislation which the governor suggested should be considered has been urged by the reform parties in the state for some time.

Following is a copy of the governor's proclamation:

"By virtue of the authority vested in me by article 4, section 12, of the constitution, I, Samuel W. Pennypacker, governor of Pennsylvania, do hereby convene the general assembly of the commonwealth in extraordinary session, to meet in the capitol at Harrisburg, on Monday, January 15, A. D. 1906, at 2 o'clock p. m. of that day, to consider legislation upon the following subjects:

"First-To enable contiguous cities in the same counties to be united in one municipality, in order that the people may avoid the unnecessary burdens of maintaining separate city governments.

"Second-To increase the interest paid by banks, trust companies and similar institutions for the use of state moneys; to impose proper limitations upon the amount of such moneys to be held by each of such institutions; to make it a misdemeanor to pay or receive, to offer or request any money or valuable thing or promise for the use of such moneys other than the interest payable to the state; and to adopt such other measures as may be necessary for the protection of the public

"Third-To reapportion the state into senatorial and representative dis-

"Fourth-To provide for the personal registration of voters.

"Fifth-To provide for the government of cities of the first class and the proper distribution of the power exercised by such municipalities.

"Sixth-To designate the amount to be expended each year in the erection of county bridges, and to take such other measure in regard to them as safety may require. "Seventh-To abolish fees in the offices of the secretary of the commonwealth and the insurance commissioner.

"Given under my hand and the great seal of the state, at the city of Harrisburg, this 11th day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and five, and of the commonwealth the one hundred and thirtieth. By the governor,

"SAMUEL W. PENNYPACKER." The first subject which the governor mentions is the Greater Pittsburg bill, for the consolidation of the citie Pittsburg and Allegheny. A bill of this kind was passed by the last legislature and was declared unconstitutional by the supreme court.

The governor has been giving careful thought to the state treasury management ever since the failure of the Enterprise National Bank, of Allegheny, in which there was $1,030,000 state money

Should the legislature adopt the suggestion of the governor for a reapportionment of the state it will make a remarkable change in the present senatorial and legislative districts, and aroma also inorease the representation for the house of representatives from Alleghery and certain other counties and decrease the representation in

Other legislation mentioned by the governor is the bill known as the Philadelphia "ripper," taking away from the mayor of Philadelphia the authority to appoint a director of public safety and a director of public works and authorizing these appointments to be made by councils.

In his last biennial message to the legislature the governor advocated the passage of a bill repealing fees for state offices and the legislature passed a law abolithing the fees of the attorney general and fixing his salary at $10,000 a year. Under the present system the fees of the secretary of the commonwealth amount to $15,000 and $20,000 a year and those of the insurance commissioner from $10,000 to $15,000 a year.

The governor's omission of ballot reform and improvement of primary elections was somewhat mystifying to prominent citizens who were gratified by his proclamation as far as it went.

CHILD'S AWFUL DISCOVERY

On Returning From School Found Parents Dead on Kitchen Floor.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 14.—Seven-yearold Elsie Jones, on returning from and his death is expected to occur at school to her home in South Scranton any time. Colonel Powell is a friend found her father and mother lying dead on the kitchen floor. The mother had been shot in each eye and the father in the left temple. A 38-calibre revolver was clutched in the father's right hand.

The shooting was doubtlessly done by the father, Frank Jones. He was a storekeeper, aged 29 years. Four years ago he and his wife were separated, but they became reconciled soon afterwards and had been living together, though not happily, according to the neighbors, ever since. Nothing is known as to what prompted the deed, but it is supposed it was the outcome of one of their numerous petty quarrels.

CHANGE IN A NATIONAL SONG

Why the Swiss Decided to Adopt a New Anthem. It is not often that a nation changes its national hymn, says Reynolds Newspaper. The Swiss have, however, formally announced their intention of so doing and of adopting the less well known Swiss psalm, or "Cantique Suisse," instead of the hitherto universally sung "O Monts Independants." The reason of this change is that the latter has always been rendered to Carey's melody of "God Save the King," which is identical also with the German "Heil Dir im Siegerkranz," and the Swiss are beginning to find this sameness too confusing. Henceforward, therefore, they will change their tune to one which shall be theirs only, and indeed the melody accompanying the words "Sur nos monts quand le soleil," etc., of the "Cantique Suisse" is if anything more inspiring than the old one.

It is also by a true son of the Alps one Zwyssig, to whom a monument was erected on the Lake of the "Four Cantons" a few years ago. That the "late" national anthem can have had but a small hold on the people's affections is proved by the way the "new' one is readily accepted on all sides.

SKEE CLUB TOURNAMENT.

Contest In Michigan Will Be Greatest of Its Kind In America. The Ishpeming Skee club is already preparing for its big annual tournament to be held Feb. 22 next, says an Ishpeming (Mich.) dispatch. With the practical assurance that President Roosevelt will be among the many thousands of spectators at the course, he having conditionally accepted an invitation last winter to be present, it is intended to make the event the greatest contest of its kind ever held in the United States. The tournament will be international in its scope. Not only will the best skee jumpers in America take partand these include a number of men who have won fame at national tournaments conducted under royal auspices in their native land-but it is practically certain that famous riders will make the trip from the Scandinavian peninsula especially to participate in the Ishpeming meet. The expenses of the foreign contestants will be advanced, and, in addition, they will doubtless share in the prizes, which will be sufficiently large to induce them to do their best.

The slide on which the skee jumping will take place is being greatly improved at considerable cost. The jumps will be well above the 100 foot mark.

A DE SOTO RECORD FOUND. Hidden For Three Centuries on the Shore of Lake Itaska.

after more than three centuries a record of the De Soto expedition has been found on the shore of Lake Itaska, says a St. Paul dispatch to the Kansas City Star. It was under a huge bowlder, where it has lain undisturbed. The record is written on the skin of an antelope. It was found by Cheshas suspended publication, having ter Gray, a farmer, who lives on the been absorbed by the Evening Times, | shore of Lake Itaska, which is a source of the Mississippi river. He will send the record to the Smithsonian institution in Washington.

The record, which is barely legible, is dated Aug. 9, 1547. It is signed by Ferdinand Villena and Sancho Cueva, members of the De Soto exploring party, who in the letter say they have named the lake, whence rises the great giver in which De Soto had been buried Liz Jesus peters. Lake De Soto.

DESKS OF FAMOUS MEN.

There Are Many of Them Scattered

About the Country. The desk of Salmon P. Chase, a plain piece of furniture made from mahogany, is in one of the rooms of the treasury department at Washington. There are many of these old desks scattered about the country, their chief claim to interest being that once some well known man leaned over them.

Alexander Hamilton's traveling desk, made of mahogany and measuring 12 by 16 inches and 10 inches high, is an interesting object. Upon this desk was written much of his literary work, and the worn green baize with which it is lined attests to the use to which it was put. There is a drawer in one side and several compartments for pens and
