Odell Bitterly Refutes Charges. Declares Mr. Hude's Statements Are Base Calumny Denew Also a Witness.

New York, Nov. 17.-Former Govas witnesses before the Armstrong legislative insurance investigation committee denied parts of the testimony of James Hazen Hyde in which their names were used. Mr. Odell in the course of his testimony called Mr. Hyde's statements "base calumny," and when he was asked whether he directly or indirectly had made threats to have the charter of the Mercantile Trust company revoked, his face flushed, and striking the arm of the witness chair with his fist, he exclaimed: "There is no truth in that statement, so help me God." Mr. Odell said no political pressure of his suit against the Mercantile Trust company, and that it was settled the same as suits brought by others. He said he had been advised by counsel any court would have awarded him more than he received in settlement.

He knew of the introduction of the have affected the Mercantile Trust company's charter, and while he did not suggest its introduction, he saw no objection to it. Mr. Odell denied that he ever made a statement to E. H. Harriman or any one else that retaliatory measures would be taken against the Mercantile Trust company. The witness said he and Mr. Harriman were personal friends, but that they had no business relations. He wrote a letter on behalf of Mr. Hyde's candidacy for the post of ambassador to France. This was at the request of William H. McIntyre, one of the vice accomplishment in abolishing food presidents of the Equitable Life Assurance Society.

Mr. Odell said he had never solicited political contributions, but possibly some moneys might have come to him through the national committee or Senator Thomas C. Platt, as the latter had always gathered together the funds in New York state except in the last vear. Senator Depew was examined with regard to his syndicate participation and his duties as counsel to the Equitable Society. Regarding the ambassadorship to Paris, Senator Depew said Mr. Hyde came to him and solicited his influence to secure the appointment. Senator Depew brought the matter to the attention of the president, although he told Mr. Hyde that he was too young, and the president said it was utterly impossible to make such an ap-in many bond syndicates of late years, Mr. Depew said he had realized very little profit from them, in fact only $1200, although he had $200,000 tied up at one time. He said he had a high regard for the abilities of James H. Hyde. and thought he earned his $100,000

Samuel S. McCurdy, assistant registrar of the Equitable, and not related to. the McCurdy's of the Mutual Life, said he had charge of the vouchers for legal ernor Benjamin B. Odell, Jr., and Unit- service. From him was gleaned a story ed States Senator Chauncey M. Depew of trouble in California in 1897, when the insurance commissioner of that state demanded an examination. Thousands of dollars were spent by the Equitable in this matter, as accounted by Mr. McCurdy, and he justified the expenditure on the ground that it would have cost the Equitable about $40,000 had no defense been made, hence the expenditure for counsel. He seemed to think the demands of the Calimornia commissioners were exorbitant. Gage E. Tarbell told of his 26 years' connection with the Equitable and his activities in the interest of the policyholders. He started as a solicitor in was brought to bear in the settlement Greene, N. Y., and later was given a general agency for the southern tier of counties of this state, with headquarters at Binghamton. He was opposed to money being spent for legislative that his claim was a just one and that purposes, and thought the policyholders in a body could defeat any legislation inimical to their interests. He said he had tried to interest the New York Ambler bill, which it is said, might Life and the Mutual Life in an agreement to appoint a committee of one to look after such matters, but the officers of the Mutual Life said it was impractical. Mr. Tarbell knew of no money expended for legislative purposes

Want National Pure Food Law. Washington, Nov. 18. - Secretary Wilson, of the department of agriculture, emphasized the necessity of a national pure food law in an address before the annual convention of official agricultural chemists, in session here. He complimented the chemists on their adulteration. While there are a few people, he said, who do not want to know that what they eat is pure, and who may be found importuning congress not to pass a pure food law, the secretary told the chemists he was sure the great majority of the American people were heartily in favor of the purity of the market basket.

STEAMER WRECKED, CREW LOST The Turbin Dashed to Pieces On

Rocks Off Nova Scotia Coast. Clarks Harbor, N. S., Nov. 21 .- The Norwegian steamer Turbin, with her captain and crew of about 16 men, is thought to have foundered in a terrific gale which swept over Nova Scotia last Friday. The coasting steamer Edna R., which arrived here from Mud Island, brought news that on Friday a large steamer, supposed to be the Turbin, struck Black Rock Ledge, off the south coast of the province, backed off in a few minutes and then disappeared in the raging sea. Persons on the island who saw the steamer strike on the ledge were a considerable distance away, and owing to the tremendous sea running it was impossible to launch a boat.

No person could be discerned aboard the craft, and so quickly did the steamer go down that no opportunity was given the crew to fight for their lives. No boat could have lived an instant in the sea that was running. While the craft hung on the rocks the seas made a clean breach over her. Suddenly a giant comber lifted her from her resting place, and the next instant she took the fatal plunge, carrying, it is believed, all on board down with her.

For months Beliefonte readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

Mrs. Emma J. Davis, of 246 E. Logan St., says: "I have a great deal of confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills and have already recommended them in a published testimonial in 1897. Itold how I had been relieved of kidney complaint and backache which had kept me suffering for years. Doan's Kidney Pills did this for me when other remedies had failed. Whenever I feel any symptom of my old trouble I send to F. Potts Green's drug store for a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills and it never requires more than a few doses to get me right."
