—Tuesday and Wednesday's rain raised the streams in Centre county.

Lemont.

Oak Hall's bustling miller is nursing one of Job's comforters this week.

Harrison K. Whitehill is slowly improving and will soon be out and around again.

Last week was the coldest up to date, and Tuesday of this brought snow, sleet and rain.

Mrs. Maude Jackson, of Philipsburg, is circulating among friends in these parts this week.

Henry Thompson had the misfortune to have two hogs die with the hog cholera last week.

John S. Dale and wife are enjoying a two week's visit among friends in Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Chas. G. Getz is showing the beautiful driving horse which he purchased of Edward Houser this week.

Nelson W. Williams and family and Henry F. Houtz and family Sundayed at the home of George Williams.

Mrs. Joseph Parker had the misfortune to fall down stairs, Thursday of last week, and was badly bruised but not seriously hurt.

The farmers are about ready for the winter with the corn all husked, the fodder stored away and apples and cider for the long winter nights.

Jesse Klingler bought of Mrs. Lena Wasson, the land that she owned adjoining his farm on the southeast this last week, which makes his farm large enough to handle with his two horses.

The Ladies Aid Society, of the M. E. church will hold a social at the home of Sam. Hazel, this evening, and they would be pleased to entertain all who will come and help along the good work.

Pine Grove Mention.

Mrs. Michael Segner and Mrs. John Allen are on the sick list.

Samuel Kimpfort and wife spent Sunday at Jim Kimpfort's home.

Charley Snyder is having his home re-roofed. James Hoover has the job.

J. R. Smith was in Bellefonte on Monday as Ferguson township's constable.

Barbara Krebs has sold her home on Chestnut street to Mrs. Emma Smiley.

Mrs. Birdie Rudy, of State College, visited friends at the Branch last Wednesday.

Judge Michael Hess drove up from Bellefonte, Tuesday, to help butcher.

W. H. Musser, of Bellefonte, was here last week looking after his large insurance business.

A. M. Brown is in West Virginia purchasing a car load of colts for the farmers in this section.

Merchant W. S. Ward is attending court this week as a witness in the Gatesburg litigation.

Charles Murray, of the Glades, moved his family to Ira Harpster's tenant house at Gatesburg.

Mrs. Robert Miller, of Tyrone, with her two bright little girls, visited at the J. Cal Sunday home last week.

Butchering is well on the way. Wm. H. Roush killed the brag porkers, two tipping the scales at eight hundred pounds.

C. M. Dale with his mother and little Raymond spent the beginning of the week over on Shavers creek with the Rutherforders.

David Osman, a freeman on the C. & C. road is at his parental home this week. His chum, Mr. Mack, is enjoying the hunting, too.

True Friends.

"A friend cannot be known in prosperity, and an enemy cannot be hid in adversity. True friends visit us in prosperity only when invited, but in adversity they come without an invitation."

Spring Mills.

The Springs Mills planing mill shut down last week for repairs.

The toll gate nuisance is abolished at last—high time. Tolls and tollgates belong to a past age.

Our stores are beginning to look like the Holidays. Christmas goods are being displayed in all of them.

The revival which commenced in the Evangelical church two weeks ago still continues. Attendance large with quite a number of converts.

At the repeated solicitations of their customers, Ripkas have added laundry work to their business being agents for the Milton steam laundry.

Butchering has commenced. As yet no very heavy porkers have been reported but very likely within the next week or ten days the reported avoidpools of some will more than astonish the natives.

Turkeys will be quite safe this year. Very few, so to speak, will grace the Thanksgiving dinner table. In this neighborhood turkeys are scarce and command high prices. But then we have chickens, pork ribs and sausage—who cares for turkeys?

On Wednesday evening last, Mr. and Mrs. John Lloyd gave a surprise party to their daughter Edith, it being the anniversary of her birthday. The company consisted of only a few friends and proved a delightful occasion. Miss Edith was the recipient of quite a number of handsome and useful presents.

Among the guests present were Ross Smith, Mabel and Eleanor Long, Anna Cummings, Mabel Finkle, Bessie Hoover, Mamie Barkley, Arch Decker, Sam Leitzell and E. Finkle.

Clerical Orders for 1906

Clergymen desiring such orders should make individual application for same on blanks furnished by the Company and which can now be obtained from the ticket agents. Applications should be sent to the general office of the company as soon as possible, in no case later than December 15th, so that orders may be mailed by December 30th, to all clergymen entitled to receive them.

Would Require Some Thought.

From the Chicago News.

Senator Penrose says "the Republican party in Pennsylvania has no apology to offer." It might have hard work to think up one that would cover the case.

Eighty-five Convicts Converted.
Joliet, Ill., Nov. 27. — Eighty-five convicts in the Joliet penitentiary were taken into the Roman Catholic church. Among the converts were men convicted of murder and other crimes, undergoing long sentences. The rites of confirmation were administered by Archbishop Quigley, of Chicago.

Washington, Nov. 28.—A report received here says the number of employees on construction work for the Panama canal now aggregates 17,000, about 4000 having been added to the force since the last report from the Isthmus. Of the 17,000 about 1500 are white Americans.

Oldest Woman In New York Dead.
New York, Nov. 28.—Mary Jane Harris, believed to be the oldest woman in the state of New York died at New Rochelle in her 112th year. Her grandmother was a full-blooded Indian, and she claimed to be a descendant of Pocahontas. Mrs. Harris was born in Georgetown, D. C. She leaves three sons, all of them past 70. The body will be taken to Virginia for burial.

LETTER TO H. P. HARRIS, BELLEFONTE, PA.—Dear Sir: A big mill owner, Spartansburg, S. C., wanted 5,000 gallons of paint, and bought by price; paid 5 cents less than ours; got a "lead-and-zinc" paint; but the lead was sulphate of lead, not carbonate. Sulphate costs about half; and covers about half.

That paint was adulterated about six times as much as the 5 cents paid for. He "saved" 5 cents; and it cost him 30.

On no; it cost him more than that; we forgot the labor. Can't work it out exactly; don't know how long it'll wear.

Short-measure besides; that alone was twice as much as his "saving" 5 cents.

It was thin, too; some loss there; don't know how much.

There was too much dryer in it. The maker made something on that; he didn't. Taking it altogether, he didn't make much by that 5 cents.

Go by the name; and the name is Devoe lead-and-zinc.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & Co.,
New York.
