THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

—It's getting to be the real thing now—this winter weather.

—Mrs. Mary Brown is quite ill at her home in this place.

—Jones' brothers have purchased the Central hotel at Philipsburg.

—This, the third week of court was not very largely attended.

—E. T. Roan, the grocer, has a new advertisement in this issue of the WATCHMAN.

—The Academy resumed work on Monday after a five days' Thanksgiving vacation.

—The steam heating company is having trouble making their gasoline pumping engine run.

—The granite curbing around the soldier's monument has been laid ready for the concrete paving.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Showers, of east Curtin street, are rejoicing over the arrival of a charming young daughter.

—Howe's moving pictures this year are said to be great. See them at Garman's on the night of December 14th.

—The ladies of the Evangelical church will hold a chicken and waffle supper tomorrow evening. Everybody invited.

—James Resides, who has been farming the Dr. Blair farm in Union township, has moved with his family to Tyrone.

—Harry Aman was confined to his home on Bishop street the past week or more suffering with kidney trouble.

—It's a luxury that only the financially flush man can afford to ride in an automobile nowadays—at prevailing lively prices.

—A round table conference of public school superintendents and teachers will be held in Philipsburg this evening and tomorrow.

—Hard P. Harris has so far recovered from his recent attack of appendicitis as to be out and around again, though still a little weak.

—Monday morning ground was broken for the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania's new depot, corner Lamb and Water streets.

—In a change in their advertisement Montgomery & Co., in today's WATCHMAN, announce many new things in gents clothing and furnishing goods.

—The first shipment of stone from the new Whitlock quarries at Pleasant Gap was made last Saturday. They will scarcely burn lime before the first of the year.

—The new Catholic convent is completed so far as the exterior is concerned and all that remains is the finishing of the interior to have it ready for occupancy.

—A Boyd Musser, of Soranton, is in Bellefonte this week overseeing the erection of a heavy steel trestle work at the new Whitlock quarries at Pleasant Gap.

—This was butchering week on east Lamb street, ex-county commissioner Daniel Heckman killing his porkers on Tuesday and county commissioner P. H. Meyer doing likewise on Wednesday.

—The collection taken up at the union Thanksgiving day service in the Methodist church amounted to fifteen dollars, which was turned over to Mrs. M. B. Garman, treasurer of the ladies auxiliary of the Bellefonte hospital.

—Mr. and Mrs. Burrows, of east Linn street, gave a birthday party for their children, Henrietta and Paul, last Friday evening, December 1st, which proved a most delightful affair. About twenty-five girls and boys were present and the evening passed away most pleasantly for all.

—The many friends of Mrs. Edwin F. Garman will be pleased to learn that she is recovering from the serious operation she recently underwent in a Philadelphia hospital. If she continues to improve as she has in the past her condition will be such that she can be brought home in ten days or so.

—Alf Baum, who several weeks ago underwent an operation in the Hayes sanatorium for appendicitis, has recovered and was discharged from that institution last Thursday. R. S. Bronse, who last week had a slight attack of the same ailment, has recovered and is to be found in his grocery store as usual.

—Bellefonters will be interested in learning that James R. Kinsloe, a nephew of Mrs. D. H. Hastings, is now located in Harrisburg as the local manager of the brokerage firm of William L. Bear & Co., who have their main office in Philadelphia with other branches in New York and Lancaster. Mr. Kinsloe has been in the brokerage business the past eight years or more and goes into his new position with experience that assures success.

—John Guisewhite took advantage of Thanksgiving day to butcher his "pigs." He killed three roosters that weighed in the aggregate over eleven hundred pounds. From time immemorial "butchering day" has been regarded very much of a holiday and the Guisewhite butchering day was made more so by the elaborate turkey dinner served which was partaken of by about twenty-five invited guests, not counting those who did the butchering. It is needless to say that all present enjoyed the repast to the very limit.

PASTORAL RELATION DISSOLVED.—A special session of the Huntingdon Presbytery was held in the Presbyterian church here, at 2:10 o'clock Monday afternoon, for the purpose of dissolving the pastoral relations existing between Rev. Dr. William Laurie, D. D., LL. D., and the Bellefonte Presbyterian church. The session was opened with prayer by the moderator with the following ministers present: William Laurie, D. D., LL. D., Richard Crittenden, James P. Hughes, A. S. Carver, G. T. Gunter, William Jack, Ph. D., J. E. Irvine, Ph. D., W. H. Schuyler, Ph. D., W. K. Harnish, R. G. Williams and H. W. Koehler.

The following elders were present: Frank McCoy, Bellefonte; T. A. Appleby, Mount Union, and George Noll, Milesburg.

The following were, on motion of Dr. Laurie, introduced and invited to sit as corresponding members: Rev. J. A. Wood, of the Central Pennsylvania conference of the Methodist Episcopal church; Rev. A. M. Schmidt, of the Eastern synod of the Reformed church; Rev. A. Davidson, of the Allegheny conference of the United Brethren church; Rev. W. B. Cox, of the Central Pennsylvania conference, United Evangelical church; Rev. G. I. Brown, of the diocese of Harrisburg, Protestant Episcopal church.

The call for this meeting was issued by the moderator in accordance with chapter X, section 10, of the form of government to dissolve the pastoral relations between the Rev. William Laurie, D. D., LL. D., and Bellefonte church, and to do any other needful business connected with same.

Dr. Laurie requested to be released from the church of Bellefonte, giving his reasons for the same. Commissioners James Harris and J. L. Spangler reported that the church had consented to the release of its pastor and Mr. Charles M. McCurdy, the lay commissioner from the congregation, read the minutes of the congregational meeting together with the resolutions passed. After due consideration and expressions of regret for the action and esteem for the man by his fellow members of the presbytery, Revs. W. H. Schuyler, J. E. Irvine, R. G. Williams, W. K. Harnish, R. N. Crittenden, W. M. Jack, G. T. Gunter and Elder Appleby and Rev. A. M. Schmidt, for the ministerial association of Bellefonte, the request was granted, the dissolution to take effect December 31st, 1905. On motion Dr. Laurie was authorized to declare the pulpit vacant on the last Sabbath of this year.

The stated clerk was authorized to grant a letter of dismissal to Dr. Laurie to another presbytery should he so desire it before next stated meeting.

The Bellefonte church was given permission to supply its pulpit until the next meeting of the presbytery in April, 1906. The minutes were then read and approved after which presbytery adjourned with prayer.

In connection with Dr. Laurie's resignation as pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church it is only fair to the congregation to state that they have acted very generous and raised the sum of four thousand dollars which will be given Dr. Laurie as a gratuity at the close of his ministerial work in the church.

KILLED ON THE RAILROAD.—William H. Welch, a freight brakeman employed on the Tyrone and Clearfield branch of the Pennsylvania railroad, was the victim of an accident at the Summit, about three o'clock Wednesday afternoon, which resulted in his death at the Altoona hospital at 7:15 the same evening.

Welch was a member of a crew which were hauling a train over the Tyrone and Clearfield division and which had stopped at the Summit to do some shifting. He was riding a car back of the engine and while putting on a brake the shaft broke and he was thrown from the car to the track and had his left leg crushed to the hip. He also sustained a number of body abrasions and bruises. He was taken to the surgical room at the Tyrone station where he was attended by Dr. J. M. Gemmill, who advised his removal to the Altoona hospital. He reached the hospital about 5 o'clock and an examination showed that amputation of the crushed leg was necessary. The operation was performed as soon as possible and shortly after the leg had been taken off Welch passed away.

William H. Welch was a son of Robert and Elizabeth Welch, of Vail, a suburb of Tyrone, was born at Fowler, Centre county, and was aged about 29 years. He had been railroading for several years and was well known and respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Pennsylvania Railroad Relief association. He is survived by his wife and three children. He is also survived by his parents and the following brothers and sisters: F. T., of East Altoona; Charles and Joseph, of Tyrone; Mrs. Dora Woerner, of Tyrone, and Thomas and Agnes, at home. The remains were taken to Tyrone for interment.

CHARITY BALL.—The annual charity ball will be held in the armory, in this place, some evening during the week between Christmas and New Years, so make your engagements that you will be able to attend.

—D. P. Breon, of Millheim, has decided to shake the Centre county dust from off his feet and move to Jeannette, where he has secured a job as painter and paper-hanger.

—Mrs. S. A. Bell, who had been recovering slowly from a long illness, is again very critically ill at her home on Howard street.

—Only two more weeks until Christmas will be with us.

—How has the winter weather of the past few days suited you?

—The turkey gobbler that did not lose his head last week has been a happy bird ever since.

—Charles T. Noll and family have moved from the Crider home on Jail hill to the Hofer house on south Spring street.

—Grandmother Houtz, of Farmer's Mills, recently celebrated her 92nd birthday anniversary.

—George Woerner, of Morrisdale, claims to have killed the largest deer of the season—a twelve pronged buck that dressed 234 pounds.

—The hard rains of last week had the effect of raising the streams throughout the county, considerably, as well as filling up the many cisterns.

—Joseph T. Hanley, of Beech Creek, and Miss Mary Adams, of Julian, were married at Beech Creek, last Saturday, by Squire E. S. Mobley.

—A Christmas entertainment will be held on the evening of December 24th, in the Salem Reformed church in Penn township. The public in general is invited to attend and take part.

—W. H. Taylor secured the contract for carrying the U. S. mail from the depot to the postoffice, under the recent letting by the postoffice department, and began the contract December first.

—The injunction proceedings of the Pennsylvania railroad company against J. Edward Horn & Co., relative to the dispute over the right-of-way at One Mile run, near Philipsburg, which was to have been argued before Judge Orvis, on Monday, was continued until today.

—Thursday last week Will Reeder and Miss Annie Hassinger, of Roland, drove to Milesburg, where they were married by the Rev. Foss, of the Evangelical church. The attendants were the bride's brother, Charles Hassinger, and the groom's sister, Miss Verna Reeder.

—At a dinner given at the hotel Walton, in Philadelphia, last Thursday evening, by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Reilly, of that city, the engagement of Mr. Sedgwick Kistler, of Lock Haven, to Miss Bertha C. Kaul, of St. Mary's, was announced. All of the persons have friends in Bellefonte who will be pleased to know of the alliance.

—The Ebricht gun club, of Altoona, who had been hunting small game in the Seven mountains, passed through Bellefonte on their way home on Thanksgiving day. They had as the result of their hunt a string of forty-seven rabbits, sixteen pheasants and a wild cat. The party was composed of seven men and seven women.

—According to a very neat post card just received at this office we notice that one of the Sternberg boys is in the real estate, loan and insurance business at Oakland, Cal. Everyone here knows what a family of hustlers those boys are so if this particular one gets as rich as real estate people usually do it will not be much of a surprise.

—James Foust, of Altoona, agent for the State pure food department for this district, has received instructions from Dr. B. H. Warren, the pure food commissioner, to round up every dealer in yellow oleomargarine and prosecute them. This is in accordance with the recent decision of the Supreme court and dealers had better be on the lookout. Oleomargarine colored by any method in imitation of yellow butter is a violation of the law and subjects all those handling it to prosecution and a fine.

—What has become of that trolley line from here to State College movement and of the petition for a State highway between Milesburg and Bellefonte? Both these movements were sprung as surprises on the unsuspecting public and boomed in a way that led some to think that for once there might be something doing in both directions, but for weeks now not a word has been heard of either and there is only one conclusion to draw, and that is the usual one, that the bottom has dropped out of both projects.

—Quite a delightful birthday surprise party was given by Mrs. Shem Hackenberg, of Spring street, Friday evening, in honor of her husband's thirtieth birthday anniversary. Twenty-five guests were present and the evening was one of constant mirth and enjoyment. Mr. Hackenberg was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents. Most appetizing refreshments were served by Mrs. Hackenberg and when the guests departed at a late hour it was with the wish that Mr. Hackenberg would live to enjoy many more birthday anniversaries and that they might come about once a week.

—Miss Mazie J. Forster, of Aaronsburg, was one of a large household of guests who, on Tuesday, November 28th, attended the wedding of Edward Geary Kennedy, U. S. marshal for South Dakota with headquarters at Sioux Falls, and Miss Louise Dougal Duncan, the ceremony occurring at 8 o'clock in the evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Duncan, of Washington, D. C. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Radcliffe, the wedding being quite a society event. The maid of honor was Miss Margaret B. Gilmore, of Philadelphia. The Duncans were formerly residents of this part of the State and have many friends in Centre county.

STRAY SHOTS ON THE HUNTING SEASON.—The hunting season closed one week ago yesterday and all the deer hunters have returned home—many of them empty-handed and most of them with but little game to their credit. Whether it was the shortness of the season or whatever the cause the number of deer killed this season in Centre county was far below that of any season in past years. Last year the estimated number brought in by Centre county hunters in the four weeks of the open season was from one hundred to one hundred and twenty-five. This year the number did not exceed fifty and it is a question, if there was an accurate count, if it would aggregate forty deer killed within the confines of Centre county. Of course the very dry weather rendered the season a very unfavorable one, but then on a fairly accurate estimate there were fifteen hundred or more hunters out during most of the two weeks of the open season and with this unusual number of shots in the woods it would seem almost impossible for a deer to escape. So far as we have been able to get them reports from the various hunting parties and individuals are as follows:

The Panthers of this place, no deer; the Roosevelt club, of Ferguson township, three deer; the Modocs, of Harris, three deer; the Homan's, of Ferguson and College, one deer; the Riley party, of Boalsburg, three deer; Mr. Smith, of Shingle-town, one deer; the Jacksonville club, one deer, shot by M. S. Betz and a bear shot by David Kreager; the Hess party, of Philipsburg, two deer shot on Six Mile run; the Klondyke club, of Tyrone, one deer shot near Sandy Ridge; J. W. Hauser, of Altoona, a 200 pound buck, shot on Six Mile run; the Blue Ribbon of Boggs township, one deer; the Bob Mann party, three deer; the Pine Glen party, one deer; the Rolly boys, of Karthaus, four deer.

The Gentzel party, two deer; Penn Hall party, one deer; the Bradfords, one deer and three bear; Clayton Vonada, of Woodward, one deer; a party from Union county, two deer; a Coatesville party, one deer; Millheim party, one deer; Samuel Kerster, of Union county, four deer; Port Royal party, two deer; the Sober party, two deer; Sugar valley hunters, three deer; Irvin Zettie and A. F. Mock, of Gregg township, one deer; the Fye party from Moshannon, three deer and a bear; the Grove-Fleming party, three deer; Lewis brothers, of Eddy Lick, one deer.

KILLED ON THE RAILROAD.—David C. Calderwood, a brakeman on the Bald Eagle valley railroad, was the victim of an accident at an early hour, Monday morning, which proved fatal. The young man had been employed only recently and was making his second trip in the capacity of brakeman, on an east-bound freight train which left Tyrone about mid-night. In the vicinity of Port Matilda Calderwood attempted to jump on the moving engine, when he slipped and fell under the wheels which passed over both legs, crushing them badly; he was also out and bruised about the body. The unfortunate young man was taken to Altoona where he was placed in the hospital. His injuries were too serious, however, to permit any hope for his recovery, and about 11 o'clock he passed away. He was aged 20 years and went to Tyrone from Scotia. He boarded with his brother, E. E. Calderwood, in East Tyrone. His father resides near Barree. His mother is dead.

FUNERAL OF MRS. HANNAH HAMILTON.—The funeral of Mrs. Hannah Hamilton was held from her late residence on Willowbank street, at four o'clock Sunday afternoon. Rev. John A. Wood Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal church, had charge of the services and a large concourse of sorrowing friends was present. The remains were interred in the Hamilton lot in the Union cemetery. The pall-bearers were Philip and William Waddle, James Dawson, John McGinley, Clayton Brown and Charles T. Noll. Among those present from a distance were Thomas Waddle and Benner Waddle and son, of Jersey Shore; Mrs. Frank Felmeie, Lock Haven; Mrs. Mary Fees, Avis; Miss Julia Morris, Johnstown; Mrs. Sarah Buffington, Tyrone; Charles Wilson and son, and Mr. and Mrs. George VanDyke, Altoona.

HERE'S A CHANCE, GIRLS.—A young Sugar valley farmer, who very modestly calls himself a "young christian gentleman, who is fastidious," is advertising for a wife and wants a girl who will answer to the following specifications: Brown eyes, brown and heavy hair, very light complexion, very kind and mild disposition, a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, five feet five inches in height, weight about 135 pounds, a Yankee, very neat form, teeth like pearl—white, even and pretty; a good singer, must go in the best society, must be white, very respectable, smart, a good housekeeper, between eighteen and twenty years of age, kind-hearted, a jolly girl, full of fun and good references.

REV. REARICK TO BE INSTALLED.—Rev. W. M. Rearick will be installed as pastor of the Lutheran church in this place on Thursday evening, December 14th. The charge to the pastor will be delivered by Rev. W. K. Diehl, of Middleburg, president of the Central Pennsylvania Synod. The charge to the congregation will be delivered by Rev. J. M. Rearick, of Centre Hall. The installation will be public and all are cordially invited to attend.

—Mrs. Mary Schwartz recently purchased the farm of Adam Krumrine, near Tassenville, for $5,000. Foster Frazier, who now lives on the Fleisher farm recently purchased by ex-Sheriff Cyrus Druggart, will move on the Krumrine farm in the spring as tenant farmer.

—The ladies of the Lutheran church realized a tidy sum at their bazaar and oyster supper Wednesday and Thursday nights.

—The Centre county bar will enjoy a dinner at the Nittany Country club tomorrow night. The members will go down and return by special train.

—On Monday afternoon Ed. Bachelor and Eugene Brown, both of Philipsburg, jumped a freight train south on the Tyrone and Clearfield railroad and when in the neighborhood of Powlton they jumped off in order to seek warmer quarters in a box car, and were struck by a train going in the opposite direction. Brown escaped with a splintered knee cap but Bachelor's knee was fractured, and his left leg broken and his left hand so crushed it had to be amputated. Both boys are now in the Cottage hospital, Philipsburg.

News Partly Personal.

—Mr. Gearhard, of Hubersburg, and Homer and Maude Decker, of Pine Grove Mills, spent last Friday in Bellefonte the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Shem Hackenberg.

—Harry Lyon, of this place, one of the most industrious men in this section, dropped into the WATCHMAN office, on Monday, and had the tag in his paper shoved up to the middle of December, '06.

—Foster Gilroy, a staff correspondent of the North American spent Sunday and Monday in Bellefonte doing special work for his paper. He is a very genial and pleasant gentleman as well as a most versatile writer.

—When Mrs. Mary E. Dunkle, of Hubersburg, can't come to Bellefonte herself she sends that industrious son of hers and to both of them we are indebted for another year's advance subscription to the WATCHMAN.

—Horce D. Ebert, a staff correspondent of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, came to Bellefonte on Tuesday evening to cover the student's strike at State College only to find on arriving here that the difficulty had been satisfactorily adjusted.

—Col. and Mrs. W. Fred Reynolds and Col. and Mrs. Edward R. Chambers were members the past week of Governor Pennypacker's party on the trip to Andersonville for the dedication of the monument there. They expect to arrive home tomorrow.

—Two old State boys, H. Walton Mitchell Esq., '90, and A. C. Reed, '92, both of Pittsburg, passed through Bellefonte, Tuesday morning, on their way to State College to use their personal influence in prevailing upon the students to end the strike existing there at that time.

—Wilson McCloskey, son of John McCloskey, of Curtin township, who holds a good position in the government service at Washington and who was called home on account of the death of his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas DeLong, was a pleasant visitor at the WATCHMAN office, on Wednesday, while in town on business.

—H. C. Quigley Esq., went to Pittsburg, Wednesday last week, for the State—W. U. P. game, intending to go from there to Princeton to witness the Army—Navy contest, but while in the Smoky city he caught cold, had a chill and for three days the doctors thought he had contracted pneumonia but fortunately he did not and was able to return home on Sunday.

—There was quite a family dinner party at the home of William P. and Miss Myra Hoopes, on Thanksgiving day, when the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton B. Humes, Mrs. Samuel Humes, son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Heppner and daughter and John H. Humes, all of Jersey Shore. They came up in the morning and returned home the same evening.

—Mrs. Richard Gussallus with her son Harry and little grand-daughter, Hazel Pemberton, are visiting friends this week in Altoona, Bellwood and Tyrone, and we hope they are all having a most delightful time of it, for Mrs. Gussallus does not permit herself the time to take many trips away from home and when she does make one it ought to be filled to the brim with choicest pleasures.

THANKS, FRIENDS, THANKS. This week the WATCHMAN takes pleasure in acknowledging word from or calls by the following list of good friends who have either enrolled themselves as new, or determined to continue as old, patrons of the "best county paper." C. W. Moore, Hoopesburg; Thad Jackson, Orbisonia; William Walters, Tyrone; Geo. A. Becker, Bellefonte; Miss Sade M. Glenn, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; Mrs. Harrison Walker Bellefonte; Henry Leatherman, Pittsburg; Jerry Jones, Wilkinsburg; Henry Lyon, Bellefonte; Mrs. Emma W. Hazel, Bellefonte; Mrs. W. A. Sternberg, Philadelphia; O. C. Beck, Miles City, Montana; William Howard, Lancaster; W. H. Erb, Brocton, N. Y.; M. F. Hazel, Bellefonte; Forest N. Magee, Philadelphia; C. A. Weaver, Coburn; J. M. Sankey, Osceola Mills; Miles Oberman, Watertown; Jacob Baker, Dubuque, Iowa; Robert Meek, Altoona; Jas. R. Alexander Bellefonte; Edwin Wasson, Buffalo Run; H. Bruce Wasson, Wilkinsburg; Mrs. Mary E. Dunkle, Hubersburg; Harry Joyce, Bloomsburg; J. R. Whitman, Johnstown; Emory Johnson, Johnsonburg; John Q. Miles, Martha; Eugene Bradley, Carrolltown.

A TRIO OF GREAT MEN.—President Roosevelt, Cardinal Gibbons, Mr. John Mitchell—these three men, each in his own sphere, exercise more influence in our national life today than any other that could be named. This world-famous trio is shown in a most interesting series of moving pictures secured on the occasion of their visit and addresses to 200,000 miners and citizens at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., on August 10th. It is interesting because the ensemble, the crowds, the national prominence of the speakers, make the whole series so typical of American life today. The favorable weather conditions enabled Mr. Howe to secure results in photography that are incomparable. This series as well as many others in Mr. Howe's new and elaborate Lifeorama will be seen in Garman's opera house on Thursday, December 14th, and constitute a program most of which can be seen at this exhibition exclusively.

BREON—TRESSLER.—A pretty house wedding occurred at the home of Mrs. Emma Tressler, on the Branch, Wednesday evening, when her daughter, Miss Nora Tressler, was united in marriage to Daniel Breon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Heckman and was witnessed by a large number of invited guests. Following a very delicious wedding supper the bride and groom left for a brief wedding trip to Altoona and other points. Both young people stand high in the estimation of the people in the community in which they live and deserve the many congratulations showered upon them.

MARTZ—BRADFORD.—John Martz and Lucretia Bradford surprised their friends on Sunday evening by driving to Boalsburg and having Rev. A. A. Black say the words which made them husband and wife, the ceremony being performed in the parlor of the parsonage. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Martz, of Centre Hall, and is an industrious and energetic young man. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bradford, of the same place, and is a splendid young woman with a host of friends.

THOMAS—WARD.—C. Wilson Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Thomas, of Milesburg, and Miss Arvilla M. Ward were married at the home of the bride's mother, on east High street, Wednesday evening of last week, Rev. A. Davidson, of the United Brethren church, performing the ceremony. The groom is employed by the Potter-Hoy hardware company and is an industrious young man. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas have gone to housekeeping in rooms over Twimire's store.

LIGHTNER—MCALVEY.—Harry O. Lightner, of Charter Oak, and Miss Mary E. McAlvey, of Massesburg, were united in marriage in the Methodist parsonage in this place, at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, by Rev. John A. Wood Jr.

BAZAAR AND SUPPER.—The ladies of the Milesburg Presbyterian church will hold a bazaar in the Crider building, Friday and Saturday, December 15th and 16th. You will find it the very place to buy your Christmas gifts. They also will serve a chicken and waffle supper in the same room Saturday, December 16th. They earnestly solicit the patronage of their friends. Supper, 20 cents.

—Judge Ellis L. Orvis this week issued an order to the jury commissioners to meet in Bellefonte Monday, December 11th, for the purpose of filling the jury wheel for the year 1906. The number of names to be put in the wheel is 650.

—Revival services are now being held in the United Evangelical church.
