New Year at the White House.

Washington, Jan. 2. — New Year's Day at the nation's capital was observed with all the traditional brilliance which time and custom have decreed shall characterize the official greeting of the new year, and another was added to the long line of receptions at the White House, where the President and Mrs. Roosevelt received the people of the world, whatever their race or creed, of station high and low, who filed past till their numbers reached up into the thousands, each of them bringing a "Happy New Year." By actual count 9052 people shook the president's hand. Last year 7115 were received. Mrs. Roosevelt remained until the end of the reception. A feature of the public reception was the large number of children who passed the receiving line. Mrs. Roosevelt wore a gown of pale blue chiffon built over white silk. The bell skirt was trimmed with rows of ruffles, which fell from a shirred girdle. The waist was trimmed with white lace, and her only ornaments were a few diamonds. She carried a bouquet of roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Roosevelt and Mr. Longworth mingled with the guests in the east room. Miss Roosevelt wore a gown of slate blue chiffon over pink silk, cut low. She also wore a diamond necklace and pendant and a huge bunch of orchids. When the hour for the reception arrived the column of waiting citizens stretched along the front of the state, war and navy building, and gave promise of one of the largest receptions in the history of the White House. The President and Mrs. Roosevelt, preceded by the military and naval aides to the president and the several White House aides, all in special full dress, descended the marble stairway leading from the second floor. Entering the blue room they took up their position to the right of the door leading from the red room. The first to wish them a Happy New Year were Vice President and Mrs. Fairbanks, who passed behind the receiving line and stood to the right of Mrs. Roosevelt. Next came Secretary and Mrs. Root. In the order named there followed the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Shaw, the Secretary of War and Mrs. Taft, Attorney General Moody, the Postmaster General and Mrs. Cortelyou, the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Bonaparte; also newcomers at the White House on New Year's, the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Hitchcock, the secretary of agriculture and the Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Metcalf.

DEATH OF CHARLES YERKES

Noted Railway Financier of Chicago and London Passes Away. New York, Dec. 30.—Charles T. Yerkes, the noted railway financier of Chicago and London, died in his apartments at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, where he had been ill for more than six weeks. Mr. Yerkes suffered from a complication of diseases growing out of a severe cold which he contracted in London early in the fall. His condition had been critical for 10 days past, and the attending physicians gave up all hope several days ago, although members of the family clung tenaciously to the belief that the remarkable vitality of Mr. Yerkes would eventually pull him through. Charles T. Yerkes' Meteoric Career. 1868—Financial agent for the city of Philadelphia. 1871—Failed and was prosecuted in Philadelphia. Sentenced to the penitentiary. Pardoned and released after serving less than a year. 1874—Went to the Northwest to start life over again. Penniless. 1879—Stock and bond broker in Fargo, St. Paul and Minneapolis. 1883—Went to Chicago with $40,000. 1884—Began business as a stock and grain broker. 1886—Organized a syndicate with $1,500,000 to buy the North and West Side street railways. 1890—Bought the Lake Shore Elevated. 1894—Presented to the Chicago University the Yerkes telescope; cost $500,000. 1896—Bought the Union Elevated loop. 1899—Sold the North and West Side lines to the Union Traction company, receiving $10,000,000 for his holdings. Sold the Consolidated Traction company—trolley feeders of the North and West Side—to the Union Traction company. 1900—Went to London and bought franchise of the underground railway. 1901—Sold the elevated properties—the Northwestern Elevated, the Lake Street Elevated and the Union loop, and removed to New York.

OPERATORS' ANSWER RECEIVED

Letter Has Been Sent to Mitchell and Is Believed to Be Favorable. Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Jan. 2.—An answer from the anthracite coal operators to the request of the officers of the United Mine Workers of America for a conference is stated to have been received by Secretary John P. Gallagher, of the miners' committee. Mr. Gallagher immediately placed the letter, unopened, into another envelope and forwarded it to President John Mitchell, who is at his home in Illinois. While the contents of the letter are of course unknown, it is confidently believed that it is favorable and that a conference will be held in time for the miners to make a report to their national convention at Indianapolis on January 11.

HUNDREDS KILLED IN MINES

Dropping of Cages and Falling Rock Most Prolific Causes of Fatality. Pottsville, Pa., Jan. 2.—Last year's record of accidents in the anthracite region was 610 killed in and about the mines. The men thus killed left 148 widows and 480 orphans. The non-fatal accidents number about 1500. The death rate last year was largely increased by a series of accidents caused by cages loaded with miners falling down shafts. The falling of "top rock" was the most prolific source of fatalities, there being over 200 deaths from this cause alone.

Killed Trying to Save Her Doll.

New York, Jan. 2.—Police reserves were called out to disperse a mob that was threatening Charles Krepp, a motorman, whose car had killed 7-year-old Anna Owens in Brooklyn. The child was crossing the street with her Christmas doll, when she dropped the plaything. In turning to pick it up she stepped in front of the car. In a few minutes several scores of people had gathered, and when they learned that the girl was dead their tried to drag Krepp from the front of the car. He took refuge inside, locking front and back doors. Stones and sticks were hurled through the windows at him. Finally the police reserves were called out, but it was only after using their clubs that they succeeded in dispersing the angry mob.

Lovers Skated to Death.

Wakefield, Mass., Jan. 2.—The finding of the bodies of John A. Ritchie, aged 21, of Stoneham, and Grace Holden, aged 19, of this town, in Lake Quannapowitt disclosed a double drowning which occurred during the night. Ritchie and Miss Holden, his sweetheart, went to the lake to skate. Their failure to return to their respective homes during the night caused searching parties to drag the lake.

Henry Lear Denied New Trial.

Philadelphia, Dec. 30. — Judge McPherson in the United States district court refused a new trial to Henry Lear, the former president of the Doylestown National Bank, convicted last September of misapplying the funds of the defunct institution. Lear was not taken into custody, as his counsel will at once carry the case to the United States court of appeals. His $10,000 bail will still hold good, pending the final disposition of the case.

Polish Church at Nanticoke Burned.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Jan. 2.—The Polish Catholic Church at Nanticoke, nine miles from this city, was destroyed by fire. The loss to the building and furniture will reach $10,000. Origin unknown.

LEFT $15,000 TO HER PETS

Adress Leaves Fortune For Care of Dog, Parrot and Cage of Birds. New York, Dec. 30.—The fact that Cecilia A. Wolsey, who was formerly a performer on the vaudeville stage under the name of Lillian Weston, bequeathed $15,000 for the care of her dog, parrot and a cage of love birds, became known when her will was filed. Miss Wolsey died a week ago. Harriet E. Gates, a friend of the dead woman, is charged with the care of the animals, and Miss Wolsey's will provided that she shall have the use of the $15,000 for that purpose. After the death of Mrs. Gates the will stipulated that the remainder of the money shall go to the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals to care for Miss Wolsey's pets if they outlive Mrs. Gates, and if not, to care for other homeless animals.

Mount Vernon's Last Owner Dead.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 1.—News was received here of the death at his home, in Charleston, W. Va., of George Washington, youngest son of the late John Augustine Washington, who was the last individual owner of Mount Vernon, and the last of the distinguished Washington family to be born in the old Washington home.

Killed While Hunting.

Elmira, N. Y., Jan. 2.—William Manplin, of Sayre, Pa., was killed while hunting near that place by the accidental discharge of his gun. He was a Lehigh Valley engineer and widely known.

—He—I shall be just miserable when I have to go away and leave you. "Oh, Jack, if I were sure of that I'd feel so happy!" —Madge—See here, what did you mean by saying I was'n't half witted? Yabsley—What shall I say? That you are half witted?
