Books, Magazines, Etc. STEPHENS TO WRITE FROM WASHINGTON.—Lincoln Stephens, the famous writer on "Graft," whose stories of "The Shame of the State" and municipal corruption, are credited with being partly responsible for the overthrow of bossism in many cities, went to Washington a week ago on a new assignment—to follow the trail of municipal and State corruption to the National Capital. Stephens will write these new stories of "Graft," stories from the sea, of government, and for the first time his exposures will appear in the newspapers instead of in the magazines. The Pittsburgh Sunday Dispatch has secured the exclusive rights for the publication of this new series throughout its territory. The first article will appear next Sunday, January 14.
