THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

—That novel contest at the Young Men's Christian Association is attracting wide attention.

—Mrs. Simon Nayhart, of Milesburg, who has been ill for some time remains in a very critical condition.

—Mrs. L. E. Bricker, of Boalsburg, has gone to Altoona to make her home with her sister, Mrs. M. M. Fink.

—The local teachers' institute which was to have been held in Snow Shoe last Saturday was postponed until tomorrow.

—Notwithstanding the fact that there has been practically no snow this winter the wheat fields look green, well set and thrifty.

—Mrs. Estelle Lyon, who has been suffering since Wednesday from the effects of a stroke, is lying seriously ill at her home on Linn street.

—Have you been around to the Catholic bazaar that is being held this week? If not, you should not fail to go this evening and tomorrow evening.

—Mrs. Mary T. Harris is suffering severely from an unfortunate fall on Tuesday night. While no bones were broken she was quite seriously injured.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Keller and their son, Roland Keller, and Mr. and Mrs. Hoover Dalby, of Centre Hall, have gone to Phoenixville to make their future home.

—Mrs. Amos Malien expects to be in Bellefonte next week and on Saturday, February 10th, at 1 o'clock p. m., will make sale of her household goods at her old home on Bishop street.

—Rev. and Mrs. Richard Crittenden will move, April first, from the house they now occupy on Carlin street to the Powers house on Spring street, which will make it much more convenient for them.

—At Mrs. F. W. Crider's dinner, Tuesday night, twelve covers were laid, at Miss Myra Humes, Wednesday noon, sixteen covers and at Mrs. John P. Harris, Wednesday night, six covers were laid.

—During the year 1905 just 334 marriage licenses were granted by register A. G. Arohey. This number was just five below the average for the past twenty years, the period the present law has been in effect.

—John A. Weber, of Centre Hall, who was in the Hayes sanatorium for a couple weeks undergoing treatment for stomach trouble, was taken to the University hospital, Philadelphia, for an operation for ulcerated bowels.

—Dr. Wilbur F. Crafto, of Washington, D. C., superintendent of the National reform bureau, will deliver a free public lecture in Petriken hall, on Monday evening, February 12th. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

—The condition of Mrs. Will H. Smith, of Johnstown, who has been in the Hayes sanatorium the past three weeks undergoing treatment, is regarded quite serious. Mrs. Smith before her marriage was Miss Edith Otto and her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

—Beginning Monday, February 5th, the noon train on the Bellefonte Central railroad which now leaves State College at 12:30 will leave at 11:50 a. m., ten minutes earlier. It will arrive in Bellefonte at the same time it does now, 12:50. Travelers will do well to take notice.

—A very peculiar accident one day last week, was the bursting of the cut-off saw in the mill of Horace Robinson, on Nittany mountain. The rapidly revolving steel disc flew into many pieces which were scattered in many directions, but strange as it may appear, not a man was hurt.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Moore, of Philadelphia, left on Monday, for New York from whence they sailed on Wednesday for a month's trip through the south for the benefit of Mr. Moore's health. They will go by boat to Charleston, S. C., and thence by rail to St. Augustine, Florida, and Key West.

—On Sunday morning the following elders and deacons were ordained and duly installed in the Reformed church: Elders, Jared Harper, H. B. Pontius; deacons, J. Will Conley and E. E. Artery. The treasurer's report showed every obligation for the year 1905 as having been met and a balance of $30.34 on hand.

—With a colt belonging to Harry Shivers hitched in a buggy David Smith, of Buffalo Run, was driving in Water street, Monday morning, when the animal spied an automobile standing on the corner by the Bush Arcade. Quick as a flash he wheeled around upon the buggy and threw Smith out on a large rock. Fortunately, however, he was hurt but little though the buggy shafts were broken.

—During the past week no little excitement was occasioned in this place by the receipt by P. B. Crider & Son, of postal cards bearing a huge black hand and the words "you have only four days," followed by one the next day giving three days and on down to one day. The Crider family were more or less frightened and took measures to protect themselves and property but when the fatal day came it brought a final card which proved to be an advertisement for a firm out in Portland, Oregon.

DEATH OF SAMUEL HAZEL.—One of the most untimely as well as sad deaths that has occurred in this section for some time was that of Samuel S. Hazel, foreman in the WATCHMAN office, which occurred at the home of his parents, at Axe Mann, at 10 o'clock Friday night. He had not been in the best of health for a year or more but no one, not even members of his own family, suspected him to be the victim of an incurable complaint. In December he became ill and was not able to work much over half his time. During the holidays he consulted a physician for the first time and even then the gravity of his case was not even suspected. While he apparently felt better he continued so weak that he could not get outside of the house and on Saturday, January 20th, he was taken to the home of his parents at Axe Mann in the hope that the change would do him good. That evening, however, he had a sinking spell and his wife was hurriedly sent for. He had another sinking spell about midnight and from that time it became evident that his death was only a question of a brief time and that he was suffering from a tubercular condition of the bowels. He grew weaker and weaker, with occasional surges of greater strength and brightness until about 2 o'clock Friday afternoon when he had his last brief spell of consciousness. He lingered only until that evening about 10 o'clock when he calmly passed away.

Deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Adam Hazel and was born at Madisonburg, August 8th, 1867, thus making his age 38 years, 5 months and 18 days. While but a boy his parents moved to Axe Mann and it was there the early years of his life were spent and in the public schools of that place he got his education. When a young man of but twenty years of age he entered the WATCHMAN office to learn the printer's trade and the very fact that for over eighteen years he was an employe here and that for a number of years past he was the foreman in the job and composing room is evidence of the worth and integrity of the young man. Quiet and unassuming, he was one of that class of men possessed of a superabundance of fidelity to himself, fidelity to his employer and fidelity to all mankind. He never did a harmful act nor spoke a harmful word of anyone and he bore the number of his friends and acquaintances showed plainly the estimation in which he was held by all who knew him. In August, 1892, he was united in marriage to Miss Jennie Ott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ott, of East High street, who survives him with two young daughters, Carrie and Grace, one son having died in infancy some six years ago. He also leaves his parents, five brothers and two sisters, as follows: George Henry Hazel and Mrs. Wm. Steele, of Axe Mann; Mrs. Stewart Fleck, Bellefonte; John, James and Edgar, of Niagara Falls, and Franklin, of Sault St. Marie, Michigan. He was a member of the Bellefonte Castle, No. 357, Knights of the Golden Eagle, and was recently elected to the next to the highest office in the lodge. He was also a member of the German Reformed church and lived a life consistent with its doctrines. He was a good neighbor, and upright citizen, but it was in his own home where he loved to be and where his highest qualifications were manifested.

The Knights of the Golden Eagle had charge of the funeral which was held at 10 o'clock on Monday morning. Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, of the Reformed church, held brief services at the home of deceased's father, at Axe Mann, after which the remains were taken to the Lutheran cemetery at Pleasant Gap for interment, and immediately after Rev. Schmidt preached a most touching funeral sermon to an audience which crowded the Pleasant Gap Lutheran church to the doors. Those who acted as pall-bearers were Harry Gehret, Clyde Jodon, Frank and Harry Hazel.

FRAYEL.—Levi Fravel, one of the best known and highly respected citizens of Flemington, died in that place at an early hour, Saturday morning, after several months illness with dropsy. Deceased was 64 years old and was a native of Sugar valley. In addition to his wife and eight children he is survived by six brothers and two sisters, two of the brothers being residents of Centre county, John, at Hurlersburg, and Michael, at Blanchard. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon.

FERGUSON.—William F. Ferguson, a well known resident of Philipsburg, died in that place, Sunday afternoon, after an illness of three weeks. Deceased was 45 years old and was a son of the late Joseph Ferguson. Surviving him are his wife and three children, Fairm, Lyle and Charles, at home; also his mother and one sister, Miss Effie, of Philadelphia. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon.

DILL.—The many friends of William H. Dill, a one-time resident of Clearfield, where he was a well known banker and financier, was found dead in bed at Trouton, N. J., Thursday of last week. He was 67 years of age and is survived by his wife, four daughters and one son, namely Mrs. Alexander E. Patton, Misses Altoe, Annie and Edith, and Harry. The body was brought to Curwensville for burial.

RESIDENTS OF LOWER PENNSYLVANIA are complaining of the depredations of foxes, which are very numerous in that locality.

The mid-winter examinations at State College were completed last Friday and the fortunate students were given a couple days of study, the result being that quite a number went to Williamsport to spend Sunday.

ALTER.—Jacob Alter, of Millheim, died quite suddenly last Friday of heart disease. He was 69 years old, a carpenter by trade and a highly respected citizen. Surviving him are his wife and eight children. The funeral was held on Tuesday morning, interment being made in the Fairview cemetery.

PREPARING TO LEAVE BELLEFONTE.—About March first Mr. Joseph Fauble will depart for New York where he will purchase a line of men's and boy's clothing and furnishing for a store he expects to open in Monongahela City in the spring. The people of this community are interested because they have known Mr. Fauble so long that his going will be a matter of personal regret to many. Since boyhood he has been identified with the Fauble stores in this place, growing up with them and contributing much of the business acumen that has made them probably the largest and most substantial men's and boy's stores in Central Pennsylvania.

It is needless to say anything of Joe Fauble here, where he has earned a reputation that any young man might envy, but to the people of Monongahela City, where he expects to make his future home we can commend him as one who will soon ingratiate himself into their esteem. Because he knows the clothing business, because he has been trained to treat all customers fair and square, because he is a gentleman who grows upon acquaintance and because he will meet every obligation he makes and give to the people of Monongahela City a store in which they can get things they want and know that they are not paying more than good goods are worth.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.—The paper hangers have completed their work in the new Y. M. C. A. building and most of the interior finishing has been done. Those in charge have certainly made a desperate effort to keep their promise to the young men to have the rooms ready for the enjoyment of full privileges after February first. Six kinds of work have been under way at the same time, keeping fourteen men steadily employed in order to have the building completed on time.

The secretary will be greatly handicapped in his work at the start because of a lack of furnishing for the rooms, but he has every confidence that the needs in this direction will be supplied soon.

It is estimated that fully three hundred people visited the building, on Monday, to note the progress of the work. The Red's are still ahead in the membership contest, they having turned in $93.00. The Orange team is doing excellent work and many believe that they are planning a surprise. The amount turned in by this team is $30.00.

LATER.—Since the above was put in type the Orange team have made a big plunge and forged to the front, the score now standing, Orange $140.00 and Red, $135.00.

THE BOROUGH PRIMARIES.—Both political parties held their borough primaries Saturday evening, and they were about as quiet and unexciting as any ever held in the town, all the candidates for the important offices having been slated at caucuses held on Thursday evening. In the North ward the Republicans had a three-cornered fight for the councilmanic nomination between F. H. Thomas, DeLann Stewart and Samuel Gault, the former winning out, while Mitchell Johnson gave John P. Harris an uninteresting chase for the nomination of school director. The nominations made by both parties are as follows:

THE FARMER'S TELEPHONE SERVICE.—Several weeks ago the WATCHMAN published an article on the farmer's telephone lines in Centre county at the time not having the data at hand to give the number of names of subscribers. The greatest interest in the rural telephone service is being taken by the farmers in the vicinity immediately surrounding Bellefonte, as already five branch companies have been organized and completely cover the southern and eastern portion of the territory surrounding the town and within a radius of ten miles. This farmer's service will undoubtedly prove one of the greatest innovations in farm life and business that has been introduced throughout the country districts in years. Not only will it enable the farmer to transact his business with his town patrons and dealers, and thus be an economy in the saving of time but it brings all the farmers into closer communion with each other, making them virtually next door neighbors. It is also an advantage to the regular subscribers on the telephone company's town line, as they are enabled to call up any farmer who is on any of the farmer's lines. For the benefit of subscribers as well as all farmers interested we give below the list of subscribers so far down on the five branch lines connected with the Bellefonte exchange:

Branch line No. 1, runs from Hoy's school house, where it connects with line No. 2, south and west to Dale's Summit, with H. E. Zimmerman, S. W. Zettie, John S. Dale, Willard Dale and George Dale, subscribers.

Branch line No. 2, runs from Bellefonte to the Hoy school house and has the following subscribers: Charles Wetzel, Frank Bezer, F. W. Musser, J. H. Fishburn, S. H. Hoy, J. W. Grove, John P. Ishler and W. J. Isbler.

Branch line No. 3, runs from Bellefonte to Pleasant Gap and has the following subscribers: Wm. J. Dale, Luther K. Dale, Albert Smeltzer, E. E. Swartz, J. C. Barnes, J. T. Zeigler, W. W. Kerstetter, W. S. White and John Griffith.

Branch line No. 4, runs southeast from Bellefonte along the Zion road and has the following patrons: W. C. Smeltzer, A. D. Smeltzer, J. W. Garbriek, Frank Wian, Thomas M. Weaver, L. E. Jodon, G. Perry Getzel and Epley Getzel.

Branch line No. 5, runs from Nigh bank to a point one mile east of Zion and has the following patrons: T. S. Wells, Joseph Royer, John Cole, Squire Grover, Howard Struble, H. A. Kaufman, F. M. Sharer, Amos Kaufman and G. M. Yarnell.

DEATH DISCLOSES RUNAWAY MAN'S WHEREABOUTS.—Some fifteen years or more ago James Harvey Allison, son of Henry Clay Allison, of Lock Haven, left his home in Nittany valley without telling anyone of his departure and without any apparent provocation.

No word as to the whereabouts of Allison was ever received until about the middle of last week when postmaster Peck, of Lock Haven, received a telegram from the authorities at North Baltimore, Ohio, announcing that a man by the name of Harry Allison had been so seriously injured there that he died in a short time; not, however, until he had requested that a message be sent his father, H. C. Allison, at Lock Haven. His father being dead the message was delivered to postmaster Peck who in turn took it to E. T. Stevenson, a relative of the Allison, and he in turn notified John Allison, a brother of the missing man, at Roaring Branch. The latter went to North Baltimore and had no trouble to identify the dead man as his brother, though a search of his effects failed to clear up the mystery of his sudden departure or where he had been the past fifteen years. He had evidently never heard from home as the fact that he requested a telegram be sent his father showed that he did not know of that gentleman's death, which occurred some four years ago.

CRYSTAL SPRING REBEKAH LODGE.—Tuesday afternoon and night the Crystal Spring Rebekah Lodge, No. 25, I. O. O. F., was instituted in Bellefonte with the unusually large membership of sixty-three. The work of instituting the Rebekahs was taken up at a meeting of Centre Lodge, No. 153, at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Quite a large delegation was present from the Lady of the Valley Lodge, No. 263, of Centre Hall, among whom were Miss Roxanna Brishin, district deputy president; Mrs. John Puff, grand secretary; John Puff, grand treasurer; W. P. Kuhn, general secretary, and Samuel Shoop, grand marshal.

The required number being present the lodge was instituted in accordance with the by-laws and regulations of the order after which the following officers were elected: Noble grand, Mrs. Thomas Hazel; vice grand, Mrs. W. P. Kuhn; secretary, Mrs. S. A. Donahy; treasurer, Mrs. Cyrus W. Showers. At another meeting held in the evening the officers were installed and fourteen ladies exemplified in the work of the order. Crystal Spring Lodge started by initiating a class of sixty-three as charter members with already a next meeting. It was just midnight when the work of initiating the new lodge was completed and the members of the Lady of the Valley Lodge, having been served with appetizing refreshments, departed for their homes in Centre Hall.

Last Saturday newboys made their last trips over the Bald Eagle valley and Tyrone and Clearfield railroads. It is the intention of the Pennsylvania railroad company to discontinue with newboys on all branch roads, the services having been discontinued on the main line several years ago.

—William Kemberling, of Sinking Valley, and Miss Laura Lindsey, of Grazierville, were united in marriage at five o'clock Thursday evening, January 25th, by Rev. F. L. Beigstreefer, at the first Lutheran parsonage. They will go to housekeeping on West fifteenth street, in Tyrone. Mr. Kemberling is an employe of the Pittsburgh Limestone company.

News Purely Personal.

—Thomas J. Sexton Esq., spent Sunday at his parental home in Tyrone.

—Charles McCafferty, of Philadelphia, was a visitor in Bellefonte the fore part of the week.

—Landlord H. S. Ray, of the Brookerhouse, made a couple days trip to Philadelphia this week.

—Miss Elizabeth Brouse returned, Monday evening, from a several days visit with friends in Huntington.

—Charles Trippe, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday in Bellefonte the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yeager.

—Hon. James Wolfenden, of Lamar, spent a few hours in Bellefonte, on Monday, while en route to Altoona.

—After quite a pleasant visit with friends in Boston, Mass., Mrs. W. Fred Reynolds arrived home on Saturday.

—Sheriff and Mrs. H. S. Taylor with his mother and young son spent Sunday in Philipsburg, the guests of Mrs. Lloyd.

—Hon. A. A. Stevens, of Tyrone, spent Monday night and all of Tuesday looking after his business interests in this place.

—Mrs. Frank Montgomery came to Bellefonte Saturday evening after being with her sister in Philadelphia since the middle of December.

—George T. Bush is one of several of the Masons of Bellefonte, who are spending a part of the week at the Masonic convalescence in Williamsport.

—J. S. McCarg and W. B. Rankin attended a meeting and banquet of the agents of the Equitable Life Assurance society, in Altoona, Tuesday night.

—Mrs. W. B. Dix, of Dayton, Ohio, has been in Bellefonte the past week, called here by the death of her father, Mr. J. P. Gephart, last Wednesday night.

—Mrs. Maynard Hale March, of Cleveland, came to the Bush house last week as the guest of Mrs. Daggett. Mrs. March hopes to be in Bellefonte for several weeks.

—Dr. H. P. Armsby, head of the Experiment Station at the Pennsylvania State College, was in Bellefonte on Monday and made a brief call at the WATCHMAN office.

—Mrs. Sarah L. Gray, of Buffalo Run, widow of the late Isaac Gray, left today for Scranton where she goes to spend a couple months with her daughter, the wife of Rev. Hartsook.

—Mrs. Elizabeth G. Reeder will leave Sunday for Monrovia, California, where she will join Wallace, expecting to be through the extreme southwestern part of this country for an indefinite time.

—Judge H. M. McClure, of Lewisburg, was in Bellefonte Friday and Saturday last week presiding in the equity case between the Nittany Valley railroad company and the Nittany Iron company.

—Mrs. Margaret Seehler, who has been here since Xmas day with her parents in Bellefonte, entertained a few of her friends with cards, Wednesday afternoon, preparatory to leaving for Baltimore Friday to resume her work.

—Mr. J. Wesley Holmes and his daughter Cora, of Williamsburg, were in Bellefonte a few days this week the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Harris. Miss Cora is at present in Lock Haven, expecting to continue her visit with her Bellefonte friends some time during February.

—Miss Mary Hunter Linn left, Tuesday morning, for Williamsport, where she will be joined today by Miss Nan Hoy to go on to Bryn Mawr for an alumni reunion, coming back to Harrisburg and up to Milton. They expect their visit to occupy the coming three weeks.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Nixon-Niddler, of Philadelphia, spent Saturday night and part of Sunday in Bellefonte. Mr. Nixon-Niddler is manager of the Park theatre, Philadelphia, and representative of the Nixon-Zimmerman theatre people and his trip here was to make arrangements for the appearance here in March of the Simple Simon Simple company as well as to book several of his attractions for the 1906-07 season.

—L. C. Bullock came in from Indiana, Pa., last Friday, to sell his household goods and other personal effects at public sale on Saturday preparatory to moving his family to the western part of the State the beginning of this week. Of course Mr. Bullock could not forego the pleasure of coming to Bellefonte to see his associates here and to them he gave a very rosy-hued account of his new position in Indiana with which he is well pleased; though he may yet decide to go to West Virginia and take entire charge of a branch mill the same company is operating down there.

—Last Friday a rather funny thing happened in the WATCHMAN office and it seemed so much like a coincidence that we'll have to tell you about it. First in walked Michael Kerstetter, of Pleasant Gap, with W. D. Strunk and the son of Elmer, of Centre Hall. Then Thad Hamilton dropped in and the whole bunch—good Democrats that they are—got started on politics. The drift of all the talk seemed to be along the line that Democrats are not as good as they used to be, then some one suggested that there are not enough Democratic boys being born and that swung the conversation round onto the Rooseveltian fear of race-suicide. At that instant the door opened and a man entered in, looking as though he didn't know exactly where he was and after looking around a little he asked if this was a certain office. He didn't happen to be the place he was hunting and after he was gone out we discovered that it was George Horner, of Linden Hall, a young looking man who is the daddy of eighteen children. Now what do you suppose ever made that man, who had probably never been in the WATCHMAN office before in his life, wander in here just at a time when race suicide was being discussed.

SEVEN THASAS.—From the time the present proprietor of the WATCHMAN bought its old hand press and the few battered fonts of type, that constituted its outfit, away back '92, it has had reason to be proud of its patronage and its friends. They have stood by it through "thick and thin" but never in all these many years has it had such an array of backers and well wishers as it has today. During the past week, which is usually a dull one in the way of payments etc., it has the following list of friends—new and old to thank sincerely for remittances: John T. Zeigler, Abner; W. D. Strunk, Centre Hall; T. B. Hamilton, Bellefonte; Henry Miller, Clearfield; M. Kerstetter, Pleasant Gap; John Jacobs, Clarion; William Wistler, Everett; D. F. Runkle, Spring Mills; Robert A. Miller, Tyrone; John D. Logan, Emporium; Mrs. L. M. Carvin, Sunbury; John M. Ketchline, Bellefonte; Mrs. Maggie Meek, Altoona; George E. Jones, Oscoda Mills; Harry Heaton, Greensburg; Sol Johnson, Riverside; James Foster, Atlanta, Ga.; John L. Given, Pittsburgh; Wm. Keller, Muncion Station; S. B. Fitting, Bellefonte; Thos. K. Henderson, Warriors-dull one in the way of payments etc.; Mrs. Ella H. Leathers, Howard; P. S. Ketchline, Bellefonte; W. H. Giegerich, Linden Hall; Mrs. Alice M. Custer, Los Angeles, Cal.; Frank Seligworth, Kane; Wm. Hess, Philipsburg; Nevin M. Meyer, Boalsburg; Mrs. Anna Woodcock, Scranton; Calvin L. Stam, Boalsburg; Miss Minnie Lip-ton, Fleming.

THE BOARD OF TRADE DISCUSSES A PROSPECTIVE NEW INDUSTRY.—A special meeting of the Bellefonte Board of Trade was held in the arbitration room Monday evening to hear and consider a proposition of Mr. Huffman, of Millheim, to locate a knitting mill in this place. Mr. Huffman stated that he would set $4,000 of the un-subscribed $50,000 stock issue of the Millheim corporation taken up by Bellefonters, a room or rooms aggregating 100ft x 100ft with power and about fifty girl or boy operatives not under fourteen years of age. He stated that after the mill would be in operation three months the minimum wage would probably be 90 cts per day and the maximum $2.40.

The meeting was called upon the suggestion of John I. Olewine, W. Harrison Walker and A. C. Mingle, a committee of the Board that had previously visited Millheim and made an inspection of the mill there. Waiving a discussion of securing the $4,900 stock subscription and a suitable location the question of securing the needed help was taken up as the more serious feature of the proposition. President Seehler was in the chair and called for an expression of opinion on the question. A. C. Mingle, H. Holz, John Meese and others responded, believing that it would scarcely be possible to secure the help required; because of the difficulty the match factory and the shirt factory find retaining the same class of help in those industries. Mr. Huffman's view was more optimistic. He was of the opinion that there would be no difficulty whatever, so the meeting was adjourned with the understanding that he would make an investigation, in company with the Board's committee and report at a later meeting.

FALLS—WALKER.—Wednesday evening of last week James Falls, a well known resident of Beech Creek township, Clinton county, a veteran of the Civil war and close to seventy years of age, and Mrs. Walker, widow of Miles Walker, of Curtin township, this county, a comely woman of thirty-nine years, walked into Squire W. I. Harter's office at Blanchard and presenting the necessary license asked to be married. Of course Squire Harter willingly complied and the couple are now at the groom's home in Beech Creek township.

CROW—LEE.—A nicely appointed home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lee, near Hurlersburg, Wednesday last week, when their daughter, Miss Minnie A., was united in marriage to Jacob C. Crow, of Liverpool, Danbury county. The ceremony was performed by the groom's brother, Rev. H. I. Crow, in the presence of about twenty-five guests.

THE HOGANS IN SOCIETY.—Will be the next attraction to visit Bellefonte and will appear at Garman's, Thursday, February 8th. The play abounds with amusing dialogue and queer combinations of circumstances which contrive to keep the audience in a peal of laughter from the ringing up of the first curtain until the last descends. With the company are Conroy and Mack, the two great funmakers, and with good support the play should be worth going to see.

SPRING TERM OPENS.—In the High school room at Hurlersburg on April 16, and continues for eight weeks. Special attention given to those pursuing work in the Higher Branches. For rates of tuition and boarding and other information, address:

W. S. GEBHARD, Hurlersburg, Pa.
