

It is said, from the non-union miners in Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

After the operators adjourned it was clear that a crisis was imminent. It was stated that F. L. Robbins was opposed to the unit rule, which requires that all votes on wage matters shall be recorded as unanimous, and that Mr. Robbins threatened to bolt the conference and operate his mines independently. There was danger that the operators would not be able to agree sufficiently to warrant a joint conference with the miners.

WOMAN KILLED BY BURGLAR

Shot While in Bed While Husband Was Being Held Up.

Pottsville, Pa., March 20.—Mrs. John Morrison, aged 23 years, was shot and killed as she lay in bed with her 15-month-old child at their home in Cumbala, near here. John Morrison, her husband, says she was killed by a masked burglar who, with two other masked robbers, visited the house before dawn.

According to Morrison, who is a fireman in an anthracite coal colliery, he was awakened by three masked men, who at the point of revolvers demanded that he give them the money he had hidden on the first floor of his home. Two of the intruders, he says, accompanied him down stairs, while the third stood guard over his wife. After handing over the money, he says, they made him return to bed. They then left the room, and as they were going down the stairway he fired two shots at them, which caused the burglars to flee in haste. As no bullet holes were found in the house he believes he shot one or more of the burglars.

Upon returning to bed, Morrison says, he found his wife dead, with a bullet in her left temple. He then gave the alarm. The husband says he believes the wife recognized the burglar who stood guard over her and that the man instantly shot her.

The police have no clue to the burglars and are much mystified over the tragedy. Morrison is treasurer of a gun club and is known to have had about $75 of the organization's money in his home. About a month ago Morrison claims to have been held up by three masked men who robbed him of $15.

Steamer Coeurane Floated. Atlantic City, N. J., March 20.—The British steamer Coeurane, from Para for New York, which went ashore near the Tomas River life saving station last Friday, has been floated. After a preliminary examination of the condition of the vessel had been made the steamer proceeded to New York under her own steam. A survey of the Coeurane will be made at New York to ascertain what damage, if any, the vessel sustained.

CENTRE COUNTY SABBATH SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.—Will the Sunday school workers of Centre county please note that arrangements are being made for the holding of our thirty-seventh annual convention at Howard on May 31st and June 1st? All the schools and churches of Howard have heartily united in inviting us to hold this convention with them and are eagerly looking forward to our coming. The program is in course of preparation and all indications point to the best convention yet held. In a few days a circular letter and the statistical blanks will be mailed to the superintendents of our 165 schools. Please see that these are promptly presented to your schools.

A. C. LATHROPE, Secretary.

Letter to Phil D. Foster, State College, Pa.

Dear Sir: The cheap paint to buy is the one that covers more than you think; the cheap one to wear is the one that is young when old.

Mrs. Moore, of Kelsey, N. Y., bought 16 gallons Devoe to paint her house two coats; her painters said it would take that. Had 6 gallons left.

Mr. Jas. Ackley's house, in Cairo (Catskill Mountains,) N. Y., was painted with Devoe; it wore 14 years; and the paint was in good condition then. He was going to paint, the last we knew, though. That's the way to preserve a house; repaint when there's no occasion.

Yours truly, F. W. Devoe & Co.

ART SERIES FREE.—Much favorable comment is heard regarding the Philadelphia Inquirer's new series of Art Supplements.

These pictures, which are being given away free every week with the Sunday Inquirer, are reproductions of well-known paintings by the artists J. Drummond, E. Louvet, E. Laurent, Caesar Detti, Gaetano Chienchi, Thomas Moran and others of equal note.

The subject for Sunday, March 21st, is from a painting of "The Mariner," now in the Waring Galleries, Steinway Hall, New York, by J. Drummond; while that for Sunday, April 1st, is entitled "The Harbor of Venice," from the brush of the great American artist, Thomas Moran. These will be followed each week by equally celebrated paintings, all of which are reproduced by the newly perfected process of color photography.

Nothing like this artistic series has ever before been issued, which accounts for the pleased comments of the recipients.
