Letter to H. Sechler, Bellefonte, Pa.

Dear Sir: The way to reckon the cost of paint is to put both costs together: the cost of the paint and the cost of putting it on.

It would save this country hundreds of millions of dollars a year; it would save you alone (if you happen to be a victim) several dollars a year.

See how it works. It costs as much to put on one paint as another, don't it? Yes, if you use the same number of gallons.

Well, don't it? No, you'll use twice as many gallons of adulterated paint as of Devoe; and you've got to pay twice as much for putting it on.

Mr. N. Avery, Delhi, N. Y., has two houses alike and in the same condition. Painted one house with Devoe: 6 gallons. Painted the other house with a paint that was half adulteration: 12 gallons. Same painter, Geo. Gilbert, did both jobs. One cost $27; the other $54.

Better go by the name.

Yours truly,
F. W. Devoe & Co.

There will be a sketch of that friend of all young hearts, Robert Louis Stevenson, in the April St. Nicholas, by Arisnde Gilbert, under the title of "The Lighthouse-Builders' Son." While the boyhood of Robert Louis will be dwelt upon with much interesting detail, the story of his later life and his work will also be covered; and there will be extracts from Stevenson's letters and a number of interesting illustrations, one a reproduction of the bronze memorial of Stevenson by Augustus Saint-Gaudens, now in St. Giles's Cathedral, Edinburgh.

DON'T BE DECEIVED.

Adulterated paint is NOT as good as DAVIS' 100 PER CENT PURE PAINT.

How can it be? Is watered milk as good as pure milk? Is a cold storage egg as good as a fresh-laid egg? Of course not! and no amount of argument could convince you to the contrary. Why, then, allow anyone to persuade you to accept adulterated paint, when you can get Davis' carrying an analysis and guarantee?

This is something that it would be well for any man to bear in mind as well as the fact that in order to be in good company one must be well-dressed and dressed as the time and occasion require.

You'll be surprised to find how little it costs to dress well if you wear Kuppenheimer ready-to-wear clothes. You will also find that your appearance will be just as good as that of the man who goes to a high-priced custom-tailor.

Kuppenheimer Clothes possess individuality and character giving the wearer an air of manliness and gentility.
