F. H. THOMAS, Supt.

THE PARLIAMENTARY WHIP.

He is an Important Official and Gets a Good Salary.

When private affairs or other matters make it impossible for our lawmakers to attend to their duties in house or senate a "pair" is made out with a member of the opposition and filed with the clerk. This acts to preserve the balance of the majority, since one vote from each side is taken away. The matter is entirely one of personal arrangement, and the clerk's only duty is to record the fact.

In parliament there is an official to prepare these pairs and to act as "whip" for his party, the place carrying with it a salary of $10,000 as patronage secretary.

The parliamentary whip is something more than an arranger of pairs, however, for his chief duty lies in seeing that all members of his party are present when there is likely to be a need of their vote, and for this purpose he sends out through his assistants notices in which the importance of the events to come is shown by the number of the underscored lines used.

A one line whip, wherein the subject of the debate and other information are underscored but once, is not regarded as being particularly pressing, but a two line whip commands attention, and a three line whip means that the recipient who absents himself is liable to find himself in disfavour with his party. Four lines are used only in announcing great events, and no one who receives the occasional five line whip would think of remaining away unless ill in bed.

In parliament pairing is a matter arranged by the whips of the opposing parties and not by those who seek to escape their duties. At times there are humorous mistakes made as each seeks to pair off some one who would in any event remain away. The most notable case was one wherein a man abed with a broken leg was paired with a member who had just died, each whip gloating over his cleverness until the facts came to light.

He Stopped to Conquer. English newspapers tell of a young cabman in Birmingham who by his resemblance to her dead son attracted the fancy of a wealthy old woman. She bequeathed him a fortune on condition that he became an educated gentleman. The cabman studied the classics enough to fit himself for Oxford or Cambridge, but doubted whether he knew enough of the manners of young gentlemen to conduct himself properly in their society. So, putting pride in his pocket, he obtained a place as "scout," or servant, at one of those seats of learning and profited so much by what he saw and observed in this humble position that when he eventually proceeded to the other university as a student he was able to pass creditably.

FRANCHISE DECISION

Supreme Court Defines Rights of Chicago Railway Companies.

Chicago, March 13.—By the decision of the United States supreme court the city of Chicago obtains almost complete control of the local traction situation. The decision sustains the acts of the state legislature extending the life of the charters of the street railway companies to 99 years, but does not sustain the contention of the companies that contract rights which are limited to few years than remain to the charter life of the companies are also extended.

The original ordinances granted to the street car companies were for 99 years inside the city limits as they existed in 1865. The companies have extended their tracks as the boundaries of the city have been enlarged, and have claimed that the extended lines which were built under franchises from the city were also operative under the 99-year act. The court has held, however, that the 99-year act extended only the charter life of the street car companies without extending their ordinances.

MAY ASK ABSOLUTE DIVORCE
Countess Boni's Suit Against Husband May be Amended.

Paris, March 13.—There is reason to believe that the preliminary hearing of the separation proceedings instituted by Countess Boni de Castellane against her husband, Count Boni, which was set for March 14 will be postponed. The lawyers representing the various branches of the case have been in consultation upon the financial features involved, and other final details of the procedure. This has resulted in a determination to change the form of the proceedings.

This it is understood is due to the fact that the countess contemplates applying for an absolute divorce instead of a separation, which will require the filing of a new bill of complaint.

MRS. TOLLA SAVED FROM NOOSE
Italian Woman's Sentence Commuted to 7 1/2 Years' Imprisonment.

Trenton, N. J., March 10.—The sentence of death imposed upon Mrs. Antoinette Tolla, the Bergen county murderer, for the killing of Joseph Sonta, was commuted to seven and one-half years' imprisonment in the state prison by the court of pardons. The vote stood 6 to 2. Mrs. Tolla was to have been hanged in Hackensack on Monday, March 12. This is the first time the court of pardons has ever commuted a death sentence to other than life imprisonment. The power of the court to do this was demonstrated by counsel for the woman.

Crossed Baltic Sea in a Balloon.

Copenhagen, March 27.—Two German soldiers landed from a balloon Sunday near Karlskrona. They left Berlin on Saturday and crossed the Baltic in a fierce snow storm. As they were nearing the Swedish coast the storm caused a rent in the balloon, permitting the gas to escape. The balloon began to descend, and the men were obliged to cut away the basket, throw out its contents and cling to the net. It was two hours before they landed, exhausted.

Man and Dog Drowned.

New York, March 27.—Edward Bewy, an employe of the Hudson county, N. J., almshouse, was drowned in the reservoir attached to that institution. When his body was recovered his arms were clasped around the neck of a St. Bernard dog, who was his constant companion. Apparently Bewy fell into the water, and the dog perished in a gallant attempt to rescue his master.

PURIFY YOUR BLOOD.
The cause of all pimples, boils and other eruptions, as well as of that tired feeling and poor appetite, which are so common at this season, is impure blood—that is diseased and impoverished by humors, morbid or effete matters, which should be gotten rid of without delay.

The best way to purify the blood, as thousands know, is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills.

World-wide experience confirms the statement that these great medicines make the blood pure and rich, clear the complexion, remove that tired feeling, improve the appetite, build up the whole system, and form in combination the ideal Blood Medicines.
