

STILL AFTER DOWIE

"First Apostle" of Zion Again Vigorously Denounced.

Zion City, Ill., April 9.—With the approval of thousands of Dowieites at a meeting, General Overseer Glenn Voliva denounced John Alexander Dowie as a spendthrift, liar and traitor, and was in turn promised support as leader of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, to fill the place of the founder of the church, now deposed and on his way from Mexico to fight for his rights.

When, after denouncing Dowie, Overseer Voliva suddenly demanded a decision of the audience which crowded Shiloh tabernacle as to who should be their future leader, the 6000 persons in the auditorium rose as one person and signified their willingness to follow Voliva to the end.

On the platform with Voliva were Mrs. John Alexander Dowie, Judge Barnes, head of the law department of Zion City, and Overseers Spelcher, Excell, Cantel and Granger.

A message was received from Dowie, stating that he would reach Zion City Tuesday morning, and ordering Shiloh house, his residence in Zion City, to be prepared for his homecoming. Voliva, after reading this message, vowed that Dowie would not be allowed to enter the door of what formerly was his Zion City home.

BLAMES IT ALL ON WIFE

Dowie Declares He Will Never Live With Her Again.

Little Rock, Ark., April 10.—Dr. John Alexander Dowie will never again live with his wife. This disclosure he made to a representative of the Associated Press, for whom he sent.

His final determination to separate from Mrs. Dowie was made after he had received and read the Chicago papers of last Friday, containing a story to the effect that he had intended to establish a harem in his Mexican colony. He ascribes this story to Mrs. Dowie and his son, Gladstone. This story caused Dowie great mental anguish.

"How could they be so cruel? How could they cause to be published such a thing?" he said over and over again.

When he had regained his composure he told of his irrevocable decision never to live with Mrs. Dowie again.

"She is the cause of most of my trouble," he reiterated. "She has spurred on Voliva and the others until this dreadful trouble came and my persecution was complete. For years I tried to shield her, but her strange conduct has now passed beyond the point of human endurance. Money and jealousy were at the bottom of it all. She was incensed because I wanted to leave so much to Zion. May God forgive her.

"I offered her 2 1/2 per cent. of the vast estate. It should have satisfied her, for it would have provided amply for her wants. As for her jealousy, who can account for that. I only know before my God that my life has been pure and blameless. These stories about polygamy are more than cruel—they are shocking."

KILLED HIS SICK WIFE

Drunken Brute Beat Her So Badly That She Died.

Baltimore, Md., April 9.—Because his 9-year-old son Thomas did not cook a meal quickly enough to please him, John T. Kennedy created a disturbance that attracted his sick wife from her bedroom to the kitchen of their home in a tenement house. A fight ensued between the man and his wife, in which the latter was so badly beaten that she died soon afterward. A neighbor, summoned by the child, found the mother still alive, but unconscious, and placed her on a couch, beside which Kennedy lay down and went to sleep. The police heard nothing of the affair for more than five hours, when officers went to the house and found Kennedy still asleep beside the corpse. He made a statement to the officials, in which he acknowledged having beaten his wife while intoxicated, but said that he did not think he was striking her hard enough to kill her.

Was Shot in Quarrel.

Philadelphia, April 10.—Word was received here of the fatal shooting of Stephen Booth, a negro, at West Grove, Pa., about 30 miles from here. Nathan Wilmer and John Gibbs, negroes, it is said were drinking in an abandoned shop when Booth entered, and the three became involved in a quarrel. Each drew a revolver and eighteen shots were exchanged, the last one killing Booth. Wilmer and Gibbs are under arrest.

Flag House Bill in Congress.

Washington, April 10.—Representative Moon, of Pennsylvania, introduced a bill which accepts for the government from the American Flag House and Betsy Ross Memorial Association what is known as the "Old Flag House," a two-story stone and brick structure in Philadelphia, where the first American flag was made in 1776. The bill requires the government to keep the house open for exhibition purposes.

Hangs Himself in His Sleep.

Akron, O., April 9.—Jacob Stair, aged 65, who has been known as a sleep walker, arose while asleep, walked downstairs and hanged himself to a floor joist with a piece of twine. He was a prominent Mason.

South American Exile in Boston.

Boston, April 10.—Exiled from his native land and with a price upon his head, former president, General Domingo Vasquez, of Honduras, arrived in this city on the steamer San Jose from Port Limon, Costa Rica.

High Pressure Days.

Men and women alike have to work incessantly with brain and hand to hold their own nowadays. Never were the demands of business, the wants of the family, the requirements of society, more numerous. The first effect of the praiseworthy effort to keep up with all these things is commonly seen in a weakened or debilitated condition of the nervous system, which results in dyspepsia, defective nutrition of both body and brain, and in extreme cases in complete nervous prostration. It is clearly seen that what is needed is what will sustain the system, give vigor and tone to the nerves, and keep the digestive and assimilative functions healthy and active. From personal knowledge, we can recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla for this purpose. It acts on all the vital organs, builds up the whole system, and fits men and women for these high-pressure days.

Letter to Katz and Co., Bellefonte, Pa.

Dear Sirs: Shuffert Hardware Co., Hickory, N. C., bought a car-load of paint; after selling it a few months, found out it measured seven pints a gallon. Returned it to the maker and credited customers with what they had lost from short measure.

What do you think of a short-measure paint? Don't you think it half white-wash? Half the paints are part white-wash.

Go by the name: Devoc lead and zinc. No whitening clay in that; full-measure besides. A gallon Devoc is worth two of whitewash paint.

Yours truly, F. W. Devoc & Co.

Books, Magazines, Etc.

What's in "McClure's."—McClure's for April has the freshness and cheerfulness of spring. You will want to read it all. Its articles, stories and verses, have a rare charm for the shortening evenings. Mary Stewart Cutting's "Symphony in Coal," which heads the table of contents, is another of those fascinating, sympathetic stories of married life. The most hair-raising chapter of adventure that has been published in a long time is the sixth instalment of Carl Schurz's "Reminiscences of a Long Life." "Rescuing Kinkel from Spandau Jail" is a story of intrigue and hair-breadth chances in the shadow of the guillotine, told with the happy swing of youth, that holds you from first word to last. Best of all it is true. "Some Diet Delusions" by Dr. Wood Hutchinson, is not only amusing; it has a very definite purpose, it scares away the old bogies. After you have read it, you will eat a square meal with a clear conscience. Perhaps the most timely paper in the number is Percival Gibbon's sketch of Count Witte, who is the crux of the situation in Russia. Mr. Gibbon has studied his subject at first hand, and his deduction is daring and surprising. Clara Morris contributes another charming chapter of reminiscences of the world behind the curtain, through which walk many of the old actors and actresses of our early days. Stewart Edward White's fourth Arizona Nights story, "The Ranch Foreman's Yarn; and the Cattle Rustler story," gives a phase of western life about which little has been written hitherto. The story depicts a man in no uncertain terms.

SOPIHY OF KRAVONIA—THE WOMAN OF THE RED STAR.—Anthony Hope, the famous author, who wrote "The Prisoner of Zenda" and other stirring romances, has just completed a new romance, "Sophy of Kravonia, or The Woman of the Red Star." It is full of soul stirring interest and is declared by all critics to be better than "The Prisoner of Zenda," which made Hope famous. This wonderful story begins publication exclusively in the Philadelphia Sunday Press, April 22nd. On this day the Sunday Press will also give away, absolutely free, a fine art supplement picture, size 14x21 inches, entitled "The Masqueraders," printed separately in six colors on heavy paper. Be sure and get the Sunday Press on April 22nd, and each Sunday thereafter, to read this great romance. Notify your newsdealer or carrier to reserve your paper, as the demand on this day will be enormous and late callers may be disappointed.

PASSING ALONG THE STREET

one windy, rainy day, a man was observed whose appearance made him conspicuous among other passersby. While they hurried along with faces expressing disgust and worryment, their clothes wet through and bedraggled he tramped contentedly along looking as unperturbed and as well groomed as if it were a bright June day.

The reason was he was wearing a Kuppenheimer Watershed. The coat was waterproof—the weather did not trouble him. He knew he looked well for it fitted him perfectly—just as a gentleman's coat should fit—around the collar and across the shoulders. It had that graceful "hang" which a well-made garment always has. As a result he was comfortable in mind and body.

The Kuppenheimer Watershed is to all appearances just a perfectly made, stylishly correct, light-weight overcoat, but the material of which it is made has been scientifically treated in a manner to make it waterproof. It's an "anyday" coat. Stylish all the time; waterproof when you need it. Made in various styles of which we have a complete assortment.
