DOWIE MEETING BROKEN UP

Followers of Voliva Jeered Him and General Fight Ensued.

Chicago, May 14.—A meeting over which John Alexander Dowie presided at Zion City was broken up by a number of the followers of Wilbur Glenn Voliva, assisted by several outsiders, and before the crowd dispersed a general fight ensued.

Dowie was addressing an audience of 600 persons, and made the statement that the overseers of the Voliva faction were thieves and robbers. At once a number of those in the audience were on their feet shouting: "No, no; you are the robber; why don't you pay your debts?" The disturbance became so violent that a Zion Guard was called to restore order. The guard attempted to eject an old man who was loudest in his demands for Dowie to pay his debts, when a dozen men seized the guard and were about to drag him down the aisle, when Gladstone Dowie and Deacon Arlington mounted the platform and called for attention.

At an after meeting, called for Dowie adherents only, but which was invaded by a large number of those who were riotous at the former meeting, Dowie precipitated a second general disturbance. He caused to be read a letter from one of his supporters, stating that the writer's wife had passed safely through the crisis of a serious illness while Dowie prayed for her. This fact Dowie compared with the case of Mrs. H. E. Cantel, wife of an overseer, who died last Friday without medical attention while Voliva and his supporters were offering prayers for her recovery. Dowie declared that he feared the woman died because she had associated herself with the rebels. Immeditely there was a storm of hisses and shouts of "shame," shame."

""There is death in store for more of you if this rebellion keeps on," continued Dowie. Again the people sprang from their chairs, shouting and gesticulating, until the tumult became so general that Dowie was obliged to bring this meeting to a close.

Two Children Burned to Death.

Pittsburg, May 14.—In a fire that destroyed the residence of Marcus A. Woodward at Clifton, this county, two children, Margaret, 21 months, and Marcus, 8 months old, were burned to death. Their charred bodies were found in the ruins when the fire had burned itself out. The children slept in an upper rear room, and the place where the bodies were found was just beneath where this room was located.

Senator Heyburn Very Ill.

Washington, May 14.—Senator Heyburn, of Idaho, is very ill, having had a recurrence of the catarrhal appendicitis, which compelled him to relinquish his senatorial duties a month or more ago.
