

P. GRAY MEEK, Editor

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates: Paid strictly in advance $1.00

Democratic Primary Election and Convention.

The Democratic voters of Centre county will meet at the regular places for holding the general elections, in their respective election districts, on Saturday, June 2nd, 1906, to elect delegates to the County Convention.

APPOINTMENT OF DELEGATES.

Table listing delegates by district: Bellefonte, Centre Hall, Mifflinburg, etc.

I hereby certify that in accordance with the rules of the Democratic party of Centre county requiring the registration of all candidates three weeks prior to the primary election, the following named persons have duly registered and are eligible to be voted for at the primaries:

Table listing candidates for various offices: President, Vice President, Clerks, etc.

For the San Francisco Sufferers. While every city and town in the United States are doing what they can for the relief of the unfortunate sufferers of the San Francisco catastrophe Bellefonte does not want to be behind and a fund has already been started for that purpose.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

DEATH OF JUDGE MAYER.—Judge C. A. Mayer, of Lock Haven, died in the Germantown hospital, Philadelphia, at 9.30 o'clock Friday evening, after several weeks' lingering illness following an operation for appendicitis.

Charles A. Mayer was born Dec. 15th, 1830, in York county, Pennsylvania, and his youth was spent mainly in Chambersburg, Franklin county, his parents having located there during his boyhood.

In 1868 he became a candidate for president judge of the Twenty-fifth judicial district composed of Centre, Clearfield and Clinton counties.

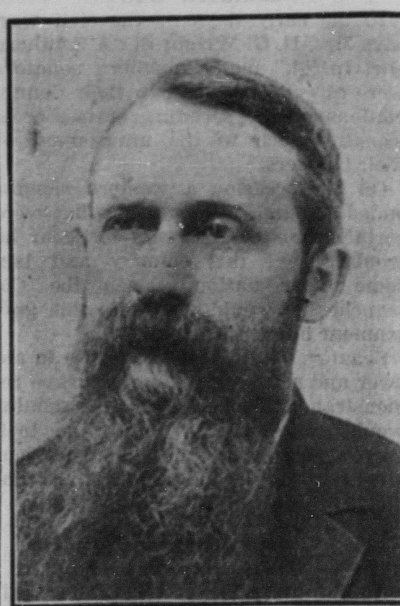

On January 2, 1861, Judge Mayer was united in marriage to Miss Helen McCormick, daughter of Saul McCormick, of Lock Haven.

A VENERABLE EDUCATOR DEAD.—William Griffith Waring died at his home in Tyrone last Friday afternoon at the advanced age of 89 years, 7 months and 15 days.

William Griffith Waring's early boyhood days were spent in Hereford, England, where he was born, and in Abergeenny, Wales.

In 1846 he was united in marriage to D. Melinda Coble, who died in 1861. Of five sons born to them there are three living.

LONG.—Mrs. Jane Long, widow of the late George W. Long, died at her home in Eagleview, Wednesday afternoon of last week of Bright's disease.

EDWARD T. TUTEN.

DEATH OF EDWARD T. TUTEN.—In the death of Edward T. Tuten Bellefonte lost its oldest newspaper man except one as well as one of the most familiar figures and best known men of the town.

Edward Terrell Tuten was a son of Robert P. and Nancy S. Tuten and was born at East Cambridge, Mass., September 8th, 1839, thus making his age 66 years, 8 months and 9 days.

On February 10th, 1870, he was united in marriage to Mrs. Marie P. Gray, widow of Edward L. Gray, of East Cambridge, Mass.

On Sunday, May 27th, Post 95 will attend divine service at the Evangelical church, Bellefonte, at 10.30 a. m.

WIRTS.—Joseph Wirts, one of the oldest residents of College township, and one of the very few ex-soldiers of the war with Mexico, died at his home at Houserville, on Thursday, May 17th, of general disability.

WATSON.—Mrs. Emma C. Watson, wife of Aaron Watson, died at her home in Tyrone, Monday morning, of cancer of the stomach.

LONG.—Mrs. Jane Long, widow of the late George W. Long, died at her home in Eagleview, Wednesday afternoon of last week of Bright's disease.

MARSHALL.—Joseph W. Marshall, one of the best known men in the Buffalo Run valley, died at his home in Benner township at 1 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Deceased was eighty years old and was born in Benner township, where he lived all his life with the exception of several years spent in Biggs township.

He was married December 6th, 1849 to Miss Mary Allen, who survives him with the following children: William, of Kansas City; Mrs. Charles F. Cook, of Bellefonte; Mrs. William Alexander, of Unionville; Mrs. D. H. Shively, of Buffalo Run; James, of Niagara Falls, and Florence and Lewis, at home.

In the death of Mr. Marshall Benner township loses one of its most honored and progressive citizens. He was always foremost in every move that would have the good of the community and the welfare of his fellowmen at heart.

The funeral was held at 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon and was one of the most largely attended ever held in Buffalo Run valley.

STOVER.—Mrs. Uriah Stover died at her home at Houserville, last Sunday. She was seventy-eight years of age and a most estimable woman.

MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAM.—Before the next issue of the WATCHMAN Memorial day will have come and one more milestone added to the honoring of the gallant dead who gave their lives for the preservation of the Union.

HEADQUARTERS GREGG POST 95, DEPT. OF PA. G. A. E. MAY 22ND, 1906.

The ceaseless passage of time brings to us one more Memorial day, fraught with recollections of the past. Let those of us who remain not forget our duty to our comrades who have responded to the final roll call; let us show to the world how we cherish their memories and the heroic efforts necessary to preserve our national integrity and unity.

W. H. MUSSER, Commander.

—Mr. Vollmer, of H. A. Vollmer & Co. decorators, Harrisburg, is now in Bellefonte for the purpose of taking orders for decorations for the day of the dedication of the soldiers' monument.

—The ticket office at the passenger depot of the Pennsylvania railroad in this place is being enlarged.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—The following marriage licenses were issued the past week by Register Earle C. Taten.

—The many friends of Miss Jennie Crittenden will be gratified to learn of the success she is achieving in Waterbury, Conn.

—Jacob Knisely last week moved his family from this place to State College.

—Dr. J. M. Brookerhoff is now the owner of quite a handsome riding horse, a thoroughbred right from Kentucky, and now he is putting in a good part of his time learning to be an accomplished equestrian.

—Children's Day services will be held in St. John's Catholic church at 7.30 o'clock Sunday evening.

MONUMENT NAME PLATES HERE.

The first consignment of the bronze plates bearing the names of Centre county soldiers was received on Tuesday and on Wednesday the men began work on the placing of them on the soldiers' monument.

The concrete paving around the monument has all been completed, the fountains have been moved back in the court house yard and the commissioners now have a force of men at work grading the yard, so that there is good assurance that everything will be in fair shape for the big day, June 8th.

FOR THE BIG PARADE.—The big parade will be one of the leading features on June 8th, the day of the dedication of the soldiers' monument and Curtin memorial.

MARSHALL AND AIDS FOR PARADE.

MILITARY DIVISION.

VETERANS.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS.

PROVISIONAL CAVALRY.

DISTRICT AIDS.

Excursion Rates.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Excursion Rates.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Excursion Rates.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Excursion Rates.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Excursion Rates.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Excursion Rates.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Excursion Rates.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Excursion Rates.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Excursion Rates.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Excursion Rates.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Excursion Rates.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Excursion Rates.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Excursion Rates.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

A little girl baby made its arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nolan, on Reynolds avenue, yesterday morning.

The Nittany Iron company has leased the old Lambourne ore bank in Buffalo Run valley and will operate it in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kerr Cass, of Tyrone, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Margaret Kerr Cass, to Charles Thomas Lipscomb, of Columbia, S. C., on Tuesday evening, June 5th.

Malone Haven is laid up with a badly cut foot.

James Harpster is nursing a carbuncle on his right arm.

Dr. Woods is having his home beautified with a new coat of paint.

The drought still continues and many water wagons are on the road.

Mrs. Emma Dale has been confined to bed with an attack of rheumatism.

J. B. Ard is building an additional frontage to his home on Main street.

Samuel Hazel is making his rounds among the farmers gathering up the feeds.

D. M. Neidigh, agent for a Pittsburg fencing company, is bustling around here.

Mr. Moore, of Morrisville, bought some choice cattle in the valley on Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Swabb is off on a ten days visit among her many friends in Altoona.

A. M. Brown is down in West Virginia this week in quest of stock and a new steam saw mill.

John I. Markle came down from his fat job at Bellwood to make some needed repairs at his home.

A little preacher came to Rev. Harnish's home, Tuesday morning, to share little Walter's play things.

Mrs. Sallie Bloom is building an addition to her cosy home at Bloomsdorf.

J. N. Bell, of Spruce Creek, was here several days in the beginning of the week greeting friends of long ago.

Dr. Kidder, wife and little Mary are spending this week among their many acquaintances in Altoona.

Little Mary, daughter of Mr. Daniel Lowder, of Oak Hill, is ill with that much dreaded disease diabetes.

Jeff Davis Hubler, of Rockview, with his family spent Sunday at the well known Hubler home at Pine Hall.

Supervisors Walker and Meyers are running the stone crushers on full time improving the roads in fine shape.

John Hoy and wife, of Jacksonville, spent several days among the Hoy's in this section in the beginning of the week.

Rumor has it that one of our merchants will be one of the principal participants in a wedding festivity on the 29th.

George Meyers, the grain and hay merchant of Lemont, is loading several cars with wheat at Fairbrook this week.

Hon. J. T. McCormick and wife and John Seibert and wife enjoyed a drive to Milroy Saturday returning home Monday.

Frank Kline and wife with their interesting little boys were visitors at James Peters' home in the Glades Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Glenn and Mr. and Mrs. William Collins, of this place, Sundayed with friends over along Buffalo Run.

The venerable Jacob Markle, of Linden Hall, came up last Friday to spend the day with his cousin, Samuel, on Main street.

Wm. Murray Goheen, the popular sales caller, was shaking hands in town Tuesday. He was accompanied by his sister, Elmira.

George Garbrick and wife drove up from Bellefonte on Monday to spend a few days with his bosom friend, George W. Homan.

Dr. Geo. Bailey Goheen, of Coalport, was called home Monday to the bedside of his mother, whose life is just hanging on a thread.

Miss Nora Goheen, a student at the Lock Haven Normal, was hastily called home Tuesday on account of the serious illness of her mother.

John Bumgardner, of Neff's Mills, was circulating among the farmers in the beginning of the week and bought a nice bunch of cattle for his eastern trade.

The ladies circle of the Pine Hall Lutheran church will give a chicken and waffle supper on the evening of Memorial day. Ice cream and other dainties will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Goss enjoyed a drive to the county capital, where Howard looked after a little business while Mrs. Goss did some shopping and purchased a new hat.

Judge Hess, of Bellefonte, was here last week to see his share of the pumpkins planted on his broad and fertile acres.

Richard Morton, who is now in the harness business down in Louisiana, is back visiting friends in this section where he was born and raised.

Take Vin-te-na and the good effect will be immediate. You will get strong, you will feel bright, fresh and active, you will feel new, rich blood coursing through your veins.

Richard Morton, who is now in the harness business down in Louisiana, is back visiting friends in this section where he was born and raised.

Take Vin-te-na and the good effect will be immediate. You will get strong, you will feel bright, fresh and active, you will feel new, rich blood coursing through your veins.

Richard Morton, who is now in the harness business down in Louisiana, is back visiting friends in this section where he was born and raised.