HUNG HERSELF WITH A CLOTHESLINE. -Miss Jennie Galbraith, a middle-aged maiden lady of Harris township, committed suicide Monday morning by hanging herself with a clothesline in the kitchen of her home. Miss Galbraith kept house for her brothers, Robert and James, who were well-to-do farmers of Harris township, living about a mile east of Boalsburg. For some time past she had not been in the best of health and the death of a dearly loved sister, Mrs. John Ross, some three weeks or more ago, so preyed on her mind that she grew despondent and of late her mind was much affected. No one anticipated that she would do herself bodily barm, however. On Monday she seemed no worse than usual and after breakfast her brothers left the house for their work in game. the fields without a thought of anything out of the way. When they returned at -T. TO SABBATH SCHOOL WORKERS OF CEN-TRE COUNTY.-The time is close at band for the county convention of Sabbath schools, which will be held at Howard next Thursday and Friday, May 31st and June 1st. Programs were mailed all recorded schools last week and they should have been presented last Sunday and delegates chosen. Every school in the county should endeavor to be represented. If your school has not received programs, nor your superintendent of last year, write at once to the secretary. Names of all delegates desiring entertainment should be forwarded to Miss Susan V. Pletcher, Howard, Pa., not later than May 28th, and as much earlier as possible. The important subjects to be discussed and the able speakers who will be present assure a rich and instructive treat to all who will attend. Only a few more than sixty schools have returned the statistical cards. The return of these cards are necessary to complete the report to the convention. If not sent in before that date do not fail to bring the report card fully filled in to Howard on May 31st. Also remember offering for Sunday school work.

A. C. LATHROP, secretary.

NEWS VIA LOCK HAVEN .- Saturday's Lock Haven Express contained the following item in which Bellefonters are concerned. The property referred to is the one in which John P. Harris, Frank Warfield and other Bellefonters are interested: There has been placed on record in the office of Register and Recorder Snyder at conveying the belongings of the Mill Hall Lime company, including the kilne, lands, sidings, tools and personal property to Ex-Sheriff Hugh S. Taylor, of Bellefonte, for a — "The Drummer Boy of Shiloh" consideration of $12,600. The second is a dead and leases from Hugh Taylor conveying to the Nittany Lime and Stone comer with a lease on 59' acres of lin land situate near Salona, consideration $39,000. With this amount of capital inthere will be something doing at this place in the lime business in the near foture. This will be gratifying news to the citizens in this place, as it now looks as though the long idle lime kilns would soon be put into operation.

STATE D. A. R's. HONOR A STATE COLLEGE YOUNG WOMAN .- Miss Bess Glenn, the only young woman in the Senior class of one hundred men at Pennsylvania State College, was, last week, awarded the fifty dollar prize annually offered by the State Daughters of American Revolution for the best historical essay on Pre-Revolutionary Days in Pennsylvania. The testimonial was established some time ago by Miss Julia K. Hogg and in awarding'it this year, the chairman of the committee said of Miss Glenn's essay, which covered only the years '74-'76, "It is the best presented since the establishment of the testimonial."

It is no small honor to have come to a State College girl since it was in competition with senior women in all the colleges in Pennsylvania.
