

Correspondents.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

My, but this has been a great week! Good morning, sir! How do you like Belleville this morning?

James P. Carner, of Hublersburg, and Miss Helen Jodon, of Belleville, were married on June first.

Two good girls can secure positions in the Bell telephone exchange to learn as operators. See ad. in another column.

The annual commencement will begin at State College with the preaching of the baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gallagher are the happy parents of a big thirteen pound baby girl who made her arrival last Saturday night.

Are you going to see the Drummer Boy of Shiloh tonight. It is a show worth seeing. Germans opera house. Price 50 and 25.

Owing to the great press of local news this week most of our correspondence was crowded out, for which we beg pardon of the writers.

David Chambers, of Snow Shoe, has been discharged from the Lock Haven hospital, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis.

The Kappa Sigma nine came down from the College last Saturday and were defeated by the Belleville Academy by the score of 8 to 5.

Your last chance to see the great military spectacle, the Drummer Boy of Shiloh, will be tonight. If you have not seen it yet don't miss it.

George T. Bush has issued a very fine Souvenir letter, in the shape of eight good views of Belleville. It is far superior to the post card and costs but 10 cents.

Very little of importance was done at the regular meeting of borough council on Monday evening except disagree as to the kind of fountain to be erected in the Diamond.

Don't fail to see the Drummer Boy of Shiloh at Garman's tonight. It will be a fitting close to the dedicatory exercises. It is a splendid military spectacle and will interest you.

If there is anything wrong with your sight don't forget that Dr. Angel, a specialist in helping people, will be at the Broeckerhoff house on the 15th and 16th of June.

Tonight the beautiful military spectacle the Drummer Boy of Shiloh will have its last presentation in Belleville. The character and tone of the show merits a packed house.

Nester Sirgy, who gives his home as Frenchville, in Clearfield county, was incarcerated in the Centre county jail yesterday on the charge of larceny preferred by Mr. Colpetzer, of near Belleville.

Prof. J. Angel, the eye specialist of Williamsport, will be at the Broeckerhoff house June 15th and 16th, Friday and Saturday of next week, where all persons afflicted in any way with defective vision can consult him.

Mrs. Frank K. Lukenbach underwent an operation for appendicitis, at her home on Lincoln avenue, Tyrone, last Thursday afternoon. The operation was performed by Dr. John B. Nason, of Roaring Springs, assisted by Dr. W. A. Nason. Mrs. Lukenbach's condition is one of rapid progression towards complete recovery.

Last Friday State College defeated the Lafayette College base ball team on Beaver field, by the score of 2 to 1. It was one of the best games played at the College in several years. The last game in which State will play this season will be next Wednesday afternoon when the strong Villa Nova nine will be met on Beaver field.

D. A. Grove, of Lemont, tomorrow (Saturday, June 9th) will sell a carload of western horses, the finest ever brought to Centre Hall. The best of driving horses, several good teams of work horses, roadsters and any kind the purchaser may desire. No old ones in the bunch, all being young horses. Several good brood mares will also be sold. Sale to begin at 1 o'clock.

Philip Waddle has tendered his resignation as agent for the American express company in this place and on Monday, June 18th, will go to the Bush House as clerk, in place of Mr. Seltzer, who will return to his former home in Reading. Mr. Waddle has been in the employ of the two express companies here for a number of years and was always a courteous and obliging official, and in his new position will no doubt prove just as affable and pleasant.

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. A. B. Miller entertained the members of the graduating class of the Belleville High school as well as the faculty and Mrs. Jonas E. Wagner and Mrs. John S. Hosterman, in honor of Mrs. Miller's sister, Miss Elsie Viehdoerfer, a member of the class. Music and various amusements made the time pass entirely too soon for all present. One of the most enjoyable parts of the evening was when all were gathered around the nicely decorated and well spread tables, partaking of the choice refreshments served by the hostess.

KAUF.—George W. Kauf died at his home on the Humes farm, southeast of Belleville, at five o'clock Friday morning, after an illness of six weeks with a brain affection. He was fifty-seven years old and was born at Oak Hill, this county. All his life he followed the occupation of a farmer and for the past twenty-eight years he managed the Humes farm, near this place. He was one of the most successful agriculturists in the county and a man highly esteemed by all who knew him.

He was twice married, the first time to Rebecca Alice Dorman, by whom he had four children, three of whom survive, as follows: John, Sarah and Vergie. After the death of his first wife he married Mrs. Sarah M. Potter, who died about a year ago. In the death of Mr. Kauf the community has lost one of its best and most trustworthy citizens.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock, Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt officiating. Monday morning the remains were taken to Mt. Bethel, Clinton county, where interment was made.

HUDSON.—John Hudson, one of the oldest and best known men of Phillipsburg, was found dead in bed at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Sobell, last Friday morning, death being due to ailments incident to old age.

Deceased was seventy-six years of age and was born in Phillipsburg. His father was one of the pioneer settlers having come to that town with the founder of it, Hardman Phillips. All his life was spent in the town of his birth with the exception of the couple years spent in the army during the Civil war. His wife died many years ago but surviving him are one son and two daughters, James, of Curwensville; Mrs. John McVeigh, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. William Sobell, of Phillipsburg; also two brothers and one sister, Robert and William, of Phillipsburg, and Mrs. Emma Lincoln, of East Madison, Maine. The funeral was held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, interment being made in the old cemetery.

BEAMER.—William Boyd Beamer died at his home at Gearhartville, last Thursday morning of dropsy and heart trouble. He was sixty-six years old and was born at Hannah Furnace, being the last survivor of a family of seven brothers and four sisters. Surviving him are his wife and the following children: Mrs. John Hessong, Nant-y-glo; Mrs. Alexander Butterworth, Keystone Hill; Harry W., Chester Hill; John T., Miss Anna M. and William B., of Gearhartville.

Mr. Beamer was a staunch and true Democrat all his life and for thirteen consecutive years filled the office of justice of the peace. He was a gallant soldier during the Civil war and was a member of John W. Geary Post, No. 90, G. A. R. The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, interment being made in the Phillipsburg cemetery.

GARLAND.—Mrs. Susannah Garland, wife of David Garland, died at her home at Olivia, Thursday morning of last week, after but a two days illness with pneumonia. She was aged 76 years and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Woomer. Surviving her are her husband and the following children: Albert, of Braddock; Henry C., of Pittsburg; William K., of Sinking Valley; Annie and Gertrude at home; also the following brothers and sisters: Abednego Woomer and Mrs. Elizabeth Hicks, of Phillipsburg; Porter Woomer, of Kane; Mrs. Katharine and Mrs. Louisa Rice, Belleville; Martin, of Yall; John S. and Henry C., of Bald Eagle. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon. Rev. J. B. Durkee officiated and interment was made in the Bald Eagle cemetery.

CUNNINGHAM.—Mrs. W. F. Cunningham, whose maiden name was Johnston and who was born at Boalsburg, this county, died on April 25th at Ningpo, China, where she lived with her daughter, now the wife of Rev. H. K. Wright, both missionaries in the Presbyterian church at Ningpo. Mrs. Cunningham had not been well for some time but was on the point of starting for home when she was suddenly taken worse and died. She is survived by two sisters living in Huntingdon and one brother, Rev. James M. Johnston, pastor of the Chestnut Avenue M. E. church in Altoona.

WOLFE.—Israel Wolfe, a long-time resident of Miles township, died at his home in Rebersburg early Tuesday morning, after a protracted illness with infirmities of old age. He was a native of that township and was 75 years old. For many years he conducted a tailoring establishment in Rebersburg and was widely known throughout Brush valley for his honesty and strict integrity. He was a consistent member of the Reformed church. His wife died about a year ago but surviving him are two sons and one daughter, Thomas, at home; George, in the west, and Mrs. Charles Brown, of Rebersburg.

STIVER.—George J. Stiver died at Altoona, last Thursday afternoon, after five months illness with heart trouble. He was forty-five years old and was born in Centre county moving to Altoona fourteen years ago. His mother, three brothers and a sister survive.

SAXON.—James Francis Saxon, son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Saxon, of Pleasant Gap, died last Thursday from opiate poisoning, taken by mistake. The child was aged 3 years, 5 months and 8 days.

DALE.—Mrs. Mary M. Dale, relict of the late William Dale, was found dead in her bedroom at her home in Lemont, at 8 o'clock Monday morning. Although she had not been very strong of late she was in her usual health when she retired Sunday night and her death was undoubtedly due to heart disease.

Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell and was born at the old Mitchell farm homestead in College township, seventy-five years ago last March. Her husband died a number of years ago and her only son, John M. Dale Esq., died less than three years ago. She was a woman of wide acquaintance throughout the county and was beloved by all who knew her. For many years she was a faithful member of the Presbyterian church and lived up to the doctrines of her religious belief.

The funeral took place at 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, from her late home in Lemont. Rev. W. K. Harnish officiated and interment was made in the Branch cemetery.

JONES.—Mrs. Curtis Jones died at her home in Phillipsburg, Wednesday evening of last week, after a year's illness. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Adams, was born at Stormstown and was thirty-two years of age. Surviving her are her husband and three young children, Horace, Bessie and Mary; also her parents, four brothers and three sisters. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, interment being made in the new cemetery at Phillipsburg.

SPECIAL GRANGE MEETING.—The Centre county Pomona Grange will hold a special meeting in grange parlors, at Centre Hall, Friday, June 15th, at 9 o'clock a. m. Conferring of the fifth degree will take place at 1 p. m. Officers of the Pennsylvania State Grange will confer the sixth degree at 3 p. m. A public meeting will be held in the evening and all patrons are invited to attend. A cordial invitation is also extended the public at large to attend the evening meeting, which will be addressed by Master W. F. Hill, of the State Grange, Secretary Ailman, Hon. W. T. Cressy and Mortimer Whitehead of New Jersey.

D. M. CAMPBELL, Secretary.

JONES-PATTERSON.—Chester Jones, of Phillipsburg, and Miss Alma Patterson, of Johnstown, were married at the parsonage of the First United Brethren church, Altoona, on Monday evening. After a brief wedding trip they will take up their residence in Johnstown where the groom holds a good position.

THE SCHAEFFER-HAZEL REUNION.—The Schaeffer-Hazel annual reunion will be held this year at Hecla Park on Thursday, June 21st. This family reunion is one of the biggest held in Centre county and always draws a large crowd. The date named for this year is believed to be one as convenient for all as it is possible to select and there is no doubt but that the attendance will be as large as ever.

CONCERTS AT HECLA PARK.—The weekly concerts and dances at Hecla Park will be resumed on Friday, June 15th. Trains leave Belleville at 2:45 and 7:05 p. m., and the usual low picnic rates will prevail.

Don't forget that all the banks in Belleville will close at 11 o'clock this morning for the day.

L. C. Ballock on Monday moved his family from Indiana, Pa., back to their old home in Milesburg.

Captain Harshberger, her sister and Miss Bessie Green, of the Salvation Army, have been transferred to Franklin, Pa., for which place they left on Tuesday.

The old flag that is floating from the cornice of the Curtin home on High street is the same Old Glory that floated over Governor Curtin's residence throughout the war.

Sylvester Slagle, of State College, is the inventor of a new and useful lens for eye glasses which he had patented March 20th, 1906. It is a double lens, by which the user can see at close range or long distance and is the first of the kind ever invented for persons afflicted with ametropic vision. Mr. Slagle's invention is no doubt a good one and we hope he will make a fortune out of it. Users of glasses could not do better than give him a trial.

Melvin Miner, an eighteen-year-old young man of Howard, had his hand cut off by a circular saw, last Friday morning, and is now in the Belleville hospital undergoing treatment. Miner had just gone to work that morning on a saw mill back of Howard and had not been at work a half hour until he had his left hand caught in the saw and cut off. His fellow workmen quickly took him to a physician at Howard who stopped the flow of blood when he was brought to the Belleville hospital.

The funeral of the late Mrs. M. W. Cowdick was held last Friday morning at 10.30 o'clock. The services were held in the Methodist church and were conducted by Rev. J. Ford Leffler, of Niagara Falls, the deceased's pastor, assisted by Rev. J. B. Stein. A large concourse of sorrowing friends were present to pay a final tribute to one loved and esteemed by all. Messrs. W. I. Fleming, J. P. Smith, W. T. Twitmore, Levi Whippo, S. A. Bell and C. C. Shuey were the honorary pall-bearers while the carriers were the sons, W. S., C. E. and T. P. Cowdick; P. M. Romizer, a son-in-law, and M. H. and H. D. Otto, grandsons. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The thirty-seventh annual convention of the Centre County Sunday school association was held at Howard last Thursday afternoon and Friday. The first session was held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and was opened with a song service under the direction of W. T. Hall, of Howard. Rev. J. F. Shultz made the address of welcome which was responded to by Rev. C. C. Bingham, of Runville. Prof. C. L. Gramley, the president of the association, made a brief address at the close of which he introduced Miss Ermina C. Lincoln, of Philadelphia, state superintendent of primary work, who gave a talk on "A Good Beginning." Others who discussed the same subject were Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, of Belleville; Rev. J. H. Higby, Rev. C. T. Irwin and Mrs. A. S. Price.

Rev. James B. Stein, of Belleville, spoke of "The Responsibility of the Sunday School Teacher," after which committees on enrollment, finance, nominations and resolutions were appointed. The last discussion of the afternoon was on "How can an association become more helpful to our local schools?" by Rev. W. H. Schuyler, of Centre Hall, and Rev. Charles T. Irwin, of Belleville, state field worker.

In the evening Miss Lincoln talked on "Christ's representative—the Sunday school teacher," and Rev. Irwin on "The Great Teacher in the midst of His class."

Most of Friday morning's session was devoted to business. Immediately after the devotional exercise, which was led by Rev. E. E. Haney, of Spring Mills, the report of the executive committee was read which showed an enrollment of 168 schools within the county. The treasurer reported a balance of $631 from last year and that up to this time eighty schools had reported with offerings this year. Pastor Lathrop, of Milesburg, was selected as field worker for the month of July.

The committee on nominations and election of officers reported the following selections: President, C. L. Gramley, Rebersburg; vice president, Rev. W. H. Schuyler, Centre Hall; secretary, Rev. A. C. Lathrop, Milesburg; treasurer, A. Lukenbach, Belleville; primary and junior superintendent, Mrs. H. W. Kreamer; normal superintendent, T. M. Gramley; home department superintendent, Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt.

Following the business session brief addresses were made by Rev. C. F. Irwin, Miss Lincoln, Revs. Schmidt, Mollay and Boal.

At the afternoon session the convention pledged $125 to help carry on the state work. The auditing committee reported all accounts for 1905 correct.

Rev. J. A. Platts, of Belleville, gave a talk on "Bible study for personal and spiritual growth." Rev. W. L. DeGross, of Philadelphia, talked on "Looking on the things of others," and the afternoon session closed with an address by Rev. H. I. Crow, of Hublersburg, on "Essentials to the most effective Sunday school work."

At the closing session Friday evening addresses were made by W. L. DeGross, C. L. Gramley, Rev. Schuyler and Lathrop, the convention closing with the doxology and benediction by Rev. Aller. The gathering was one of unusual success, about one hundred and seventy-five delegates being in attendance.

WHAT THE D. A. R. HAVE DONE.—The query of what the Belleville Chapter D. A. R. have done can be answered as follows: A contribution of $175 to the soldier's monument and Curtin memorial. A member of the Chapter furnished the names of the Revolutionary soldiers buried in Centre county for the monument. A handsome marker was erected at Potter's Fort in 1895, and the same year a contribution of $72 was made to the division hospital at Chickamauga. To the soldier's club house at Manila $5 were given; to the relief fund of widows and orphans $25; contribution to Company B, 23, and a reception on their return home from the Spanish-American war; annual prizes to the schools and a room furnished and kept in repairs in the Belleville hospital. Other work of interest only to the Chapter is also kept up.

ACADEMY ANNUAL RECEPTION.—The annual reception and assembly of the Belleville Academy will be held next Thursday evening, June 14th. The reception will be at the Academy from 7.30 to 10 o'clock, and it is hoped all friends of the institution will attend. No formal invitation is issued for this occasion, so one and all must consider themselves invited and equally welcome.

The assembly will be held in the armory and will begin at 10 o'clock. It will be given under the auspices of the alumni and all those wishing to attend should confer with either W. W. Gephart or Hallie Jacobs.

A SUICIDE.—Charles King, of Millheim committed suicide, last Saturday evening, by shooting himself in the breast, in a hotel at Clearfield. King had been working in Clearfield for some time past and on Saturday had been drinking. In the evening he went to a hotel, registered from Belleville, got a room and shortly afterwards shot himself. He was a son of Abraham King, of Millheim, was thirty-nine years old and unmarried. The remains were taken to Millheim on Monday where the funeral was held that same afternoon.

CONCERTS AT HECLA PARK.—The weekly concerts and dances at Hecla Park will be resumed on Friday, June 15th. Trains leave Belleville at 2:45 and 7:05 p. m., and the usual low picnic rates will prevail.

News Purely Personal.

Mrs. Ed. Nearhood left yesterday for her new home in Washington, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark, of DuBois, are visiting friends at Pleasant Gap.

Mrs. J. P. Hazlet, of Atlantic City, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. Clayton Brown.

Miss Georgiana Daggett, of New York, is at the Bush house for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson, of Homestead, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Grimm.

Mrs. Hammon Sechler and Mrs. Jane McCallmont spent Sunday with friends in Tyrone.

Cashier D. F. Kapp, of the First National bank of State College, was in town yesterday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Larimer, of Jersey Shore, were on Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Larimer.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCallmont, of Rochester, N. Y., are visiting their many friends in Belleville.

Miss Agnes McGowan left on Thursday for Philadelphia to resume her studies for a trained nurse.

Mrs. Griffith Lytle, of Kansas, is at present visiting old friends in various parts of Centre county.

Dr. Thomas J. Orison and wife, of Overbrook, spent Sunday with the former's mother in this place.

Samuel Wagner, of Altoona, was in Belleville on Tuesday looking after his large grain and feed trade.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hunt and two children, of Renovo, were arrivals in Belleville yesterday for the big time today.

George M. Dmeling, of Clearfield, who is after the State Senatorial nomination, spent the past two days in Belleville.

Mrs. Frank Derstine and little child, of Altoona, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Donachy, on Allegheny street.

Miss Margaret Sechler, of Baltimore, is with her parents in Belleville for a three weeks' rest before beginning her work for the summer.

C. G. McMillen, of Dayton, Ohio, was one of the old Belleville friends who arrived in Belleville yesterday for the monument dedication today.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward Harris, of Butler, arrived in Belleville Wednesday and are now guests at the John P. Harris home on Linn street.

Miss Mary Sommerville came over from Winburne Tuesday to be the guest, for an indefinite time, of her many friends in and about Belleville.

Miss Jennie Schell, of Lock Haven, was in Belleville this week the guest of Miss Daise Keckline, while attending the High school commencement.

Fred Lane, son of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Lane, returned on Tuesday from Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where he took a course in Eastman's business college.

Dr. M. A. Kirk spent the forepart of the week in Johnstown attending the State Medical association which has been in session there during the week.

Mrs. Earl Way with her son Creighton passed through Belleville Friday on her way up Buffalo Run, for a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Meek.

Mrs. A. G. Morris, Miss Lide Morris, A. G. Jr., of Tyrone, and Robert Morris and Mrs. Douglas, of Columbia, South Carolina, will attend the monument dedication today.

Fred Weaver, who is taking a musical course in the Peabody Institute at Baltimore, is now at home for the summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Weaver.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Victor Royer, of Altoona, have been in Belleville this week attending the High school commencement and remaining for the dedication of the monument today.

Miss Caroline Orvis went to Lancaster on Wednesday for a visit with the family of W. H. Keller Esq. Mr. Keller arrived in town yesterday and will be here for the dedication.

Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Morris, having come in from Pittsburg to attend the Lipscomb-Cass wedding in Tyrone, Tuesday evening, are spending the remainder of the week in Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lipton, of Downs, Kansas, are now visitors at the home of Hon. Harry R. Curtin, at Roland, the first time in many years. They came here especially for the dedication today.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thomas and their two sons, Richard and Ashbridge, left on Saturday for New York, from where they sailed on Wednesday for the summer season's tour of Europe.

Mrs. Reuben F. Shaffer, of Jersey Shore, is visiting Centre county friends.

Miss Carrie Harper left Wednesday for Washington, D. C., for a week's sojourn.

Theodore P. Rynder, of Erie, is visiting friends in Belleville and Milesburg.

Fred Chambers came down from Tyrone on Tuesday to be present at the big time today.

J. H. Sands left last week for Atlantic City, where he will stay ten days or longer, then visit New York and Philadelphia before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Curtin, of Philadelphia, and Miss Marcella Breeze, of Downingtown, arrived in Belleville yesterday for the monument dedication today.

MATTERN-DUNSMORE.—Harry Matern and Miss Lou Dunsmore, both of Phillipsburg, were quietly married at the M. E. parsonage, that place, Wednesday evening of last week, by the pastor, Rev. E. D. Wilson. The two young people, both of whom are well and prominently known, sought to give their friends a surprise by having the nuptial knot tied and slipping quietly out of town before the fact was known, but in this they were mistaken and a good old-time serenade was the result. Mr. and Mrs. Matern will go to housekeeping in Patton where the bridegroom has an interest in a meat market.

WILLIAMS-STEVENSON.—Royce G. Williams, of Martha, and Miss Helen L. Stevenson, of Unionville, were married at Martha, at 8.30 o'clock Sunday evening, by pastor A. C. Lathrop, of the Disciple church. Both Mr. and Mrs. Williams are well known and highly respected young people in the community in which they live and have the sincere good wishes of all for their future happiness.

KELLEHER-STUNK.—Thomas Joseph Kelleher and Miss Nina Stunk were quietly married at the Catholic parsonage at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, by Rev. Father McArdle. They were attended by Curtis Taylor and the bride's sister, Miss Grace Strunk.

Spring Mills.

James McClintock, who has been ill for several weeks, is in a critical condition.

Quite a number of our people will attend the Curtin dedication at Belleville on Friday.

Mrs. Nannie Stover, a highly esteemed lady of our village, after a lingering illness of several months, died on Sunday evening last.

The Spring Mills junior base ball team will play a game with the Millheim nine on Saturday next at Spring Mills. Both teams are tolerably strong and about evenly matched and an interesting and lively game may be expected.

The bass fishing season opens on the 15th inst., but does not seem to interest our fishing sports particularly. They seem to have had enough of trout disappointments and don't care to risk another. But of course they will all get over that nonsense.

No signs yet of any special celebration for Fourth of July. Why do not the Eagles and Odd Fellows make a move to get something up of an interesting and appropriate character? They have the material to do it with. Why not get up a big picnic, invite the whole town to join in, have lively addresses, plenty of music and song? Let the day be gay and lively. Don't let us have two Sundays in one week.

This is what the litigant in the adjoining county wrote to the Circuit clerk: "Is it necessary for me to be at the trial in person? When does my case come up?" Response by the Circuit clerk: "No; your attorney can represent you."

Rejoinder by litigant: "If you are sure of that I'll come. I'm deaf."

FOR RENT.—The Dental offices now occupied by Dr. Ward, in the stone building, corner of High and Allegheny streets, also one store room in the Exchange building. Apply to F. W. Cridler.

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening.

Table with 2 columns: Commodity and Price. Includes Wheat, Corn, Flour, Rye, and other grain products.

Belleville Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER. The following are the quotations up to 5:13 o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes to press:

Table with 2 columns: Commodity and Price. Includes Wheat, Corn, Rye, and other grain products.

Belleville Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co. Potatoes per bushel, Onions, Eggs, per dozen, Lard, per pound, Country shoulders, Sides, Ham, Butter, per pound.

Table with 2 columns: Commodity and Price. Includes Potatoes, Onions, Eggs, Lard, Country shoulders, Sides, Ham, Butter.

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Belleville, Pa., at $1.00 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $1.50 when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publisher. Papers will not be sent out of Centre county unless paid for in advance. A liberal discount is made to persons advertising by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows: