What Weather Prophet Hinks Says.

We all know what the weather has been the first two weeks of this month and for the last two, beginning with today, when there is to be violent and sudden changes to cooler, Rev. Iri Hicks says:

A reactionary storm period centers on the 18th to the 21st and will bring changes of barometer, temperature, humidity and wind, causing an excess of lightning and thunder, but a series of cloudy days with occasional rain-storms. The first stages of the storm period promise to be excessively warm, with sudden change to unreasonably cool, and a period of this and other changes will prevail through all the central storm periods, overlapping from one period into another, except many brilliant displays of atmospheric electricity.

A regular storm period runs from the 23rd to the 27th, with high probabilities that little if any cessation of disturbances will come between this and the period immediately preceding it. If heavy storms of rain, wind and thunder do not appear at this time peculiar and phenomenal results will convulse the elements of earth and sky. Let it be distinctly understood that these forecasts do not imply that great and unnatural calamities must necessarily be expected. We mean no such things, notwithstanding there are sensationalists and calculators who will seize the occasion to circulate such reports and criticisms.

We are much inclined to the conclusion that abnormal rainfalls will visit the region tributary to our great central rivers, and that, as a consequence very high waters, if not destructive overflows and floods will rush down our central valleys toward the end of June.

A reactionary storm period is central on Friday and Saturday, the 29th and 30th. The moon is on the celestial equator on the 29th, the date of the moon's first quarter. Falling barometer, very high temperature and energetic thunder, rain and hail storms are more than probable on and touching that date. These disturbances will not reach the eastern states before the opening of July, but change to rising barometer, and cooler, westerly winds, will appear in the west and northwest by the last day of June.

The middle and late summer and autumn will bring a minimum of rain to most parts of the continent.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Miss Rebecca P. Lyon will spend a portion of the summer in Bellefonte.

The ladies of the Lutheran church cleared $150 at their dinner and supper last Friday.

Miss Nan Schofield entertained five tables of euchre Wednesday evening, in honor of her guest, Miss Jessie Johnston, of Northumberland.

Ten young men successfully passed their examinations at the Bellefonte Academy yesterday and this fall will enter either Princeton, Cornell, Bucknell or State College.

Tuesday morning Mr. W. R. Guffey brought to this office a basket of home grown strawberries that were about as large and delicious in flavor as any strawberry could be. He has a good sized bed of them in his garden on Spring street and the fruit itself is ample evidence of his ability as a gardener and fruit grower.

Will Miller, who used to clerk for G. W. Rees when he ran the grocery store on Allegheny street and later drove the American Express company's wagon in this place, will likely succeed Philip Wadley as agent for the American Express company in this place. For some time past Miller has been express messenger on the railroad between Pannaxstaway and Indian.

Rev. W. R. Goff, of Pittsburg, will deliver one of his illustrated lectures on travels in the Holy Land, in the United Brethren church, in Bellefonte, on Tuesday evening, June 19th, on the subject: "Jerusalem and the Jordan." Mr. Goff recently returned from an extended tour of the Orient. His pictures are the best that photographic art can produce. All are hand-painted under his personal supervision and are true to the original. This lecture and possibly the second, "Samaria and Galilee," will be given at Julian U. B. church on the evenings of June 20th and 21st. Admission, children 15 cents, adults 25 cents.

Big Crowd Attended the Soldiers' Monument Dedication.

Not since the celebration of the Centre county centennial has there been such a big crowd in Bellefonte as there was last Friday to attend the unveiling and dedication ceremonies of the Centre county soldiers' monument and Curtin memorial. A large number of old Bellefonters and Centre countians came to town Thursday so that every hotel and boarding house in the town was crowded to its fullest capacity. Friday morning nearly people who drove in began to arrive as early as seven o'clock and continued coming for several hours. Seven special trains came to Bellefonte in the morning bringing the military and other visitors. All told, it is estimated that from ten to twelve thousand strangers were in town.

MISS MARGARET BURNET. A grand-daughter of the "Old War Governor," who unveiled the Curtin Statue.

The day's exercises throughout passed off most as given in last week's WATCHMAN. The big parade was the feature of the morning and it must be said that it was one of the best ever seen in Bellefonte. With the exception of a few changes in the formation it was about exactly as the program printed, and in the march was culminated by the music of six bands: the Fifth Regiment of Pennsylvania; the Cadet band of State College; the Milesburg, Curtin, Coleville and State College bands. The Governor and his staff, the military, both infantry and cavalry, the old soldiers, of whom there were many, and the civic organizations all came in for a good share of applause, but the most enthusiastic recognition was given to the four hundred State College cadets under command of Capt. May; and it was conceded on all sides that they deserved the high commendation given them. Even Governor Pennypacker and party, when the cadets passed the reviewing stand, were louder in their praise of them than of any other portion of the parade. The dedicatory services at the meeting in the afternoon were made as brief as possible owing to the intensely warm weather. The various addresses were made exactly as detailed last week with the exception that Col. A. K. McClintic was unable to be present on account of illness and his address was read by Col. D. F. Fortney. [The address in full will be found on page 2 of today's WATCHMAN.—ED.] All the speakers made exceptionally fine addresses and paid very fitting tributes to the late Governor Curtin as well as the old soldiers of the county. In addition to the regular speakers a brief address was made by Capt. Jack Crawford.

MISS HELEN FOX. A daughter of the late Joseph Fox, a veteran of the Civil War, who unveiled the Monument.

The unveiling of the monument was done by Miss Margaret Burnet during the presentation speech of Governor Pennypacker and was very successfully accomplished. Miss Burnet occupied a position on the speakers' stand and the unveiling was done by pulling a golden cord at a signal from the man in charge. Miss Helen Fox, who was to have unveiled the soldiers' monument, was robbed of that honor by some one in the large crowd pulling the cord which she held in her hand a few moments before the signal was given or the proper time for the unveiling. By all rights, however, she is entitled to all the honor and credit of having performed the act.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies the crowd surged to the various depots and left as fast as possible on the first outgoing trains, the Governor and party leaving on the 4:44 p. m. train west. All in all, it was a great day and a big event in the history of the county.

There was frost in many parts of the county Tuesday morning though no reports of damage to vegetation have come in except from Pleasant Gap, where the beans and pumpkins were nipped.

McGUINNESS.—Word has been received in this county of the death of Andrew McGuinness at his home in Gateshead, England, on May 12th, of Bright's disease and softening of the brain. Deceased was about fifty years of age and was a tailor by trade. He will be well remembered by many Bellefonters, as he lived here quite a number of years and worked as a tailor for Montgomery & Co. Some ten years or more ago the family moved back to England and last summer Mr. McGuinness returned to this country and went to Pannaxstaway, where his brother Edward lives. While there he met with an accident and broke his arm and, becoming homesick, returned to England as soon as he was able to travel. He took sick shortly afterwards and gradually grew worse until his death. Surviving him are his wife and one daughter, Miss Sarah Jane McGuinness. He was buried May 15th.

PACKER.—George W. Packer, a well-known resident of Beech Creek borough, died at his residence in that place, last Thursday evening of neuralgia of the heart. He was in usual health up until that morning when he became ill, growing gradually worse until evening, when he died. Deceased was a resident of Beech Creek all his life and a well-to-do citizen. He is survived by his wife, two sons and four daughters, as follows: Irvin and Harry, of Beech Creek; Mrs. E. C. Chamberlain, Olean, N. Y.; Mrs. T. M. Barrows, Jersey Shore; Mrs. J. D. Roffe, Mill Hill, and Miss Ada, at home.

McCLINTIC.—James McClintic, an old-time resident of Spring Mills, died at his home in that place on Wednesday, of Bright's disease and other congestions. He was aged 68 years, 2 months and 23 days. Both his wife and son died some years ago, but surviving him are four brothers and one sister. The funeral will be held at 9:30 o'clock this morning.

GALBRAITH.—Mrs. Galbraith, widow of the late Cornelius Galbraith, died at her home in Blanchard last Saturday morning, after a lingering illness with diseases incident to her advanced age. She is survived by one son, Claire Galbraith, of Blanchard, and Mrs. Lewis Miller, of Beech Creek. The funeral was held on Monday morning.

SCHAEFFER—HAZEL.—The fourth annual reunion of the Schaeffer-Hazel families and friends will be held at Hecla park Thursday, June 21st, for which the following program has been prepared: 6 to 10:30 a. m.—Social in parlors. 10:30 a. m.—Address of welcome by ex-honorary Benjamin Schaeffer, president of the association. Response—By J. C. Meyer. Reading of minutes. Election of officers and appointment of committees. Report of treasurer. Scripture lesson and prayer—By Rev. W. M. Reardon. Hymn—"All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." Dinner. 1:30—Music "America." Address—By Col. J. L. Spangler. Extrememous addresses. Report of the Historian. Hymn—"God be With You Till We Meet Again."

WILL MEET IN BELLEFONTE NEXT YEAR.—The annual convention of the Epworth League of the Altoona district was held at Bellefonte last Thursday and Friday, and proved very interesting from start to finish. As Friday morning's session it was decided to hold next year's convention in Bellefonte. Rev. Morris E. Swartz, of Clearfield, was elected president of the association; Miss Katharine E. Buek, of Fleming, second vice president, and Miss Helen Bartholomew, of Centre Hall, third vice president.

THE UNDINE PICNIC.—The next big time will be the Undine picnic at Hecla park on the Fourth of July. Everybody in Bellefonte and in Centre county, for that matter, knows what a big time there is for everyone who attends the Undine's picnic on the Fourth, and this year will prove no exception to the rule, we feel safe in predicting. There will be the usual amusements, the usual music and dancing, the usual edibles and refreshments and the usual big crowd. Of course you all want to reserve the Fourth for the Undines at Hecla park.

'Squire Michael Hess has been in a very critical condition for the past few days and his friends have been exceedingly alarmed. He was unconscious all day Tuesday and Wednesday and only became conscious Wednesday night. It is not known just exactly what is the matter with him, though the symptoms indicate a general collapse of the system.

By accidentally scratching the flesh over an artery in his leg, last Thursday night, James A. Williams, a Beech Creek barber, almost bled to death before help arrived and the wound was properly dressed.

The Children's day service will be held in the U. B. church next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. An interesting program has been arranged. All are cordially invited to be present.

While Bellefonte has had a number of showers lately some parts of the county have not had any and are badly in need of rain.

FOR RENT.—The Denial offices now occupied by Dr. Ward, in the stone building, corner of High and Allegheny streets, also one store room in the Exchange building. Apply to F. W. Crider.

If you keep three or more cows it will pay you to have a cream separator. Before buying, send for the catalogue of all the makes you find advertised. It will pay you to investigate this question.

President of Pennsylvania R. R. Answers Questions of Probers.

OWNS NO COAL MINE STOCK

Philadelphia, June 11.—The special committee appointed by the directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad company to investigate the charges of discrimination and rebating recently made against the company propounded a series of questions to President A. J. Cassatt.

In his answers Mr. Cassatt says he does not own stock, and is not directly interested in coal companies that ship their product over the Pennsylvania railroad. He further says that since becoming president in 1899 he performed no service in connection with the receipt or transportation of freight, and has had no connection with the distribution of cars or furnishing sidings. He also says he never received any gifts or bonus of any nature from any corporation.

In concluding his answers to the questions Mr. Cassatt says: "You will observe that the only coal stock owned by me since becoming president of the Pennsylvania Railroad company is the share of the Millwood Coal and Coke company, which stock has been sold, but in view of the repeated rumors of my being a holder of stocks of the Keystone Coal and Coke company, the Berwind-White Coal Mining company and the Henrietta Coal company, and of my being interested in the firm of Cassatt & Co., I think it proper to state that I never owned or had any interest in the stocks of the Keystone Coal and Coke company or of the Henrietta Coal company, nor have I ever had any interest in the firm of Cassatt & Co. I never owned any stock of the Berwind-White Coal Mining company while an officer of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, either during my former connection with the company, which terminated by my resignation of the vice-presidency in the fall of 1882, nor since I became president in 1899; but when, in 1886, Mr. Charles J. Berwind, then the head of the partnership of Berwind, White & Co., formed the present Berwind-White Coal Mining company, to take over the business of that firm, I purchased 400 shares of the stock of the company and paid for it at the then market price, which was 25 per cent. of its par value. I sold this stock in 1891. You will observe that it was purchased four years after I ceased to be an officer of the company and was sold eight years before I was elected to the presidency. I never had any interest in the partnership of Berwind, White & Co. "A. J. CASSATT."

HIS ELECTION IS CONCEDED

Dover, Del., June 12.—Col. Henry A. Dupont, of Wilmington, defeated J. Edward Addicks in the contest for the vacant seat from Delaware in the United States senate. Mr. Dupont was selected to fill the vacancy by a caucus of the Republican members of the legislature, which was in session for several hours. The action of the caucus ends a contest that has continued for 11 years, during which time Addicks was the candidate of the Union Republicans for United States senator. The legislature will meet today (Tuesday) in special session, and each house will take a separate vote for United States senator, and the two houses will meet jointly on Wednesday to verify the vote. Dupont's election is conceded by the Addicks following.

There was a full attendance of members of both wings of the Republicans at the caucus. There was a long discussion, and when the vote was finally taken it stood: Dupont, 20; Addicks, 10; H. H. Ward, 1. Following the announcement of the vote, Senator Conners, an Addicks supporter, made a motion that Dupont's selection be made unanimous, which was adopted.

The Democrats have criticized Governor Lea for calling an extra session of the legislature to elect a senator, and have declared they will take no part in the voting.

DEMOCRAT MUST LEAD

Guffey Says Party Must Head Ticket in Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, June 9.—There is no longer any possibility of misunderstanding the attitude of Colonel James M. Guffey, the Democratic state leader and national committeeman, so far as the make-up of the Democratic state ticket this year is concerned. Colonel Guffey would welcome fusion with the Lincolnites and other independent forces in the state, but it must be fusion with a Democrat at the head of the ticket.

When seen at the Hotel Walton and asked as to the possibility of a fusion deal between the Democrats and the independent Republicans, with Lewis Emery, Jr., the Lincoln Party candidate, for governor as the standard-bearer of the forces allied against the Republican organization, Colonel Guffey said: "There must be a Democrat at the head of our ticket. I will be glad for fusion along those lines, but the candidate for governor must be a Democrat."

"You know we are here to attend an adjourned meeting of the state executive committee that has been called to consider certain business that was not completed at the recent session of the committee. The meeting will draw a number of the Democratic leaders from different parts of the state. Naturally, the state convention and the state situation will be discussed. But we are not here to make a ticket nor to slate candidates. Our candidate for governor will be a Democrat, but he will be chosen by the convention itself."
