Beilefonte, Pa. June 15, 1906

Cornespondents.-No communications pub ished unless accompanied by the real name of he writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-The bass fishing season opens to-ly observed.

-Another brokers' office will be opened next week in Temple court. -The examinations at the Bellefonte

Academy were held this week. -The first of the weekly concerts at Heela Park will be held this afternoon and evening. -The road supervisors of Halfmoon township have purchased a new stone crusher. -The Vollmers and Lewis made quick work of taking down the decorations on Saturday -School days are over and the boys and girls are now revelling in the first delights of vacation -The Fourth of July is less than three weeks off, and that generally marks the beginning of harvest time.

-Tuesday morning the curb market was the best of the season so far, though still not up to the standard.

-Miss Rose Casher, of Snow Shoe, has returned from Philadelphia where she graduated in a course in vocal music.

-Early cherries are now ripening and it will not be many days until an abundance of this luscious fruit will be in the

-The members of the United Evangelical church of Spring Mills will hold a festival on the lawn at the church tomorrow evening, June 16th.

-- The Bellefonte Academy and Williamsport High school teams played a 3 to 3 tie game last Saturday afternoon when rain put a stop to the contest.

-Friday was the hottest day Bellefonte has experienced in years. The mercury went nearly to the 100 degree mark and the humidity was intense.

-The annual reception at the Bellefonte Academy and the assembly in the aras usual proved a very pleasant occasion.

-A slight fire on the roof of the Haupt house on Thomas street, Wednesday morning, caused the sounding of the fire alarm but the flames were quickly extinguished.

-The pupils of St. John's parochial school will hold their annual closing entertainment at the opera house on Thursday, June 21st. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Wither Backholder, formerly Centre Hall, has been appointed extra baggage and freight agent and saving fund depository on the Tyrone division of the Pennsylvania railroad.

-On Tuesday evening, June 26th, the ladies of the Coleville church will hold a festival on the lawn adjoining the church. Everybody is invited to attend. Don't forget the date and don't forget to go.

-Clarence Achenbach, son of Mr. and well known in this place, was married in Camden, N. J., June 4th, to Miss Lula Schem Mussina, also of Lock Haven.

-L. C. Bullock while in Indiana invented and has had patented a combination bat rack, umbrella stand and clothes horse of which he anticipates making quite a for- | class.

-John Haywood, of Hawk Run, near Philipsburg, lays claim to having caught the largest brook tront in that section this season. It was taken from Six Mile run and measured 191 inches and weighed 21 pounds.

-The question of ice is becoming a rather serious one with consumers in Bellefonte. Though the summer season has not yet begue ice is already becoming scarce and dealers are measuring it out very eco-

-Charles Waple, of the Potter house, Philipsburg, recently bought one thousand young chickens from a New York State dealer and now has them on his farm, getting them in shape to sorve spring chicken to his guests.

--- Now that the Centre county soldiers' monument and Curtin memorial has been erected and dedicated after eleven years of contemplation, speculation, worry and work, let us all feel grateful and get down to business once more.

-The net receipts to Company B and Gregg Post for the four nights of "The Drummer Boy of Shiloh" were just $119 .-19, or $59 59 each with au odd cent over. The penny was tossed to see which organization would get it and Company B won.

-William H. Garman on Monday resigned his position as clerk in the Bellefonte postoffice. Morton Smith was promoted to the vacancy thus made and Wil-Biam Ost was appointed as clerk to take the position vacated by Smith's promo-

-On Monday evening Robert Mann and a friend from Curtin township, started to drive home. Going out Allegheny street they ran into a pile of clay and stones in front of Spangler's residence. Mann was thrown out and considerably cut and any serious injury.

concert in the auditorium.

preached by Rev. William Patterson, D. attention by all present.

Monday afternoon the Senior class exercises were held at 2 o'clock and at 3 and stood high in the estimation of all rail- youths, Jerome Dale and Henry Gordon, took place. While the sports were very and his untimely and shocking death is a It was also learned that two young men interesting they were not as much so as sad blow to all who knew him. meet next year.

ble thought and study. The judges award- Jersey Shore. ed the prize to John Piper Smith, of Yel-Stowig, of Williamsport. was very little going on of interest to the a member. outsider. The annual meeting of the Alumni association, the board of trustees and the Phi Kappi Phi fraternity were held in the morning and in the afternoon the delegates and alumni met separately and reelected the following old trustees for another term : Gen. James A. Beaver, J. G. White and H. L. Heister. The following the same charge voted likewise. new members of the board were also elected : A. C. Read, G. M. Downing, James L. Hamil, G. G. Hutchinson and Richard Calder Jr.

At four o'clock Tuesday afternoon the cadet battalion gave an exhibition drill on the campus and this was a feature of the day's proceedings enjoyed by everybody present. In the evening quite a large audieuce assembled in the auditorium to see "The Thespians," the college dramatic association, in their clever rendition of the play, "Facing the Music." After the play a number of the fraternities held receptions and dances.

Wednesday was really the big day of all, when the graduating exercises were held in mory afterwards was held last evening and the morning at 10 o'clock. The new auditorium was well filled with a representative crowd. Owing to the fact that the condition of Dr. Atherton's health was such as to prevent him from taking an active part in the commencement exercises, Prof. W. A. Buckhout presided. The class orators were Arthur Lee Ferver, Charles David Flickinger, Charles Franklin Noll, Henry Harrison Hollinger and Oscar Clinton Hayes, the valedictoriau. Too much praise cannot be given the latter for the subject, "The Awakening of the Civic Condirect and his oration was loudly applaud.

The commencement address was delivered by Frank Pierrepont Graves, Ph. D. LL D., of Columbia, Mo. His subject was "A Twentieth Century Education," and the address was one of the most clever and brilliant ever heard at the College. The Mrs. B. C. Achenbach, of Lock Haven, and morning's exercises closed with the conferring of degrees and awarding of prizes, which was done by President George W. Atherton and Gen. James A. Beaver, president of the board of trustees; the presentation of commissions to the new cadet officers and the transfer of the library keys combined which is quite a novelty and out to the president of the incoming Senior

> In the afternoon one of the biggest crowds ever assembled on Beaver field gathered there to witness the commencement ball game between State and Villa Nova. It proved an interesting contest from start to finish and was won by State by the score of 6 to 4. Immediately after the game Harry D. Mason, third baseman, was elected captaid for the State team of 1907. The commencement exercises closed Wednesday evening with the farewell reception and dance given by the Juniors to the members of the graduating class.

> The graduating class this year numbered eighty-seven, and included the following from Centre county and nearby : Bestie Breckenridge Glenn, Joseph LeRoy Shed, Ray C. Landes and Grover Cleveland Glenn; State College; Arthur Cleveland Harper, Bellefonte; Francis Lee Adame, Milesburg, and Walter J. P. Dumm, of Mackeyville.

Those who were awarded prizes were a follows :

The John W. White fellowship, $400-John Carl

John W. White medal, value of $50-Roy C

John W. White Senior scholarship, $200 Charles Denton Conklin Jr. John W. White, Junior scholarship, $150-David

The Louise Carnegie Senior scholarship, $100 ach-Gustav Emanuel Cohen, George Weidman Groff, Bayard Dickenson Kimble and William

Blaine Snyder. Junior scholarship, $100 each-Alexander Mc Elhattan Myers, Harry Seel Stanton, Earl Mountain Thomas and Joseph Donald Woodward.

The Agriculture prize, $25-Charles Franklin The McAllister prize, $25-Frank Edwin Harp

Trustees' Freshman scholarship, value of $ each-Andrew Allen Borland, John Grey Gleason William Anderson Haven, William James Madden and David Lloyd Markle.

-Rev. George W. Whiteneck Jr., of Wrightsville, has accepted a call to the pas- where it finally developed that his injuries ty grange. Every indication is for a big braised, but the other man escaped without torate of the State College Presbyterian were not so serious as at first supposed. turnout of members of the order from all

THE STATE COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT. JAMES HUNTER KILLED .-- James Hun--The forty-sixth annual commencement ter, whose home was about a mile below FONTE YOUTHS .- Some time after midof the Pennsylvania State College was held Blanchard, was instantly killed near night Wednesday night the postoffice and this week and proved a most successful af- Schenectady, N. Y., shortly after going to store of Morrison & Glenn, at Curtin, was fair, though only a few of the old gradu- work Saturday morning. He was foreman broken into and robbed, the postoffice beates were back to visit their Alma Mater of a gang of bridgemen at work on the erec- ing kept in the store. The robbers gained and participate in the exercises and gayeties tion of a bridge on the N. Y. C. and H. R. entrance by cutting the glass out of the of the week. The commencement was be- railroad and was at work on a hoisting front door then reaching through and gun informally on Saturday evening when crane lifting a huge girder. A beam 16x16 pushing back the bolt. They succeeded the college orchestra and glee club gave a inches and 16 feet long was being used and in opening the safe by working the combi-Sunday morning the auditorium was result that the beam broke just as Hunter cash and all the stamps in the safe. In crowded to hear the baccalaureate sermon was passing under it. The girder fell on addition a number of pocket knives, some him and he was instantly killed, in plain tobacco and cigars and some other stuff -Fing Day yesterday was not general- D., of Philadelphia. It was a masterful sight of his two brothers, Charles W. and were taken from the store. The robbers effort and was listened to with the closest Torrence, and his son Charles, who were members of his gang.

Mr. Hunter was an expert bridge builder o'clock the inter-class track and field meet road men. He was a large, powerful man

h ad there been a dual meet between State Deceased was about forty-five years of and some other college and an effort is al- age and is survived by his wife and six early this morning. Word was immediateready being made to arrange for such a children, as follows: Maude, John, Charles, ly sent to every station along the line to be Olive, Frank and Fred, all at home; also on the lookout for them. Monday evening the Junior oratorical his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hunter, contest was held in the auditorium. There and the following brothers and sisters : were six contestants and the way they John H., of Chicago; Charles W., Torrence, handled their subjects showed considera- Mrs. Edward Morrison and Miss Nellie, of

The body was brought to his home near low Creek, with honorable mention for H. Blanchard Monday morning, the funeral tor recognized them as answering the debeing held at 2 o'clock on Tuesday after-Tuesday morning quite a number of vis- noon. Interment was made in the cemeitors went to the College, although there tery of the Disciple church, of which he was drug store he notified Constable Charles

> -New potatoes are now in the market at $1.40 per bushel.

-The members of the Reformed extend a call to Rev. Thomas S. Land to become their pastor. Other churches on vent him he would have shot them both.

-Gotlieb Kershtein, a native German and of late a resident of Rush township, was brought to Bellefonte and lodged in jail, on Tuesday, for trial at the August term of criminal court on a very serious

-Forty-two Bellefonte merchants have signed an agreement to close their places of business at 6 o'clock every night excepting Wednesdays at 8 o'clock and Saturday nights when they please, beginning Monday, June 18th.

-Now that the soldiers' monument has been dedicated the only interest that is still alive is to have the plates all fixed up and put in place so that the public can see just who are entitled to have their names inscribed thereon.

-One week from tomorrow, June 23rd, the voters of State College borough will vote on the proposition of increasing its indebtedness five thousand dollars for the purpose of enlarging the present school -While in Bellefonte last Friday at-

of James H. Lipton, formerly of this counscience." He was unusually forceful and ty, became sick and was taken to the Hayes -Dale sanitorium for treatment. -On Monday when the Hazel broth-> able to do so and bad to send to Lock Haven for Frank E. Harder, the professional safe opener, to come up and do the job, which he did in just half an hour. --- At the annual meeting of the Huntingdon and Clearfield telephone company held in Clearfield last Saturday Judge Ellis ers went to open their safe they were un-

L. Orvis, of this place, was re-elected president of the board of directors, a position he has held ever since its organization. -Charles Walp and Miss Almeda Ammerman, both of Philipsburg, were married in Corning, N. Y., November 23rd last, and so well did they keep their secret that the fact was not even suspected until last week when they announced their marriage and went to Altoona to live. -The new Methodist church at Mill Hall was dedicated last Sunday and the $3,000 needed to clear the church of debt was raised during the day and evening. The dedicatory sermon was preached by Rev. Charles M. Boswell, D. D. Other addresses were made by Revs. Samuel Creighton, A. T. Elliott and H. R. Bender. -Last Friday Ethel, the fourteenyear-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Gettig, was in her father's butcher shop. She had her hand on the safe when her father pushed the door shut, catching the second finger of her right hand and tearing all the flesh away from the second joint to the tip. The injury was a most painful sary to amputate the finger.

-Saturday evening Harry Williams was sitting on the railing along Spring creek, opposite the City laundry, when he lost his balance and fell backward over the The accident was witnessed by the father high stone wall into the creek. Two large gashes were cut in his bead to the bone, edly that it was impossible to prevent it. one six inches long and the other three. He was helped out of the creek and taken to a physician's office where his wounds were dressed after which he was taken -The only disturbance to mar the big time of last Friday occurred between day for the Centre county Pomona grange five and six o'clock in the evening when at Centre Hall. It will be a regular field Theodore Green, colored, hit Bruce Wal- day. Three meetings will be held and the lace, of Milesburg, knocking him down on speakers will include such prominent men a brick curb with such force that it was at as W. F. Hill, master of the State grange; first feared he had sustained concussion of J. T. Ailman, secretary; Hon. W. T. Creasy, the brain. He was taken to the hospital, Mrs. John Dale and the officers of the coun-Green was arrested and put in jail.

CURTIN POSTOFFICE ROBBED BY BELLEthe ropes slipping pulled unevenly with the nation and got away with over $300 in > made their escape without being detected. When the robbery was discovered this morning suspicion fell on two Bellefonte who had been seen at Curtin last evening. answering their description had been seen making their way down Bald Eagle valley

.Inst at noontime the two young men made their appearance at the Clinton house in Mill Hall. Dale remained outside while Gordon went in and, representing himself as twenty-one years of age, got a glass of beer to drink. G. H. Long, the proprie- in this place, left for their home on yesterday. scription of the two suspected of robbing the Curtin postoffice and going over to the Snyder. The two men returned to the hotel and found the young men in the office, Gordon at the telephone talking to some one in Bellefonte. They went to the boys and told them they would have to submit church at Penn Hall voted on Sunday to to arrest when Gordon drew a revolver and had the men not been quick enough to pre-

They were both overcome finally and disarmed and on being searched $88.24, a number of stamped envelopes, a handful of pocket knives and some other goods from the store were found on them. The authorities here were notified and W. Galer Morrison accompanied by officers went to Mill Hall and brought the young men up in a carriage and they are now in jail, where they will have ample time to meditate on the rashness of their crime. At Howard they stopped and the boys showed the officers where the bulk of the money and postage stamps were hidden, so that practically everything that was stolen was recovered.

WIND, RAIN AND COLD .- Following close upon the nice weather of last week came one of the most terrific wind and rainstorms, Saturday afternoon, experienced in this section this year. The wind was so high that it shook the most solidly built buildings in Bellefoute while throughout the county more or less damage was done by fences being blown down, buildings unroofed, etc. On the Reynolds farm up Buffalo Run the cupola was blown off the barn and narrowly missed killing some catnent Rastus Lipton, of Erie, a brother followed the wind was a regular downpour. wind and rain storm, though not quite as fierce as that of Saturday afternoon. Sunday afternoon a severe storm passed down the Bald Eagle valley and at the time the people of Bellefonte witnessed one of the most peculiar phenomena. When the first thunder was heard a large black cloud was seen coming up out of the west. Be-The cloud sailed rapidly and the light spread until it covered the entire western portion of the sky. Light shifting clouds traveling at an unusually rapid pace gave the western heavens the appearance of a huge conflagration with volumes of smoke pouring forth from the blaze and carried away by the high winds. The peculiar sight lasted perhaps ten minutes and was viewed by hundreds.

Following the storms of Saturday and Sunday the weather became somewhat cooler on Monday and Monday night overcoats were in demand. By Tuesday morning the thermometer had fallen to forty degrees above zero and frost was seen in many places, though not enough to do any dam-

BOY SHOOTS YOUNGER BROTHER .- A peculiarly sad accident happened near Snow Shoe Intersection, Tuesday evening, when Earl Aikey, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Aikey, was accidentally shot and killed by his fifteen-year old brother Lewis.

The accident happened about five o'clock in the evening. Earl and his seven-yearold brother had started out to bring in the cows. Back of the barn they found Lewis shooting at a target with a 22 calibre rifle. one and of such a nature that it was neces- He had fired one shot, was taking aim for the second and just as he pulled the trigger Earl ran in front of the muzzle of the gun. There was a report and the child fell to the ground, the bullet having entered the right side of the head near the temple. but it happened so quickly and unexpect-

The boy lingered in an unconscious condition until 7.15 o'clock when he died. The funeral was held at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, interment being made in the Curtin cemetery.

GRANGE RALLY .- This will be a big over the county.

News Parely Personal.

-Miss Minis Hays of Philadelphia is a guest of Miss Louise Calloway.

-Col. W. Fred Reynolds left Tuesday on a trip to Philadelphia and Lancaster.

-Miss Jane McCalmont left yesterday morning or a two week's sojourn at Atlantic City.

-Miss Florence Rhone, of Centre Hall, spen Sunday at the Bayard home on Spring street. -Harry Rine, of Kane, spent a couple days in -Mrs. John Lambert and five children are spending this week with friends in and around -Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kurtz Jr., of Lewisburg, pent Sunday at the home of the former's parents in this place.

-Mrs. |Wm. Russell, nee Morgan, of Beaver Falls, is in town for a short visit with relatives at her former home here. -Miss Helen Irish, of Philipsburg, and her ousin. Miss Ida Irish, attended the commenc ment at State College this week. -Roy McCalmont has returned to his home in Rochester, N. Y., but Mrs. McCalmont will remain in Bellefonte for some time. -W. J. Culbertson, A. B. Weber and Joseph Mann, three of Lewistown's prominent citizen:

spent Wednesday night in Bellefonte. -Mrs. James K. Barnhart andj two children, Martha and Philip, left on Monday for a month's visit with her mother in Punxsutawney. -Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lingle and child, of Patton, after spending several days with friends

-G. H. Lichtenthaler and son, of Philipsburg spent Tuesday night in Bellefonte on their way o attend the commencement at State College. -Mrs. M. A. Shulty, of Tyrone, and Mrs. Kate

Brenner, of York, are guests at the home of Mr and Mrs. Edward C. Woods, on Thomas street. -Capt. C. T. Fryberger, of Philipsburg, came over to Bellefonte on Wednesday to attend the eighty-ninth birthday anniversary of his mother ousiness men, came to Bellefonte last Thursday for the big time on Friday and remained over

-Jack Furst, of Williamsport, is in town on a whose condition is, we regret to say, not much

-Will Marshall, son of the late George Marshall spent the past week in Bellefonte visiting friends, after attending the monument dedication on Friday. -Miss Annie Casswell, of Coatesville, is now in street for the summer. Her daughter, Miss Mildred, will arrive today. -Miss Charlotte Morrow, of East End, Pittsurg, is a guest at the home of Mr. and] Mrs. W.

most of the summer in Bellefonte. -W. L. Daggett and son Frederick went to Atlantic City on Monday to spend a few days with Mrs. Daggett, whose sojourn at the seashore is proving very beneficial to her health. -Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Moore, of Altoona, came to Bellefonte on Monday for a few days visit with their friend, Miss Lois V. Calderwood, superintendent of the Bellefonte hospital. -John C. Mulfinger, the Pleasant Gap hotel man and coal dealer was in town yesterday, but had nothing to say about that wonderful garden of his that produces strawberries in mid-winter. -Wilbur Twitmire, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Twitmire, is home from the University of Pennsylvania for a few days rest prior to going to Sunbury where he will play ball during the vacation season. -Dr. W. W. Pettengill, who years ago lived was a Bellefonte visitor on Monday, looking so ras hard to recognize him. -Senator and Mrs. James. M. Quiggle, of McElhatten, were in Bellefonte between trains on Tuesday on their way to State College to attend the commencement; their son, James M.

Quiggle, being a member of the graduating class. -Mr. and Mrs. Hezekiah Hoy and Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Fishburn, of Benner township, left on Tuesday for a trip to Lewistown, Harrisburg and Philadelphia, from where they will go to visit low it was a strip of light as bright as fire. friends in Ohio and Illinois, expecting to be away

> -Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas with their daughter, Margaret and son Francis, left yesterday morning for a trip to Atlantic City. Their other daughter, Miss Mary, left last Friday for Chambersburg where she joined a party of friends who went to Roanoke, Va., for a house party. -J. P. Lightly, of Yeagertown, Mifflin county, > who has the distinction of being known as the youngest color bearer in the service during the early part of the war, was among the many visitors to the WATCHMAN office while attending the monument dedication. Mr. Lightly was a member of the 148th Regt. and enlisted at burg when but seventeen years of age.

> -W. E. Strock, of Mechanicsburg, an uncle of Mrs. James B. Stein, was in Bellefonte last week a guest of Rev. and Mrs. James B. Stein and pa aded with the G. A. R. on the day of the dedicate tion of the soldiers' monument. He was a member of the Pennsylvania Reserves and now a member of Post 415, G. A. R. His first vote was cast forty-five years ago for Curtin for Governo

-Of course it would be impossible to mention all the old Bellefonters who were in town las week for the monument dedication then remain ed over for a few days' visit with friends, but among the number were W. S. Furst, of Philadel phia; George T. Brew, of Ronceverte, W. Va. and Thomas H. Brew, of Shamokin: Mr. and Mrs. Al. S. Garman, of Tyrone; Joe Katz, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Mann and Harvey Mann, of Lewistown; Thomas Fleming, of Beaver Falls, and Edward Fleming, of Altoona; Mr. and Mrs-Frank Derstine, of Altoona, and a whole ho

-Last week certainly was a strenuous one in this office. With all the excitement of preparawork for the same occasion and the worry about decorations suitable for such an occasion there was enough to drive us to the soda-water tank. But then the brightness came on Friday when strangers by the thousand flocked into town and among them so many old friends who found time to call at the WATCHMAN office. To them and others who have remitted by mail we wish to make this acknowledgement. Among them were Thos. Strouse, Baltimore; Levi Daughenbaugh. Clearfield; D. F. Taylor, Filmore; Shuman Lyon, Thos. Faxen, J. S. McCargar, Bellefonte; S. S. Pletcher, Washington; I.M. Harvey, C. V. Snyder, State College; Sol. Schmidt, Philipsburg; Samuel Harris, Mill Hall; W. J. Carlin, Rebersburg; M. H. Guise, Penn Hall; Geo. W. Weaver, Romola James A. Keller, John D. Meyer, J. S. Dauber nan, Centre Hall; Ira D. Slagle, New Bedford; Mrs. Sara Shaffer, Vilas; Mrs. T. S. DeLong Romola; A. H. Ammerman, McAllisterville; Stewart Heberling, Kipple; G. F. Weaver, T. B. Jamison, Spring Mills; D. J. Gingerich, Marths Glenn Nyhart, Johnstown; Jonathan Woomer Tyrone; F. T. Wise, Madisonburg; Wm. Foster, ewisburs; W. A. Jacobs, Clarence; J. B. Piper, Alexandria: Anne T. Glenn, A. H. Bucher, J. H. Myers, Altoona. C. P. Hewes, Erie; W. F. Hunt, Renovo; Martin Rudy, Lancaster; S. B. Frank, Penna Furnace; M. Dempsey, Osceola Mills;

-Dr. and Mrs. Edward Harris, of Butler, with heir baby who have been here for the past week, will return home today.

-Mrs. Metcalf and her one child, of Mariborough, N. H., is in Bellefonte for a months stay. Mrs. Metcalf will be remembered as Miss Ella

-Mr. and Mrs. Glover of Hopewell, and Mrs. Black, of Chambersburg, with Mr. and Mrs. Scein at the parsonage, Mrs. Glover and Mrs. Black being sisters of Mrs. Stein's -Mr. and Mrs. James Sommerville and Mr. and Mrs. John Sommerville, of Wynburne, were in Bellefonte the latter part of last week visiting with their relatives in the town. -Among the Tyroners who were in town for the dedication were Mrs. A. G. Morris, Miss Lyda Morris, A. G. Morris Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. E.

Tyson, Mrs. Gibbs and Mrs. Acklin. -Tom Nolan Esq., of Washington, D. C., came up last week to attend the dedication servces and the fore part of this week was at State College, where his son was graduated with the class of 1906. He returned home vesterday.

FELDING-KEICHLINE.-A nicely appointed noon wedding on Wednesday was that of William Felding, of New York city, and Miss Sadie Keichline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Keichline, which took place at the home of the bride's parents in Pine Grove Mills. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. A. Black, of Boalsburg, in the presence of only the immediate friends of the contracting parties. Miss Maggie Keichline, a eister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and George Felding, a brother of the bridegroom was best man. Mr. Felding is an old Centre connty boy, his parents living at Linden Hall. but for a number of years he has been doing business in New York, where the young couple will make their future home. The bride is a charming and accomplished -James P. Dowling, one of Renovo's prominent | young woman, being a skilled musician, and will make an excellent wife and comnanion for the man of her choice

BULLOCK-FAXON -Fdward S Bulshort visit to his father, the Hon. A. O. Furst, lock, of Julian, and Miss Bertha E. Faxon, of Bellefonte, were quietly married at the Baptist parsonage, Milesburg, on Tuesday, June 12th, at 9 o'clock a. m., by pastor A. C. Lat brop. The bridegroom is the popular agent of the Pennsylvania railroad company at Julian, while the bride is Bellefonte and will open up her house on Penn | the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Faxon, of this place, and one of Centre county's successful school teachers. They are now away on a brief honeymoon C. Cassidy, on Bishop street, expecting to spend trip after which they will be at home to their many friends in their home at Julian, which Mr. Bullock has furnished and in waiting.

DAILEY-SCHWER .- Quite a pretty wedding took place in the Presbyterian church at Peale, at noon last Wednesday, when J. Morris Dailey, of Reynoldsville, was united in marriage to Miss Jessye M. Schwer. Rev. L. Norman Leith performed the ceremony. Miss Mande Schwer, a sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor; Misses Arvilla Beckwith and Marian Johns were bridesmaids; Inez Sheffer, flower girl, and Helen Schwer, ring-bearer. William Smith, of Reynoldsville, was best man, Jacob Sohwer and Frank Leninger, ushers, and tending the dedication of the soldier's tle in the barn-yard. The rain storm which here but who is now a resident of Lock Haven, Miss Fannie Hoover played the wedding march.

> BLACK-WALKER .- George Black, sor of Mr. and Mrs. James Black, of Philipsburg, and Miss Elizabeth Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walker, of Clearfield county, were married at the home of the bride's parents, on Tuesday of last week, Rev. William Rafter, of Osceola, performing the ceremony.

EMIL-MEESE.-On June 5th, at 10.30 . m., Henry S. Emil and Miss Annie Meese, both of Bellefonte, were united in marriage at the Baptist parsonage, Milesburg, Pa., by pastor A. C. Lathrop. Both bride and groom are held in high esteem, and the congratulations of their many friends are extended them.

TRANSUE-NIHART .- Claude E. Transue, of Mackeyville, and Rosa A. Nihart, of Hublersburg, were quietly married at the latter place, last Saturday, by Rev. H. I. Crow, of the Reformed church.

Philadelpi	ua Mar	Rets.
The following a the Philadelphia i evening.	re the old	osing prices o on Wednesday
Wheat—Red	r'l	83\468 57\465 556653\ 39633\ 3.1063.3 4.5564.6 3.5063.6

Bellefonte Grain Market. Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, following are the quotations up Thursday evening, when our paper

Rye, per bushel..... Corn, shelled, per bushel Corn, ears, per bushel...

Oats old and new, per Joseph Barley, per bushel.  Ground Plaster, per ton. 8 50 to Buckwheat, per bushel. $7 00 to Timothy seed per bushel. $2.00 to	50 $8 00
Bellefonte Produce Market
Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.
Potatoes per bushel	60 75
Onions Eggs, per dozen Lard, per pound	15
Country Shoulders Sides	8

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Beliefonte, Pa., at $1.00 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $1.50, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county unless paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertising by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows:

SPACE OCCUPIED one inch (12 lines this type.