ALL For a Nickel !- Anyone who fails to get a copy of The Pittstarg Dispatch next Sunday, July 1st, will miss a rare treat. Everyone knows

The Dispatch is the "best always." but there are some reasons why next Sunday's paper will eclipse any other paper in this or any other terri-

First, a beautiful picture 10x15, worth framing United States district court here and fit to adorn the wall of any room in any heuse, will be given absolutely free.

Next Sunday's Dispatch will contain the first part of "The Lady Evelyn," by Max Pemberton —a novel of charming romance, lightning action, extraordinary mystery. It cost $150,000 to secure the right to publish this novel and eleven others before they are published in book form. The Dispatch was successful in securing the right to publish them in its territory-one complete novel

"Peck's Bad Boy" and "Little Growling Bird" pronounced the best comic features in the coun try, have been added to the comic section of The ispatch, making it better than the comic secti of any two papers. A fine, large half tone picture of the new St. Paul's Cathedral will adorn the first page of the illustrated section. A score of other exclusive features and the news of all the world with the best sporting pages published anywhere will make the coming Sunday issue of The Dispatch a great bargain for the nickel invested.
