MRS. LEONARD RHONE-In the death prominently known all over the State. years or more ago when she became the victim of an organic disease which developed to such a condition that it became chronic. About a year ago she was taken to the German hospital, Philadelphia, for rary. Her illness, however, was of such a around the house until Wednesday of last week when she became alarmingly ill with pleuro-pneumonia, which resulted in her death on Sunday.

Deceased was aged sixty-three years and was the last surviving daughter of James and Rebecca Sankey, deceased, of Potter's Mills. Her great-grandfather, Thomas Sankey, settled on the old Sankey homestead in Potter township some years prior to 1794, as a lessee. His sons, Jeremiah -Miss Minnie Cole entertained her and Thomas, Jr., the former the granderty in 1802 from the executors of Gen. James Potter. It was on that old homestead that Mrs. Rhone was born and the lasp time she was away from Centre Hall prior to her death was to make a visit to the place of her birth. The only surviving members of the Sankey family are two brothers of the deceased, Dr. James W. Sankey, of Des Moines, Iowa, and Hon. Robert A. Sankey, of Wichita, Kan., the latter being present at the bedside of his sister at her death.

The subject of this sketch was married to Leonard Rhone in 1864, and the young Ben Williams (colored) recently couple at once took up their residence on the farm west of Centre Hall which they named "Rhoneymede." There they lived until a couple of years ago when they moved to Centre Hall. When the order of Patrons of Husbandry was established and Mr. Rhone became a member as well as a leader, his wife also took a prominent part She was a charter member of Progress Grange, of Potter township, which was instituted in 1874, one of the first granges in the county. Her enthusiam in the work of the order was such that for eighteen years she was a delegate to the National Grange. She also held the position of Ceres of the Assembly of Demeter, the highest court in -There will be preaching in the Miles- the Grange, and for eight years was lady burg Presbyterian church next Sabhath steward of the State grange while her husband was master.

Early in life Mrs. Rhone became a mem ber of the Methodist church and continued as such until her death, living a consiscessful school teachers, was recently elect- tent christian life. She was not only a woman prominent in grange work, but one whose greater charm was found in her own home. While diligent in church and other work she was domestic in her babits and most of her time was spent by her own

Rev. G. W. McIlnay, her pastor, officiated, and was assisted by all the local ministers. Interment was made in the Centre Hall cemetery.

KIMPORT-Mrs. Rebecca Shirk Kimport, widow of the late Lot W. Kimport, died at her home in Boalsburg on the afternoon of June 30th, of paralysis. She was first stricken several y ars ago but recovered sufficiently to be around as usual. On Tuesday prior to her death she suffered a econd stroke, which was so severe that her death ensued in less than five days.

Deceased was a daughter of Jacob and Sarah Shirk and was born at Centre Furnace sixty-four years ago. Surviving her are the following children: Samuel, of State College; John F., of Boalsburg; Mrs. William Wagner, of Altoona, and Myra and Mande at home; also one brother, William Shirk, of Punxsutawney. Her husband died last September. Mrs. Kimport was a member of the Methodist church and in addition to being a consistent christian woman was one of those splendid types of feminine character who make the world better for their having lived in it. A loving wife and mother and a neighbor whose hospitality and kindness could not be excelled, she had the respect and admiration of all who knew her.

The funeral was held on July 3rd. The services were in charge of her former pastor Rev. Edgar Heckman, assisted by Revs. Snavely and Harnish. Interment was made in the Boalsburg cemetery.
