

SHOT BY ITALIANS

Two of the Pennsylvania Constabulary Wounded, One Seriously.
 Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 20.—One of the most serious affrays in which the local troop of state constabulary has been interested occurred at Hughestown borough, a suburb of Pittston. As a result of the affair one of the troopers lies at the Pittston hospital in a dangerous condition, while another received a slight flesh wound, and three Italians are more or less seriously injured.
 Within the confines of Hughestown borough there is an Italian settlement. All day Sunday the men at this settlement were drinking and carousing and creating such a disturbance that the neighbors made a complaint to the authorities. A call was sent to the headquarters of the state constabulary at Wyoming, and three of the troopers—Privates Adelson, Butler and George—were detailed to go to the place. The Italians, who had evidently been awaiting their coming, began making an indiscriminate fire upon them in the darkness and the three troopers withdrew, not however until George had been shot in the abdomen, while Adelson also received a slight wound.
 Butler, the only uninjured man, got hold of a foreigner named Michael Poloni and clubbed him into submission. Later word was sent to headquarters and the entire troops, in charge of Sergeant Wilhelm, went to the scene and arrested five Italians. Two of these, Joe Durilla and Joe Doloro, were shot and taken to the hospital in a serious condition. They must have been shot by some of their comrades, Durilla declaring he came out of his house to find out what the cause of the trouble was when he was shot.

DROWNED AS BRIDGE FELL

Woman and Baby Swept to Death in Swollen Juniata.
 Altoona, Pa., Aug. 21.—A wire suspension foot bridge across the Juniata river near Williamsburg gave way at Chester Robinson, his wife and two small children were crossing it, and the wife and the youngest child were drowned. Robinson and his family were on their way home, and as they reached the middle of the bridge it sagged into the Juniata, which was greatly swollen. One end of the bridge was fastened to a tree, and because of the strong current the tree was unable to stand the strain, and it was uprooted, causing the loosened end of the bridge to sweep down stream. Robinson had his 4-year-old son Ralph, in his arms at the time, and succeeded in reaching shore with him. He returned to rescue his wife and 18-month-old child, but they were washed down stream by the swift current before he could reach them. Their bodies have not yet been recovered.

TAXCOLLECTOR'S BIG SHORTAGE

William H. Berry, of Sunbury, Ousted For Embezzling $16,000.
 Sunbury, Pa., Aug. 21.—Experts who examined the books of Tax Collector William H. Berry, of this city, made a report to the court which showed the collector to have embezzled $16,000. Judge Savidge ousted the collector and appointed in his place S. P. Savidge. Berry was bonded to the amount of $15,000, and his bondsmen expect to realize nearly that sum from his property, which was seized by the sheriff.

JEROME IS A CANDIDATE

Will Run For Governor of New York if Nominated Without Promises.
 New York, Aug. 20.—District Attorney New York Travers Jerome issued the following statement:
 "In the present shameful condition of our political life in this state, I am willing to run for the office of governor of the state if the Democratic convention shall nominate me without any understanding, expressed or implied, other than that, if elected, I shall obey my oath of office as I understand it, in letter and spirit."
 "WILLIAM TRAVERS JEROME."

MOTHER AND CHILD PERISH

Kerosene Oil On the Fire to Hasten Supper Causes Two Deaths.
 Allentown, Pa., Aug. 21.—To raise a quick fire to cook supper, Mrs. There sa Tenser, of Stockertown, poured kerosene into the kitchen stove. The oil caught fire and the can exploded, the burning oil splashing over both Mrs. Tenser and her 3-year-old daughter, who was playing in the kitchen. The child died in an hour. Mrs. Tenser expired several hours later.

Went Crazy Over Lynchings.

Charleston, S. C., Aug. 21.—A special from Greenwood tells of the arrest and placing in jail of Robert Faust, a negro 30 years old, who went crazy thinking over the recent lynchings, and announced that he would assault every woman he met. Three times he attacked colored women and was driven away without doing them injury, and finally made similar threats at the home of Benjamin King, a white farmer living in the Coronaca section. King succeeded in disarming him, and later he was taken to Greenwood.

Drowned While Canoeing.

Asbury Park, N. J., Aug. 20.—Howard B. Bell, 30 years old, said to be a wealthy Californian, was drowned while canoeing in the ocean off the Loch Harbour. The canoe capsized, and Bell and two companions, a young man and woman, clung to it. Bell became exhausted, lost his grip on the boat and went down. He was quickly rescued and brought ashore, where doctors worked over him for some time, but were unable to resuscitate him.

CHOKED TO DEATH BY ROBBER
 Farmer's Wife Murdered and Home Ransacked.

New York, Aug. 18.—Mrs. Mary Manelski, the wife of a farmer, was strangled to death in the dining room of her home in East William, L. I. Her body was found by her son, lying on the floor, face downward, with her apron bound around her neck. The rooms were ransacked, and it is believed that $1,000 which was in the house was stolen. Peter Levy, a negro employed nearby, was arrested on suspicion. He denied any knowledge of the crime.

PLOT TO ASSASSINATE PALMA

Armed Revolution Breaks Out in the Western Part of Cuba.

Havana, Aug. 20.—Half a dozen highly prominent leaders of the Liberal party have been taken into custody on the charge of conspiracy against the government and plotting to assassinate President Palma.

The men arrested are General Carlos Garcia Velez and his brother Faust, Cuban consuls at Bremen; ex-Senator Montalguo, Colonel Manuel Piedra, chief of police in the house of representatives, and General Enrique Loynas del Castillo, a former congressman from Puerto Principe province. These are charged with conspiracy.

The first death resulting from the insurrection occurred Monday afternoon. While Governor Nunez was en route to the westward on the Guanajay road, he overtook a detachment of 30 rural guards who were following the trail of the insurrectionary leader, Bandera. Governor Nunez joined the party and with it went some distance off the main road, when suddenly one of Bandera's bands was encountered. In a rapid exchange of shots which ensued Lieutenant Gregario Roque, the commander of the rural guards, was killed. The band escaped, dragging with them two of their men who are believed to have been mortally wounded.

Numberless rumors are afloat of fighting in the western part of the province of Havana, but the only facts that have materialized are that Bandera's band, which has been increased to 70, while proceeding near the railroad between Guanajay and San Antonio de Los Banos, encountered eight rural guards, who immediately surrendered, were disarmed and let go.

Letter to the Racket Store, Bellefonte, Pa.

Dear Sir: Now, may be, you can't get the goods; if you can, your fortune is made.

Cotton cloth—they call it muslin in some parts—at about the usual price per yard, but wider, twice as wide as some, and better, wears better, keeps white and whole a surprising time in all sorts of wear.

You could sell that cloth for hundreds of miles; there'd be no limit. A yard goes farther; one buys less yards. Wears longer; one buys less often. It always looks right till well worn out. No one customer buys so much of it, but think of the number of customers!

May be you can't get it in cloth; but you can in paint: Devco. Devco is as if it were wider; a gallon goes further; you buy less gallons; you pay for less gallons; you pay for painting less gallons—as if one paid less for making a garment of that wide cloth—and it keeps its fresh look and sheds water till you have forgotten how old it is.

Isn't true in cloth, but it is in paint; the less you pay, the better it is; for the goodness of paint is reckoned by gallons; less gallons, more goodness. Goodness in paint is strength. The stronger a paint, the less gallons it takes for a job and the longer it wears.

Yours truly
 F. W. DEVOE & CO.,
 New York.

Only a Mask.

Many are not being benefited by the summer vacation as they should be. Now, notwithstanding much outdoor life, they are little if any stronger than they were. The tan on their faces is darker and makes them look healthier, but it is only a mask. They are still nervous, easily tired, upset by trifles, and they do not at all sleep well. What they need is what tones the nerves, perfects digestion, creates appetite, and makes sleep refreshing, and that is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Pupils and teachers generally will find the chief purpose of the vacation best subserved by this great medicine which, as we know, "builds up the whole system."
