

THE GRANGE FAIR AND ENCAMPMENT.
The thirty-third annual fair and encampment of the Central Pennsylvania grangers, at Grange park, Centre Hall, this week, was one of the most successful held for a number of years. Every tent was occupied and the line of exhibits, stock, farm machinery, etc., was larger and better than for some years past. Up until yesterday the weather was all that could be desired, though a little too warm for comfort. Yesterday morning's rain doubtless kept many away from the picnic but notwithstanding the crowd was a good sized one. The picnic was informally opened on Saturday evening with a festival given by Progress grange. Sunday afternoon annual Harvest Home services were held in the auditorium, the sermon being preached by Rev. G. W. McInay, of the M. E. church. Monday and Tuesday morning was entirely devoted to arranging the exhibits and assigning tenters their desired quarters. Tuesday afternoon the picnic was formally opened with a meeting in the auditorium at which addresses were made by the officers of the county grange. Wednesday morning the Knights of the Golden Eagle of Centre county held their annual reunion. Quite a large number were present and gave a parade after which a meeting was held and several speeches made by prominent members of the order from a distance. Wednesday afternoon the chief speaker was farmer W. T. Creasy. His address was a good one and was listened to with close attention. Other speakers were Capt. H. S. Taylor and J. T. Ailman. Thursday morning's meeting was addressed by members of the grange from a distance and in the afternoon a Republican blowout was held, it being Edwin S. Stuart, the Republican candidate for Governor's first appearance on the campaign platform. There were quite a number of men on the Republican band wagon, all under the chaperonage of Lewis E. Bitter. The encampment will close today with the auctioning off of all stock and machinery offered for sale. Following is a list of the tent holders:

Centre Hall: L. Rhone, Geo. Boal, J. J. Arney, Geo. Goodhart, Geo. Ginterich, A. Stamp, W. B. Mingle, Samuel Durt, John Heckman, Chas. Arney, Thomas Wilson, Lycurgus Lingle, David Bradford, Cyrus Brunhart, David Bariges, James Keller, John Conley, Chas. Neff, Mrs. Mary Shoop, S. W. Smith, Jas. Stahl, Joseph Lutz, John Geary, Amer. Alexander, Sam. McClellan, John Snyder, E. M. Huyst, Miss Geiss, Mrs. Mayme Miller, Philip Meyer, Aaron Thomas, David Booser.

State College: Geo. Dale, John Dale, Willard Dale.

Millsburg: Bald Eagle Grange, Henry Beaton, Leonard Nathan Grove.

Altoona: Mrs. J. H. Deitrich.

Altoona: John Stamm.

Madisonburg: Geo. C. Raehau.

Milton: G. Erdly.

Belleville: Mrs. James Summers, Albert Thompson, Harrison Kilne, Isaac Underwood, Isaac Miller, Samuel Williams, Republican County Committee, Democratic County Committee, Fred Moselarsner.

Millsburg: P. P. Leitze, A. Stover.

Harrisburg: Mrs. B. W. Kumberger.

Mill Hill: Mrs. Lizzie Wolf, Mrs. Beanson.

Zion: Emanuel Garbrick.

Spring Mills: J. E. Wolf, J. J. Taylor, W. H. Smith, John Smith, Emma Shutt.

Potters Mills: Dr. Alexander, Michael Smith, Harrisburg: Mr. Delbert, Taylor & Wagner.

THE "SUNSHINERS" TOOK A TRIP.
The "Sunshiners" were a jolly stag party who took a trip to the granger's picnic yesterday afternoon and had supper on top of Nittany mountain in the way home. There were just a baker's dozen of them and their names appeared on the roster as follows:

Gyp Beezer, captain; Tom Beaver, queen; Dave Kelley, bonner; Harry Garber, piker; Ed Vensel, swipe, Maurie Jackson, bronco buster; Bill Larimer, horse jockey; Tilt McGinley, tout; Hugh Crider, chauffeur; Dr. Stewart, secretary of the interior; T. S. Strawn, speller, Horton Ray, inn-taker, and John J. Bower, blackstone.

Of course they went in a style that amazed the large gathering of grangers at the park. The most of the crowd went in Bill Larimer's gypsy wagon with four horses attached. And in so doing they consulted their own convenience and comfort. Besides being large and roomy and an easy rider, the gypsy wagon is fitted up with beds and bunkers and underneath the wagon box is a big ice box. This is used principally as a sort of refrigerating plant in which ice is kept for the purpose of keeping the interior of the wagon at a very comfortable temperature, and as yesterday was quite hot the ice box was filled up before starting. The caravan left Belleville shortly after one o'clock and made the trip over in absolute safety. The afternoon was spent at the park and in giving an exhibition of their turnout until about five o'clock in the evening, with an amply replenished ice box, the party started for the top of Nittany mountain where they partook of a most delicious supper of fried spring chicken, potato chips, sandwiches of various kinds, pickles and hot coffee, which had been prepared by James Summers and taken along in the food chest. Of course the entire trip was a most enjoyable one for all and the only reason the "Sunshiners" did not come home "moonshiners" was because there was no moon to shine.

NEW AND SECOND HAND BUGGIES FOR SALE.—At their shops in Belleville McQuision & Co. have an exceptionally large and fine lot of new and second hand buggies which they are anxious to sell before fall work begins. To this end they are offering all the vehicles at prices that are astonishingly low. If you are in need of a buggy we advise you to see them at once as they certainly can't last long at such prices and everybody knows that there are none better than the McQuision buggies.

A fine new concrete pavement is being laid by the Haupt Bros. in front of the McQuision properties on west High street.

THE LADIES AID SOCIETY OF ST. JOHN'S Reformed church will hold one of their popular "Country Stores" the latter part of the month of October.

The Democratic senatorial conference meeting in Philadelphia on Wednesday but failed to make a nomination and agreed to leave the matter to the Democratic state committee.

We are indebted to Dr. Hafer for a fine specimen of his Garfield apple. The fruit is of an exceptional flavor and very beautiful, one more of the many illustrated successes of Dr. Hafer as a fruit grower.

Last Friday Dr. M. A. Kirk was very much mixed up in a runaway by that new horse he recently purchased. He escaped without injury but that nice new buggy of his was some the worse for the accident.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Tate left town yesterday for a trip of a few days. They were called away unexpectedly, so those having engagements with the doctor should bear in mind that he will not be in his office again until after the middle of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meek, of Altoona, will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding at their home, Lyswee, on Saturday afternoon, September 29th, and have sent out invitations to their many friends to be with them on that happy occasion.

We would like to have a bright girl to learn type-setting in the WATCHMAN office. The work is clean and light and good wages and steady employment are assured. If you know of some one who might want an opportunity of this sort will you kindly tell her of it.

Between eight and nine o'clock last Friday evening, while the family were out, some sneak thief entered Emil Joseph's residence, ransacked the place and got away with both Mr. and Mrs. Joseph's watches. Fortunately there was no money around for the thief to take.

Even yet editor sometimes comes in for a treat, as was the case last Friday when, on coming upstairs we found on our desk a beautiful big bouquet of collias with just a few words of reminder that they came from Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Hoy. Of course the flowers were highly appreciated and we herewith make due acknowledgement.

Two serious accidents happened near Howard last week. While Henry Pletober was on a tree picking apples the limb broke and he fell to the ground sustaining a broken collar bone, broken wrist and bad body bruises. The next day Christian Holter fell from the straw mow to the barn floor, at Harry Thompson's farm, breaking his collar bone.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beaton, J. K. Cass and a party of friends came down from Tyrone last Saturday and spent Sunday and the fore part of the week at the Country club. If anybody wants to know a thing or two about the delights of automobile both Mr. Cass and Mr. Beaton are in a position to tell them after their experience in this neighborhood.

Grant Haldeman, who drives one of Tom Beaver's teams, was badly hurt in a runaway last Friday afternoon. He was hauling stone for the foundation of the new chapel being built by the Reformed congregation and when hitching up at one o'clock the horses frightened and ran away. Haldeman became entangled in the lines, was thrown down and dragged a considerable distance, finally being run over by the heavy wagon. He was picked up unconscious and badly injured and after being attended by physicians was taken to his home on Reservoir hill where he is getting along all right.

ILLEGAL FISHERMEN ARRESTED AND FINED.—On Tuesday eleven Howard township residents were arrested and brought to Belleville by a state fish warden on the charge of illegal fishing. They were J. Linn Pletober, John Shay, Irvin Schoenok, Albert Cotler, Morris Schoenok, Samuel Bower, T. J. Lucas, Max Worthington, Oscar Schoenok, William Shay and Aloona Schoenok. They were charged with constructing and using fish baskets without a removable bottom and several of the number were also charged with constructing windfalls in Bald Eagle creek. They were given a hearing before justice of the peace John M. Keichline and the evidence against them was conclusive. Under the circumstances the only thing Squire Keichline could do was to impose the stipulated fine and costs. The fine for building unlawful fish baskets is $25 for each offense and for constructing windfalls $50. The fish warden, however, agreed to accept a total of $100 fine and costs in settlement, the latter amounting to $48. The men settled and went home a bunch of wiser men.

SKATING RINK FOR BELLEVILLE.—The roller skating craze is being revived all over the country and so as not to be behind in this pleasurable pastime Dick Taylor and William Brown have leased the armory and Company B and will open up a rink there in the near future. They have already ordered one hundred pairs of roller skates and will put men to work at once getting the floor in proper shape. They expect to be open for skating in ten days or two weeks.

FOR SALE.—Extension table, kitchen cabinet, sideboard, couch, small stove, dishes and other household articles. Must be sold this week. Mrs. E. L. LENKICKER, second floor, McClain block.

JOHN KACHIC MURDERED.—Last week's WATCHMAN gave an account of the finding of the headless and armless body of John Kachic, a brother of George Kachic, lying alongside the New York Central railroad track at the Clarence station, last Wednesday morning, and the supposition that he had been struck and run over by a train. At the time, however, there was some suspicion that the man might have been the victim of foul play, and later investigations reveal without any apparent doubt that Kachic was the victim of a cowardly murder and his body placed on the railroad track in the hope of thus effectually destroying all evidence of the foul deed. Kachic was last seen about 8 o'clock Tuesday evening when he left his brother's hotel at Clarence to go to his home about a mile distant. From that time until the finding of his headless body the next morning there is no public knowledge of his whereabouts or what happened to him. Whether he was the victim of a vendetta or whether he was murdered for the purpose of robbery is unknown.

The fact of the murder was disclosed as the coroner's inquest and postmortem examination on Friday when it was found that the man had been stabbed in the neck three or four times with a stiletto, one of which almost severed the jugular vein. From the course of the wounds the assassin evidently struck the fatal blows from behind his victim. The doctors also gave it as their opinion that the man was dead when placed on the railroad track.

The authorities will make a thorough investigation of the case, though so far there is not the least suspicion as to who committed the crime. The supposition is, however, that the murderer, whoever he was, knew Kachic was at the Clarence hotel on Tuesday evening, and knowing the way he would go home lay in wait for him and as he passed, sneaked up behind and dealt the death blows. Then when satisfied he would not be discovered placed the body on the railroad so that a passing train would completely sever the head, thus hoping to destroy the evidence of the crime. In this, however, he was not wholly successful.

Kachic, who was a married man with children, was well-to-do for a miner, was of a rather inoffensive character and so far as known, had not an enemy in the Snow Shoe regions, a fact which renders his murder all the more mysterious.

GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of horsemen, automobilists and citizens generally was held in W. Harrison Walker's office, Monday night, and an organization known as the Good Roads Association of Centre county was perfected by electing DeLann G. Stewart president and J. Harris Hoy secretary. The purpose of the organization is primarily the improvement of the county roads: First, in seeing that supervisors do their full duty, as required by the law, in keeping the roads clear of loose stones; and second, in furthering the movement in favor of the building of state roads or highways.

The good roads question is one that has never been taken up to any great extent by the supervisors or taxpayers of Centre county. As a general thing the road-makers have been satisfied to put a lot of very coarsely broken stone with a shallow covering of dirt in the middle of the road, the result being that it would remain that way for months as every driver of a vehicle would go around it. The fact cannot help but be admitted that this is the crudest way possible for repairing roads and now, when the State has taken the good roads matter in hand and will bear a portion of the burden of building what will not only be a permanent highway but what will prove one of the greatest blessings to every man who drives a vehicle, even if it is only a wheelbarrow, the taxpayers of Centre county should lose no time in availing themselves of the opportunity and as fast as possible take advantage of the state highways act.

To this end the Good Roads Association of Centre county has been organized and every farmer, liveryman and automobile owner in the county should become a member and join in the movement for good roads.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY.—Miss Nellie Caldwell, district missionary of the Children's Home Society of Pennsylvania, with headquarters in Pittsburg, was in Belleville this week and is desirous of securing homeless or neglected children. Any person knowing of any such can communicate with her by addressing her at 719 Ferguson block, Fourth avenue, Pittsburg. The Children's Home society must not be confused with the Children's Aid society. The latter is entitled to a certain amount of help each year from the State while the former is entirely self-sustaining. Since 1894 over eight hundred children have been recorded by petition, over six hundred are now under supervision and over fifty thousand dollars have been received and disbursed.

BOALSBERG MAN DROWNED.—Frank Kaup, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kaup, of Boalsburg, was drowned in the Susquehanna river near Watsonstown, last Saturday morning. He was in the employ of the White Deer Lumber company and was stationed at Watsonstown. Early Saturday morning he attempted to cross the river in a boat, which capsized and Kaup was drowned before he could be rescued. The body was recovered later in the day. He was forty-one years old and in addition to his parents is survived by three sisters and one brother. The remains were brought to his parents home in Boalsburg from where the funeral was held on Tuesday morning.

VOGT—ALEXANDER.—The many friends of Miss Emilie Alexander, daughter of the late Dr. J. F. Alexander, of Centre Hall, are now in a position to extend their congratulations on her marriage to Albert Vogt, of Pittsburg. The ceremony was performed at Johnstown at 7:30 o'clock last Saturday evening by Rev. W. H. Downes.

Owing to the recent death of the bride's father it was decided to avoid all semblance of a pretentious wedding, so the bride and bridegroom-elect drove to Bellefonte last Saturday forenoon and left here on the one o'clock train. They went direct to Johnstown where the marriage ceremony took place, after which they left for Niagara Falls and other places on the great lakes for a week's honeymoon trip. They expect to arrive in Pittsburg tomorrow, where they will take up their residence on the East Side.

The groom is an old Tyrone boy and now holds a good position as civil engineer with the Pennsylvania railroad company.

MISS BESSIE BRONSE is visiting friends in Huntingdon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Curtin returned from their wedding trip on Monday.

Mrs. Henry Lowery is visiting her sister, Mrs. Sellers, in Pittsburg.

Miss Margaret Cook went to Philadelphia on Tuesday for a two week's visit.

Mrs. Mary Ann Johnston left yesterday for Wisconsin for a visit with her son Finley.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Miller returned on Wednesday evening from their wedding trip.

A. S. Garman, of Atlantic City, was in Belleville this week visiting his father and brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Runkle went Monday to Shamokin, for a visit with relatives of Mr. Runkle.

L. J. Dreese, of Baltimore and Lemont, circulated among his friends in Belleville yesterday.

Will Tyson, of Tyrone, and Ed. Shaffer, of Hanover, were two Belleville visitors this week.

Mrs. James K. Barnhart is entertaining her sister, Miss Margaret Campbell, of Painsuwaney.

Mrs. James B. Lane, after spending the summer here, has returned to Philadelphia for the winter.

Mrs. John Kennedy and daughter, Mrs. Dr. Getz, of Tarentum, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John P. Harris.

Miss Lillian Muffy, of Philadelphia, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. L. Montgomery, on east Lin street.

Mrs. Isaac Maitland, of Williamsport, is here for a short visit with her father, the venerable Daniel Garman.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Eber Rothrock and child, of DuBois, are visiting their friends in Belleville and Centre county.

George H. Knisely took his little son Robert to a Philadelphia hospital, on Wednesday, to have his eyes treated.

Joe Barnes is back on the Adams express wagon again after a week's trip to Huntingdon, Port Royal and Harrisburg.

After a pleasant visit with Belleville friends Mr. and Mrs. Morris Tucker left for their home in Akron, Ohio, last Saturday.

Harry Winton, the genial conductor on the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, is taking in the big Altoona fair this week.

Mrs. E. F. Tausig, nee Miss Ida Fauble, is here from Harrisburg for a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Fauble.

Mrs. C. Bruce Garman and Mrs. Edward Harper have returned from Altoona where they were members of a week's house party.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Wagner are in Baltimore this week, the former in attendance at the national miller's association convention.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Gamble are in Baltimore this week where Mr. Gamble is attending the National Miller's Association convention.

Mrs. A. S. Garman and Mrs. Hamilton Otto returned to Bellefonte, Wednesday evening, from a fortnight's visit with friends at Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Mary Ardell left last Friday for New York city, where she has secured an excellent position and where she will make her future home.

Mrs. James L. Sommerville, of Winburne, was an arrival in Bellefonte on Tuesday and is making her home with the James H. Potter home on Linn street.

After a six week's visit with her parents in this place Mrs. Louis Friedman, nee Miss Edith Holz, returned to her home in New York Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Lebkieker with her daughter, Miss Nellie, will leave Belleville the last of September expecting to make their home in the future in Johnstown.

Mr. and Mrs. James Orville Brewer have returned from their wedding trip and for the present are stopping at Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Bell's on east Howard street.

Mrs. Ralph Mallory and two children, accompanied by her brother, Edward Murphy, left on Sunday for Philadelphia where Mrs. Mallory will visit her parents for a fortnight or so.

Charles M. McCurdy with his sisters, Mrs. Scott and Miss Mary, are now in Massachusetts, dividing their time between the delights of Magnolia Beach and the diversions of the Hub.

Mrs. A. T. Parker, one of Jersey Shore's oldest residents, is at present visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Bidwell, on south Allegheny street. Mrs. Parker is over eighty-seven years of age.

C. J. Stamm, one of the many good Centre county Democrats who have gone to Altoona to make their home, spent Sunday in Belleville and at the granger's picnic, renewing old friendships.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sowers, of North Bend, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kern on Tuesday. Mr. Sowers is an old Pennsylvania boy and at one time was employed at the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania station in this place.

Miss Maud Rimert, who is now studying for a professional nurse in the Altoona hospital, passed through Bellefonte on Tuesday to spend her two weeks vacation at her home in Howard.

Miss Rimert was at one time employed in the WATCHMAN office but now finds nursing more to her liking.

Alex. Yarrington, of Richmond, Va., who for the past fifteen months has been with the Westinghouse people of Pittsburg, is the guest of Miss McCalmont on Linn street. Alex. had only come in for the day but has prolonged his visit in anticipation of meeting his mother here the latter part of the week.

Cap. W. H. Fry, the WATCHMAN's versatile correspondent at Pine Grove Mills, passed through Bellefonte on Tuesday on his way to Nittany to test a herd of cattle for tuberculosis. This was the first time the doctor has been in Bellefonte since the dedication of the soldier's monument in June, and he isn't coming down for the show today. In fact that is one remarkable thing in his life, that he has never seen a circus or show of any kind.

WOMER—FLEGAL.—A modest but pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Flegal, of Philadelphia, Wednesday evening of last week, when their daughter, Miss Iva, was united in marriage to Robert S. Womer, son of O. S. Womer. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. J. Head in the presence of only the immediate friends of the contracting parties. Both Mr. and Mrs. Womer are worthy and respected young people and have the best wishes of their many friends.

AYERS—UTLEY.—Monday evening in the parlors of the First Methodist Episcopal parsonage, Altoona, Ralph Wesley Ayers, of Loveville, this county, and Miss Margaret Minerva Utley, of Altoona, were married by the pastor, Rev. Horace Lincoln Jacobs. The attendants were Miss Hazel F. Hyle, as bridesmaid, and William H. Utley, best man. Mr. and Mrs. Ayers will make their home in Altoona.

HARPSTER—HOUCK.—Herschell P. Harpster and Miss Maud E. Houck, both residents of Warriorsmark valley, but who have many friends in Centre county, drove to Tyrone last Wednesday evening and at the parsonage of the First Lutheran church were united in marriage by Rev. F. L. Bergstresser. Mr. and Mrs. Harpster will live in Warriorsmark valley where the bridegroom is engaged in farming.

EYES—WAY.—Chester H. Eyes and Miss Mamie J. Way, both of Halfmoon township, were married at the Methodist parsonage, this place, on Wednesday morning, by Rev. James B. Stein, pastor.

WANTED.—At once, an experienced salesman in a dry goods and general store. Address Postoffice Box 247, Bellefonte, Pa.

We would like to have a bright girl to learn type-setting in the WATCHMAN office. The work is clean and light and good wages and steady employment are assured. If you know of some one who might want an opportunity of this sort will you kindly tell her of it.

Between eight and nine o'clock last Friday evening, while the family were out, some sneak thief entered Emil Joseph's residence, ransacked the place and got away with both Mr. and Mrs. Joseph's watches. Fortunately there was no money around for the thief to take.

Even yet editor sometimes comes in for a treat, as was the case last Friday when, on coming upstairs we found on our desk a beautiful big bouquet of collias with just a few words of reminder that they came from Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Hoy. Of course the flowers were highly appreciated and we herewith make due acknowledgement.

Two serious accidents happened near Howard last week. While Henry Pletober was on a tree picking apples the limb broke and he fell to the ground sustaining a broken collar bone, broken wrist and bad body bruises. The next day Christian Holter fell from the straw mow to the barn floor, at Harry Thompson's farm, breaking his collar bone.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beaton, J. K. Cass and a party of friends came down from Tyrone last Saturday and spent Sunday and the fore part of the week at the Country club. If anybody wants to know a thing or two about the delights of automobile both Mr. Cass and Mr. Beaton are in a position to tell them after their experience in this neighborhood.

Grant Haldeman, who drives one of Tom Beaver's teams, was badly hurt in a runaway last Friday afternoon. He was hauling stone for the foundation of the new chapel being built by the Reformed congregation and when hitching up at one o'clock the horses frightened and ran away. Haldeman became entangled in the lines, was thrown down and dragged a considerable distance, finally being run over by the heavy wagon. He was picked up unconscious and badly injured and after being attended by physicians was taken to his home on Reservoir hill where he is getting along all right.

ILLEGAL FISHERMEN ARRESTED AND FINED.—On Tuesday eleven Howard township residents were arrested and brought to Belleville by a state fish warden on the charge of illegal fishing. They were J. Linn Pletober, John Shay, Irvin Schoenok, Albert Cotler, Morris Schoenok, Samuel Bower, T. J. Lucas, Max Worthington, Oscar Schoenok, William Shay and Aloona Schoenok. They were charged with constructing and using fish baskets without a removable bottom and several of the number were also charged with constructing windfalls in Bald Eagle creek. They were given a hearing before justice of the peace John M. Keichline and the evidence against them was conclusive. Under the circumstances the only thing Squire Keichline could do was to impose the stipulated fine and costs. The fine for building unlawful fish baskets is $25 for each offense and for constructing windfalls $50. The fish warden, however, agreed to accept a total of $100 fine and costs in settlement, the latter amounting to $48. The men settled and went home a bunch of wiser men.

SKATING RINK FOR BELLEVILLE.—The roller skating craze is being revived all over the country and so as not to be behind in this pleasurable pastime Dick Taylor and William Brown have leased the armory and Company B and will open up a rink there in the near future. They have already ordered one hundred pairs of roller skates and will put men to work at once getting the floor in proper shape. They expect to be open for skating in ten days or two weeks.

FOR SALE.—Extension table, kitchen cabinet, sideboard, couch, small stove, dishes and other household articles. Must be sold this week. Mrs. E. L. LENKICKER, second floor, McClain block.

JOHN KACHIC MURDERED.—Last week's WATCHMAN gave an account of the finding of the headless and armless body of John Kachic, a brother of George Kachic, lying alongside the New York Central railroad track at the Clarence station, last Wednesday morning, and the supposition that he had been struck and run over by a train. At the time, however, there was some suspicion that the man might have been the victim of foul play, and later investigations reveal without any apparent doubt that Kachic was the victim of a cowardly murder and his body placed on the railroad track in the hope of thus effectually destroying all evidence of the foul deed. Kachic was last seen about 8 o'clock Tuesday evening when he left his brother's hotel at Clarence to go to his home about a mile distant. From that time until the finding of his headless body the next morning there is no public knowledge of his whereabouts or what happened to him. Whether he was the victim of a vendetta or whether he was murdered for the purpose of robbery is unknown.

The fact of the murder was disclosed as the coroner's inquest and postmortem examination on Friday when it was found that the man had been stabbed in the neck three or four times with a stiletto, one of which almost severed the jugular vein. From the course of the wounds the assassin evidently struck the fatal blows from behind his victim. The doctors also gave it as their opinion that the man was dead when placed on the railroad track.

The authorities will make a thorough investigation of the case, though so far there is not the least suspicion as to who committed the crime. The supposition is, however, that the murderer, whoever he was, knew Kachic was at the Clarence hotel on Tuesday evening, and knowing the way he would go home lay in wait for him and as he passed, sneaked up behind and dealt the death blows. Then when satisfied he would not be discovered placed the body on the railroad so that a passing train would completely sever the head, thus hoping to destroy the evidence of the crime. In this, however, he was not wholly successful.

Kachic, who was a married man with children, was well-to-do for a miner, was of a rather inoffensive character and so far as known, had not an enemy in the Snow Shoe regions, a fact which renders his murder all the more mysterious.

GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of horsemen, automobilists and citizens generally was held in W. Harrison Walker's office, Monday night, and an organization known as the Good Roads Association of Centre county was perfected by electing DeLann G. Stewart president and J. Harris Hoy secretary. The purpose of the organization is primarily the improvement of the county roads: First, in seeing that supervisors do their full duty, as required by the law, in keeping the roads clear of loose stones; and second, in furthering the movement in favor of the building of state roads or highways.

The good roads question is one that has never been taken up to any great extent by the supervisors or taxpayers of Centre county. As a general thing the road-makers have been satisfied to put a lot of very coarsely broken stone with a shallow covering of dirt in the middle of the road, the result being that it would remain that way for months as every driver of a vehicle would go around it. The fact cannot help but be admitted that this is the crudest way possible for repairing roads and now, when the State has taken the good roads matter in hand and will bear a portion of the burden of building what will not only be a permanent highway but what will prove one of the greatest blessings to every man who drives a vehicle, even if it is only a wheelbarrow, the taxpayers of Centre county should lose no time in availing themselves of the opportunity and as fast as possible take advantage of the state highways act.

To this end the Good Roads Association of Centre county has been organized and every farmer, liveryman and automobile owner in the county should become a member and join in the movement for good roads.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY.—Miss Nellie Caldwell, district missionary of the Children's Home Society of Pennsylvania, with headquarters in Pittsburg, was in Belleville this week and is desirous of securing homeless or neglected children. Any person knowing of any such can communicate with her by addressing her at 719 Ferguson block, Fourth avenue, Pittsburg. The Children's Home society must not be confused with the Children's Aid society. The latter is entitled to a certain amount of help each year from the State while the former is entirely self-sustaining. Since 1894 over eight hundred children have been recorded by petition, over six hundred are now under supervision and over fifty thousand dollars have been received and disbursed.

BOALSBERG MAN DROWNED.—Frank Kaup, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kaup, of Boalsburg, was drowned in the Susquehanna river near Watsonstown, last Saturday morning. He was in the employ of the White Deer Lumber company and was stationed at Watsonstown. Early Saturday morning he attempted to cross the river in a boat, which capsized and Kaup was drowned before he could be rescued. The body was recovered later in the day. He was forty-one years old and in addition to his parents is survived by three sisters and one brother. The remains were brought to his parents home in Boalsburg from where the funeral was held on Tuesday morning.

VOGT—ALEXANDER.—The many friends of Miss Emilie Alexander, daughter of the late Dr. J. F. Alexander, of Centre Hall, are now in a position to extend their congratulations on her marriage to Albert Vogt, of Pittsburg. The ceremony was performed at Johnstown at 7:30 o'clock last Saturday evening by Rev. W. H. Downes.

Owing to the recent death of the bride's father it was decided to avoid all semblance of a pretentious wedding, so the bride and bridegroom-elect drove to Bellefonte last Saturday forenoon and left here on the one o'clock train. They went direct
