For Reform and Good Governmen

Every good and loyal citizen in Centre county knows that there is much to reform in the way our State government has been run for the many years it has been under machine domination and the only way such reformation can be had is to change the office holders. This is the great issue in this campaign for the election of a Governor. On the one side we have STUART, who in himself is an honest enough man, he be elected he will of necessity have to stick to the people who made him Gov-

On the other hand we have LEWIS EM-ERY Jr., the man nominated by the independent Republicans who have tired of the dark and evil paths of the old regime and want to see reform in all lines of our State government, and who was endorsed by the duty as he sees it for the best interests of the people and the State.

Vogel's MINSTRELS. - An occasional visit of a minstrel show is a good thing for the theatre goer. Wearied by a continuous course of problem plays, lurid meloto 0. The feature was the excellent work dramas and musical comedies, the stately presence and sparkling conversation of the interlocutor appeals restfully to him, while the familiar quips of the end men are hailed as old friends returning from a long journey, and it is all very lovely. This statement is especially true of as good a minstrel show as John W. Vogel's Big City Minstrels are presenting, which comes to Garmans opera house Oct. 4th. There is just enough newness about it to please, and just enough of the old-time flavor to relieve it from any change of iconoclasm. And the fact that the past nine years demonstrated enthusiastic approval of every item of the bill, would indicate that John W. Vogel's aggregation has made good.

There will be no doubt of the kind of eating visitors to the Great Centre County Fair will have on Oct. 9 10-11-12. The Bellefonte Evangelical church has taken the eating house on the grounds and the ladies of that denomination are already at work preparing for the greatest business that has ever been undertaken by a party of church workers in Centre county. It will be a wonderful undertaking, but they declare that they can do it and are actually going to serve chicken and waffles for dinner each day.

Several of the Bloomsburg churches do it at the fair in Columbia county each year, but this is the first time it has been tried in Centre county and the ladies will be watched with interest, necause every one knows they have the reputation for being grand cooks.

Milton's Big rair.

The fall meeting of the Milton Fair Association will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th. The management promise that this meeting will be one of the hest in the society's history. The Milton Fair is an inter-county fair. The indications are that there will be a large exhibit in the stock and main building depart- terests hereabouts. ments. There is every promise of a large field of horses for the races. The midway will be as popular as ever, and free from anything tainted with immorality. The attractions this year will be entirely out of the ordinary and are the most expensive ever contracted for by a Central Pennsylvania fair management. Good order will be maintained and the gambler and the crook has no place at the Milton Fair. All railroads sell excursion tickets at reduced prices.

The Poultry Show.

The poultry show at the fair this fall is going to be larger than ever and the best part of it all is that none but Centre county chickens, ducks and geese will be permitted to compete for the premiums. Already many local fanciers are getting their birds in condition for exhibition and there promises an unusually interesting exhibit in this line.

Of course the Pennsylvania State College Experiment Station will make an exhibit of its new poultry department, but it will not enter for premiums, thus leaving the whole field of prizes open to the growers on a smaller scale.
