

P. GRAY MEEK, Editor
TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates:
Paid strictly in advance..... $1.00
Paid before expiration of year..... 1.50
Paid after expiration of year..... 2.00

The Way Tuesday's Election Went

In the election of George M. Dimeling, of Clearfield, to the State Senate, and John Noll, of Bellefonte, we have two crumbs of comfort for the crushing defeat administered to the Fusion ticket at the polls on Tuesday.

Never was there a more auspicious election day than that of this week, and this very fact accounts to a certain extent for the result, as there were too many stay-at-home voters; farmers who took advantage of the nice weather to either husk corn or raise potatoes. In this county the total vote this year was about 425 less than the Plummer-Berry vote last year, and the big majority of the stay-at-homes was over in Pennsylvania, the Democratic stronghold.

Notwithstanding this fact Emery carried the county by a plurality of 203 votes. The only other Democrat to have a majority was John Noll who had 105 votes more than Fryberger. For the Republicans Barclay had the biggest vote, his majority over Taylor being 165. This, however, can be accounted for by the fact that Barclay had been endorsed by the Prohibitionists and consequently got that vote, which increased his total over two hundred. Quigley carried the county over Dimeling by 99 of a majority.

The election itself was a very quiet and orderly one. Owing to the rigorous provisions of the Corrupt Practices act there was not the usual crowd of floaters around waiting to barter their vote for anything from a drink of whiskey to a ten dollar bill. Of course, some of the old stand-bys were in evidence but they merely stood around in groups and did not pester the ward managers or the candidates as was the custom in former years. If there was any whiskey around it was kept very much under cover, while there was no attempt made on the part of any one to buy votes outright.

But the election is now a thing of the past. The campaign was a strenuous one from start to finish. There is not a voter in Centre county or the State, for that matter, who did not have the issues thrust upon him day after day and there can be no alternative now. The only thing we can do is to gripe and bear it and hope for better results next time.

The official count in this county, which was completed last evening shows the majorities for the various candidates to be as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Candidate Name and Vote Count. Includes Emery (186), Black (74), Creasy (297), Honok (184), Quigley (102), Barclay (226), Noll (108), Gramley (216).

1 Crow for John Noll.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

A dozen of her neighbors gave Mrs. J. L. Seibert a very delightful birthday surprise party one day this week.

The ladies of the Reformed church cleared almost three hundred dollars at their Country Store, in Crider's exchange, last week.

Mrs. Edward Harper entertained with five tables of six hand enobre Wednesday night in honor of her sister, Mrs. Bently, of Pittsburg.

The Bellefonte Academy football team went to Williamsport on Tuesday and defeated the High school team in that place by the score of 5 to 0.

Claude Herr and family have moved from Salona to this place and are now occupying the house on Lamb street recently vacated by Forest Ocker and family.

Annual "Mission Day" services in St. John's Reformed church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, in which the Sunday school and congregation will unite.

At the twenty-ninth annual reunion of the 7th Pennsylvania cavalry, held in Harrisburg recently, Geo. W. Smith, of this place, was elected first vice president and it was decided to hold the next annual meeting in Bellefonte in October, 1907.

The Panthers will leave for their annual camp in the Alleghenies next Wednesday morning, so as to have their camp all in shape for the opening of the deer season the next morning. The boys all feel confident of bringing some venison home with them this year.

William Johnson on Monday sold his blacksmith shop on Penn street to George Doll, who will run the same in the future. Mr. Johnson has not yet decided just what he may do. He has several offers under consideration but may decide to leave Bellefonte and take up his residence elsewhere.

FOOT BALL TOMORROW.—The Lock Haven Normal school foot ball eleven is very strong this year and has almost a clean record for the season. The Bellefonte Academy team has likewise a good record thus far, having lost but two games, one to the Dickinson Seminary eleven, of Williamsport, which outclassed the Academy and which defeated the Bucknell reserves by a score of 20-0; the other at the hands of the Lock Haven Normal school during the first week, in a most interesting game. It costs money to bring visiting teams here and those who attend should help along with the expenses and not stand along the side lines as a lot of dead heads and spongers. Such conduct is very despicable. Those not displaying tickets on their person will be regarded as spongers. There should be a good attendance as this will be the best game of the season.

THAT SALVATION ARMY WEDDING.—As announced last week a Salvation Army wedding was held in the court house at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. Owing to the fact that the event was new and novel in Bellefonte a large audience was present to witness it. The contracting parties were Miss Viola Wilson, of this place, and W. D. Beaver, of Minneapolis, Minn. The ceremony was performed by Staff Captain Lyon, of Philadelphia, and the attendants were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCloskey. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Beaver were driven to the McCloskey home at Verona where the wedding supper was served and a reception held. Yesterday they left for Philadelphia and other points east and later will go to Minneapolis where they will make their future home. Mr. Beaver is a bridge contractor in the employ of one of the large railroad companies operating in that section.

1 Crow for the Gain in Legislators and Congressmen.

—Andrew Rapp, the old well driller who struck the rich oil well in Venango county a month ago, and mention of whom was made in the WATCHMAN two weeks ago, is attracting as much attention as "Coal Oil Johnny" did upwards of fifty years ago. Rapp has refused an offer of $100,000 for his oil lease made him by a syndicate of Butler oil men. He went to Franklin on Monday and got $10,000 from the Standard Oil company as payment for the product from his well so far. The gusher is still flowing at the rate of nine hundred barrels a day, and will be considerably better when it is safe to drill deeper.

—Mr. George Bayard, formerly of this place, gave a very delightful roast bear dinner at the Windsor in Clearfield on Friday to a party of friends. Mr. James Connelly presented him with a six pound roast and he very generously invited a number of friends to share it with him. The party was made up as follows, Messrs. Cash and Race, of the Arlington Stock Co., Frank Conklin, Frank Ellis, Emmott Harder and Mr. Ames.

—W. V. Larimer has resigned the management of the Palace livery and sale barn in this place and is thinking about moving to Jersey Shore. While it will seem funny without a Larimer in the livery business in Bellefonte Will says his health would permit of his continuing at it any longer.

—Quite a number of Bellefonters will profit by the announcement of the Pennsylvania railroad company of an increase of ten per cent. in the wages of all its employees east of Pittsburg who are now drawing salaries of less than $300 per month. The increase will take effect December first.

November Court Trial List.

FIRST WEEK, NOVEMBER 26th. Gerberich, Hale & Co. vs M. S. Betz. G. L. Meyers vs F. H. Dale and Margaret Dale. Amos Copenharver and J. S. McMonigal vs J. P. Sebring. Joseph Ceder vs Lillie G. Reeder. Walter Stevens Exr. of O. L. Sobonover vs Andrew Sommerville. Robert Cole vs Geo. Kaohik. Mary K. Gray vs High Standard Garment company. F. C. Croyle and S. G. Stell, trading as Croyle & Stell, vs C. H. Gulick. Frank F. Irwin vs Rosa L. Pierce. Geo. G. Hastings vs D. H. Shively. H. G. Stover use of J. C. Snook vs C. R. Snook and Alfred Keen. R. S. Brouse vs J. H. Olinger and Margery Olinger.

SECOND WEEK, DECEMBER 2ND.

Lehigh Valley Coal company vs George Lucas. A. W. Hafer trustee vs L. C. Reariok. H. T. Hall trustee vs John M. Robb. Grant Thompson, trustee, vs Samuel Gault. Daniel T. Meyer vs Rush twp. William Witmer vs Edward Salters. Barbara Gross vs Peter Hoy's Exr. Harry Krape vs Howard Brick Co. David L. Kerr vs Geo. W. Brown et al. Lewisburg Nat. Bank vs Lena W. Duncanson. Landerbaugh Barber Co. vs R. M. Foster, trustee. Mollie Miller vs Ins. Co. of North America. Landerbaugh-Barber Co. vs J. G. Platt and G. C. Showalter. Landerbaugh-Barber Co. vs H. K. Grant's Exrs. Rebecca Spahr's Exrs. vs John Ritter. Moses Montgomery's Exrs. vs Josephine Curtin's Heirs. J. C. Nason vs Geo. W. Gill.

—No one is quite so put out as the chorus girl who discovers the next day that she has entertained an angel unaware.

Resolutions of Esteem.

The following resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the Bellefonte Ministerium on Monday, November 5th:

WHEREAS, The Reverend A. Davidson, pastor of the United Brethren church, has recently been removed by the authorities of said church to another field of labor; we, the members of the Ministerium of Bellefonte, Pa., desire to give formal expression of our esteem and appreciation of this golden Christian minister and co-laborer in the vineyard of the Master, and our sense of loss in his removal from our midst. We have come to love him as a brother, and esteem him highly for his work's sake. He is a true Christian gentleman of the best type, and a minister of the Gospel who does real honor to his Master's cause. As a member of this association, he was always the kindly, courteous, affable, and "brotherly" brother. For the term just past, the president of this association, we bear testimony to his fidelity to all the duties pertaining to that office. As a member of this organization, he was ever ready to actively support every good work for the general good of the church and community. Our love prayers follow him to his new charge, where we ardently wish for his new and most fruitful ministry, and the abounding blessings of our Lord and Master for himself and family.

Resolved, That a copy of this minute be recorded among the archives of this association, be published in the several papers of Bellefonte, and sent to the Rev. A. Davidson, Madison, Pa.

WHEREAS, The Reverend W. M. Reaick, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran church, has accepted a call to another charge, and recently has removed from our midst; we, the members of the Ministerium of Bellefonte, Pa., in this formal way, desire to record our brotherly appreciation of the Rev. Mr. Reaick, and our sense of loss in his removal. In our brief fellowship with him in this association, and in the general Christian work in this community, we have learned to regard the Rev. Reaick as a true Christian minister,—a workman of God of more than ordinary ability and consecrated devotion. We esteem him most highly as a Christian gentleman, and as a brother in the ministerial office and secretary of this association at the time of his removal, we, the members of the Ministerium, bear testimony to his fidelity and devotion to every trust and interest pertaining to the social, intellectual, and spiritual welfare of the church and community at large. Gone to labor in other fields, he will retain his place in affection's memory, and we wish for him the largest measure of success in his new charge, and pray that the richest blessings of our common Lord and Master may ever abide upon him and his estimable family.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Rev. W. M. Reaick, Mifflinburg, Pa., published in the several papers of Bellefonte, and recorded in the minutes of this association.

J. ALLISON PLATTS, President.

JAMES B. STEIN, Secretary.

Lemont.

Tuesday of last week brought us the first snow of the season.

Hiram Thompson started for Kansas, Monday, to visit his daughter.

The vote in College township was very light there being but 216 votes cast.

Maurice Klingler, Jno. I. Williams and James I. Thompson were home to vote.

W. O. Dougherty bought the S. B. Wasson property at present occupied by Jacob Klingler.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Zeigler are rejoicing over the arrival of their first born, and it is a big boy.

Jno. L. Houtz stopped off for a day on his way to Altoona, where he holds a position with the P. R. R. Co.

Jno. Hartwick was elected a director of College township to succeed G. W. Ralston who moved to Dewart.

Samuel Glenn and bride departed for Altoona Saturday evening where they intend making their future home.

G. W. R. Williams was appointed minority inspector to take the place of Edwin K. Smith, who is at present in Michigan.

J. Harvey Shuey purchased the property at present occupied by James Osman for nine hundred dollars, of Jno. I. Thompson.

The pie sociable held at the home of Mrs. Alice Williams, by the ladies of the M. E. church, Thursday evening, was rather a success.

The old grind-organ man made his trip through this place, but was very late this year, for age is bearing heavily upon his shoulders.

Rev. Sechrist of the M. E. church will hold a special service for the aged people of the community Sunday, Nov. 18, and all are cordially invited.

Mrs. Rose Williams, the oldest lady in this community, celebrated her 87th birthday Friday in company with 29 of her friends. She is able to read and sew without glasses and can get around fine for a lady of her age.

Pine Grove Mentions.

We have met the enemy and they are not all ours.

Mrs. Rebecca Ard is quite ill at her home on Water St.

The venerable Chas. Snyder on Tuesday voted his 63rd fall election.

Mr. John Martz and wife, of Centre Hall visited friends in town over Sunday.

J. Cal Bailey is exceptionally happy over the arrival of a nice boy at his home.

E. C. Musser, of Sellingsgrove, and Alf. Bowersow, of Altoona, were home to vote.

Charley H. Martz and family occupied their new home on Main street last week.

Prof. Wadsworth and wife, of State College, enjoyed a drive to our town Tuesday.

Dan'l Dreiblebis and wife are down at Oak Grove to see Mrs. John Wolf, who is very ill.

On November first Wesley Meyers sold his interest in the butchering business to George Ishler.

A new 600 pound bell has been put in the new tower in the Pine Hall Reformed church.

Geo. Lutz has rented the Brown farm, better known as the McFarlane farm on Buffalo Run.

Lee Markle, of Tusseyville, was home for the election.

McClellan Rossmann is minus a finger, taken off in a corn husker.

Mr. Ira Corman was walking on his tip toes on account of the arrival of No. 11. It is a fine big boy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Heberling are down at Eagleville to see his aged mother, who is at death's door.

George Fisher is handling the ribbons over a splendid driver, and says he does not need to take anybody's dust.

J. A. Fortney and wife came up from their beautiful home in Pennsylvania to spend Sunday among friends in town.

Merchant Will Stewart with his new driver, and splendid new wagon is ready to make free delivery to his customers.

John Martz, Jr., with his wife came up from Centre Hall to spend a day at the home of Alf. Bradford, on Water street.

The Ladies Circle of the Lutheran church will hold an old time Thanksgiving supper in the L. O. O. F. hall on the 23rd inst.

Frank Graham and wife, of McAlvey's Fort, came over Saturday to see his brother, George, who is slowly recovering from a case of typhoid fever.

Dr. Barr and wife, of McAlvey's Fort, and Mrs. Mary Jane Stewart, of Altoona, were royally entertained at the G. W. McWilliams home at Fairbrook over Sunday.

Last Sunday evening the Lutheran church was filled to its utmost with the installation of the new pastor, Rev. Ralph H. Bergstresser. Rev. Diehl delivered the charge to the minister. Rev. C. T. Aiken addressed the congregation in plain language so that none could help but heed.

Stuart's Majority Estimated 52,533.

Official Returns on Governorship From 61 Counties. Close Senatorial Fight.

Complete returns from 61 of the 67 counties in Pennsylvania, and careful estimates from the other six counties, give Edwin S. Stuart, the Republican candidate for Governor, a plurality of 52,533 over Lewis Emery, Jr., his opponent.

The counties which have not yet reported their complete vote, and in which estimates are made for Governor, are Allegheny, Bradford, Columbia, Crawford, McKean and Wayne.

The vote in several of the counties was very close, notably in Potter, where Emery had a majority of only 6 votes, and Wyoming, which Stuart carried by 33. Stuart has 22,528 in Philadelphia. His probable majority in Allegheny is 23,000.

It will be several days before the complete count of the vote will fix the majorities at figures which will be stationary, but Stuart, for Governor, has a lead over Emery for the Governorship of something like 70,000. Of this total Philadelphia contributes about 32,000, and Allegheny county nearly as much more.

The other Republican State candidates, Honk for Secretary of Internal Affairs, Young for Auditor General and Murphy for Lieutenant Governor, all have good majorities, probably running in the order named. "Farmer" William T. Creasy, fusion candidate for Auditor General, apparently profited little by his special Prohibition party endorsement.

Home L. Castle's Prohibition vote for the Governorship is considered to be almost trifling, when it is considered how much noise he made during the campaign. If he influenced many voters by his tirades against Emery, the most of them cast their ballots for the Republican organization ticket direct, as he doubtless intended.

A NEW FUSION LEGISLATOR.

While Democratic and Lincoln party fusion candidates for the Legislature was unsuccessful in most of the counties in which it was tried, it won out in a number of Philadelphia districts and in Chester county, and re-elected Senator Webster Grim, a Democrat, in Bucks county.

Big gains were made by the Democrats in the lower branch of the Legislature, where they will have close to fifty members or thirty-five more than in the present House. This minority will be of account in checking any attempted vicious legislation.

Entrance of the United Mine Workers into politics in their own behalf was attended with much success. Two of their union's trusted officials, William E. Wilson and Thomas D. Nichols, were elected to Congress, and their Legislative candidates in the anthracite counties, on Democratic and Republican tickets, won almost uniformly.

DEMOCRATS GAIN 49 CONGRESSMEN.

Surprising Democratic gains in Illinois, Ohio, Missouri and New Jersey reduce the Republican majority of 112 in the House of Representatives to 63. This represents a satisfactory and less cumbersome majority than the former huge figure, while insuring control by the Speaker and legislation in accord with the will of Administration.

Pennsylvania contributes 6 votes to the Democratic total, a gain of 5; Ohio increases her Democratic representation from 1 to 4; New Jersey elected 4 Democrats in place of 1 in the present Congress; Missouri will cast 12 Democratic votes in the House, against 7 that were saved in the Roosevelt landslide.

DEMOCRATS MAKE BIG GAINS IN NEW JERSEY.

TRENTON, Nov. 8.—The State Legislature chosen yesterday almost slipped away from the control of the Republicans, who hold it by a narrow margin. The new Legislature will be made up as follows: Republican majority on joint ballot, 7. Republican majority of present Legislature on joint ballot, 67.

CUMMINS WINS IN IOWA.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 8.—Returns in Iowa are still incomplete, but there is every reason to believe that Governor Cummins will receive at least 20,000 plurality over Porter, Dem.

WYOMING SENATOR TO BE RETURNED.

CHEYENNE, Nov. 8.—Majorities for Congressman Mondell and all Republican candidates are from 5000 to 8000. Governor Brooks ran ahead of the ticket. The Democrats will not have more than five members in the Legislature. The re-election of United States Senator Warren is assured.

TEXAS MAJORITY IS 200,000.

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 8.—Returns today indicate that the Democratic State ticket was elected by about 200,000 majority. The combined opposition polled probably 140,000 votes. The Democrats elected all of their congressional candidates.

WEST VIRGINIA SOLIDLY REPUBLICAN.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 8.—Returns from the State are sufficient to show the election of all five Republican Congressmen and a Republican Legislature by a good majority on joint ballot.

INDIANA REPUBLICAN BY OVER 20,000.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—The latest returns indicate a majority of from 20,000 to 25,000 for the Republican State ticket, with the Legislature Republican on joint ballot.

WILL CONTEST HALL'S ELECTION.

LOCK HAVEN, Nov. 8.—The close and exciting fight for President Judge of this district may develop into a contest. It is understood that B. W. Green, the present incumbent, does not concede Harry Alvan Hall's claim to 164 majority in the district. Experts will be on hand tomorrow during the official counting in the three counties to detect discrepancies.

RIDGWAY, Nov. 8.—Harry Alvan Hall's majority over Green for Judge is 954 in Elk county. Returns from Cameron give Green 463 majority. Green reports 327 majority in Clinton, making Hall's majority in the district 164.

DEMOCRATS BLAME SMOOT.

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 8.—The principal change from the vote of last year is the transfer of some 3000 Democratic votes in Salt Lake City to the Republicans, and this is generally attributed to the defensive attitude of the Mormon Church against the American or anti-Mormon party. The Democratic leaders assert that the change was made in obedience to the commands of President Smith and Apostle, also Senator Reed Smoot.

CALIFORNIA REPUBLICAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—Returns from the interior of the State are not yet complete. The most reliable estimates of pluralities obtainable indicate that Gillette, Republican, has been elected Governor by about 10,000 over Bell, Democrat, his nearest competitor.

OHIO'S BIG VICTORY.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—The election of all the Republican candidates on the State ticket by a plurality of at least 50,000 is conceded.

M'CREARY LOSING KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 8.—An official count of incomplete returns shows Governor Beckham leading by about 2000 in his race against Senator M'Creary in the Democratic primary for United States Senator.

DEMOCRATS REGAIN MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 8.—From nearly complete returns from all counties, the Democrats have carried the State by a plurality of 7640, electing all candidates on the State ticket and twelve of the sixteen Congressmen. The Republicans elected Congressmen in Kansas City and St. Louis, but lost all the districts in the State, which had been swept into the Republican ranks two years ago. The Legislature is Democratic in both branches beyond doubt.

REPUBLICANS SWEEP ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Illinois went Republican by more than 100,000, the majority for Smulski for State Treasurer footing about 120,000 with a few districts estimated. Chicago gave the State ticket a plurality of more than 50,000.

BRYAN'S STATE REPUBLICAN.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 8.—George L. Sheldon, Republican, is elected Governor of Nebraska by a plurality of from 10,000 to 15,000, and carries with him probably the entire Republican State ticket.

COLORADO ALL REPUBLICAN.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 8.—Returns show the election of the entire Republican State, congressional and judicial tickets and a Republican majority of thirty or more on joint ballot in the next Legislature.

DEMOCRATIC GAINS IN JERSEY.

Republicans Barely Control Legislature On Joint Ballot.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 8.—Revised returns show that the Democrats will have the house of assembly, 31 to 29, and that the Democrats have elected four congressmen in New Jersey, a gain of three. The Democratic congressmen elected are William Hughes, Sixth district; Le Gage Pratt, Eighth district; Edward W. Leake, Ninth district; James A. Hamill, Tenth district.

The Democrats have elected their senator and entire assembly district in Passaic county and have elected George Siler to the state senate from Middlesex county, defeating Senator Jackson, who was a candidate for re-election, by about 100.

The legislature will be Republican on joint ballot, 44 to 37. This gives the Republicans three more than a majority, but Senator Colby, of Essex, and Assemblyman-elect Fake, Republicans, have announced that they will not under any circumstances vote for the re-election of United States Senator John F. Dryden. This would reduce Mr. Dryden's vote to 42, provided he got the Republican caucus nomination. This would be only one more vote than the necessary 41. There is talk here that owing to the overwhelming defeat of the Republicans in Essex county, Mr. Dryden's home county, other candidates are liable to enter the United States senatorial race, and at this writing it is not absolutely certain that Mr. Dryden will succeed himself. One of the things that operate against Mr. Dryden is the fact that about three-fourths of the Republican members of the legislature will be from South Jersey. That section now has no United States senator, Mr. Keen and Mr. Dryden both being from the upper part of the state.

Child Accidentally Killed at Play.

Midway, Pa., Nov. 6.—Hazel Nice, 4 years old, was accidentally shot and killed by her nephew, Wallace Chamberlain, 5 years old. The children were playing in a room alone, and the boy found a revolver, which he discharged, accidentally killing the girl.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE

Republicans Will Have Overwhelming Majority in Next House.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—Returns from every county in the state except Allegheny on the legislative ticket show that the next house of representatives (Allegheny, with 24 members, omitted) will contain 124 Republicans, 54 Democrats, 4 Lincoln and City Party and 1 Union Labor. It is probable that the Republicans elected all or nearly all of their members in Allegheny county.

The following gives the names of the members-elect:

Adams—David H. Guise, D. Armstrong—Hiram J. Sedwick, R.; Samuel E. Cochran, R. Beaver—John W. Carson, R.; Howard Bliss, R. Bedford—George W. Oster, R. Berks—John W. Morrison, D.; W. Wayne Weber, D.; Howard C. McGowan, D.; Irwin M. Sharnan, D.; David H. G. Kelsor, D. Blair—Wm. H. Irwin, R.; George M. Patterson, R.; Harry A. Thompson, R. Bradford—Cyrus L. Steven, R.; George Moscrop, R. Bucks—Roland Plack, R.; Joseph P. Thomas, R. Butler—Frank McJenkins, R.; J. M. Dwight, R. Cambria—Irma P. Barnhart, R.; Edmund James, R.; Alvin Sherbine, R. Cameron—Josiah Howard, R. Carbon—James I. Blakeslee, D. Centre—John Noll, D. Chester—William H. H. Davis, D.; John Geiger, L.; J. Penrose Moore, L. Clarion—Thomas Brown, D. Clearfield—J. S. Moulthrop, R.; Dr. J. Currier, R.; Peter Gearhart, D.; F. S. Clinton—William T. Young, D. Columbia—William T. Creasy, D. Crawford—L. O. McLane, R.; John D. Emerson, R. Cumberland—Quinn T. Mickey, R.; John W. Bowman, R. Dauphin—Edward E. Bettlemann, R.; Ezra S. Meals, R.; Frank B. Wickersham, R.; George S. J. Keen, R. Delaware—Samuel D. Clyde, R.; Thomas Cooper, R.; J. Milton Lutz, R. Elk—John M. Flynn, D. Erie—Linton W. Shreve, R.; Frank J. Dettel, D.; J. Ross Raymond, R. Fayette—Bruce F. Sterling, D.; William M. Wood, R.; James S. Parkhill, R.; John S. Carroll, R. Forest—Truman D. Collins, R. Franklin—Norman L. Bonbraker, R.; T. Z. Minehart, D. Fulton—John P. Sipes, D. Greene—James I. Rush, D. Huntingdon—Warren B. Simonson, R. Indiana—M. C. Watson, R. Jefferson—S. Taylor North, R.; Robert H. Longwell, R. Juniata—William C. Pomeroy, R. Lackawanna—Nicholas Burke, D.; Timothy D. Hayes, D.; Frederick G. Erhart, L.; Dominick F. Dempsey, D.; James F. McAndrew, D.; James Walker, D. Lancaster—Frank B. McLane, R.; Geo. Hirschman, R.; M. R. Hoffman, R.; John G. Homsher, R.; H. L. Rhoades, R. Lawrence—Walter S. Reynolds, R.; Geo. W. Wengartner, R. Lebanon—William Coleman Freeman, R. Cambria—H. M. Boyher, D. Lehigh—R. K. Hartzell, D.; Elvin S. Haines, R.; William N. Decker, D. Luzerne—Patrick F. Boyle, D.; Michael F. Shannon, D.; George F. O'Brien, D.; William H. Owens, D.; William Toner, D.; William W. Hall, R.; Asher Miner, R.; Lycoming—H. J. Truxel, D.; Thomas E. Gray, D. Montour—Scott Ammerman, D. Northampton—William F. Beck, D.; P. F. Enright, D.; J. S. Hunt, D. Northumberland—Miles Dougherty, D.; J. S. Krebs, D.; William P. O'Connor, D. Perry—John D. Snyder, D. Philadelphia—34 Republicans, 6 Democrats and Lincoln and one City Party. Pike—Alfred Malren, R. Potter—J. D. Councilman, R. Schuylkill—Patrick J. Graham, D.; Alfred R. Garner, R.; Fred D. Freudenberger, R.; Charles A. Snyder, R.; James D. Hunter, D. Snyder—D. Norman App, R. Somerset—J. W. Ansley, R.; A. F. Knepper, R. Sullivan—John C. Schadd, R. Susquehanna—Edward E. Jones, R. Tioga—Andrew Dunsmore, R.-D.; Andrew B. Hitchcock, R.-D. Union—Franklin L. Dersham, D. Venango—Ira A. Milleron, R.; William F. Whitman, R. Warren—James Brann, R. Washington—Frank Craven, R.; W. W. Sproels, R.; C. A. Bentley, R. Wayne—Harvey N. Farley, R. Westmoreland—W. Fair, R.; Elmer E. McAdoo, R.; E. P. Weddle, R.; Berkeley F. Boyd, R.; D. R. Sullivan, R. Wilming—Moses Shields, R. York—George Drury, R.; William J. McCellan, D.; Hugh W. Ramsey, R.; Andrew E. Kohr, R.

THE VOTE IN DELAWARE

Republicans Carry the State and Control Legislature.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 8.—Complete returns from all but nine of the 158 election districts in Delaware show the following as the result of Tuesday's election: