

PENNSYLVANIA'S VOTE

Stuart's Plurality For Governor is Over 52,533.

SIX COUNTIES ARE ESTIMATED

Complete Returns From Sixty-one Out of the Sixty-seven Counties—Legislature is Overwhelmingly Republican.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—Complete returns from 61 of the 67 counties in Pennsylvania and careful estimates from the six counties give Edwin S. Stuart, the Republican candidate for governor, a plurality of 52,533 over Lewis Emery, Jr., his opponent. The counties which have not yet reported their complete vote and in which estimates are made for governor are: Allegheny, Bradford, Columbia, Crawford, McKean and Wayne. The vote in several of the counties was very close, notably in Potter, where Emery had a majority of only six votes, and in Wyoming, which Stuart carried by 33.

Stuart's plurality 52,533
Murphy for lieutenant governor ran close to Stuart, while Young for auditor general ran ahead of Stuart in some counties.

Castle's vote varied. In some counties he ran surprisingly well, while in others he scarcely received a vote.

The Socialist and Socialist Labor tickets received very little attention. Last year the fusionists carried the state for state treasurer by a plurality of 88,000. In Philadelphia Stuart ran ahead of his ticket and carried the city by a plurality of 32,328. The complete figures for governor in this year are: Stuart, 123,493; Emery, 91,165. Allegheny county, which includes Pittsburgh, gave Stuart an estimated plurality of 23,000.

The unexpected result of the election in Philadelphia was keenly felt by the reform party. The principal fight in the city was made for the office of district attorney and it was one of the bitterest in the political history of the county. The leaders of the City Party which had effected fusion with the Democrats and Prohibitionists on the local ticket felt certain that D. Clarence Giboney, their candidate for district attorney, would win, but the figures show that Samuel P. Rotan, his Republican opponent, carried the city by 12,124. The Republican candidates for city treasurer and register of wills were also elected by about the same plurality.

In complete figures from the 32 congressional districts of Pennsylvania show that the Democrats gained five congressmen, which will make their delegation six instead of one.

The next legislature will remain heavily Republican, although the Democratic and reform representation will be larger.

HUGHES' MAJORITY 50000

Balance of New York State Ticket Still in Doubt.
New York, Nov. 8.—Charles E. Hughes, the Republican candidate for governor, has been elected over William R. Hearst, D., by a majority of 52,000, but the remainder of the state ticket is in doubt.

At Republican state headquarters it was stated that while the committee was not prepared to make any official statement, their estimate on incomplete returns is that M. Linn Bruce had been elected lieutenant governor by a plurality of about 5000 votes, and that Julius M. Mayer has been elected attorney general, but by a very narrow margin. It is thought that the remainder of the Republican ticket was defeated, but this is not conceded as yet.

For lieutenant governor Louis Stuyvesant Chanler, Democratic-Independent League candidate, has a lead in the city of Greater New York of 134,941. Up state M. Linn Bruce, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, is running slightly ahead of Hughes' vote. As Mr. Hughes came down to Greater New York with a lead of approximately 129,000, it will readily be seen that the vote for second place on the ticket will be very close, and only the complete official count will determine the successful candidate.

Whatever the result may be, the figures will be close, and until complete official returns shall have been made by all the counties now missing it will be impossible to do more than to guess at the winner. The total vote for the state, so far as returned, including the Democratic stronghold of the city of Greater New York, for lieutenant governor, is: Chanler, 604,234; Bruce, 519,479.

It appears that outside of the candidates for governor, and possibly for lieutenant governor, the Democratic ticket is elected.

RESULTS IN RHODE ISLAND

Democratic Governor Elected, But the Legislature Republican.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 8.—Mayor James H. Higgins, D., of Pawtucket, defeated Governor George H. Utter, R., for re-election by a plurality of 1238, according to complete returns. The rest of the Republican state ticket was elected. Republicans control the general assembly, which is to choose a United States senator to succeed George Peabody Wetmore. In the First congressional district D. L. D. Granger, D., was elected over Elisha Dyer, R., by 727 plurality. The congressional delegation remains unchanged.

What Will He Get

From the Eason Argus.
The Philadelphia Real Estate Trust company, regenerated after its wreck, has been reopened. Hipple, the suicide president is already quite forgotten. But what of Adolph Segal, the promoter whose dealings with Hipple led to the wrecking of the institution and the suicide of the president? When last heard of he was under $250,000 bail and quite ill in his palatial apartments in the hotel he erected with the money borrowed from the bank. From the time he landed in this country a penniless Austrian immigrant his career has been an interesting one and the final scenes, now in abeyance, will be noted with much interest.

Both Sides Claim Kansas.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 8.—Both sides are claiming victory in the gubernatorial contest. The returns are coming in very slowly. Republicans claim a lead of 3000 votes on governor, with 12 counties still out. Democrats claim a lead of less than 1000 for Harris, with 16 counties out.

NOTICE.—Centre County Banking Co. Resolution of the Board of Directors.
At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Centre County Banking Company, held on October 20th, 1906, the following resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS, Mr. William P. Humes and Miss Mira Humes have sold to the Centre County Banking Company their shares and interests in the said banking institution, and have ceased to be partners therein;
AND WHEREAS, in connection therewith, the said William P. Humes has withdrawn from the Board of Directors of the said Bank,
NOW THEREFORE, be it resolved, that in thus severing by mutual consent the long continued relations between Mr. and Miss Humes and ourselves, we desire to express our high appreciation of the fact, that no one has been second to Mr. Humes (representing his own and Miss Humes' interests), in upholding the kindly feeling, personal friendship, and unity of purpose, that have always been maintained among the members of this Bank and its Directors.
By order of the Board of Directors, with the announcements of The House of Kuppenheimer appearing in the leading magazines, we desire to make known to the public that our line of

is complete and includes all the most exclusive and select patterns for which The House of Kuppenheimer is celebrated and which are so much in demand with good dressers.

Kuppenheimer Clothes are unquestionably superior in quality of material, workmanship and style. There are very few clothing institutions anywhere in the world that have the facilities for producing the highest type of men's clothes, such as The House of Kuppenheimer has. Fewer still that adhere closely to their high standard of production.

There is that quality about Kuppenheimer Clothes, due to the expert workmanship entering into their manufacture, which stamps the wearer "a well-dressed man" from the day he puts the garment on until he is ready to lay it aside. Only the sixty-and-seventy-five-dollar-custom-tailor can equal them.
