Bellefonte, Pa., November 9, 1906.

Correspondents .- No communications pubtshed unless accompanied by the real name of he writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-L. C. Bullock Jr., is advertising for a blacksmith and a good woodworker.

---- Mrs. James P. Coburn was confined to the house several days this week with illness.

-A new roof is being put on the house occupied by John Porter Lyon and family on Curtin street.

-Mrs. John P. Harris entertained a party of twelve ladies at a turkey dinner on Monday evening.

--- Samuel E. Goss and family will not deave for their future home in Wisconsin until about the first of December.

-Postmaster W. W. Montgomery is going to have a flagstone pavement put street.

-C. C. Shuey has purchased the property of Daniel O'Leary, on south Allegheny street, the latter having moved to Pittsburg.

-All the banks in town as well as the postoffice observed election day, Tuesday, by keeping closed. The printer, however, worked as usual.

-Mrs. E. C. Cook is making private sale of most of her personal property, especially her horse, vehicles, harness, etc. See advertisement in another column.

-Mrs. John Raymond, who was operated on several weeks ago, for appendicitis, has practically recovered and was discharged from the Bellefoute hospital this

-Herb Long has resigned this position as bartender at the Brockerhoff house and his place is now being filled by Joe Shanghensey Jr., who began work on Monday morning.

--- Samuel M. Goodbart and Taliss Verna May Durst were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrr. Alfred Durst, in Potter township, at noon vesterday.

- Swartz's store at Tusseyville was broken into one night recently and frobbed of goods valued at $25.00. The postoffice is located in the building but nothing in it was disturbed

-Though a little late the big trout have made their appearance in Spring creek along side the WATCHMAN office, and they prove quite an attraction for every stranger who comes to town.

Sunday morning and evening. He is said to early days of frontier life: be a very eloquent speaker and the public is cordially invited to attend the rervices.

-Miss Jennie Morgan in inviting the public to see her unusually large line of toilet goods just received from New York and Philadelphia, wishes to call attention for colored people.

-Hugh Crider and Wilson Gephart journeyed to Snow Snoe, Sunday, in the former's Buick runabout, spent the night and returned Monday morning. The trip out was made in fifty-nine minutes and the return in fifty-four minutes.

- Many farmers throughout Centre county are still husking corn and raising their potatoes, the crops not being much over half housed, while there are still enough apples on the trees to keep the oider presses running for several weeks to

-Joseph L. Montgomery has fixed up the surroundings of his new home on Allegheny street by grading the vard and sodding it. A stone wall has been built along Lamb street and a new boardwalk put down and now he is beginning to feel quite comfortable.

--- The State College victorious foot-ball team added another scalp to the string at their belts when they defeated the strong Navy eleven at Annapolis, last Saturday, by the score of 5 to 0. At no time during the game did the Navy even endanger State's goal line. Tomorrow State will play Westminster on Beaver Field and the game should be a good one.

---- The deer season opens next Thursday and deer hunting parties all over the county are getting their guns limbered up and provision boxes packed preparatory to going out for the opening day, and with the expectation of staying until the close of the season. Deer are reported quite plentiful this season and hunters ought to have success in bringing home at least some venison.

-On Monday a story was circulated around Bellefonte that Edward Hill was killed on the railroad at Sunbury. The story was given credence because of the fact that it was generally known that Ed was employed as a brakeman on the P. & E. with headquarters at Sunbury, but inquiry by the railroad officials here disclosed the fact that there was no truth in -The skating rink craze has struck Bellefonte pretty hard and most every evening during the week, with the exception of Friday evening when the rink is not open, the armory is well filled and brother of this place. more than one night there have been as many as fifty skaters on rollers at one best of order is maintained at all times.

CENTRE COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE. Etters has prepared what is considered a cigars. very good program and all those who attend can feel assured of hearing some very instructive talks. The corps of instructors for the week includes the following: Dr. Henry Houck, superintendent of public instruction; Dr. Charles C. Miller, president of the Lima (O.) College; Prof. Charles H. Albert, of the Bloomsburg State Normal, and Supt. A. Reist Rutt, of Ardmore. Prof. Philip H. Meyer, of Centre Hall, will be the musical director and Miss Bessie M. Dorworth, of Bellefonte, the pianist.

Miller, on "The Reveries of a Bachelor:" (A Trip to Jerusalem;") Wednesday even- bility that he may recover. ing, Capt. Jack Crawford, the "Poet down in front of his home on Allegheny Scout," in an evening chat of his experiences in frontier life; Thursday evening, an entertainment by The Pennsylvania State College Musical Club.

The officers of the institute are: President, David O. Etters; vice-presidents, F. M. Pletcher and W. P. Hosterman; secreagent. Jonas E. Wagner; doorkeepers, T. L. Moore and H. W. Loneberger.

There are 297 teachers in Centre county trains Monday morning and the first sesin the afternoon.

years the entertainments given in the even- result of their pilgrimage. ings during institute week have not been as well attended by the general public as the most humorous talks ever made from | Lena Rice. the platform with just enough intermingling of the pathetic to make it intensely interesting.

The late Sam Jones said of Capt. Jack Crawford, the Poet Scout, who will entertain the institute on Wednesday evening -Bishop W. F. Heil, of Chicago, will with a recital of some of his own poems as preach in the United Evangelical church well as his experiences as a scout in the "Jack Crawford is all right-he sho West show, poet and preacher. He is mostly backbone, the rest of him is hair. Come out and hear him. If you don't think he is worth the price write to me, and I'll write back and tell you you're a fool."

And then on Thursday evening every-The Pennsylvania State College Musical Don't fail to hear them.

served seats 35 cents. For Wednesday and structors in agriculture in the country. Thursday evenings the prices will be 35 and 50 cents respectively.

In addition to the above don't forget Dr. Henry Houck's free lecture Wednesday afternoon on his travels in the Orient. This entertainment will be held in Petri-

Orchestra

ken hall and the following program will ... Victor Herbert

2.	sea songGeibel
	Glee Club
3.	Violin SoloSe'ected
	A Laycock, '08
4.	Grace DarlingSt. Clair
	Orchestra
5.	Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep
	Glee Club
	PART II
1.	Mrs. WinstowHarrington
_
2.	Higgledy PiggledyMaurice Levi Orchestra
3.	Dixie KidGeibel
	Glee Club
4.	Vocal SoloSelected
	H. P. Dawson, '07.
5.	RosaryE. Nevin
	Glee Club
6.	Come BrothersCarl Wilhelm Orchestra and Glee Club

COMMITTED SUICIDE. - Henry Nighthart, a brother of John Nighthart, the ant or healthy. barber, of this place, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head, at his home in Lewistown last week. The last seen of Nighthart was on Wednesday evening and Friday morning he was found dead in his bed at home with a bullet hole in his head. At first it was thought to have been murder but later developments disclose the fact that it was undoubtedly a case of suicide. Nightbart was forty-seven years old. His wife died a short time ago and since that time the man has not only been quite despondent but has had a little financial

---- The pool tournament which has been -The sixtieth annual session of the Centre going on at Knisely's pool and billiard the best known residents of Renovo, died and make all your preparations to go to wedding was that of George Curtis Hartel, county teachers' institute will convene in room the past three weeks is drawing to a at his home in that place last Saturday Williamsport on Saturday, November 17th, of Haddonfield, N. J., and Miss Ethyl the court house, Bellefonte, next Monday, close and exciting greater interest as each morning. Two weeks ago he was stricken the day of the State Dickinson College foot- Louise Slater, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. November 12th, and continue until Fri- succeeding game is played. The prizes are day. County superintendent David O. an eight dollar one, a pipe and a box of suing at the above stated time.

-"Pennsylvania Day" at The Pennsylvania State College will this year be celebrated on Friday, November 23rd. Although the program for the day has not yet been announced it is certain that among the invited guests will be Governor Pennypacker, Major General Charles Miller and other men of prominence in the State. Who the orator of the day will be has not yet been made public.

The entertainments are as follows: Mon- road, while the train crew was shifting in June. day evening, lecture by Dr. Charles C. cars south of Philipsburg, last Thursday, Miller, on "Napoleon, the Man of Des- bad his head his by the breaking of a and other serious injuries. He was taken

-Most everybody that could get a gun went out hunting on Tuesday and it must have been a very good day, judging from the amount of game brought into Bellefonte, as the writer saw two wild turkeys, hunters with from two to four pheasants each and quite a number of tary, Miss Mary E. Penny; enrolling clerks, to make the day complete was to have brought in a bear and coppered that Republican coon.

--- The rabbit season opened last Thursthis year and every one of them is urged to day and at the time of going to press with be present and make this the hanner in- the WATCHMAN very few hunters had restitute ever held. The enrollment will turned so that we were unable to give the begin promptly upon the arrival of the result. But so far hunters have had very good success, coming in with anywhere sion of institute will be held at 2 o'clock from one to the maximum number allowed by law. And every day since hunters who have spent any time in the woods generally INSTITUTE ENTERTAINMENTS-In past brought home one or two cottontails as the

they should have been and this year we last week was the fact that on Sauday, want to say that every lecture and enter- October 26th, eleven new members were of Look Haven, and William Rhoads, of tainment will be worth anybody's time to taken into the Presbyterian church as the go and hear. Dr. Miller's lecture on Mon- result of the evangelistic meetings conductday evening on Napoleon is pronounced to ed in that edifice the previous two weeks be "masterly, eloquent and grand," and by Rev. Bostou. Those admitted were Mr. any one who fails to hear it will miss a and Mrs. W. H. Crissman, James H. Harris, William H. Taylor, Misses May Tay-DeWitt Miller's "Reveries of a Bachelor" lor, Lillian Walker, Katharine Walker, Rev. Shugart. on Tuesday evening is considered one of Ivan Walker, Anna Lyon, Abbie Cook and

-Curiosity to see that new thirteen million dollar capitol is drawing large crowds from the country districts. Last Saturday's special from Bellefonte consisted of fourteen cars hauled by two engines. By the time the train reached Montandon there were just 1190 passengers aboard for Harrisburg. The special reached Harrisburg at 11.45 o'clock a. m., and returning

--- At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Board of Trustees of The particularly to a complete line of hair goods | body is assured of a rare musical treat in | Pennsylvania State College Prof. Thomas the entertainment which will be given by A. Hunt, of Cornell University, was elected Dean of Agriculture and Director of the Club. The Penn. State boys have always Experiment Station. Professor Hunt a had a reputation for their musical abilities number of years ago was assistant proand this year the Club is better than ever. fessor of agriculture at the College, leaving there to go to the Ohio State University For Monday and Tuesday evenings the from which place he went to Cornell. He price of admission will be 25 cents and re- is reputed to be among the foremost in-

> -The Roosevelt bunting club, of Gatesburg, will camp on the Six Mile run, in the Alleghenies, the last two weeks of November, for their annual deer hunt. The Modoes, of Boalsburg, the Potters Mills crowd, the Centre Hall gang and the State College and Pine Grove Mills club will all go into the Seven mountains, where deer are reported quite as plentiful as on the Alleghenies. The Panthers, of Bellefonte, will go out into the Scootac region, near where they have camped from year to year.

> -At a congregational meeting of St. John's Episcopal church held Wednesday evening of last week it was decided to build a church house, or Sunday school room at the rear of the church, ou Lamb street. The present rectory will be used as part of the new building. The work will be begun in the near future as the sum of $850 was pledged at the meeting last week as the nucleus of the fund required to do the work. There is no question but that such a building for Sunday school purposes will be a great improvement over the present Sunday school room in the basement of the church, which is too much underground to be either pleas-

-Mark Gow, proprietor of the Chinese Laundry in this place, left, Monday noon, for New York, from where he sailed on Wednesday for a visit to his old home in years and is survived by his wife and China. Before leaving he told the editor several children. The funeral was held of the WATCHMAN that the report that he was going home to get married was incorrect; that he was simply going home on a visit and would return next summer, and were not to become fainthearted over his State College where they practiced with the absence. Also, that while he was away difficulty and these reasons are assigned as his laundry here would be conducted by cause for his rash act. The funeral was two fellow countrymen who will do just as game tomorrow. They will return to the held on Sunday and was attended by his good work as he can and he wants all his College on Monday or Tuesday and will -The Epworth League held a recep- present when he returns, and it will take professional team, a game always looked time. One reason why the sport is in- tion in the lecture room of the M. E. some money to do that. It is to be hoped forward to as the principal event in Chio dulged in by so many is because the very church, last evening, for the new members Gow may have a delightful voyage and a football. With the team is Sweet, an old received during the team soliciting contest. happy visit home.

having been born at Curtin sixty-five years will be up to, if not above the standard of evening. The ceremony was performed by ago. For twenty-five years he lived in this games played in other years. neighborhood and made hosts of friends who now regret his death. Forty years Williamsport between these two teams, of Rhea Zimmerman, Nellie Custer, Anna ago he removed to Renovo where he has which State has won two and Dickinson McColgan, Myrtle Jones and Mary McKee, resided ever since. He was an old soldier, one, and the Dickinson boys will do their as bridesmaids; Mis. Berthold Becker, having served through the Civil war as a utmost to tie up the score this year, while matron of honor; Harry Hipple, of Pittscrat and for four years represented his ward anyway whichever side wins the spectators Cleaver, H. V. Herring, David G. Walter in the Renovo town conneil. The last time will at least get their money's worth. Both and Ralph Waring, all of Johnstown, -George Greenawalt, a flagman on a he was in Bellefonte was on the occasion of colleges will have their own bands in at- ushers. Quite a number of out-of-town coal train on the Tyrone & Clearfield rail- the dedication of the soldiers' monument tendance at the game and train loads of guests were present. Following the cerelowing children: Margaret, Edward, and have a good time be in Williamsport wedding trip through Canada and on their tiny;" Tuesday evening, lecture by DeWitt shunting pole, sustaining a crushed skull James, George and Mary, all at home ; also on Saturday, November 17th. The game return will take up their abode in Haddonhis step-mother, one brother, James, both will be called at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday afternoon, lecture by Dr. to his home at Osceola and given prompt of Renovo, and one sister, Mrs. Thomas Henry Houck, on "Travels in the Orient- surgical attendance, and there is a possi- McCafferty, of Bellefonte. The funeral was held on Tuesday morning at 9:15 o'clock. The services were in St. Joseph's Catholic church and interment was made in Pennsvalley one day last week he drop- Mis. Rine, in the McClain block, by Rev. in Drury's Ran cemetery.

> SHOPE .- Last week's WATCHMAN contained an item of the accidental shooting of Mrs. A. B. Shope, of Cato, by her seventeen-year-old son, George, on Wednesday of last week; and of her being taken to the Lock Haven hospital where an amputation of the leg was found necessary. Her injury was so serious and the shock to held in the Reformed church at 11 o'clock her nervous system so great that she died at 3.45 o'clock Thursday morning without having regained consciousness after the operation was performed.

Deceased was aged forty-six years and is survived by her husband and twelve children, as follows: Mrs. Stella Hazel, Mrs. Gertrude Steffer, Clyde and John Shope, of Cato; Mrs. Grace Walker, Panther Run; Boyd, George, Forest, Clement, Irene, Iva and Hazel, at home; also by two sisters, Mrs. Catharine Eckley, of Snow -An item unavoidaby crowded out Shoe, and Miss Charity Rhoads, of Lock Haven; and two brothers, George Rhoads, Bellefonte.

The remains were prepared for burial and taken to her late home at Cato, Thursday afternoon. The funeral was held at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, the services in the M. E. church being conducted by BARTGES. - A recent death in Penn township was that of Adam Bartges, at his home in Coburn, which occurred on October 27th. He had been in declining health for some months past, owing to his advanced age, and his death was not un-Deceased was a native of Pennsvalley and was born March 11th, 1834, thus making his age seventy-two years. For most of his life he followed the occupation of a farmer and proved one of the most successful in the county. Four years ago he retired from active work and moved to Coburn where he lived until his death. For the past three or four years he was president of the Pennsvalley Banking company.

He was united in marriage to Miss Nancy Hennigh, who survives with the following children : Al. E., of Millheim; William B., of Centre Hall; Frank H., Irving E., and Ambrose C., of Coburn, and Floyd E., at home. The funeral was held on Tuesday, October 30th, interment being made at Millheim.

WARD .- Charles Ward, a brother of "Monte" Ward, died quite suddenly in the Long Island hospital, at Brooklyn, N. Y., on Monday morning, of pneumonia, after an illness of only several days duration. Deceased was a native of Bellefonte, having been born here fifty-one years ago. His mother was Mrs. Ruth Ward, who taught school here many years ago and who is still well remembered. He was united in marriage to Miss Fleming, of Lock Haven, who survives with three children: Ruth, Mrs. Helen Saulsburg, of Baltimore, and Algernon; also his brother. J. Montgomery Ward, of New York city.

The remains were brought to Bellefonte on Wednesday morning, accompanied by the son and one daughter, his brother and sister-in-law, and taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fleming, on Penn street, when funeral services were held by Rev. James B. Stein at 10 o'clock, after which interment was made in the Union

WHITE .- A very peculiar death at Smullton, on Sanday, October 28th, was that of William White. He retired in the evening as usual but before going to sleep he recalled the fact that he had not wound the clock and he arose to do so. While in the act he took a violent chill and in a few minutes became violently ill. Aid was summoned and a doctor sent for but before morning he was dead. He was aged sixty on Wednesday afternoon, October 31st.

-Monday evening the Canton, Ohio, professional football team arrived in Bellein the meantime the girls of Bellefonte fonte and Tuesday morning went up to State team until today when they will leave for New York where they have a old customers to patronize the stand as remain there two weeks practicing for their usual, for he intends to bring them all a annual game with the Massillon, Ohio, State College player.

-George Searson, of Linden Hall. owns and operates a threshing outfit. Miss Louisa Durner were married, Wed-While threshing on the Jacob Bottorf farm nesday evening, at the rooms occupied by ped his pocketbook which contained about | Ambrose M. Schmidt. one hundred dollars in gold, silver and greenbacks. He did not miss the wallet until the men on the straw-tack noticed mutilated bills coming out of the strawcarrier and signalled the engineer to stop. A search was made and most of the money recovered.

-Annual mission day services will be Sanday morning.

News Purely Personal.

-Mrs. J. Allison Platts is visiting friends in

-John VanPelt came in from Spangler to ca his ballot on election day.

- Charles McCafferty, came up from Phila delphia to vote on Tuesday. -Mr. and Mrs. Steve Finnegan spent Sunday

-Mrs. Charles Noll is now in Clearfield attending the wedding of her sister. -Mr. and Mrs. George C. Butz, of State College, spent yesterday in Bellefonte.

-Mrs. Jesse Cox has returned from week's visit with friends in Reading -Miss Mollie Valentine left on Monday for a Philadelphia North American:

several weeks sojourn in Philadelphia -Mrs. Edward Richard returned on Tuesda from a visit with friends in Philadelphia.

-Mrs. James Schofield has returned fro two week's visit with friends in Pittsburg -Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sage, of: Albany, N.

are guests of Dr. and Mrs. George F. Harris. -Charles Haines, of Beaver Falls, came Bellefonte Tuesday morning for the election.

-Conductor and Mrs. U. H. Reamer will leave today on a trip to Chicago for a visit with friends. -Robert F. Hunter and family returned last Sunday evening from a week's sojourn in Philadelphia.

-Dr. John M. Keichline came up from Phila ielphia on Tuesday for a brief visit with his pa

-After spending several months with friends in Philadelphia Mrs. C. F. Montgomery has returned to her home in this place.

-Mr. S. A. Bell left on Wednesday to join Mrs Bell at the J. Monte Ward home at Babylon, L. I., expecting to go from there to East Hampton.

-Wrs. A. Allison and daughter Kathryn and liss Anna McCoy visited friends at Centre Ha and Spring Mills in the early part of the week. -Dr. James A. Thompson, of Port Matilda, was in Bellefonte on Wednesday. He ne doubt came down to get the full returns from Tuesday's

-Mrs. James Harris, Mrs. Thomas C. VanTries and Mrs. John P. Harris attended the annual in this place are arranging to give a mascounty W. C. T. U. convention in Tyrone of

-Edgar B. Vensel, of the firm of Vensel & Garber, who spent three weeks among his friends music by the Bellefonte orchestra and in Pittsburg, returned to Bellefonte on Monday everybody is invited to attend.

-Miss Daise Keichline, who recently cam home from Philadelphia, has gone to Centre Hall to nurse the venerable John Spangler, who is again critically ill.

-W. Francis Speer was one of the curious crowd of Pellefonters who went to Harrisburg last Saturday to see the splendors of that thirteen

-Dr. and Mrs. David Dale arrived in Belle onte from their wedding trip last Saturday even ing and have taken up their abode at the Bush House for the present -J. B. Shuman, of Huntingdon, at one time proprietor of the State College hotel, passed through Belletonte on Wednesday on his way home from the College. -Mr. and Mrs. J. Monte Ward spent two days in Bellefonte this week, coming here on the sad mission of attending Mr. Ward's brother's funeral on Wednesday. -Ward Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fleming, came home from the University of Pennsylvania for a few days visit and to be here for Tuesday's election.

-Mr. P. McCaffrey, of Lock Haven, was Belletonte visitor over Wednesday night and did not forget to give the Watchman office a call before leaving for home on Thursday.

-Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Hiller and little daughte and Mrs. M. H. Wilson returned last Friday from a month's trip through western States and now hunting

-Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Seel, of Harrisburg, were arrivals here Tuesday evening. Mrs. Seel re mained to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Fauble, for a few days, while Mr. Seel continued on a business trip the next day. -The venerable H. W. McCracken, with Mrs.

McCracken and daughter Mary, of Ferguon township, spent several day in Bellefo this week as the guest of Dr. T. C. VanTries, and was one of the most interested listeners at the ection returns on Tuesday night.

-Mrs. H. S. Cooper and her daughter Emeline after spending three months in Bellefonte, left Monday night for New York where they will spend the week, expecting to sail Saturday for their home in Galveston, Texas. Miss Sallie Benner went with Mrs. Cooper as far as Philadelphia on her way for a visit in Atlantic City.

-Hugh V. Rooney, who has been in charge of the local office of the Philadelphia Life Insur ance company every since it was opened here about four months ago, left on Monday for Pitts burg to accept the superintendency of the genera office in that place. P. T. Lotach, of Philadelphia, has been placed in charge of the office here.

Dowling. - Edward Dowling, one of Don't Put it Off. -Get ready today HARTEL-SLATER. -A very pretentions with apoplexy and never rallied, death en- ball game. This is far and above the great- Alfred Slater, of Philipshurg, which ocest and most important game on the list of curred in St. Mark's Episcopal church, Deceased was an old Centre countian, both these colleges, and the game this year Philipsburg, at eitht o'clock last Friday the rector, Rev. Arthor S. Lewis. The This will be the fourth game played in attendants were Misses Francis Herrington, member of the famous Bucktail regiment. you can look for State to do their mightiest burg, best man, and Mesers. George Har-In politics he was always a staunch Demo- to keep Old Dickinson where they are; but gest, of Pittsburg; Robert Beck, Louis toolers will also accompany them to cheer mony and wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. He is survived by his wife and the fol- on their favorites, so if you want to see fun Hartel left on the midnight train for a

SHUTT - DURNER .- John Shutt and

--- Frank W. Crosthwaite, of State College, stole a march on his many friends by slipping quietly away to Williamsport, last Saturday where he was married to Mrs.Gobeen, a sister of Mrs. Grant Hoover. They returned to the College on Monday.

FORTUNATE ESCAPE .- On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. William Rhoads, their two daughters and baby drove to Cato to attend the funeral of Mr. Rhoads' sister, Mrs. A. B. Shope. While driving down the very steep Cato kill the neck yoke broke, the horses plunged forward and the carriage was completely overturned. All the occupants were thrown out. Mr. and Mrs. Rhoads were pretty badly out and bruised but sustained no serious injuries while, miraculous as it may seem, their daughters and baby were not hurt in the least. It was a very fortunate escape from what might have been a very serious accident.

OF INTEREST TO HORSEMEN - Under the heading of "Turf and Frack" the following news items appeared in the

A new trotting and fair circuit will be or-A new trotting and fair circuit will be organized up the State, with stake and class races, including the following towns: Clearfield, Altoona, Bellefonte, Johnstown, Indiana, and Lock Haven.

W. E. Patchen, of Burnside, Pa., has traded the pacing mare Ash, 2,19‡, with Dr. Robinson, of State College, Pa., for Graymont, 2,19‡, and a consideration.

-- W. M. Grove, of Centre Hill, and -Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler were arrivals Hall Herring, of Penn Hall, lead two parties of surveyors running lines in the Seven mountains, locating the lands recently purchased by the forestry commission for the State. The land is not only surveyed and a line marked but a well defined path, sixteen feet wide, is made around each tract by cutting down all the underbrush and trimming all trees to a height of from tifteen to twenty feet. Later roads will be cut through the tracts.

-The Bellefonte hospital is now crowded. Among the latest admissions are Robert Kosk, an Austrian, who had a leg broken while at work at the Nittany furnace, and Chauncey Wisner, a student at the Bellefonte Academy. Among those recently discharged are Mrs. James I. Corl. Mrs. F. L. Cole and Arthur Hugbes.

-- The proprietors of the skating rink querade in the armory on Thanksgiving night, November 29th. There will be Sale Register.

Tusbar Nov. 27.—At the residence of James Clark, five miles southwest of Bellefonte, two miles south of Filmore, in Benner Twp., four horses, ten milk cows, young cattle, hogs, and all kinds of farming implements. W. A. Ishler, Philadelphia Markets. The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening. Wheat-Red Corn —Yellow...... "—Mixed new. - Winter, Per Br'l. Rellejonte Grain Market. Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER, The following are the quotations up to sizelock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes Rye, per bu Kye, per bushel...

Corn, shelled, per bushel...
Corn, ears, per bushel....
Oats old and new, per bus
Barley, per bushel....
Ground Plaster, per ton...
Buckwheat, per bushel...
Cloverseed, per bushel....
Timothy seed per bushel...

Bellefonte Produce Markets Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.

oes per bushel.

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte Pa., at $1.00 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $1.50, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un less paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertis ing by the quarter, half year, or year as follows: ing by the quarter, half year, or SPACE OCCUPIED 3m 6m 1y

3 5 8 8 10 7 10 15 10 15 25 12 20 35 20 35 50 35 55 100