BAD NEGRO THIS

Shoots and Kills Three Men at Asheville, N. C., and Escapes.

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 14.—Fighting bravely in defense of their police captain, Patrolmen Charles Blackstock and William Baley, of this city, were shot to death on South Main street by a negro, who also killed one negro and fatally wounded another. The murderer gave his name as Will Harris, of Charlotte, N. C., a desperado, for whom a large reward has been standing for some time. Prior to the death of the two officers a negro restaurant keeper named Ben Allison was shot and killed by Harris without provocation. Another negro named Tom Neil lies mortally wounded, he, too, being shot before the officers took a hand in the melee. The negro escaped.

A general alarm was turned in by the chief of police to call out the militia companies, and several armed posses quickly formed to pursue the murderer.

CONFERRED ON SENATORSHIP

Republican Legislators of New Jersey Hold Conference.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 14.—A conference of Republican leaders was held at the state house. The subject of discussion on all sides was the election of a United States senator to succeed John F. Dryden. Nothing definite appears to have developed as a result of the conference. The man to whom the opposition to Senator Dryden would naturally turn is Governor Stokes, but the governor, while refraining from coming out openly for Mr. Dryden, says he is not a candidate. Under the New Jersey constitution the governor cannot be elected. While this is in contravention of a ruling of a rule of the United States senate, it has the effect of making some members hesitate in declaring for Governor Stokes. Senator Dryden and his supporters are claiming pledges from a very large majority of Republican legislators.

WATCHED SUICIDE DIE

Neighbors of Wilmington, Del., Man Didn't Interfere For Fear of Law.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 14.—Harry F. Smith, aged 30 years, committed suicide by hanging himself to the door of an outbuilding of his mother-in-law's home. The latter, Mrs. Emma Crookham and Mrs. Albert Gallagher, a neighbor, saw the man prepare for death.

They made no attempt to cut the rope by which the man was hanging, fearing they might interfere with the law, so they let him die. Smith had been drinking. His wife is now in a serious condition at her mother's home. She is the mother of a 4-months-old child. The couple had been married but 18 months.

is complete and includes all the most exclusive and select patterns for which The House of Kuppenheimer is celebrated and which are so much in demand with good dressers.

Kuppenheimer Clothes are unquestionably superior in quality of material, workmanship and style. There are very few clothing institutions anywhere in the world that have the facilities for producing the highest type of men's clothes, such as The House of Kuppenheimer has. Fewer still that adhere closely to their high standard of production.

There is that quality about Kuppenheimer Clothes, due to the expert workmanship entering into their manufacture, which stamps the wearer "a well-dressed man" from the day he puts the garment on until he is ready to lay it aside. Only the sixty-and-seventy-five-dollar-custom-tailor can equal them.
