Bellefonte, Pa., February 8, 1907.

CORRESPONDENTS .- No communications pub tahed unless accompanied by the real name of

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

he writer.

-Mrs. George Miller became the mother of a little girl baby on Wednesday. -Miss Laura Faxon has had quite a serious time this week with an attack of the quinsy. -Mr. and Mis. Harry Macker enter- of the field : tained a sledding party from Buffalo Run last Friday evening.

-A large new stack was put in place at the Lingle foundry on Wednesday morning by William Bilger and son Harry.

-Last Friday evening the local Y. M. C. A. baskethall team defeated the Lock Haven High school team by the score of 38 to 13.

-The Renovo basketball team will play the Y. M. C. A. team in the gymnasium here tonight. Don't fail to see the contest.

-F. W. Barry, a senior student in the Susquebanna University, will preach in 100x150 feet in size. It will be located the Lutheran church Sunday morning and --- On Monday the Central Railroad of employees an increase of ten per cent. in their wages. -Miss Lottie Robb has now so far appendicitis that she is able to be up and stantial structure, to be known as "Social around the house. -On Sunday Davy Bartlett, one of the chief freight handlers at the Pennsylvania railroad station in this place, celebrated his sixtieth birthday anniversary.

-Rev. John A. Wood, who went to Pasadena, Cal., from Bellefonte last spring, has been assigned a pastorate at Ocean Side, a city in the southern part of California.

-- Twenty-nine applications for liquor license have thus far been filed in the prothonotary's office. Of this number only two are new applications, those of Harry Simler of Philipsburg and Lewis E. Stover, of Coburn.

--- Yesterday morning brought us another taste of real arctic-like weather, with the thermometer ranging from eight to twelve degrees below zero in Bellefonte and several degrees lower in other parts of the county.

-One of the first gray foxes killed in this section for a number of years was cap-

--- The court recently handed down his decision sustaining the verdict of the jury Bellefonte school board for $280 he claimed was due him on his salary as superintendent of the borough schools

-The revival services in the Methodist every night in the week. So far there bave been over fifty conversions with a goodly work go on for weeks to come.

-Of course it is universally known that the groundhog saw his shadow last Saturday and from the kind of weather we have been having since, the superstitious followers of his bogship as a weather prophet will now willingly stake their peputation on his accuracy.

--- Most of the ice dealers in Bellefonte have now one-third more ice boused than they had for all last season, and with one more week of the kind of weather we are having now they will be able to store away a bountiful supply, so that the commodity should be cheap next summer.

-Just when everybody began to think we were going to have a breakup in the weather with the passing away of the sleighing, the weather man waved his magic wand on Monday night and by Tuesday morning the ground was covered with six inches or more of "the beautiful." It was the deepest snow fall of the winter so far and sleighing is now better than ever.

-In the interest of the Bellefonte hospital there is now being chanced off at ten cents a chance a silk umbrella by Joseph Bros., a pipe by Knisely Bros., a fancy vest by Montgomery & Co, and a box of cigars by both the Brockerhoff and Bush house. The articles have been donated by the above parties and when you are asked to take a chance remember that it is no benefit of theirs but for the hospital.

-A car load of machinery of the Buttonless Suspender company arrived in Belle-Sonte from Bloomsburg last Saturday. As one-third interest in the company and the carriages, barness and horse furnishings. plant is being moved here and will be installed in the same room with the Bellefonte shirt factory. It will be put in shape for operation as roon as possible.

-L. H. Musser will sell a car load of western horses at the Haag hotel in this place on Tuesday, February 12th. They will include draft horses, farm chunks and drivers. Among them is a splendid black estallion weighing 1650, also a team of sale will begin at 12:30 o'clock. The terms spent the night there, returning on the will be 90 days.

A BIG ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT FOR THE have now been formulated and when carried to a successful issue, will give The Pennsylvania State College one of the best equipped athletic departments of any of the colleges in the country, with the exception of the "Big Four." Gen. James A. Beaver, president of the College, has donated a level tract of eighteen acres of land at the western end of the campus to be used day. solely for athletic purposes.

As now planned the grounds will contain fields for football, baseball, lacrosse, tennis. ssociation football, handball and outdoor basketball, as well as a good quarter mile track. In addition it is purposed to erect the following structures around the border

The athletic track house, now adjoining Beaver field, and with quarters for forty 'Varsity students, will be moved five hun dred yards west to the proposed new site. Adjoining it will be built a similar frame structure, containing commodious quarters for all visiting athletic teams. An elegant new gymnasium, with a floor space 100x150 feet will also be built. It will be equipped with the best and latest gymnastic appliances, including a roomy plunge bath ten feet deep and twelve warm shower baths. There will also be an outdoor swimming pool of purest mountain water, heated to shipped in here. any desired temperature, six feet deep and close to the gymnasium. This will be used for swimming in summer time and for skating and hockey during the winter. Next Pennsylvania Company voluntarily gave its the swimming pool will be erected a modern baseball cage 100x150 feet in size, with a glass roof and earthen floor. This will also contain a cinder path running track. And recovered from her recent severe attack of last of all will be built a two-story sub-Hall," as a gathering place for all students and their friends.

That the above is not a castle in the air is evidenced by the fact that a half dozen or more wealthy men have promised to do their share towards the carrying out of the above described project and plans are now being prepared for all the buildings while "Pop" Golden is making plans for the laying out of the various athletic fields. In this work he is being assisted by Mike Murphy, Penn's famous athletic trainer. and James O'Malley, the expert groundkeeper, of the Pittsburg National League baseball club. Those who have the project in hand confidently look forward to town is already pearing completion and the beginning work on same as early in the company expect to have it finished by the spring as the weather will permit and its first of March and ready to make ice. In possible completion within a year.

THE REBEKAHS CELEBRATE. - Last Friday evening the members of the Crystal Spring Lodge, No. 25, Order of Rebeka bs, celebrated the first anniversary of their institution in the I. O. O. F. hall in the Cri- public sale recently. The homestead and der building with a banquet. Of course adjoining lot were sold to her son, James tured on Saturday by Ed. Haupt and they invited the Odd Fellows to join with J. Gramley, for $925. He was also the Samuel Cherry, near the Haupt farm on them in partaking of the feast and this purchaser of three adjoining town lots for Munoy mountain. It proved to be a beau- made it all the more enjoyable. H. B. which he paid $465. Joseph K. Moyer master but he was sick and in his absence Samuel D. Gettig very ably presided in that in the case of D. O. Etters against the capacity. As a preliminary he gave a sketch of the history of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and then in turn brief addresses were made by John M. Keichline Esq., Thomas S. Hazel, J. A. Hazel and church continue with unabated interest Mrs. S. A. Donachy. Miss Violet Irwin gave a recitation of "The Three Links," which was enjoyed by all. The music for number still at the altar. May the good the evening was furnished by the Juvenile orchestra.

The Crystal Spring Lodge was organized on January 30th, 1906, with a charter list of sixty-six members and it has grown steadily until now its membership numbers eighty-five, and its condition is most flourishing.

Y. M. C. A. MEMBERSHIP CONTESTS. -The second annual membership contest for men, of the local Young Men's Chris tian Association, started on Thursday evening of this week and will continue until March 7th. There will be two teams of twenty men each, with John M. Bullock and Claude W. Smith as captain and first lientenant of one team, and James Harshberger and J. E. Dunning as captain and first lieutenant of the other team.

The first annual boy's membership con est will start and close on the dates given teams of ten boys each with J. Harris Olewine and Raymond Jenkins as opposing captains. Team and individual prizes will be given for the best work in securing association memberships.

It is expected that many men and boys will take advantage of the excellent privileges offered by the association for the en-ning year. GEO. BEEZER TO QUIT THE LIVERY BUSINESS. - Geo. A. Beezer for years owner and manager of one of the leading livery stables in Bellefonte and for that matter, one of the best in Central Pennsylvania, has decided to go out of business and next month will make sale of his entire equipstated exclusively in the WATCHMAN four ment. This will be a notable offering for weeks ago Mr. S. D. Ray has purchased a it will put on the block a lot of fine horses,

> Mr. Beezer will remain in Bellefoute and will devote his entire time to buying and selling horses. For this purpose he will retain possession of his large barn on Water street and convert it into a regular horse exchange. The passing of the Beezer livery will remove one of a lot of good barns that have distinguished Bellefoute for a long time.

-A party of Bellefonte gentlemen mated sorrel drivers. At the time of the took a sled ride to the Country club for horse cale he will offer a large lot of bar- supper on Wednerday evening and, owing mes, blankets, whips and buggies. The to the coldness of the night most of them train vesterday morning.

--- The court has granted a new trial in PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE.—Plans the case of Louisa Bush vs. John G. Dubbs. an action of ejectment.

> -The eighteen borses at the Gentzel-Beezer borse sale at Millheim, on Monday brought an average of $217 19 per head.

> -Charles N. Pensel, a student in the sermons in the Lutheran church on Sun-

----And still the man or woman who murdered Josiah Dale is at large with no known probability of his capture or even a suspicion as to his identity.

--- The Bellefonte Academy basket ball team went to Williamsport last Saturday and that evening were defeated by the High school five by the score of 37 to 19

-While at work at the Armour's Gap quarries one day last week Wharton Weller had two fingers on his right hand out off and one badly crushed while attempting to stop a car with a pole.

-Link Musser's big sale of western over the county because he writes that the car load he is bringing is made up of the months. nicest lot of animals that have ever been -The Bellefonte Academy and Lock Haven Normal basketball teams will play a game in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium tomorrow (Saturday) evening. Game will he called at 8 15 o'clock. This should be good contest and a good crowd ought to be in attendance.

-- We are in receipt of the annual report of general superintendent T. B. Pat ton, of the Huntingdon Reformatory, and in it we find that Centre county is ac credited with baving had eleven inmates there during the year 1906, for which $317.24 sustenance was paid.

- Manager George Taylor, of the Altoona football team was at State College last week and made arrangements with manager Norman Wright and captain Harry Burns, of the State football team, to open the season in Altoona on September 21st, which will also be State's first game for the season.

-The ice plant being erected at State College by a number of residents of that along manufacturing the natural stuff in his same old way.

- The real estate of the late Mrs. Hettie Gramley, of Rebersburg, was sold at

-Samuel Morrisev, of Tyrone, a brakeman on the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad, while making a coupling at the Warriorsmark station last Saturday morn ing, slipped and fell under the car. He was run over and had both legs so badly crushed that he died in the Altoona hos pital Saturday afternoon. He was twentyseven years old and unmarried.

-The young boys class of the Lutheran Sunday school will hold a Valentine social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Daugherty, on Reynolds avenue, on the evening of Valentine day, February 14 No admission fee will be charged but such good things to eat as ovsters, ice cream and cake, home-made candies and coffee will be on sale. A very pleasing program is being arranged for the entertai.. ment of all, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

-Joe Lose got his initial electrical training with the Bellefonte Electric com pany and now holds the position of gang foreman of interior wiring at the Penus vivania railroad shops in Altoona where his abilities are being properly recognized and he is regarded as a local authority on in terior wiring, which he made the subject of a lecture he delivered to the seventy five electrical workmen employed by the comfor the men's effort. There will be two pany in No. 7 fire house Wednesday after noon of last week.

> -The weather last Friday evening must have been the proper temperature for sledding parties as the number that went out from Bellefonte was quite large In addition to the one that went up Bald Eagle to the Peters home a load of quite young folks went down Bald Eagle to the William Barnhart home. Orvis and Henry Keller were the hosts of a party of twenty young friends who went to the Workman home at Heela park. John D. Meyer to k Mr. and Mis. Harry E Jenkins and Miss Emma Aiken to the Old Fort for supper, where they met another crowd of Belle fonters while a sled load went to Potters Mills for a chicken and waffle supper.

- A. A. Dale, who is now superintending a large lumbering operation of Allegheny mountain in which his brother Clement and himself are interested, came ome on Saturday to spend Sunday in Bellefonte. Not only in practice but in looks as well is he a veritable lum'erman, as he came in dressed in cordurovs and a woolen shirt, stouch hat and high topped shoes, while the stubby beard on his face resembled an oats field after the reaper had done its work. All the same he is pushing the work right along and already has a big portion of a two mile tram road they are putting down completed and expects to very long.

Council's Doings .-- At the regular meeting of borough conacil on Monday evening seven members were present. Chairman Kirk, of the Street committee, reported the cleaning of a number of sidewalks and crossings. He also stated that on the nights of January 28th and 29th, the Bellefonte Electric company turned the Susquebanna University, will preach two street lights off at midnight and the town was in darkness until nearly morning when the lights were turned on. For this he moved that a bill for eight dollars be presented to the company. The motion car-

> The Fire and Police committee reported that the repairs to the lock-up had been completed and that new blankets and baps for the bunks had been purchased.

J. Thomas Mitchell, borough solicitor, reported that the court had handed down a decision in the case of J. Kennedy Johnston vs. the Borough. The case was a test one brought by Mr. Johnston to restrain the borough from giving the water rents to another man to collect. Judge Orvis sustain ed the borough, on the grounds that the water collections were a rental and not a horses at the Haag hotel in this place next tax. According to this decision W. A. Tuesday ought to attract buyers from all Isbler will continue to collect the water rentals in the future as he has the past six

The following bills were approved and orders drawn :

. $50 00 . 48 10 . 14 60 .. 2 79 .. 33 91 .. 4 35 .. 357 60 .. 12 50 .. 1 25 .. 28 60 .. 8 20 $727 05

W. C. LINGLE EMBARKS IN LIMESTONE BUSINESS -W. C. Lingle, late of Patton, Sunday. but who intends making his future home in this place just as soon as his house on east Linn street is put in thorough repair, has leased the limestone quarties of the Furst brothers, at Cedar Springs, and will operate them in the future. The quarries contain a superior quality of limestone which is unusually free of slate. Mr. Lingle has now a force of thirty-five men at work on the buildings. He is also opening up the quarries under the direction of W. C. Moore, an expert engineer, and a crusher with a capacity of forty cars a day, of Mrs. Mary Wilson Linn. will soon be in operation.

An endless chain attachment from the quarries to the ornsher, which is a patent of Mr. Moore's, will be installed. The large the meantime Old Boreas is going right air compressor is already on the ground and the big crusher has been shipped from the factory. A new bridge will be built across the creek from the operations to the few days sojourn in the Quaker city. Central railroad to facilitate the movement pleted a force of at least fifty men will find brief visitor in Bellefonte on Wednesday, bepermanent employment. Mr. Lingle is tween trains, while on his way to Pittsburg to now in Bellefonte with beadquarters at the Brockerhoff house and will spend most of his time here until they move into their own home about April first, Mrs. Lingle and her daughters being in Wisconsin on a visit with friends.

CENTRE COUNTY FARMER'S INSTITUTES. -Beginning last Friday and closing Wednesday evening of this week Centre coun y farmers had an opportunity of attending some of the most interesting farmer's institutes ever held in the county. To give a full account of the proceedings of the three institutes, that at Pleasant Gap last Friday and Saturday ; at Pine Grove Mills on Monday, and at Milesburg Tuesday and Wednesday, would take up columns of snace more than we are able to devote to them. The corps of speakers at each place was a very good one and their subjects were all timely and ably handled. In addition to the visiting instructors the institutes were made more interesting by the help of local people. At each place there was good music by a home choir, that at Pine Grove Mills being under the leadership of Miss Mary Ward.

The corps of instructors at the various places included such well known speakers as Col John A. Woodward, of Howard ; J. O Smith, of Calvin; J. H. Peachey, of B-Heville ; and Prof H. E. Van Norman, J. H. Pillsbury, and Mrs. G. G. Pond, of State College, and Hon. A. J. Kabler, of Hughesville

WERE THEY POISONED ?-Friday evening of last week a sied load of young folks went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peters, near Unionville. They had a merry time of it until midnight when they are lunch on, which consisted in part of canned salmon sandwiches and ice cream. They felt no ill eff-ots at the time and were jully as could be on the return trip home. A number of the girls in the party work in the Bellefonte shirt factory and they had not been at work many minutes until Berenice Waite dropped to the floor in a dead faint. She was taken to ber grandmother's home on Toomas street but bardly had she been removed until one after another of the girls became quite ill until the list numbered seven. Two physicians were sent for and administered to the sick girls and before in that community. the day "as over they were very much improved and by the next day were as well as ever. Naturally their illness was diagmes-das promaine poisoning, which perhaps is correct. But if anyhody wants to get real good and sick just leave them eat canned salmon and toe cream at any time and they can be accomm dated.

93ND QUARTERLY DIVIDEND .- The directors of The Penna. Telephone company, at a meeting held January 30th, 1907, declared the regular quarterly divi-January 30.h. 1907.

News Parely Personal

-Robert Wilson, of Tyrone, was a Bellefonte visitor vesterday.

-Rev. J. Allison Platts was in Harrisburg sev aval days this wook

-Herb Sheffer, of Milroy, spent Sunday with his parents in this place. -Mrs. H. E. Fenlon left Wednesday for a visit with friends in Fbensburg. -Mrs. S. A. Williams was an arrival home from

-John Van Pelt, of Spangler, spent Sunday with his Bellefonte friends.

-Mrs. Ed. Watt, of Heward, did a little shop ping in Bellefonte on Wednesday -Col. E. R. Chambers made a brief trip to Wi lismsport on Wednesday. -Jereme Harper, of Philadelphia, is spending this week at his home in this place -Mrs. Fred Kurtz, of Lewisburg, is a visitor at he elder Kurtz home on High street. -Mrs. Sarah Etters, of Lemont, did some copping in Bellefonte on Wednesday.

-Mrs. Julia Shuey, of Lemont, spent Tuesday with her many friends in this place -James Harris attended the faneral of Ma . C. Kelly, in Williamsburg, on Thursday,

-Mrs. George B. Thompson with her little son Dan, will go to her home at Alto, Saturday. -H. H. Schreyer, of Chicago, spent a day he Harper home on Linn street this week. -Harvey McClure was an arrival home from Pittsburg last Saturday for a few days visit. -Mrs. F. K. Lukenbach, of Tyrone, spent a few days this week with friends in Bellefonte

-Mrs. Samuel Irvin, of Altoona, was a guest at the Robert Irvin home in this place last Saturday. -Mrs. Mary E. Grove spent the week

Buffalo Run with her niece. She returned yester-

-Frank McClain, of Spangler, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Nora McClain, on north Allegheny -Mr. and Mrs. John H. Woomer visited their daughter, Mrs. Harry Yearick, in Altoons, over -Miss Bertha Wise, of Lock Haven, was a guest of her friend, Mrs. Curtin Taylor, over -Dr. John Keichline has been spending this reek with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. -Mrs. David Miller, of Denver, Col., with Miss Miller, of Huntingdon, are guests at the Stewart home on Linn street. -Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCov Miss Anna McCov and Miss Kate Shugerts are at Atlantic City for a month's sojourn. -Mr. and Mrs. Will Katz with their little son loe, left yesterday noon for a week's trip to New York and Philadelphia. -Mrs. Merrill Linn, of Lewisburg, was in sellefonte on Wedne-day attending the funeral

-Captain Simpson, Mrs. Strong and Miss imp-on, of Lock Haven, were the week-end guests of Miss Brockerhoff

-Wilbur F. Harr s, of Harrisburg, was in Belleonte this week visiting his mother and looking after his trade in Centre county. -Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Lingle and Hon.

and Mrs. Harry R. Curtin left on Tuesday for a -Conductor Unton H. Reamer, of the Lewis burg and Tyrone railroad, is now in Philade phia, consulting an occulist as to his eyes.

lecture.

-Grover Glenn, of State College, was in fonte Wednesday evening, on his way to Brook lyn, for a week's visit with his sister. Mrs.

-Mr. and Mrs. John Huffman, of Williamsnor were over Sunday guests at the home of the atters parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Spigelmyer, in this place -Mrs. Thomas W. Faxon, who was in Philadel phia three weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. . Ander-on, returned on Saturday, bringing her daughter with her. -Mrs. Charles Workman, of Hecla park, spen Wednesday night in town; having come up to help serve a banquet which was given some Col. ege boys at the Brockerhoft. -Among those who were in Bellefonte to a tend the funera of "rs. Mary Wilson Linn were the Misse- Linn, of Williamsport : Mr. Beckman

Mrs. J. R. Bingaman and Mrs. Charles Wilson -Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Mitchell, Mrs lames Lane and Miss Mary Thomas were in McKeesport this week attending the wedding of Kichard Lane and Miss Sarah Cowan, which took place there on Wednesday. -William Walker is at his home in this pla after a campaign of southern fairs and carvinals with his crack-a-jack machine. While away he was in Coba and brought back with him a lot o good cigars and cigarets which his friends ar enjoying. -D. C. Krebs, of State College, was in town on Wednesday night having brought a party of Juniors down for a banquet at the Brockerho In all there were five sled loads and Mr. Krebs said the snow was so dry that sleds dragge

-Miss Nannie and Randolph Hoy arrived hom from P ovidence, R. I., on Sanday morning and report their brother Albert as having very suc ce-sfully undergo ie an operation for appendiciti and now so far recovered that he expects to comhome in about a week to recupera heavily on the teams.

-Charles H. Rowland, the Philipsburg coal perator and trolley magnate, was in town on Mon day looking fine as ever. Mr. Rowland has been quire an acquisition to the business interests of Philipshurg and especially so at the occasiona -Miss Effie Snyder, of State College, who has some time, is critically ill at the home of friends in Jersey Shore. Miss Snyder's illness which "tert-d some weeks ago with pneumonia has now deve oped into typhoid fever, making her condition very serio -Wrs. George M. Glenn, of Chambersburg, her sister Mrs. Frank Hart-ock, of Scranton, and Mr. and Mrs. John Ligg-t, of Beech Creek, were in Bellefonte Mon tay on their way up Buffalo Run, to be quests at the surprise birthday party given Mrs. Sara Gray on Tuesday, by her many triend

-Col. John A. Woodward, of Howard; Prof. H. E. Van Norman and Mrs. G. G. Pond, of State in Reliefonte last night after having attended the farmers' institute at Milesburg. They stated that the session was a very interesting one, over one hundred and fifty people being present

-James Watt E-q, of Tyrone, was in town be tween trains on l'ue-day attending to some business, a part of which was very pleasant for the printer-. James deser't get to Bellefonte near as often as he once did when this was the territory that he formerly covered, but his absent doesn't indicate any diminution of the warm feeling for old Centre county because you know he putting down completed and expects to dend of one and one-half per cent, pay- still has farming interests up about his boyhood have their operation in full swing before able February 1-t. to stockholders of record home in Ferguson township whence some of the dearest memories of his life emanate

SMITH-STEVENS - Thomas L. Smith and Miss Margaret Stevens, both of State College, were united in marriage at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage in that place, at 6:30 o'clock last Wednesday evening, by the pastor, Rev. H. C. Spavely. The week prior Mr. Smith and Miss Stevens were the attendants at the wedding of Calvin Bruce Struble and Miss Sarah Markle and they having just returned from their honeymoon trip officiated in the same capacity for Mr. Smith and Miss Stevens. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served the young couple at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home at State College, where the former is employed as a tinner in the College hardware store.

SHADE-WEBNER. - On Wednesday morning of last week Cloyd M. Shade, of Conemaugh, passed through Bellefonte on his way to Nittany were be met Miss Bessie M. Webner and in the afternoon the two drove to Bellefonte, secured a marriage license and at three o'clock were married at the Evangelical parsonage by Rev. Cox. This was certainly married in baste and the best wishes of the WATCHMAN is that they may never live to see the day when they will repent in leisure.

NEESE-SHUEY .- A quiet wedding took place at the Evangelical parsonage, last Thursday evening, when John Neese, a clerk in Joseph Bros. store, and Miss Mollie M. Shuey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Shuey, of Spring township, were united in marriage. There were no attendants, the only witnesses to the ceremony being Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Marshall.

A BIRTHDAY SURPRISE. - On Tuesday that estimable woman, Mrs. Isaac Gray, in Halfmoon valley, celebrated the three score and tenth anniversary of her birth and her descendants took advantage of the occasion to give her a most delightful surprise in the way of a birthday party. And it was a surprise, indeed, as Mrs. Gray had no inkling of what was to happen until her relatives began to gather and they contiqued coming until thirty five of her descendants thronged the spacious rooms of Meadowside Place, one of the oldest and most picturesque homes in that section. And it was with many pleasant recollections that her daughters, nieces and nephews revived tender memories of the many happy hours spent there in childhood days. Many tokens of esteem were brought as evidence of the high regard in which Mrs. Gray is held by her relatives and friends. Among those of her own generation who were present were Mr. and Mrs. John Liggett, of Beech Creek; Mrs. Miles Gray, of Buffalo Run ; Mrs. McFerron, Mrs. Margaret Hutchinson, of Warriorsmark, and Mrs. Eliza Grazier, of near Tyrone who, though eighty-two years of age endured the drive of twenty six miles to be one of the party. Of course Mrs. Gray's daughters, Mrs. George Glenn, of Chambersburg, and Mrs. Frank Hartsook and little daughter Ruth of Scranton, as well as Miss Esther were also present.

A BIG TREAT IN STORE. - Did you say you liked good music? Well then don't fail to attend the great "Lawn Party," a musical treat to be given by the Y. M. C. A. glee club in Petriken ball next Tuesday evening, February 12th. It will be the greatest thing that ever happened in Bellefonte. All seats reserved for 35 cents. Tickets now on sale at Krumrine's and Zeller's drug store and Y. M. C. A. Reserved seat chart at Y. M. C. A. Come early and scoure the best seats in the house

FOR SALE. - A double-heater stove. Very reasonable. Inquire at this office Sale Register.

THURSDAY MARCH 28TH.—In Spring township, 4 miles east of Belletonte, G. Perry Gentzel will sell: 5 good horses, span of mules 6 years old: 10 milch cows, 7 head young cattle, 10 head of sheep, short horn bull regis'd sock, 3 broad sows, 1 boar, 5 shoats. Also a full line of implements. Sale at 10 a. m. A. C. McClintic, Auct.

Philadelphia Markets. The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening.

Wheat-Red		77346 78
" —Yellow		501/4@51 491/4@51
Flour— Winter, Per i "—Penna. Roller "—Favorite Bran	Br'l	4334@44 2.65-2 85 2.90-3.10 4.40@4.50
Rye Flour PerBr'l		3.69(4.3.65
Rye Flour PerBr'l Baled hay—Choice	Timot No. 1 Mixed "1	14.5 mg 21.00 16.00m 18 50
Straw		9.00@12.5
Ballationto	4-mar	land.

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper

press: Wheat	70
Rye, per bushel	51
Corn, shelled, per bushel	48
Corn, ears, per bushel	45
Oats old and new, per bushel	39 48
Ground Plaster, per ton 8 50 to
Buckwheat, per bushel	50
Cloverseed, per bushel	8 U
Timothy seed per bushel$2.00 to	$2.2
Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co. Potatoes per bushel.

Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte Pa., at $1.00 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $1.50, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un less paid for in advance.

A fiberal discount is made to persons advertising by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows

3m 6m 1y SPACE OCCUPIED