FOUND MAN'S BODY ON ROAD

Farmer Makes Gruesome Discovery in Woods Near New Brunswick, N. J. New Brunswick, N. J., Feb. 19.—Driving into town, Ira Warne, a farmer of Madison township, came upon the body of an unknown man lying by the roadside. The face of the corpse was covered with blood, and the head was terribly gashed, as though by a blow from an axe. The dead man's coat was found 20 feet from the body and his hat about 10 feet away in the opposite direction. The man is supposed to have been a brickyard worker. The murder was committed at a secluded spot, where the road passes through a thick woods. There is no clue to the perpetrator of the crime.

$50,000 Worth of Diamonds Stolen. Houston, Tex., Feb. 19.—A jewelry company was robbed of $50,000 worth of loose diamonds. A man entered the store and asked for an unmounted diamond to match one he had. A box of loose stones was produced by the clerk. After looking them over, the man did not appear to be satisfied, and said he would send his wife around in the afternoon. He left the store and, as the clerk supposed, the box of diamonds was returned to the safe. There was occasion to take the box from the safe again in the afternoon, and it was then discovered that the box was a substituted one containing only tissue paper.

Butte, Mont., Letter Carriers Quit. Butte, Mont., Feb. 16.—The mail carriers of Butte will quit work in a body on March 1, advices having been received from Washington to the effect that the increases in salaries asked by the carriers cannot be granted. Resignations of the carriers have been accepted. The carriers two weeks ago tendered their resignations unless the government saw fit to raise their pay. The salaries for carriers in Butte range from $600 to $900.

Carried Wife From Burning Home. South Orange, N. J., Feb. 18.—W. C. Delancy, of the Wall street firm of Delancy & Delancy, and his wife were painfully burned about the face and hands in a fire which destroyed their home and caused a loss of about $40,000. They had remained in the house too long after the fire started and a safe exit was cut off. Mr. Delancy carried his wife through the flames about the rear door. Their injuries are not considered dangerous.

—Rather than be nursed in the lap of luxury it would perhaps be better for some if they had been rocked in the cradle of the deep.

FIVE MEN BLOWN TO ATOMS

Were Thawing 100 Sticks of Dynamite Around a Fire. London, Ky., Feb. 19.—Five men employed by the Louisville & Nashville railroad in laying a double-track at tunnel No. 6, north of Hazel Patch, were killed by the explosion of 100 sticks of dynamite, which they were thawing around a fire. The dead are: Hugh Sutton, foreman; Frank Boles, Carl Epps, Arthur Jones and Andrew Cleveland. The bodies were blown to atoms, fragments of flesh being found in the tops of nearby trees.
