Founder of Zion City Dies Penniless and Almost Forsaken.

BELIEVED HE WAS INSANE

Chicago, March 11 .- Without kith or kin at his bedside, with but a paltry handful of followers out of the hosts who used to acclaim him glorious, with hardly a dollar left of all the millions that once he had, John Alexander Dowie, self-styled Healer of God, Reincarnated Elijah, First Apostle of the Christian Catholic Church, and, according to his own declaration, the last of the prophets, died a miserable and raving victim of paralysis. There were present with him when he died only Judge D. N. Barnes, his attorney, and two personal attendants, and these looked upon him as he lay dying, not as an apostle in a state of transition, but as a lunatic finding relief from agony of mind and body.

came as a surprise to his former followers. It was known that he was failing, but not that he was seriously ill. Since he was deposed from the leadership in Zion City it had been Dowie's custom to hold religious services every Sunday afternoon in the parlor of Shiloh House. About 200 of his original followers remained faithful and attended these services. Dowie always wore his apostolic robes and made a characteristic address. Five weeks ago these meetings ceased and Dowie appeared no longer in public.

Judge Barnes, who was at the bedside of Dowie, is a member of Overseer Voliva's council, but remained friendly to Dowie, believing him to be insane. Dowie's wife, father and son held the same view, and it is, therefore, believed, though they were estranged, that they will attend the funeral.

A touch of the ostentation that arked the rule of Device will be ch marked the rule of Dowie will be observed during the funeral services of the deposed leader. The white robed choir, which was shorn of its vestments when Overseer Voliva assumed control in Zion City, will take an active part in the ceremonies, which will occur on Thursday afternoon in Zion Tabernacle. Judge V. V. Barnes, one of the few elders of the church who remained faithful to Dowie, will conduct the services and will deliver the funeral sermon.

Morgan Arranges Conference With President to Allay Anxiety.

Washington, March 12 .-- J. Pierpont Morgan, the New York financier, came to Washington in his private car and went immediately to the White House, where he was in conference with President Roosevelt for more than two house. The object of Mr. Morgan's visit was to urge the president to take some action to "allay" the public anxiety now threatening to obstruct railroad investments and construction."

Mr. Morgan pointed out to the president that the financial interests of the country are greatly alarmed at the attitude of the administration toward corporations. At Mr. Morgan's earnest request, President Roosevelt has agreed to have a conference with four leading railroad presidents, Messrs. McCrea, of the Pennsylvania; Newman, of the New York Central; Mellen, of the New York, New Haven & Hartford, and Hughitt, of the Chicago & Northwestern, to determine if some agreement can be reached as to the relations between the railroads and the administration. It is probable that E. H. Harriman, head of the Harriman lines, may also participate in the conference. which, it is understood, will take place at the White House some time the latter part of this week.

At this election all candidates for office to be filled at the general election in November, with the exception of those nominated by national or state conventions, will be nominated, as well as to the officers of the va-

The election will be conducted by the regular elec-tion officers, and the polls will be open from 2 in the afternoon to 8 in the evening and from 1 to 9 o'clock p. m. all licensed places will be closed. The election officers receive one-half pay for their services, which is paid by the county treasurer, who in turn receives the money from the state reasurer

Persons desiring to become candidates for state offices must file petitions with the sec-

The petitions must be signed by voters representing the party proposed politically, viz: For mem-ners of congress, judges of courts and state senators, 200 qualified electors, and for representatives and officers to be voted for by the entire county, fifty qualified voters.

Life Guards.

The Life Guards are two regiments of avalry forming part of the British house hold troops. They are gallant soldiers, and every loyal British heart is proud of them. Not only the King's household, but yours, ours, everybody's should have its life guards. The need of them is espec-ially great when the greatest fors of life, seases, find allies in the very elements as colds, influenza, catarrb, the grip, and pneumonia do in the stormy month of March. The best way that we know of to guard against these diseases is to strength-the conditions in which these diseases make their most successful attack, gives vigor and tone to all the vital organs and functions, and imparts a genial warmth to the blood. Remember the weaker the system the greater the exposure to disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the system strong.

"Love," remarked the sentimental maid, "makes time fly." "It does during courtship," rejoined the young widow, "but after the parson has said his say, time begins to make love fly.

PRESIDENT COMPLAINS

California's Actions Makes Negotiations With Japan Harder.

Sacramento, Cal., March 12 .- Governor Gillette sent to the assembly : message from President Roosevelt complaining that the recent action of the legislature would have a most unfortunate effect upon the president's effort to secure the exclusion of Japanese laborers by friendly agreement. The president asked the governor to secure suspension of further action until receipt of a letter from the president. The governor asked that the assembly give the matter very careful consideration

The legislative action referred to by the president was the passage by the senate of a bill limiting the age of children of all races to 10 years when first entering primary schools, of a measure prepared by the Japanese-Korean Exclusion League, submitting the question of Asiatic exclusion to a vote of the people,' and a resolution protesting against Japanese naturalization.

The message created momentary excitement in the lower house. Then Grove L. Johnson expressed his confidence in the governor and the president, said the question should be left to them, and moved that the assembly take no action on the Japanese question as this session. The motion was rried without debate.

PLOT TO KILL KING VICTOR

Says Person Left Roseto, Pa., to Slay Ruler of Italy.

Naples, March 12 .-- A workman living at Montoro, in the province of Avellino, has received a letter from a man named Stefano Giaquinto, who emigrated some time ago to Roseto, Pa., containing the laconic phrase: "A person has left here to kill King Victor Emmanuel."

It being known that Giaquinto is an honest and trustworthy man, this letter has produced considerable of an impression. The police are investigating the matter.
