THINK THEY HAVE MARVIN BOY Erie Authorities Notify Father They

Believe They Have Lad. Dover, Del., March 19 .- The authorities of Erie. Pa., sent for Dr. Horace Marvin and notified him by telephone that they believed they had little morace, the missing child. Two exhaustive interviews over the long-distance telephone resulted between the Erie authorities and Dr. Harvey Marvin, who was in Dover awaiting messages and telephone calls for his father. Neither the Marvins nor the detectives would divulge any of the conversation. The boy, it has been learned, had been shadowed from Canada down through Port Huron and finally to Erie.

Deputy Attorney General Hastings. the state prosecutor during the illness of Attorney General Richards, conferred with Governor Lea and later announced his intention of visiting the scene and co-operating with the detective force at work under the governor. The state legislature passed a resolution asking that "President Roosevelt be requested to issue an order instructing postmasters in various parts of the country who may receive notices intended to aid in the recovery of Horace Marvin to hang such notices in their respective postoffices and to see that such notices are not torn or destroyed." President Roosevelt will be seen by former United States Senator J. Frank Allee, with whom he has an appointment, and Mr. Allee will request the president to co-operate with the Delaware authorities in searching the country over for young Marvin.

ERIE OFFICIALS IN DARK

Know Nothing of Kidnapped Boy, But It Is Said a Doctor Has Him. Erie, Pa., March 19.-The police of the city declared that they know nothing whatever of the report that Horace Marvin, Jr., was located in this city. County Detective Frank H. Watson also denied that he had received information or had communicated with Dr. Horace Marvin, father of the missing boy.

It was learned that a telephone message had been sent from this city to Kitts Hammock, Del., but the officials denied that any messages to Dover or to any part of the state had been

The Associated Press was infromed that a detective from a private agency at Buffalo was enroute to this city. Rumors are rife that the kindapped boy is in the custody of a physician on State street here.

ROCKEFELLER MAKES HIS WILL

says that, according to a member of John D. Rockefeller, Jr.'s Bible class, and who is also a personal friend of John D. Rockefeller and in a position to know of his affairs, the latter proposes soon to make a princely gift to the city of New York. It will amount to at least $50,000,000. It will be partly charitable and partly educational.

The Herald adds: "This man informed a reporter that when Mr. Rock-Lakewood, N. J., a fortnight ago, the on the subject of Mr. Rockefeller's will, which document the oil king was then completing with the aid of his son and his lawyers. It was said that ing a moment the speaker answered this document will astonish the world the question himselr. when it is made public. It will donate no less than $250,000,000 for charitwill be so bestowed that the benefit therefrom will almost be perpetual. states, Mr. Rockefeller has provided these three things-bequests for reli'gious purposes, though not of large sums; liberal bequests for educational, and what are described as princely bequests for charitable purposes. It is said that there is scarcely a man, woman or child that will not benefit in some way by these prospective donations

JOHN DOWIE'S FUNERAL

Hearse Was Draped In White and Was Drawn By Two White Horses.

Chicago, March 15.-The funeral of John Alexander, Dowie was held in Zion City, the interment being in Lake Mound cemetery in Zion City. The funeral in itself was quiet and unostentatious, it being the belief of the members of the Zion City church that display in funerals is not advisable. The hearse was draped in white, and was drawn by two white horses. The body of Dowie was arrayed in the wonderful white robe which he has worn since he assumed the title of "First Apostle of the Christian Catholic Church." The garment required six months of constant labor for its construction and elaboration. The funeral oration was delivered by Attorney V. V. Barnes, who was for many years the constant friend of the deceased church leader. Some weeks before he died Dowie prepared his own funeral sermon, but it was not read to his followers, as it was feared it would still further estrange them. The document makes it plain that Dowie did not forgive his enemies before he died, as he lashes those who ousted him from control as "dogs of hell."

LAST USE OF ARMOR.

It Was In 1799 and Was a Picturesque and Diabolical Scene. In January, 1799, at the town of Aquilla, in the Abruzzo, then held by a garrison of 400 French troops, the peasants broke into the town, and, though they were driven out by the French, they continued to give serious trouble. They even drove the French into the fort and made ready to bombard them with heavy guns. The French were in an awkward position.

Boulert, the officer of artillery, ransacking his brains for the means of sending out men to spike the guns on CASTORIA the glacis under the fire of the insurgents from the neighboring houses, suddenly remembered that he had seen in his magazine some suits of plate armor, and he proposed to try whether, protected by them, men could not sally out and work in security under the musketry fire. He got together twelve complete suits and dressed out twelve gunners and grenadiers thus, selecting big men, be it remarked. At a certain hour the garrison lined the covered way, and from thence and from the fort opened a steady fire of musketry and of artillery on the lines of the insurgents. Then out marched the twelve knights of the eighteenth century, much in David's state of mind when he complained he had not proved his armor. The men carried handspikes, hammers and spikes. Moving naturally slowly and awkwardly in their heavy steel mail, still they succeeded in completing their work under a hail of bullets from the insurgents. The scene is described, as we can well believe, to have been most remarkable and to have had something picturesque and also diabolical about it.

As the mailed figures moved in silence among the guns, their handspikes looking like maces, their silence and the slowness of their actions seemed unnatural under the steady hail of bullets. The insurgents were believed to have thought hell itself had sent forth these extraordinary antagonists, ghosts Will Leave $250,000,000 For Charity of a past age, while the French on the ramparts, true to their nature, the first New York, March 18.-The Herald moment of anxiety over, burst into roars of laughter.-Phipp's "Marshals of Napoleon.'

An Eye With Legs.

"Depend upon it, children," said the benignant old gentleman who was addressing the Sunday school, "we were fashioned by a wiser power than ourselves. There was no mistake made in putting us together. If our hands were placed where our feet are and our feet efeller was conferring with his son at where our hands are, how could we get along? It would be exceedingly awkmeeting was not for the purpose of ward, children, exceedingly awkward. discussing any immediate gift, but was I stretch my hand out this way; I move my fingers like this. Now, what is this an evidence of, children?"

There was no reply, and after wait-

"It is an evidence of design. Don't forget that, children," he continued able and educational purposes, and it impressively. "It is an evidence of design. Suppose, for instance, my eye, instead of having lids and lashes, had "In his will, the Herald's informant legs. Suppose my eye had legs. How could I use them?"

> "You could use them in running your eye over the congregation, couldn't you?" replied a deeply interested little boy near the door.
