

MISSING MARVIN BOY NOT FOUND

Rumor of His Recovery in Woods Near His Home Incorrect.

Dover, Del., March 30.—The report that Horace N. Marvin, Jr., had been found in a woods near the home of his father at Kitts Hammock, near here, has been found to be incorrect. Word was received here saying that the boy had been found, and the detectives who have been working on the case for almost a month started for the Marvin home. When they arrived there they found that the rumor was without foundation.

The report probably gained circulation from the fact that the Logan school house, near the Marvin home, was broken into and was practically torn inside out by some unknown persons. This is the school at which Miss Lucy Killen, the young woman who was held up on Tuesday night by two men whom she came upon suddenly, is the teacher. Placed to the blackboard in the school room was a note which bore a skull and cross bones and read: "Beware! You told!"

DROWNED HERSELF AND BABES

Mother Fastened Two Little Ones' Garments to Her Own.

Dover, N. J., April 1.—Having fastened their garments securely to her own, Mrs. Otto Britting carried her two little children into Shongum lake, where all three were drowned.

The three had died in shallow water and the mother's body was in a stooping position, as though she had bent over to place her head under the water. With her right arm her 9-months-old baby George was clasped to her breast, while its sister Grace, 3 years old, was held firmly between the dead mother's knees. As thought to make sure that the children would not escape her even in death, Mrs. Britting had used safety pins to secure the clothing of the little ones to her own. Mrs. Britting is said to have been passionately fond of her children, and her act is ascribed to a mental trouble.

Former Receiver of Taxes of New Castle County, Del., Under Arrest.

Wilmington, Del., April 2.—Horace G. Rettew, former receiver of taxes and county treasurer of New Castle county, was arrested at his home here on a charge of appropriating $5000 of the county taxes to his own use. The warrant, which was sworn out by Magistrate Hollis, was served by Constable Jones, who found Rettew ill with heart trouble. As the $10,000 bail was not forthcoming he remained in custody of the constable at his home. The levy court directed his arrest, the complaint being made by President McFarlin. Rettew is alleged to be short about $36,000.

TRAIN KILLS FOUR BOYS

Struck While Walking Pennys Tracks at Buffalo.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 30.—Four boys were run down and instantly killed by a light engine on the Pennsylvania railroad tracks at Indian Church road, near the eastern city line. They were returning from a hunting trip and were walking along the tracks. A passing freight train drowned the noise of the approaching engine, which ran them down. The dead are: Anthony Phillips, 19 years; Frederick Phillips, 16 years, a brother of Anthony; Otto Mertz, 11 years, and Hugh Reavy, 14 years.

Turn the Rascals Out.

The dominant party of our Legislature is very slow to learn that the people are determined to be sovereign in this State. Boss rule is still manifestly its selfish purpose. The committee have reported negatively on the bill designating registrars to make the assessment of voters; on the bill authorizing registrars to collect and receipt for poll tax; on the bill to amend the assistance provision of the ballot law, and also a negative report on the local option bill. All this in opposition to the wishes and demands of the people.

The voters at the next election should so plan and so consolidate that no one should be returned to the Legislature who has set up his own will in defiance to that of his constituents.

Books, Magazines Etc.

The April St. Nicholas will pay attention to West Point's birthday anniversary with an account of "Our Hundred-year-old Military Academy" by H. Irving Hancock, and a description of "How a Cadet Learns to Shoot," written by Lieutenant Henry J. Reilly, U. S. A., while a cadet at West Point. The latter sketch will have a number of illustrations from photographs which will please the boys.

Sales of the Century.—For the past three months every number of the Century Magazine has gone out of print within a few weeks of issue.

A great novel by the author of "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush."—The man who fought more duels with fortune and suffered more variously and cruelly at the hands of destiny than any other of his time and nation is the famous John Graham, of Claverhouse, Scotland. Never a woman but loved him, and only one in all his wild career who could win from him a single answering throb of affection. In fact, he was one of the most unusual, striking characters in history. Perhaps that is why Ian MacLaren has chosen him for the hero of one of the most striking, unusual novels ever written.

This novel is "Graham of Claverhouse." It is a story that carries the reader along by its tremendous power and unflagging interest, ever surprising him by a new and unexpected turn of plot, clever word picture or tense situation. Such a romance has not been written before during the present century.

The exclusive rights to publish "Graham of Claverhouse" in serial form before its issuance as a book has been secured by the Pittsburgh Dispatch. The first instalment will be printed Sunday, April 7th. Order early to avoid disappointment.

"Graham of Claverhouse" is twelfth of the famous $150,000 series.

Order from the newdealers early.
