Democratic Watchman.

Bellefonte, Pa., April 26, 1907.

CORRESPONDENTS .- No communications pub- and gave practical demonstrations. He was tshed unless accompanied by the real name of he writer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-Most of the country schools have closed for the 1906-'07 term.

pound.

black smoke.

were burned.

ler, as follows :

Mr. Ellmore claims that the newspapers the story that by the use of his secret compound a mixture of one part coal and three all a fake, as he never claimed any such a thing. That all he claimed was that he could burn a mixture of one part ashes and three parts coal. Or in other words, that he would make one ton of coal go faither than a ton and a half would ordinarily by burning all the ashes as made, thus getting all the fuel value from the coal. And, in addition, do away with much of the Ellmore's first demonstration in Bellefonte was made at the old water works plant on Friday morning and was not considered much of a success. Friday night, however, he made a second test at the plant of the Bellefonte Electric company and, whether there is any virtue in his compound or not, he did succeed in burning all the ashes he made, the only residue from over three thousand pounds of coal being about one wheelbarrow load of slag and clinkers. And he always had a good bot fire and had no trouble in keeping up steam. To be exact, in five hours he burned 3100 pounds of coal and as a comparison the boilers were fired the next

While the question is still a mooted one

-John Sourbeck has had a new awning put up over his store front.

-----Col. W. F. Reynolds is having the lawn around his residence re-souded.

-The Bellefonte skating rink continues to draw large crowds every evening.

-Rev. H. Brownlee Smith, of Harrisburg, preached in the Episcopal church here on Sunday.

----- If you want to see a good game of ball go to State College today and see the State-. Villa Nova game.

-The house occupied by Will Katz and family, on Spring street, is being handsomely painted by the Eckenroth men. -Rev. James B. Stein, pastor of the Methodist church, has been selected by Gregg Post to deliver the Memorial day address.

-Arthur B. Aultz, of Tyrone, has been appointed temporary car inspector in the Bellefonte yard of the Pennsylvania railroad.

-- While engaged in moving on Wednesday Will Garman slipped and fell from the top of a load of furniture, sustaining severe injuries.

-Misses Bessie and Alice Dorworth entertained a six table progressive euchre party at their parents home on east High street last evening.

-Rev. Platts has been selected to preach the Memorial sermon to the members of Gregg Post this year and will do so on Sunday, May 26th.

-The many friends of Mrs. F. W. Crider will be glad to learn that her condition this week is very much improved and there is now every hope of her entire recovery.

-The fourteen young women employed in Katz's store were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Miss Edna Koontz, on Bishop street, last Thursday evening.

-Miss Martha Peters, who for some time past has been under treatment in the plant last week, we are only too willing to Altoona hospital, has recovered sufficiently to be taken to her home at Heela Park on Wednesday.

-William H. Garman and family on Wednesday moved from the house they oconnied on east Linn street to the house on east Lamb street vacated by Charles Mc-Clellau and family.

ELMMORE'S ASH-BURNING DEMONSTRAwho claims to have a secret compound by Charles R. Barelay, of Sinnemahoning, and morning of last week until Sanday evening place early in June. -A new window glass has been order-accompanied by his backer, Dr. H. K. ed for the front of Clayton Brown's shooting Hoy, and the two men were very enthusigallery in the McClain block, to replace astic over the outlook for the millions they the glass broken last winter by a snow slide expect to reap from marketing the comfrom the roof of the building which knocked the sign into the window. In the first place it must be said that -The Junior Christian Endeavor sohave misrepresented his discovery. That ciety of the Milesburg Presbyterian church will hold a "Mother Goose" social, Friday, April 26th, at the home of Mrs. Albert N. parts ashes could be made to burn and give Bierly. Admission five and ten cents. better satisfaction than the pure coal was Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

> -Rev. W. K. Harnish, of Lemont, preached for the Williamsburg Presbyterian congregation on Sunday and declared the pulpit vacant in accordance with the decree of the Huntingdon Presbytery accepting the resignation of Rev. J. C. Kelley, who has retired from active work in the ministry.

tween Williamsport and Lock Haven, Howard E. Best of this place, and W. H. Baumgardner, Boalsburg, were wrecked by the breaking of one of the cylinders of the machine they were driving. They finally managed to reach Lock Haven where the machine was repaired so that they could continue on their way home to Bellefonte.

-The annual commencement exercises of the Liberty township High school were held on Wednesday of last week. Prof. George D. Robb, of Altoona, made the commencement address to the graduating class, which consisted of four young women and one young man, as follows; night in the old way and in the same Mabel L. Page, Laura E. Bechdel, Nellie length of time 3900 pounds of pure coal R. Winslow, Mae C. Harter and Maurice C. Bathust.

and open for argument on both sides -Though it has been over two months WATCHMAN readers are privileged to exsince Prof J. Angel, the eye specialist, of periment themselves and see if they can Williamsport, has been in Bellefonte, we burn their ashes or not. But be sure and want to call the attention of our readers to the fact that he has not discontinued his of both families were present to witness have the right compound, as Mr. Ellmore says that the formula of oxalic acid, salt visits but will be in this place next week, and water, printed last week, is not his sefrom Wednesday morning until Thursday cret. That his compound includes a mixevening, May 1st and 2ad, and will stop at ture of eighteen ingredients and is known the Brant house where everybody suffering her sister, Miss Caroline Cole, as brideswith headache or weak eyes is invited to maid, while John Dugan, of Altoona, was by nobody but himself and backer. Be that as it may, however, or whether he call and see him. His reputation is well > engagement of Miss Jane May, a sister of dispense with the customary honeymoon Ray Esq. Edna May, the celebrated actress and a trip and after spending two days with cousin of landlord Horton S. Ray, to Dav- friends in this vicinity left on Sunday id Sassoon, of London. Miss Jane May afternoon for their future home in Altoona.

playing in Charles Frohman's production, "Following are the facts concerning test made by John Ellmore, of Altoona, with his "The Great Conspiracy," at the Dake of ash-burning compound at the plant of the York's theatre, London. Her younger sis-Rellefonte Electric company. Fire started ter, Miss Marguerite, who spent the sum-April 19th at 1:30 p. m., test began at 6 hs at the Brock honse sev. eral years ago, has almost completed her studies and expects to go on the stage in the near future.

---- The engagement of Miss Beatrice GARBER-CALLAWAY .-- It was indeed TION .- John Ellmore, the Altoona cobbler Barclay, daughter of Congressman and Mrs. quite a surprise on Thursday evening of last week when telegrams were received in which ashes can be burned when mixed Harry W. Shoemaker, of New York city, Bellefonte announcing the marriage in with coal, was in Bellefonte from Friday has been announced, the wedding to take Baltimore that day of Harry Lorenzo Garber and Miss Louise Bush Callaway, both of this place. Not one of the many friends of either Mr. Garber or Miss Callaway had the slighest intimation that they contemplated matrimony. Miss Callaway went to Baltimore a month or more ago to visit her relatives and two weeks ago went to Fhiladelphia. Wednesday of last week Mr. Garber left Bellefonte after telling his friends that he was going to New Castle to visit his mother, but instead he went to the Quaker city and from there went to Baltimore, as it was Miss Calaway's wish to be married among her relatives.

The wedding took place on Thursday afternoon in the church of the Ascension. The attendants were Miss Polk and Frank D. Polk, cousins of the bride. The guests were confined to members of the Callaway family and included Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Callaway and Mrs. A. B. Alexander, of Atlantic City; Mrs. Margaret Polk and Mr. and Mrs. W. Powell Oakford, of Arlington. Mr. and Mrs. Garber returned to Bellefonte on Monday evening and it is their intention to go to housekeeping at once in the house on Linn street vacated by William Garman and family. Both young people are well known and quite popular, the bride being a daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Callaway and a grand- Tyrone on Monday. daughter of the late D. G. and Mrs. Louisa Bush. The bridegroom came here from New Castle about a year ago and operated a broker's office for John Larkin & Co., of Pittsburg, until they sold out to Spuhler & Co., about a month age. It is his intention to open his office again in the near fotore and make Bellefonte his permanent LOVE-COLE.-A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Cole, near Coleville, at o'clock last Thursday evening, when their daughter, Miss Vada L., was married to George Love, of Altoona, but formerly of Bellefonte. Only the immediate members the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. W. H. Spangler, of the United Brethren church. The bride was attended by the groom's best man. As Mr. Love, who is in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad company, could secure leave of ab--Announcement has been made of the sence for only three days they decided to

> HEBERLING-HOMLER.-Albert Heberling, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Heberling, of Mill Hall, but who has many relatives and friends in the western end of Centre

News Purely Personal -Charles Tripple, of Philadelphia, spent Sunlay with friends in Bellefonte.

-Sam Hart, of Steelton, spent Sunday with his ther and sisters in this place. -Porter W. Burkett, of Stormstown, tran eted business in Bellefonte on Monday. -Mr. and Mrs. George Love left on Sunday vening for their future home in Altoons

-That prince of good fellows, Harry F. Me Manaway, spent Monday night in Belle -Miss Clara Hastings and Miss Jennie Lose risited friends in Lock Haven over Sunday -Mr. and Mrs. William Dukeman, of Altoona isited friends in Bellefonte the later part of last week

-Miss Bessie Sommerville, of Winburne, is the est of her many friends in and about Belle-

-Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Nolan, of Curwensville, pent Sunday with Mr. Nolan's mother in this

-Mrs. Canfield and her two children have gone to Mrs. Louise Harris, where they will be for the

-Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilmore attended the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Bailey in Williamsport on Monday

-Miss Melissa T. Tonner, of Canton, Ohio, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Harris, on east Howard street.

-Miss Mary Cowdrick, of Niagara Falls, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. George Ingram, on east Lamb street.

-Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Green, of Altoona, were n Bellefonte several days this week visiting Mr. Green's relatives.

-After a two weeks visit with friends in Belle onte Miss Lizzie Gummo left for her home in -Mrs. Howard F. Gearbart, of Bellwood, has een visiting her mother. Mrs. Mary Fox, on east Bishop street, this week.

-Mrs. Samuel Sheffer returned on Monday from quite an extended visit with her sons. Lester and Herbert, at Milroy.

--Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith and John M Bullock and Miss Ella Musser spent last Friday making a little trip to Altoona.

Capt. Phil T. Garbrick, of Company B, return ed on Tuesday from Reynoldsville, where he had been employed in the glass works.

-Miss Mame McGarvey was in Williamsport this reek attending the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Photographers association.

-Mrs. Henry Haupt and little daughter Margaret, of this place, spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. LeRoy Fox, in Lock Haven. -Mr. C. D. Houtz, of Lemont, was in town on Wednesday attending to a little business. It was his first visit to the county seat for some time.

-George Mallory and sister, - Mrs. Heverly, vent to Altoona on Saturday and spent Sunday with their brother, Cal. Mallory, who is quite ill. -Hick Kellerman, who holds a good position with the telephone company, at Indiana, spent Sunday with his parents on the farm east of

-Stewart Pearce Jr., son of Stewart Pearce, of Conneaut, Ohio, is in Bellefonte visiting friends and while here is a guest at the home of S. D. -Mrs. W. C. Lingle and son Joseph, who were visiting Mrs. Lingle's daughter, Mrs. H. W. Todd, in Philipsburg, returned to their home in this place on Tuesday. -After spending several weeks very pleasant ly at the home of her nephew, Dr. Tryon, on Howard street, Mrs. Henry Elliott left for her home in Atlantic City on Tuesday.

-John S. Henderson, of Buffalo Run, was county, and Miss Carrie Homler, daughter arrival home from Philadelphia last Friday. He

-Miss May Bryan, of this place, is visiting riends in Tyrone

-Charles Richards, who spent the past two nonths in Lancaster, has returned hom Mr. and Mrs. Morris Runkie are spending the week in Spring Mills, Mr. Runkle's old hor -Mrs. Hanion with her little son George, were guests at the home of Philip Beezer over Sunday. -Mrs. Andrew Young and two children, of this place, spent Sunday with her parents at Wingate -John Woods Beckman, of Williamsport, spent Wednesday in Bellefonte, the guest of Henry Linn.

-Edward Hanscom, a clerk in the Bellefonte postoffice, made a business trip to Chicago the past week_

-Mrs. George Meese, who is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Rine, is suffering from a severe attack of erysipelas.

-Squire and Mrs. W. A. Murray, of Boalsburg, were in town yes terday doing some shopping and enjoying the fine weather we had.

-Mrs. J. Mac Heinle with her little son William, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shaughensey, on East Howard street,

-Mrs. George Meyer, of Philadelphia, will arrive in Bellefonte this evening on a visit to he mother, Mrs. Alice Showers, on Allegheny'street.

-Rev. Robert Kline, of Allentown, visited friends hereabouts over Sunday and that evening preached in the Episcopal church in this

-Dr. H. M. Hiller is now in Philadelphia attending the University of Pennsylvauia, in order to take up a special line of work in the medical pro-

-Among those who attended the funeral of Peter Francis McGovern, from a distance, were M. M. McLaughlin, of Connellsville; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Tobin, of Mt. Carmel, and M. McGov ern, of Mt. Carmel.

-D. A. Grove, of Lemont, was in town on Saturday, in that usual hurry of his. Dan, you know, is a busy man and one would think that he would let up some day but quite to the contrary, he seems to get deeper in it every day.

-H. F. Spotts, of Fleming, was in twon on Monday having come down to make a few pur chases and get ahead of the WATCHMAN for another year. Certain it is that the man with the "dough" can get ahead of the WATCHMAN every year.

-Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bible will leave today for an over Sunday visit with friends in Mt. Car mel. Miss Elsie, their daughter, will go with them as far as Lock Haven to participate in the pleasures of the convention in session there.

-Mr. and Mrs. Shearer, who have been spending the winter with their daughter, Mrs. James Stein, left for their home in Carlisle Thursday, to prepare for the celebration of their golden wedding on Monday. Mrs. Stein with the children will go down to-day, Mr. Stein expecting to join them Monday.

WILLARD'S BAZAAR .- D. I. Willard and son arrived in Bellefonte this week from Union City and are now as busy as can be getting their ten thousand dollar stock of goods ready for the opening of their new store in Crider's Exchange. It was their expectation to have their opening this week but the unpacking, marking and shelving of their goods is taking longer than they anticipated and it is hardly likely they will be open for patronage much before May first. Willard's Bazaar will be a general cash mercantile store, and because it will be a cash store everything will be sold at prices heretofore unheard of in Bellefonte. For fuller particulars see their advertisement in this issue. 19TH ANNUAL REUNION. - The 19th annual reunion of the Fifth Pennsylvania Reserves will be held at Northumberland, the old home of Co. B, on the second Wednesday in May. The old boys are being mustered out at a rapid rate, and the few that are left, or as many as can possibly do so, will gather at the above named place, on the 8th day of May to fight the battles of the Civil War over and over again. The Northumberland Comrades will so arrange the program that all visitors can start for their homes on the afternoon and evening trains. Arrangements are under way to secure excursion orders, and if successful, the orders will be sent to such comrades as may return their names to William Haves Grier, Secretary, Columbia, Pa.

can burn ashes or not, some people believe established.

he can and, as there was a saving in fuel in his demonstration at the electric light give him credit for same. And to show just what was done we publish the authentic statement of superintendent F. R. Buss-

is herself an actress of note and is now

-The Rev. James Boal, D. D., of Centre Hall, will preach in the Reformed church, Bellefonte, next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and in the Reformed church at Zion at 2:30 p. m.

-There will be quite an exodue of for Lock Haven today to join in the annual district convention and reunion of the I. O. O. F. in that place.

-Mr. Mrs. Jno. D. Hall, formerly of Bellefonte, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mabel Mae, to John A. Hetrick, of Sunbury, the wedding to take place the early part of June.

-Tuesday afternoon the horse attached to Roan's delivery wagon ran away. He went out Allegheny street, down Lamb and as far as the lime kilns before he was caught. The wagon was only slightly damaged.

-A big boy baby arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Osman, of south Spring street, Sunday morning, and the father was so pleased he could hardly attend to his business at Lauderbach, Barber company's wholesale grocery.

---- The Bellefonte Academy baseball seam went to Lock Haven last Saturday and defeated the Lock Haven Normal team by the score of 4 to 3. On Friday they were up at State College and played [the 'Varsity nine, losing by the score of 5 to 2.

-As usual the cry comes up from all parts of the county that the fruit crop has been badly damaged by the recent severe tle bit it is yet too early to make predictions and fruit growers had better possess their souls in patience yet a little while.

-A Polish wedding at St. John's Catholic church, at eight o'clock Tuesday morning, was that of Matthew Perchak and Mrs. Ellen Smuvikiers. Following the ceremony the newly married couple were driven to their home in the Collins row, near the Bellefonte furnace, where the customary feast and revelry were indulged.

-The comedy drama, "The Rector of St. Mark's," is to be presented at Garman's May 8th and 9th by local talent. It will be produced under the auspices of the Logan Engine Co. and under the direction trout has been holding forth in Spring of Mr. Vance, who put on the comedy "College Chums" so successfully here last fall, and as it is of the Brook variety and a The Logans are deserving of a big benefit and this should be it.

-On Tuesday George A. Beezer sold his dark dapple-gray team to Frank Habn, of the DuBois Brewing company. Since Beezer brought the team to town several horsemen, and well it might be, for it was one of the most valuable teams ever brought to the town. In fact, it was sold for more money than any team in a long time, as she price paid by Hahn was just $725.

o'clock and continued five hours, firing under 200 horse power boiler. Kilowatt output, 247.65; coal consumed, 3,100 pounds; reuse, one wheelbarrow load of clinkers. Fuel mixture consisted of three parts coal and one part ashes, this being all the ashes the furnace made during the test. To this fuel Odd Fellows and fellows who are not odd mixture was added 60 gallons of Ellmore's compound, composed of one quart of his mixed ingredients dissolved in 60 gallons of test the smoke from our stacks was considerably less than at other times.

> "Saturday night, under same conditions, the boilers were fired with pure coal for a period of five hours, with the following result : Kilowatt output, 270.79; coal consumed, 3,900 pounds. The comparison shows the consumption of coal used with Ellmore's mixture as 12.55 pounds an hour a kilowatt, rive home tomorrow. coal used without Ellmore's mixture, 14.40 pounds an hour a kilowatt ; saving of fuel with Ellmore's mixture, 1.85 pounds an hour a kilowatt, which amounts to a saving 12.84 per cent."

readers to know that Ellmore was at one here a number of years and learned his cobbler's trade under that well known shoemaker, John Powers.

THE PLAN A SUCCESS .- The plan of the Bellefonte Cemetery association for employing a man to care for lots during the summer season is meeting with great suc-Ce88.

Responses have been received daily since the first announcement was made, and still continue coming in at such a rate that cold weather. While it may be hurt a lit. the association has felt justified in making a contract with a good man to devote his entire time to this work from May 1st to October 1st.

> Some lot owners have been waiting to be assured of the success of the scheme before sending in their names, but we are glad to announce that there is no longer any doubt on that score, that the man has been employed and will begin work on May 1st.

Those who have not sent in their names and money to the treasurer should do so at

AN EDUCATED TROUT .- Ever since, the opening of the fishing season a nine inch creek, right opposite the WATCHMAN office, beauty, it looks very tempting to Bellefonte fishermen. In fact there is hardly an hour in the day that there is not some man or boy casting a fly over the trout, but he is evidently an educated fish and has learned his lesson well for only once has he risweeks ago it was the envy of all the local en to the fisherman's hook and that time it was only with a nibble. It is very likely that being in such close proximity to the WATCHMAN office is what makes him as smart as he is.

-Subscribe for the WATCHMAN.

Bellefonte on the 1.23 train Wednesday Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and afternoon for Auburn, N. Y. Mr. Ray Mrs. Heberling left on a ten day's wedding was up there last week and bought an au- trip which will include New York, tomobile from his consin, who has a large Philadelphia and other eastern cities. water and which cost five cents. During the garage and agency, and he and Crider went Upon their return they will go to honseup this week to bring the machine home. keeping in the bridegroom's newly furnish-Though the other automobilists in Belle- ed home in Mill Hall, where he is telefonte tried hard to find out what kind of a graph operator on the Bald Eagle Valley machine Mr. Ray purchased he would not railroad. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Hebtell them more than that it was a car, but erling was an operator in the Comprercial he made the assertion that it would eclipse telephone exchange in Lock Haven. anything in Bellefonte. They expect to ar-

-On Saturday evening as Joseph Harvey, of State College, was driving to Bellefonte his horse frightened when William Hoy attempted to drive around him. In It might be interesting to WATCHMAN endeavering to quiet and hold the animal one of the lines was broken and thus freed Ardle in the presence of quite a number of time a resident of Bellefonte. He lived the horse ran away. Mr. Harvey jumped guests, after which the newly married out and falling sustained a number of had couple were driven to the home of the bruises as well as had his clothing badly torn. The horse ran into Bellefonte and down Water street to Beezer's livery stable | Mrs. Saylor left the same morning for a where it stopped. Neither the buggy nor | wedding trip to St. Louis and other western barness were damaged but the horse's hind cities and on their return will take up their feet were cut by coming in contact with residence in Altoona where Mr. Saylor is the buggy.

> -----On Wednesday of last week a man who registered as Harry C. Palmer stopped at Fred Moseberger's Commercial hotel in Altoona, paying for his lodging in advance. He left the house early in the morning and soon afterwards it was discovered that a gold watch, valued at twenty dollars, nine dollars in cash, a five dollar string of gold beads and some other valuables were missing. In addition he got away with about forty-eight dollars' worth of valuables belonging to John Dugan, of this place, who is working in Altoona. Palmer was arrested the next day and is now in the Blair county jail to await trial before the next term of court.

-Miss Batte Hetule was one of the graduates at the commencement exercises of Ladlam's School of Dramatic Art and Eloqution in Patladelphia last week, and of course her father, Hon. William C. Heinle, went down to the Quaker city to witness the exercises. Of Miss Heinle it can be said that she is possessed of rare hi-trionic ability. She stood second in a class of liften and was the recipient of considerable praise and commendation from her teachers and classmates on the merit of her work. Her graduation oration was said to be one of the best delivered by any member of the class. Miss Heinle is still in Philadelphis visiting among her school friends but expects to return to Bellefonte some time next week.

quietly slipped off to Williamsport on Thursday afternoon of last week and were -Horton S. Ray and Hugh Crider left Methodist church by Rev. B. W. Mosser.

SAYLOR-MOOREHEAD-A seven o'clock wedding in the Catholic parsonage on Tuesday morning was that of Harry P. Savlor. son of Mr. and Mrs. Harland Saylor, of Valentine street, and Miss Ida Moorehead, of Homer City, Indiana county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Mcbridegroom's parents where a delicious wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and employed in the Pennsylvania railroad company's shops.

WASSON-BELL.-Robert U. Wasson, of Houserville, but who the past winter has been principal of the Aaronsburg High school, and Miss Mary Bell, daughter of Mrs. William Bell, of Pleasant Gap, and who was one of the school teachers at that place the past winter, were married at Elmira, N. Y., on Wednesday, December 26th, 1906, by Rev. Eli Pittman. The two young people kept their marriage a secret until last Thursday when announcement of the same was made. The wedding of Miss Bell was the third Pleasant Gap school teacher to be married within a year. Mr. and Mrs. Wasson will make their home in Aaronsburg.

HAZEL-OTTO .--- A wedding in which Bellefonters will be interested was that on Wednesday evening of Harry Hazel and Miss Mabel Otto, both formerly of Bellefonte, which took place at the home of the bride's grandfather, Mr. Morris Cowdrick, in Niagara Falls. About twenty-five guests were present to witness the ceremony which was performed by Rev. T. H. Orme, D. D., of St. James church. The bride was gowned in white and was unattended. For the not go to housekeeping but will room at a boarding house on Falls street. -----The foundation walls for the new parish house of the Episcopal church are almost completed.

nd several weeks in this of P. J. Homler, of Lock Haven, very before returning to the Quaker city.

-W. Gross Mingle, of Centre Hall, was an ove Tuesday night visitor in Bellefonte. He reports married at the parsonage of the Pine street the butter and produce business in Pennsvalley quite good but the market very unsteady. -N. B. Spangler went down to Philadelphia last week came home Wednesday accom panied by his wife. Mrs. Spangler has been in the city for a short time under the care

-Miss Hibbs, of Philadelphia, who is the guest of Mrs. E. H. Richard, is in Bellefonte to cele brate the opening of the new Richard house on Linn street, of which they hope to have full possession this week.

-Lieutenant George Runkle, who has been in Bellefonte and other parts of the county the past two weeks visiting friends, departed on Wednesday for Philadelphia to take up his duties as econd officer on the schoolship Saratoga. -Miss Mary Brown, of Lock Haven, was the guest last week of her sister, Mrs. Kyle Mc Farlanc. Miss Brown who has been in ill health for some time is anticipating a year in Frederick. Maryland, hoping to be benefitted by the change, -Mrs. Margaret Rosenhoover and Misses Edna Hamilton and Mary Moerschbacher, who accom panied the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond, to their new home in Drifting, Clearfield county, last week, returned to Bellefonte on Friday evening.

-Mrs. E. C. Cooke and daughter left on Tuesday for Senora, State of Cananea, Mexico, where they will join Mr. Cooke and where they expect to make their future home, as Mr. Cooke now holds a very good position with the Con solidated Copper Mining company.

-Most of the window glass factories in the State have closed for the summer season and Bellefonters who were working away from home returned on Saturday. Among the number were George Rhoads, Clay Rider and Allen Waite, with their families ; Abner Rider and Charles Gunsallus, all from Reynoldsville, and William Rider. from Kane.

-Robert V. Lyon, who now has his headquarters in Chicago while representing the Hagan Manufacturing company, laundry machinery manufacturers, spent Sunday with his parents-Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lyon, in this place. He was companied to Bellefonte by Miss Edith Sweeley, of Pittsburg, who was much pleased with her first visit to Bellefonte.

-J. P. Rockey, who is known far and wide as one of the best as well as one of the most successful farmers in Nittany valley, was up from Zion on Saturday and dropped in to the WATCHMAN office for a little chat. It is men of the Rockey type who make us wonder why all farmers are ot so contented and comfortable. They've all had the chance but haven't improved it.

-Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Smith, with their sor Artie, left for Nelson, Nebraska, yesterday afternoon, expecting to make their future home in that place. En route they expect to stop at Al. toona, Wilkinsburg and Chicago for little visits with friends. While Mr. Smith says his plans are not definite he intends to come back to Centre county the very minute he finds his health breaking.

-Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt left Bellefonte a noon yesterday for Boston from where he will sail tomorrow for Rome, Italy, to attend the fifth annual world's Sunday school convention present at least Mr. and Mrs. Hazel will which will be held there during May. The congregation of the Bellefonte Reformed church not only very graciously granted Rev. Schmidt leave of absence for six weeks or two months but last Sunday presented him with a purse of over one hundred dollars in gold to help defray his expenses. The congregation at Zion also cont ributed a purse of fifty dollars in gold.

PRIZES FOR CORN GROWERS .- One of the new features in the history of the Pennsylvania Live Stock Breeders' Association s the awarding of prizes for the best corn growers in the State in 1906. Sunday school superintendents in the rural districts and country villages who desire it can obtain packages of the first prize champion corf by sending a postal card request to No. 128 Spring St., Bellefonte.

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.

Potatoes per bushel. biggs, per dozen..... Lard, per pound.....

Sides.... Hams... 12 fallow, per pound... Butter, per pound. 25

Rellejonte Grain Market.

Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER,

The following are the quotations up o'clock, Thursday evening, when our pape wheat

Rye, per bushel
Aye, per odaneterine and a second and a second Corn, shelled, per bushel
Corn, ears, per bushel
Oats old and new, per bushel
Barley, per bushel
Ground Plaster, per ton 8 50 to 9
Buckwheat, per bushel
Cloverseed, per bushel
Timothy seed per bushel$2.00 to $2.

Philadelphia Markets.

The following are the closing prices of the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday evening.

Wheat-Red	79%@8
Corn -Yellow	the Sector in
Oats	45 5 10 - 5 2 75 2 5 2 9 - 5 1 4 50 g + 6
Baled hay-Choice Timot No. 1	3,000g-a,6 14.50g-21,0 16.00%-18.5
Straw	9.00@12.0

The Democratic Watchman.

Published every Friday morning, in Beliefonte Published every runn in paid strictly in savance) S1.60, when not paid in advance, and S2.60 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paper will be discontinued until all arrearage 19 paid, except at the option of the publisher. Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un less paid for in advance. A fiberal discount is made to persons advertis ing by the quarter, half year, or year, as follows

SPACE OCCUPIED	Sm	6m	1 1 9
Due inch (12 lines this type (wo inches	$ 5 7 10 12 20 35	$ 8 10 15 20 35 55	$ 10 15 25 35 50 10