Bellefonte, Pa., May 31, 1907.

Correspondents.-No communications pubshed unless accompanied by the real name of

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-A baby boy made its arrival in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Linn Blackford Thursday evening of last week.

-William I. Harter, of Blanchard, whose term of justice of the peace expired recently, has been appointed a notary pub-fish hatchery and deposited in the big

-The entertainment to be given by the pupils of the parochial schools will be held in the opera house on Thursday evening, June 13.

---James Nolan moved this week from the Beaver row to the rooms over the Gazette office recently vacated by John Larimer and family.

- On and after July first the name of the postoffice at Roland will be changed to Curtin, to correspond with the name of the railroad station at that place.

-The men who have been engaged the last three weeks in putting the bronze name plates on the soldiers monument have about completed their work.

-All of the public schools in the borough closed on Wednesday morning and the boys and girls are now anticipating the pleasures of their three months vacation.

-LeRoy Hogarth was given a pleasant little surprise party by his mother, on Saturday evening. Twelve of his young friends were present and all had a very en-

---- Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Garber Wednesday and yesterday were busy moving into and furnishing their own home, the Garman house, on east Linn street, where they will be at home to their friends in the near future.

-Owing to tomorrow being the day for primary elections all the bars in Centre | Bellefonte Academy. county will be closed from one o'clock in the aftertion until nine o'clock in the evening. This is in strict accordance with the provisions of the new uniform primaries law.

a reception to the engineering Seniors to be held on Friday evening, June 7th, at eight '07 were held on Wednesday afternoon in be up to the average this year. o'clock, at McAllister hall. Following the Petriken hall. As in former years the aureception there will be dancing from nine ditorium was crowded to the doors. Upon to twelve o'clock.

-Miss Ella Meyer, of Martha, graduated from the Bellefonte hospital training school for nurses last week and has been retained in the hospital as head nurse. Miss Emma Lorah, of Tyrone, and Miss Mar- and the program of class orations was as cella Bottorf, of Benore, have entered the follows: school to train for nurses.

-Mrs. Burns Crider is ill at her home on east Linn street with tonsilitis and her mother, Mrs. Richard Crittenden, is helping take care of her. Yesterday morning while going down stairs she slipped and fell outting a gash on her head which required several stitches to close.

---- Mrs. Charles McCoy, of Thomas street, has been in the chicken raising business this summer and had a very nice animal gained an entrance and killed forty of the young chicks, a loss that is quite keenly felt by the good woman.

---Quite a gathering of young people of Bellefonte and Spring township assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Kellerman, east of Bellefonte, last Thursday evening, and participated in an old fashioned barn dauce, in which the Virginia reel and good old square dances predominated .

-The shooting contest which has been going on for several weeks at T. Clayton Brown's gallery closed on Saturday night. W. S. Crispin, of Altoona, won the first prize of ten dollars; W. S. Weiland the second prize of five dollars and William Kline the third prize of two dollars and fifty cents.

-Col. Robert A. Cassidy, well known in Bellefonte, was an honorary pall-bearer graduating class will take to heart and enat the funeral of Mrs. William McKinley, on Wednesday. In this connection it might be said that Mr. Cassidy was also an honorary pall-bearer at President McKinley's funeral, that of his mother and also his brother Abner.

-W. R. Jenkins and Willard Hall are having more than their share of trouble with their auto-buggy. Just when they thought they had it in fine shape and it was able to make good time in smooth running order the engine was completely demolished, last Saturday morning, by one of the driving rods becoming loose.

-On Monday Gregg Post received from Owen W. Jones, of Philadelphia, the customary wreath contributed every year by the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps association for the decoration of the grave of the late "War Governor," Andrew G. Curtin. It was received in excellent condition and was carried to and placed on the grave by a delegation of the Post.

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT. - Amid black and profuse decorations of evergreen, potted plants and flowers five young men and nine vonny women were on Wednesday successfully launched on their own journey of life in the twenty fourth annual commencement of the Bellefonte High school. The class was the smallest graduated for a number of years, but though they lacked in numbers they were the equal in intelligence of former classes.

The commencement exercises proper bemon to the graduating class in the Methodist church. The class occupied the front which is of the best, but to the supervising pews and, in accordance with the custom principal and the board of directors back inaugurated last year, were arrayed in caps -On Wednesday fifty twelve inch and gowns. Rev. Stein took as the snbtrout were brought to Bellefonte from the ject of his sermon, "On the threshold of life's possibilities," and his discourse throughout was replete with words of good advice to both the young men and wo-

> Monday evening the Junior declama tory contest for the Reynolds prize was held in Petriken hall, which was crowded with friends of the class of '08, as well as patrons of the school generally. There jects, were as follows:

"Death-bed of the Unknown,"......George Leppard Harold B. Gardner. "John Gresham's Gethsemane," ... Agnes L. Pratt Rachel E. Shuey.

'The Fatal Effects of Slavery," Henry Ward Wilbur H. Kreamer.

'The Haven of the Oppressed,"....Louis Kossuth Ogden B. Malin, 'The Queen of the Bees,''.....Julia Magruder Grace H. Crawford. The Old Fashioned Man of God''...John R. Paxton J. Walter Rishel.

'Ginevra,''.....Susan Coolidge Besse A. Miles, 'A Child of Sacrifice,".....Sharlot M. Hall Abbie M. Cook.

Every one of the above had been well drilled and spoke their pieces very well so that it was a difficult matter to select the winners, but after proper deliberation and consultation the first prize was awarded to Miss Bessie A. Miles, of Milesburg, and the second to Miss Rachel E. Shuey, of Bellefonte. The judges were Prof. H. R. Higley, of State College, Rev. Edwin G. Richardson and Jesse F. Stinard, of the Onite naturally the social event of the three days was the alumni reception to the Senior class which was given in the armory on Tuesday evening. Though the decorations were perhaps not as elaborate as they -Mr. and Mrs. John Raymond will have been in previous years the attendance take charge of the Bellefonte poor house was much larger than ever before, illustrattomorrow, a change made necessary be- ing very fully and satisfactorily that the cause of the very serious illness of Mrs. Le- Bellefonte High school alumni association vi Whippo, who with her husband has has grown to be a recognized factor in the been in charge of the poor house the past educational world and their annual recep---- Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Reber, of event of more than ordinary social import-

The graduating exercises of the class of the stage were seated in a semi-circle the members of the class, arrayed in caps and gowns, while in their rear sat the members of the school board and High school faculty. Jonas E. Wagner, principal, presided,

Salutatory and Essay-Motives of Intellectual

Helen K. Robb.A Land of fruits and Flowers F. Jane Hafer.Era of Continental Railways John A. Rankin, Mildred Grimm.

Benjamin F. Swartz. S. Helen Stover.

Biographical Essay......George Bancroft

Oration and Valedictory The State as a Factor in World Peace Clair M. Seibert.

Elsie C. Bidwell. Expositions an Index of Progres E. Blair Fisher.Restriction of Immigration Norman M. Kirk.

Leah D. Woodson. As stated in last week's WATCHMAN first honors were taken by Clair M. Seibert and second bonors by Helen K. Robb.

Wednesday evening Petriken hall was again crowded by those anxious to hear the commencement address by Hon. Henry Houck. Mr. Houck is no strauger in the scarcity of farm help. Whereas here-Bellefonte as he has appeared at teacher's institutes here at various times, but the address be made on Wednesday evening was considered one of the best he has ever made in Bellefonte; and if the members of the deavor to heed one-fourth the good advice he gave them there will be no doubt of their success in the future. Following Mr. Houck's address Hon. William C. Heinle, president of the school board, presented the diplomas to the members of the graduating class and awarded the various prizes, as follows;

The W. F. Reynolds general excellence prize, $10-Clair M. Seibert.

The J. C. Meyer biographical prize, $10-Harriet E. Ray.

The Harry Keller mathematical prize, $10-Clair M. Seibert. The W. F. Reynolds junior declamma tory contest, first prize, $10-Bessie A. The Geo. R. Meek spelling prize, $5-

Raymond R. Jenkins. The Geo. R. Meek book-keeping prize

$5-Anna Dawson. The Geo. R. Meek literary prize, $10divided between Marjorie McGinley and

The D. A. R. revolutionary essay the flaunting of their class colors of red and | prize,-five dollars each to Clair Robb and Elsie Altendorfer.

It would be out of place to close this arthat the music for all the week's exercises and that in itself is assurance that it was all that could be desired.

And thus another school year has rolled gree of efficiency exacted by those in charge. be given not alone to the teaching force,

--- J. E. Danning, who the past winter was one of the successful teachers in the Bellefonte High school, last week sent his household goods to Osceola Mills where he and his wife will take up their residence while Mr. Dunning is pursuing his studies for the ministry.

who is well known throughout the entire March first rumors were thick, and quite a western end of the county, as he is a native number of persons were under suspicion. were ten contestants who, with their sub- of Ferguson township, suffered a second Detectives were put on the case and it was at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ida months that any definite move was made Rothrock. It is the earnest hope of his and then it was the arresting of Jacob many friends that he will recover.

> -Tuesday morning was so cold that overcoats were in demand and only the high wind of the night previous prevented a heavy frost and consequent freezing of the crops. But it was some consolation, nevertheless, to read in the papers of that morning that a warm wave was somewhere this side of the pacific coast and traveling ton, of Petersburg, Va., have issued invi- rest, which was made by the detectives tations for the marriage of their daughter, while he was sick. But after the arrest Miss Jane Stith Hinton, to John Miller was made he did all he could to get out of Gates, of Tyrone. The bridegroom elect the case all that was in it, and now is perare well known in Bellefonte and who have secure even enough substantial evidence to a number of relatives in the eastern part of warrant putting From on trial.

-Thursday of last week Conrad Miller, of this place, finished the abutments for the inter-county bridge over the Beech Creek at Hubbards. The iron superstructure is expected in a few days when it will be placed in position and then, for the first time since the old bridge was washed a way in the flood of 1902, will travelers be able to cross that stream on a bridge.

-The rain of last Saturday night, Sunday and Monday came at a most opportune time for the farmers as well as gardeners. The ground was quite dry and hard, espetions looked forward to by many as an a good time to start the corn sprouting and this place and stated when the body would becomes warmer and stays so there will be no reason why the crops should not derwent an operation in the Bellefonte hospital ten days ago, has recovered sufficiently to be able to go to her home in Millheim last Friday. In fact the operation was a comparatively slight one, as it was stated in the WATCHMAN last week, a correction we are only too pleased to make.

-The Fifth Regiment bugle corps made its first public appearance last Friday evening when it furnished the music for a public exhibition drill of company B. There were just twelve members of the corps in ranks, or five short of the total, but even with that number their playing was very fair and showed the result of some training and practice. The soldier boys drilled like veterans and were watched by a large crowd.

-Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus Pletcher announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Alma Pletcher, to Howard Arthur Robb, on Wednesday, May 22nd, at their home in Pittsburg. The Pletchers and Mr. Robb formerly lived in Centre county, in the neighborhood of Howard, and the marriage of the young people will be of interest to their friende in that locality. The young couple will take up their residence at 558 Second street, Pitcairn.

--- There is universal complaint among the farmers throughout Centre county over tofore farmers have paid sixteen and eighteen dollars a month, with bouse rent, cow pasture, fruit, etc., free, now farm hands are demanding from twenty to twenty-five dollars a month with the same perquisites, while single men want from $1.00 to $1.25 a day with the privilege of a horse and buggy whenever desired. This condition is industrial establishments, with the ad- tin, president of the association, gives ditional allurements of town or city life.

-Last Friday a large number of Bellefonters attended the State-Franklin and Marshall baseball game on Beaver field at State College and witnessed a very much one-sided contest, State defeating the visitors by the score of 9 to 0. McCleary pitched for State and struck out twenty men, allowing only one man to reach second base and not allowing the visitors a hit Normal base ball team, at Meadowbrook until the last inning. On Saturday State park, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Miles; second prize, $5-Rachel E. Shuey. met her match in the Carnegie Tech school | Academy defeated the Normal team in team, of Pittsburg. After playing eleven Lock Haven several weeks ago by the innings with the score standing 3 to 3 the score of 4 to 3, and the visitors will ungame had to be called on account of the doubtedly try to even up the score tomorwinning the latter by the score of 56 to 48. one. The attendance should be large, and This week State made her last trip away don't forget the price of admission is but

JACOB FROM DISCHARGED .- After being in jail since the first of March on the charge of murdering Josiah Dale, of Centre Hall, Jacob From, of the same borough, was reticle without at least mentioning the fact leased on Monday and returned home. So glad was he when turned out of jail that was furnished by Christy Smith's orchestra he walked with buoyant step down High street to Spring creek then started out Water street on his way for the eight mile walk to Centre Hall, evidently preferring around and the patrons have again had an to foot it than to wait in Bellefoute until opportunity to see for themselves the de- his son James could be communicated with and drive over after him. From's release gan on Sunday evening when Rev. James The Bellefonte schools now rank higher was ordered by the court following an ar-B. Stein preached the baccalaureate ser- than ever before and credit for this must gument by the attorneys on both sides of the case last Thursday, which led to a nolle prosse being agreed upon. Under the present status of the case, therefore, From is not exempt from re-arrest should the authorities at any time secure evidence which would tend to connect him with the crime, will be the case.

And this leaves the mystery of the murder of Josiah Dale, so far as the public is informed, just as deep as ever. From the time Dale was shot on the night of Novem--William Hess, of Philipsburg, but ber 12th up until the arrest of From on stroke of paralysis last Saturday evening, only after they had been at work for three From and his son James. They were both held in jail until the latter part of March when they were given a babeas corpus hearing, at which it was the general opinion that not sufficient evidence had been produced to warrant holding Mr. From for trial. But as there was a certain element of suspicious circumstances connected with Mr. From's conduct subsequent to the murder he was held and his son turned out on bail. Now, it is said, the district at---- Judge and Mrs. Drury Andrew Hin- torney was never in favor of From's aris a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Gates, who feetly frank in stating that he could not

And now it is no secret that suspicion rests on other parties but whether the authorities will be able to make out a case against them remains to be divulged in the

ENSIGN BRISBIN'S BODY HERE.-The remains of Ensign Alfred Terry Brishin. whose untimely end was told in the WATCHMAN last week, arrived in Bellefonte on the 9.30 train yesterday morning. They were conveyed from Cuba to New York on the ship Moro Castle. Immediately upon their arrival there Admiral Tausig, commandant! at the Brooklyn cially limestone land, and the rain was at navy yard, notified Col. J. L. Spangler in bring the cats along. Now if the weather be forwarded to Bellefonte. It came here in charge of Ensign Hillard, of the Brooklyn navy yard, who was under orders to simply deliver the body in Bellefonte and take a receipt for it and return at once. -Mrs. Jerome Spigelmeyer, who un- Having performed that duty he continued on the same train to Lock Haven on his way east. Ensign Hillard, by the way, did not even know Ensign Brisbin. From the train the body was taken to the home of Col. J. L. Spangler, being aconly a small tumor Mrs. Spigelmeyer had companied there by only the pall-bearers. removed and not an operation for caucer as The funeral will be held from the Spangler residence at 11 o'clock this morning, interment to be made in the Union cemetery.

> BELLEFONTE ACADEMY RECEPTION .-The annual reception of the Bellefonte Academy will be held next Friday evening June 7th, from 7.30 to 10 o'clock. As usual, all former students of the Academy, as well as the patrons, friends and supporters of the institution, and students of the Bellefonte schools are invited to attend. As there will be no cards of invitation this notice is meant by the Academy authorities as a general invitation to all, and it is hoped it will be universally accepted. The reception this year promises to be even larger than in former years.

CLINTON AND CENTRE W. C. T. U .- A joint meeting of W. C. T. U. workers of Clinton and Centre counties will be held in the Methodist church at Howard on Tuesday, June 4th. The first session will be held in the afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. A. M. Clees, president of the Centre county association, will preside and the elaborate program prepared insures a very interesting meeting. In the evening a mass meeting will be held which will be addressed by Miss Christine I. Twingling, a celebrated speaker from London, England. The publie is invited to attend.

CENTRE COUNTY ASSOCIATION PICNIC -Arrangements have been completed for the fourth annual basket pionic of the Centre County Association of Philadelphia, which will be held at Belmont Mansion, due entirely to the better wages paid at Saturday, June 22od. Dr. Roland G. Curassurance that the forthcoming picuic will be attended by the largest gathering of Centre county people ever assembled in Philadelphia at one time. All Centre countians, whether residents of the Quaker city or merely visitors, are cordially invited to attend. BASE BALL TOMORROW. -The Bellefonte Academy will play the Lock Haven State-Lafayette dual track meet, State row, so that the game should be a good

News Purely Personal

-Mrs. G. Willard Hall returned last Friday rom a pleasant visit with friends in Williamsport -Mrs. Benner Graham, who spent two weeks mong Bellefonte friends, left last Saturday for her home in Philadelphia.

-Mrs. James K. Barnhart and children will leave today for Punxsutawney for a three week's visit with Mrs. Barnhart's mother. -Walter Whippo, of Wilkinsburg, has been in Bellefonte the past week on account of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Levi Whippo. -H. C. Warfel, of Philipsburg, came over or Monday expecting to do a week's courting and naturally was quite disgusted when court adjourn-

-Mrs. I. H. Willard and family arrived in Bellefonte from Union City last Thursday and with Mr. Willard have gone to housekeeping in the Cooke house on east Linn street. -Mrs. C .N. Meserve with her son Ralph and daughter Ruth are now in Wilkesbarre for a brief visit with friends, after which they will take quite an extended trip through New York State. though it is not thought likely that such -On Sunday Morris Baum accompanied his sister, Miss Freda Baum, to New York, where she > is taking treatment from a specialist. She expects to be away until the latter part of June. -Ralph "rafford, who now holds a very good > vay, was home over Sunday visiting his parents. Mr. and Mrs. John Trafford on Spring street. -Mrs. Roland Kelly, of Beaver Falls, has been visiting friends in this place the past fortnight. She is a daughter of Mrs. Mary Ann Johnston and this is her first visit to Bellefonte in three

-Mrs. Elizabeth Reeder who has been since the middle of January, with friends in the eastern part of the State and Atlantic City, came to Bellefonte Saturday, expecting to be here for the Summer.

Somerset on Spaday to attend the funeral of his brother, William Parker, who died quite suddenly in a Philadelphia hospital. The funeral was held

-Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Burns, of Alliance, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. James A. Thompson, of Homestead, were in Bellefonte for commencement, and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Grimm, of Thomas street.

-Dr. John Keichline of Petersburg, Miss Anne Keichline, who is a student at State and Miss MacFeeley also of State College, were over-Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Keichline at their ome on Bishop street.

-John W. Hall, of Sunbury, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Susanna Hall, of Howard, were in Bellefonte last Friday on business pertaining to the settlement of the estate of the late John Newlin Hall, of Howard.

Downingtown, where she will spend the Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Breese, stopping a short while in Philadelphia, she will go on to Albany for an indefinite length of time. -Mrs. LeRoy Fox, of Lock Haven, was called to her home in this place the latter part of last

-Mrs. Mose Burnet, will leave next week for brother and sister. Arthur and Margaret Haupt, both children having pneumonia. -Grant Charles, who for the past six months or so has officiated as second clerk at the Bush house, has resigned his position to go to Ridgway to become head clerk at the Hyde house. He wi week on account of the serious illness of her leave here about the 10th of June. -Guy McEntyre came in from Wilkinsburg on Tuesday, just for the purpose of attending the High School Alumni reception that evening and he was not at all backward in confessing after it was over that it was well worth the trip.

-E. B. O'Reilly, the Lock Haven broker and a of the WATCHMAN, and his friend Mr. Krum, whose father at one time kept a botel in this place. were Bellefonte visitors on wednesday and ten minute callers at this office.

-Winfield S. Brisbin, of DuLuth, Minn., a brother of the late Ensign Alfred T. Brisbin, arrived in Bellefonte Saturday night. Miss Margaret Brisbin arrived from West Chester Sunday afternoon and during the week the two have been guests at the home of their uncle and aunt. Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler. -Mrs. H. D. Meek, her two children, Ruth and Margery and Miss Nannie Bailey, of State College, spent several days the latter part of last week in Williamsport, having gone there to be present at a music recital given at Dickinson Seminary in which Miss Ester Campbell, a sister of Mrs Meek, Mrs. Samue! Kreamer. took a very prominent part. -Homer L. Justice, an old Bellefonte boy but who for some time past has been working as a brakeman on the Pittsburg division of the Pennsylvania railroad, was thrown from his train near Blairsville two weeks ago and so badly injured before he was able to come to his home in this -Attorney James H. Gleason, of DuBois, who is more familiarly referred to as the "tall Sycamore of the Wabash," came to Bellefonte Mondaytwith the expectation of trying a case in court but as it time in sightseeing in company with John C. Rowe, and wherever they went they were pointed out as the "long and short of it."

-Dr. Louis Tryon and Mrs. Philip Beezer at daughter, Miss Rose, were three Bellefonters wh were in Pottsville on Sunday attending the fir mass said by Father George Shay, a brother Miss Shay, the professional nurse so well know in Bellefonte. Father Shay recently graduate from the St. Charles Seminary at Overbrook as was just ordained to the priesthood on Sunday.

-Mrs. Margaret F. McKinney, widow of th late Alexander McKinney, of Benner; townshi was a caller at this office on Monday. She h sold her little property on the mountain abou Coleville and will come to Bellefonte to live; as will be less lonely than where she did live. Mr McKinney is a woman who deserves every ho in the day to be a pleasant one and we hope s will find them so.

-Included in the Centre county delegation w attended the annual conclave of the Knigh Templar in Harrisburg this week were Capt. at Mrs. A. C. Mingle, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. A. C. Mr. and Mrs. William L. Steele, Mr. and Mr Theodore Cherry, Archibald Allison, D. G. Stewar M. I. Gardner, Geo. T. Bush, Frank Warfield and Mrs. C. M. Bower, ot Bellefonte; William Weber, and Dr. W. F. Kurtz, of Howard; M. S. McDowe and Dr. John I. Robinson, of State College.

-Mr. John Conley, father of our townsman, J. Will Conley, was in Bellefonte on Monday and favored the WATCHMAN with not only a business visit but a very pleasant social call. Several years ago Mr. Conley decided to leave the farm, move to Centre Hall and take life easy but after living the very active life he always had, prior to that time, both he and Mrs. Conley found the time hanging too heavily on their hands and last year they returned to the farm. Of course they do not engage in the hardest of the farm work, but oversee everything and work at whatever their fancy night dictate. Instead of growing such a big creage of wheat last year Mr. Conley grew more grass and had an abundant hay crop. He also gave particular attention to his fruit erop and to the growing of turkeys and chickens making his returns far greater than if he had devoted his time exclusively to wheat and the various grains. Just now he is getting things in shape for the installation of a Pennsylvania telephone in his home and then he will have all the conveniences of a home in town and yet be living on his farm.

-Mrs. Alfred Engles Blackburn of Philadelphia, ame to Bellefonte Tuesday, to attend the funeral of Ensign Brisbin

-W. F. Hill, Master of the State Grange, was in Bellefonte between trains an Saturday on his way to State College.

-I. J. Dresse and his daughter Helen, of Lemont were in Bellefonte Tuesday, the day was spent transacting business. -Hon. John Hamilton passed through Bellefonte Friday on his way from Washington, D. C., - Miss Georgia Sanderson, and Cloyd Schuss, of Huntingdon, are the guests of Miss Bessie Brouse, at her parents home on Thomas street. -Mrs. W. E. Seel, of Harrisburg, was an arrival in town Wednesday evening for a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Fauble. -Tom McClain, of Patton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McClain, of Spangler, is spending a few days with Bellefonte friends this week -Mrs. Reddard Martz, of Pottsville, who for the past week has been a guest of Miss Overton, at the Academy, left yesterday for her home. -Mrs. Storm with three of her children left Bellefonte for Chicago Tuesday afternoon, expecting to make a long visit with friends in that city. -Miss Roxy and Miss Helen Mingle were both nembers of the big party of Bellefonters in Harrisburg this week at the Conclave of the Knight Templars. -Mrs. J. Irvin underwood and little son, of Renovo, have been guests the past week at the nome of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Underwood, on Spring street, -Mrs. George Fasig with her sons Jerry and James, and her daughter-in-law, all of Williamsport, were guests, on Decoration Day, of Mrs. Katherine Fasig.

-Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cherry after attending the Conclave in Harrisburg went on to Philadelphia where they will be until Saturday, the guests of their daughter.

-Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Garber left at noon Friday for New Castle, for a short visit with Mr. Garber's parents. They returned to Bellefonte Monday morning.

-Little Miss Francis Twitmire went with her grandfather to Lewisburg Tuesday, where she will spend ten days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Underwood.

-Mrs. Harry Yeager and two children accom panied Mrs. George W. Kerstetter to her home in Harrisburg, last Saturday, and have been her guests there this week.

-Miss Margaret Furey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Furey, with her sister, Mrs. S. Webb Kerstetter, of Punxsutawney, left the latter part of last week for an extended visit with friends in New York and in Plainfield, N. J.

-The Bellefonte Electric company recently purchased from Albert J. Schad and William Brown the vacant lot adjoining the electric light plant that they bought some time ago from William P. Humes. It is the company's intention to build a new addition to their building to be used as an office and stock room while the present office and stock room will be thrown into the main part for the installation of an additional set of dynamos.

ROSSMAN-DINGES .- A wedding that was considerable of a surprise to her many friends was that of Miss Anna Dinges, of Centre Hall, who quietly slipped away to Williamsport last week and on Tuesday was married to John Rossman, a former Centre countian but now a wealthy lumberman in the south. The cerem performed by Rev. Kerns, of the Evangeligal church. The marriage was the happy culmination of an attachment which sprang up between the two when they were both quite young. BENNER - STOVER .- Clarence Benner and Miss Bertha Stover, both of Benner township, were quietly married at the Methodist parsonage at Pleasant Gap, last Thursday evening, by Rev. J. B. Durkee. Following the ceremony a reception was tendered the young couple and wedding dinner served at the home of Mr. and

JONES-CARTER .- On Wednesday evening of last week Harvey Jones, of Danville. and Miss Lettie Carter, of Bellefonte, were united in marriage at the home of the that he was in the Johnstown hospital for ten days | bride's mother, by Rev. Herrington, of the A. M. E. church. They left the next day on a wedding trip through southern cities, after which they will go to housekeeping in Dauville.

Bellefonte Produce Markets.

Corrected weekly by Sechler & Co.

	Potatoes per bushel (0
	Onions
d	Eggs, per dozen
	Lard, per pound 11
0	Country Shoulders 10
st	Sides 10
of	Hams 15
	Tallow, per pound
n	Butter, per pound 22
d	Entrangue de la constant de la const
d	Rellefonte Grain Market.
u	neuefoute Grain Market.
	Compated models by C V W.
10	Corrected weekly by C. Y. WAGNER,
	The following are the quotations up to siz
p,	o'clock, Thursday evening, when our paper goes 18	press:
e	Wheat 80
	Rye, per bushel £0
it	Corn, shelled, per bushel 50
9.	Corn, ears, per bushel
ır	Oats old and new, per bushel 55
1735	Barley, per bushel 48
1e	Ground Plaster, per ton 8 50 to 9 50
	Buckwheat, per bushel 50
	Cloverseed, per bushel
10	Timothy seed per bushel$2.00 to $2.25
ts d
1000	Philadelphia Markets.
le
8.	The following are the closing prices of
t.	the Philadelphia markets on Wednesday
	THE AMERICA PROPERTY AND THE THEORY

Wheat—Red....... " -No. 2 Corn —Yellow...... " -Mixed new - Winter, Per Br'l. "—Penna. Roller "—Favorite Brands.. Rye Flour PerBr'l....... Baled hay—Choice Th

The Democratic Watchman. Published every Friday morning, in Bellefonte Pa., at $1.00 per annum (if paid strictly in advance) $1.50, when not paid in advance, and $2.50 if not paid before the expiration of the year; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearage is paid, except at the option of the publisher.

Papers will not be sent out of Centre county un less paid for in advance.

A liberal discount is made to persons advertis

SPACE OCCUPIED 3m 6m 1y $ 5 | $ 8 | $ 10 •• 7 10 | 15 •• 10 | 15 | 25 •• 12 | 20 | 35 •• 20 | 35 | 50 •• 35 | 55 | 10 One inch (12 lines this type