Democratic State Committee Rooms. Harrisburg, Pa., June 14th, 1907. In pursuance of the action of the Democratic State Central Committee, at a special meeting held in this city on Thursday, June 13th, 1907, notice is hereby given that the Democratic State Convention will meet at 11 o'clock a. m., in the Lyceum Theatre, Harrisburg, Thursday, June 27th, 1907. The business for which the convention is called will be to place in nomination a candidate for State Treasurer and act upon and determine such other matters pertaining to the welfare and success of the party in Pennsylvania, as may be properly brought before it.

CHARLES P. DONNELLY, Chairman. P. GRAY MEEK, Scoretary.

A Big, Juley Melon.

Last Tuesday the Adams Express company cut one of the biggest and juciest melons for the benefit of its stockholders when it announced that the board of directors had decided on a two hundred per cent. dividend distribution, amounting in all to $24,000,000. And it must have been with considerable elation that the PENROSEcontrolled members of the Legislature read the above news and then considered that they helped to contribute the melon when they refused at the last session to pass a bill compelling the company to pay the equitable amount of taxes it should pay in accordance with the provisions of its charter.

Twenty-four million dollars is a big sum. in fact just double the express company's entire capitalization. Of course the amount will not be paid the stockholders in actual cash, but will be given to them in forty year collateral bonds, bearing four per cent. interest. And when the fact is considered that just nine years ago the company made a similar distribution of a one hundred per cent. dividend, or $12,000,000, and that the present distribution comes as the result of the accumulated surplus during the past nine years, it can readily be seen how the public at large is being robbed by the exorbitant charges of the company.

The Adams Express company is a common carrier and as such is as much subject to having their charges regulated by an act o more people than a two cent railroad package carried from Philadelphia to Belle- being made in the Pine Hall cemetery. fonte will cost the recipient thirty-five cents, while a certain Bellefonter a week or two ago was compelled to pay sixty cents tre countian, died at his home in Prairie New York to Bellefonte.

Plant All Kinds of Produce

HOWARD, Pa., June 11th, 1907, Mr. Editor :

With your permission will ask you to insert alfew lines for us. As the spring has been somewhat backward we would like to urge the farmers, especially those who can reach the canning factory with produce, to plant all they possibly can, as the next fall's demand for canned goods will be greater than any previous year. We need all you can grow, especially tomatoes. As the spring has been late surely the fall will be late.

The corn may have missed some places in your corn field, plant those places with tomato plants; they will come with the corn. Or if part or all of your corn has failed plant with sweet corn. Plenty of time for it to mature for canning purposes. Hope all the pumpkin seeds which were distributed have been planted, as we will handle many tons of pumpkins this fall.

Refugee and Golden wax beans can be planted within the next two weeks, will be in on time. Beans and corn at J. Will Mayes' marble works, Howard. Tomato plants for factory use at Mrs. Johnsons, near Long's mill. Howard. $2.00 per thousand to those planting for factory use.

Yours respectfully. W. F. LEATHERS.
