Hon. John G. Harman Nominated.

The Democratic State Convention convened in the Lyceum theatre, Harrisburg, yesterday, with a full representation of delegates from every county in the State. There was great enthusiasm and the platform adopted is a strong arraignment of the Republican machine for the colossal capitol frauds and pledges the party to unceasing effort to bring to the severest penalty of the law every guilty participant in the robbery of the tax payers.

State Treasurer BERRY presided over the convention and his brilliant speech brought the body to its feet with cheers of enthusiasm at frequent intervals. By acclamation the Hon. JOHN G. HARMAN, of Columbia county, was nominated for State Treasurer and meso, irrespective of party, who believe that that office should be kept away from machine control, were called upon to support him.

DEATH OF HARRISON KLINE.—Ex-county treasurer Harrison Kline died at his home on east High street on Tuesday morning after an illness of almost one year's duration. He was compelled to quit farming last spring on account of his health and moved to Bellefonte. A month or so ago he was taken to a Philadelphia hospital where his illness was diagnosed as nervous stomach trouble. Returning home he began a course of dietetic treatment but complications set in and his death resulted.

Deceased was a native of Snyder county, having been born near Troxleville, May 12th, 1841, thus being 66 years, 1 month and 13 days old. His parents, George and Elizabeth Kline were farmers and in 1856 they came to Centre county and located on a farm in Pennsylvally. On November 12th, 1863, he was united in marriage to Miss Annetta Gentzel, by whom he had four children, now living. They are: Mrs. Elmer Showers and D. M. Kline, of Spring township; Henry Kline, now sheriff of Centre county, and Robert, of Bellefonte. Royer, of this place, and the following brother and sisters: Rev. Robert Kline, of Allentown; Mrs. Harry Meese, of State College, and Mrs. W. A. Ishler and Miss Alice Kline, of Bellefonte.
