

HEADLESS BODY OF BOY FOUND

Lad Kidnapped in New Orleans Was Killed By Abductors.

New Orleans, June 24.—Two miles in the interior of a big swamp near this city, the headless body of Walter Lamana, an Italian child, 7 years old, who was kidnapped and held for $6000 ransom two weeks ago, was found. He had been strangled to death, according to the confession of one of several Italians held by the police.

Five Italians, two of them women, are under arrest, charged with being accomplices to the murder, and extra details of police and deputies are maintaining order in the excited Italian quarter of the city.

The murdered boy was found near St. Rose, about 20 miles from New Orleans. A sweating process wrung a confession from one of the Italian suspects, who was taken from his home in St. Rose and carried into the woods by combined force of officials and vigilantes who had the search in charge. This man, Ignazio Campicigiano, was kept in the woods an hour, when he confessed, charging four Italians with the murder. He said that about the time of a mass meeting in New Orleans, more than a week ago, held for the purpose of prosecuting search for the boy, these men, who were in a vacant house in St. Rose, became frightened and consulted about what to do with the child. The boy was crying, begging to be taken home to his parents, said Campicigiano, and one of the quartet of kidnapers grabbed the child and strangled him to death to stop his noise. Later two of the kidnapers, he said, came to him carrying the body in a blanket, and after threatening him with death if he told the body into a swamp.

Campicigiano, after relating this story, led the police through two miles of swamp, where the searchers sometimes waded in water nearly waist deep, and at others crawled under tangles of briars. In a shallow pool at the end of this search the body was found in the blanket in a clump of cane.

SNOW, RAIN, LIGHTNING, WIND

Storms of Various Kinds in Various Parts of the Country.

Williamsport, Pa., June 25.—The most severe thunder shower in years visited Williamsport and caused the game between Williamsport and Altoona to end in the fourth inning, with the score five to nothing, in favor of Williamsport. Lightning struck many places, among them the grand stand at the base ball grounds. A number of people were shocked, the most serious being Rube Vickers, the Williamsport pitcher, who was sitting on a chair in the club house under the grand stand and was thrown to the floor. One man was knocked down and a woman received a severe burn on the arm.

SUICIDE AT GIRL'S HOME

Maryland Young Man Shoots Himself After Drive With Sweetheart.

Frederick, Md., June 25.—Roger Montgomery, aged 19 years, committed suicide by shooting himself on the lawn in front of the home of Miss Lela Nelkirk, near Monrovia, this county. Montgomery and the young lady had been driving during the afternoon, and he left the Nelkirk home about midnight apparently in the best of health and spirits. Later members of the family were awakened by the sound of a pistol shot, and upon investigating found Montgomery on the lawn, a pistol by his side. He was unconscious and died soon after. No cause for the act is known.

Pays Old Egg Bill.

Columbus Grove, O., June 24.—George Featheringill, one of the oldest settlers of this township, has just received a letter containing 25 cents to pay for eggs stolen from his farm 25 years ago. The writer stated that he was going through this part of the country in search of work. He had no money, and when he saw the eggs he ate them to relieve his hunger.

Books, Magazines Etc.

THE JULY McClure's.—The July McClure's is unique in features. There are six of them and a more interesting issue of any magazine would be hard to find. "Will the 'American' Fly to the Pole?" by Walter Wellman is a fairy story of reality—Ellen Terry in "When I was Married" tells of her romantic marriage to the painter, Watt, when she was not quite sixteen. Carl Schurz dramatically paints "The Battle of Gettysburg."

Trotting Races at Clearfield—Reduced Rates via P. R. R.

On account of the Trotting Meeting at Clearfield, Pa., July 4 to 6, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Clearfield, July 5 and 6, good returning until July 8, from all stations on the Tyrone Division; from Bellefonte; from Newton Hamilton, Lilly and Intermediate stations; from Dent's Run, New Bethlehem and Intermediate stations; from Johnsonburg, Falls Creek and Intermediate stations, and from Dugueschanda, at rate of two cents a mile distance travelled (minimum rate 25 cents.) Consult Ticket Agents.

PHILADELPHIA'S GREAT WEEK.

It is now time to think about the summer vacation.

If you cannot spare more than a few days away from duty, the popular ten-day seashore excursions of the Pennsylvania Railroad present splendid opportunities for rest and recreation at a minimum cost.

This season ten-day excursions will be run on the following dates:

Thursdays, July 11 and 25 and August 8 and 22.

Tickets, good for return passage within ten days including date of excursion, will be sold to Atlantic City, Cape May, Anglesea, Wildwood, Holly Beach, Ocean City, Sea Isle City, and Avalon.

The round-trip rate to either of these resorts from Bellefonte will be $5.85 via the Delaware River Bridge Route, and $5.75 via Market Street Wharf.

Full details concerning these excursions, the leaving time of trains and stop-over privileges, will be announced later, or may be obtained upon application to Ticket Agents.

SUMMER DAYS BY THE SEA.

July 15 to 20, when the Elks hold their Annual Reunion in Philadelphia, will be a glorious week in the Quaker City. Not for years have such elaborate preparations been made to honor the City's guests as those which are now being made to welcome members of the Order, and to entertain the thousands who are expected to visit the city during the week.

A grand Court of Honor in Broad Street, the most magnificent structure of the kind ever erected in America, and costing $50,000, will be a great feature of the occasion. Every night during the week this Court of Honor, together with the City Hall, will be illuminated by myriads of electric lights of various colors.

On Wednesday, July 17, a massed band parade of over 2000 musicians will take place.

On Thursday, July 18, the Grand Parade of all visiting Elks will occur. Over 15,000 men from all sections of the country will participate. Each Lodge will have its own band and will wear a distinct uniform. Each uniform will typify the state or city represented by the lodge. Many of the uniforms will be historical and picturesque.

On Saturday, July 20, there will be a grand excursion to the Seashore. Atlantic City, Cape May, Wildwood, Ocean City, Asbury Park, and other popular resorts are within easy reach of Philadelphia by the fast express trains of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Excursion tickets to Philadelphia will be sold July 13 to 17, inclusive, at reduced rates from stations over 100 miles from Philadelphia.

For exact fares and conditions of tickets, consult nearest Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Agent.

LOW-RATE NIAGARA FALLS EXCURSIONS.

"It soothes, while it awes the mind," is the phrase used by the great American author, Nathaniel Hawthorne, in writing of Niagara Falls, and its many phases of beauty and grandeur.

To those who have never viewed this magnificent spectacle, it will prove an enthralling revelation of majesty, beauty and power that must remain forever a delightful memory.

Those who have once visited Niagara Falls and wandered amid its historic environments or viewed its varied scenes of wonder, delight to return to gather new impressions of the falling waters, the dashing rapids, and the great gorge.

This year the Pennsylvania Railroad will run a series of attractive personally-conducted excursions to Niagara Falls on July 3 and 24, August 7 and 21, September 11 and 25, and October 9.

Tickets will be sold at very low rates for the round trip and will be valid for return passage within ten days.

A special train in charge of an experienced tourist agent, will be run on each date from Washington, via Harrisburg, Williamsport, and Emporium Junction, carrying parlor cars, dining car, and high-grade coaches.

Tickets will be good going on the special train and to return on any regular train within the time limit, permitting excursionists to stop off at Buffalo and view the beautiful metropolis of Lake Erie.

Full detailed information of this attractive series of summer outings may be had on application to Ticket Agents.

burg." "The Confession and Autobiography of Harry Orchard," who now figures so large in Idaho, are most astounding, and give one a key to the man's character in the story of his first deadly errors. Georgine Milmine's "Mary Baker Eddy," takes up the story of "Mrs. Eddy and Witchcraft," and shows Mrs. Eddy's strong belief in witchcraft and Malignant Animal Magnetism.

In fiction this July McClure's is also striking. "Other articles are also striking portraits and views."
