

DENIES ORCHARD'S STORY

Boise, Idaho, June 25.—In an address that occupied two sessions of the district court, Clarence Darrow, of Chicago, outlined to the jury the detailed defense of William D. Haywood for the charge that he murdered former Governor Steuenerberg. In broad description, it is to be a denial of every material count in the testimony of Harry Orchard, with a showing that Orchard killed Steuenerberg because of a private grudge borne by the loss of a rich share in the Hercules mine, and explanations of the independent circumstances that tend to connect the co-defendants with Orchard's life and operations.

Haywood will take the stand to make personal denial of Orchard's accusations; Moyer may be called to testify solely to events and circumstances affecting the Western Federation of Miners, but Pettibone probably will not be a witness in this case. Darrow explained that Moyer and Pettibone must stand trial for this same crime, and declared that every lawyer knew the danger, whatever the circumstances, of exposing men awaiting trial under like circumstances.

Darrow denied the existence of the great conspiracy to murder, alleged by the state, with Orchard's testimony as a basis; denied that the federation was anything but an earnest fighting labor organization, with higher wages, shorter hours, tolerable working conditions and the care, safety and education of its members and their wives and children as its high and only motives; denied the intimacy with the three co-defendants that Orchard laid claim to; denied the several conferences and conversations that Orchard swore to; denied that Orchard had even committed many of the crimes he had boasted of, and promised to make proof of his contentions with many of the men named by Orchard when or where he stood, and many witnesses of credible character not connected by any tie with the federation or its leaders.

Darrow charged that agents of the Mine Owners' Association of Colorado and the Pinkerton detectives had joined hands in a conspiracy to discredit and destroy the Western Federation of Miners. Agents of the mine owners had, he asserted, committed many minor crimes to discredit the federation, and he promised that the defense would show that it was a reasonable inference that they had engineered the Independence depot outrage as an "attempt." That had miscarried into a tragedy. He asserted that this trial was the culmination of the conspiracy to kill the organization by killing the leaders; that the organization and not "Bill" Haywood was on trial, and that Harry Orchard, under the manipulation of Detective McParland, was trying to kill Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone that he might save his own life.

DOCTOR KILLS HIMSELF

Rich Philadelphian Ends Life With Poison and Razor.

Philadelphia, June 24.—Dr. Henry S. Hutchinson, aged 35, son of a prominent and wealthy citizen, told his family that he was about to take a trip to New York. His body was found in a field at Lansdowne, a suburb where it evidently had lain for a day or two. A blood-stained razor, a vial containing poison and an affectionate letter to his father were found nearby. It is believed Dr. Hutchinson, after swallowing the poison, cut his throat to make sure of death.

In his letter the suicide said he feared he could not succeed in his chosen profession, and had become melancholy. He was a graduate of Harvard and of the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania.

Frisco Letter Carriers to Strike.

San Francisco, June 25.—If statements made privately by letter carriers correct, the postoffice department will be confronted by a delivery strike in San Francisco on July 1. The walk-out is not to be declared by the Letter Carriers' Association, but will result from individual action. One postman, explaining his position, said that since the fire work has been fully twice as arduous as before, and that the cost of living is much greater, with no increase in salary.

Medal For Rescuer of Three.

Pottsville, Pa., June 24.—John Joyce, aged 18 years, of this place who recently rescued single-handed three men from drowning, has been awarded a medal for his bravery by the United States Volunteer Life Saving Corps. The men were boating on the upper Tumbling Run dam, when their craft capsized, and Joyce picked them up with another boat with much difficulty at the risk of his own life.

Under Water Six Minutes.

Northboro, Mass., June 25.—While bathing in Solomon's Pond Amadeo Martel, 17 years old, a Marlboro High school boy, sank and remained under water six minutes. He was taken out, apparently dead, but was resuscitated.

Drowned in Crock of Water.

Lockport, N. Y., June 24.—Ruth McCabe, 3 years old, peeked into her mother's 20-gallon butter crock and fell in. There was only eight inches of water in it, but the little girl was drowned before her parents found her.

Horse's Kick Fatal.

Elkins, W. Va., June 25.—Robert C. Gardner, 31 years old, of Tyrone, Pa., who was severely kicked by a horse in a local livery stable last Saturday night, died.

The Pennsylvania Pure Food Law.

The Tustin bill, approved June 1st, 1907, and popularly known as "The New Pennsylvania Pure Food Law," makes some important changes. Its general provisions, as to adulteration of foods, are substantially the same as those contained in the former Act of June 20th, 1895. Its provisions are substantially in accordance with the Federal Pure Food Law, approved June 30th, 1906. It gives relief to retail dealers when they protect themselves by a guarantee of the quality of goods purchased in writing, procured from the vendor, and provides that the manufacturer, wholesaler and jobber selling food products shall be responsible for violations of the law. The penalty for violations of the law has been changed from fifty to sixty dollars, and the procedure is by summary convictions, while under the old law the remedy was a prosecution for a misdemeanor. The new law is much less drastic than the old. It is intended primarily for the protection of the public and its provisions shall be rigidly enforced: The Commissioner asks the cordial co-operation of manufacturers, wholesale dealers, jobbers and retail dealers in the enforcement of the law.

In order to give the retail dealer the protection intended to be furnished by the statute, it is important, as already stated, that he shall protect himself by the written and signed guarantee of the vendor. Rules and regulations have been formulated and will be printed at length in the Monthly Bulletin, and a copy can be had by addressing the Commissioner at Harrisburg. The importance of the guarantee to the retail dealer must not be overlooked. The rule relating to the guarantee is as follows, to wit: The guarantee referred to in the New Pennsylvania food law, approved June 1st, 1907, should in all cases be a written or printed invoice guarantee upon each bill of goods purchased, signed by the vendor and substantially in the following language, to wit: I (or we) the vendor of the articles mentioned in the foregoing invoice hereby guarantee and warrant the same to be in full conformity with the Federal Act of June 30th, 1906, popularly known as "The Food and Drugs Act" and also further hereby guarantee the same to be in full conformity with the Act of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, popularly known as "The New Pennsylvania Pure Food Law" approved June 1st, 1907, in that the said articles are not adulterated within the meaning of the aforesaid Act of Congress, or the aforesaid Act of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, and that the said articles are not misbranded within the meaning of either of the said Acts. With respect to goods now in the possession of retail dealers, they should immediately take the precaution to obtain a guarantee from the vendor in the form above designated upon the invoice now in their possession, or obtain from the vendor a duplicate invoice of the goods with the guarantee stamped, written or printed thereon and signed by the vendor from whom the goods were purchased. If this is not attended to the retail dealers will be held responsible for any adulterated goods sold by them.

The Law. Then shalt worship the Almighty Dollar with all thy heart, with all thy soul and with all thy might. This is the first and great commandment; and the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor less than his money. On these two commandments hang all the "law" and its profits.
