

Bellefonte, Pa., July 12, 1907.

P. GRAY MEEK,

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION .- Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the

Paid strictly in advance. Paid before expiration of year Paid after expiration of year 2.00

Democratic State Ticket.

For State Treasurer JOHN G. HARMAN, of Columbia county. Democratic County Ticket.

For Prothonotary ARTHUR B. KIMPORT, of Bellefonte. For District Attorney WILLIAM G. RUNKLE, of Bellefonte. For County Surveyor J. HENRY WETZEL, of Bellefonte.

The Real Remedy Suggested.

In a Fourth of July oration delivered at the Jamestown Exposition Dr. WOODROW WILSON, president of Princeton College, expressed a sentiment which is familiar to the readers of this newspaper. "One really responsible man in jail," remarked Dr. WILSON, "one real originator of the schemes and transactions which are contrary to the public interest, legally lodged in the penitentiary, would be worth more than a thousand corporations mulcted in fines, if the reform is to be genuine and permanent." This statement, curiously enough, appears to have aroused public interest and popular discussion. Probably it is the man rather than the matter that attracts attention.

About four years ago the Supreme Court of the United States declared that the Northern Securities company, known as the "railroad trust," was an unlawful combination and ordered its dissolution. Then the WATCHMAN pointed out an opportunity to put an end, finally and forever, to all inimical trusts in this country, by hauling HILL, HARRIMAN and their associates in that conspiracy into the criminal courts and punishing them as other violators of the laws are punished. Some time later PAUL MORTON, who had been vice president of the Santa Fe railroad, confessed to rebating to a corporation in which he had a pecuniary interest and we urged that he be summoned to answer in the courts. But nothing of the sort happened. "We are not running amuck against corporations," is what the President said at that time.

The Northern Securities company was dissolved, according to the order of court and those concerned re-organized it on the "Community of Interest" plan, in which HARRIMAN quarreled about the distribution of the spoils. The Santa Fe railroad was fined a few thousand dollars and probably reimbursed itself out of the profits of a week's unlawful operations. But the trusts paid no attention to these incidents and comparatively little to the President's talk about trust busting. As Dr. WILSON says, the only real remedy for the abuses of corporations lies in putting one of the perpetrators in the penitentiary.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

up to date you must be able to tell of what a delicious dish of legs you had.

-The walls for the foundation for L. T. Munson's new house on Allegheny street are fast nearing completion and it will not be long until the bricklayers will be at work.

-Two weeks ago George A. Beezer purchased two new horses for the Palace livery and two for himself and this week he went away on a scouting expedition and returned with three more.

-The auditorium in Petriken hall has been leased by a New York firm who will give evening entertainments of moving pictures and illustrated songs. They expect to be open in about two weeks.

-A twelve inch bass was recently caught in Spring creek, three miles south of Bellefonte, by Harvey Shaffer. So far as known this is the first bass ever caught Dr. Hoy always had a penchant for schemes that high up the stream and it must have which he could be influenced to believe ofmade its way up from the Bald Eagle creek fered big financial returns. While he lived during the high water.

-Anna Hull, the young daughter of pers. She has already been a winner of roller skates, a box of fireworks for the Fourth and since that a camera.

---Bellefonters still appear to have the automobile fever. The latest additions to the string of autos already in town are a new Buick car by W. Harrison Walker Esq., and a four cylinder Ford runabout by W. A. Moore, president of the Nittany furnace. And it is stated that two other Bellefonte gentlemen are contemplating purchasing machines.

gret when death claims a friend near and dear, or a man who stands high in sceial or his faculties could perform the act of self-destruction.

quaintances here realized that the act must have been committed when the man was laboring in the very sloughs of despondency. And such undoubtedly was the case. Dr. Hoy was an able physician, as many Bellefonters know who availed themselves of his services when he was a resident of this place prior to twelve years ago. And had he stuck to his practice he might today not only be standing at the head of his profession but been possessed of an ample fortune, the glitter of which lured him from his rightful calling into the treacherous paths of business for which he was not adapted. And in the various schemes in which he engaged he not only met with reverses but probably lost what money he had made in his practice. And it was unquestionably worry over his disastrous business speculations as well as financial troubles that finally dethroned his mind and led to his suicidal act.

This is the only plausible explanation that can be given, as his home life was an exceptionally happy one, as all who had access to his home know beyond a doubt. Up to some three or four weeks ago Dr. Hoy was the same as ever. About that time it was apparent to his family and friends that he appeared worried, though he rarely talked of his troubles. His nights were always spent very restlessly and on Thursday night prior to killing himself he evening after a two weeks illness with slept very little. He arose before seven paralysis. He was aged eighty years and o'clock Friday morning and started to go down stairs without dressing, but at the inent family in the lower Bald Eagle valrequest of Mrs. Hoy he donned his clothes ley. He was a farmer all his life until age as usual and went down stairs.

to his office which was the front room in section. the house. As there was nothing in his locked. Going out on the porch she look- Fearon cemetery. ed through the window and saw him lying on the couch and from his attitude she at once became alarmed and suspected something wrong. She hastily summoned home of her mother, Mrs. Amanda Gray, Dr. A. O. Taylor, who lives a few doors in Tyrone, on Friday, June 28th. She form it was continued until HILL and promptly. The door was forced open and years and the death of her father, Zane B. afternoon the remains were brought to one glance at the figure on the couch was enough to assure his brother physician that mind that a general decline followed. Dr. Hoy was dead, and that by his own band.

The body was already cold and had been dead perhaps a haif honr. An examination of the office showed that the agent used P. B. Waddle, of Buffalo Run, and a niece for his self-destruction was a mixture of carbolic acid and laudanum. Bottles which had contained the two drugs were standing on the medicine case, as was the glass from which he drank the deadly potion. The mixture was evidently made | 1st, interment being made in Tyrone. for the purpose of preventing the acid from burning, though it failed to do so, as his mouth was terribly burned. After taking the poison Dr. Hoy lay down on the couch and death evidently came without a struggle and in a very few moments, as the dose taken was sufficient to kill ten men. The coroner was notified but as it was unquestionably a case of suicide no inquest was deemed necessary. Hoy and was born in Spring township, just found there dead, by some of the family. east of Bellefonte, in 1849, so that he was about fifty-eight years of age. He was educated in the public schools of Bellefonte and at the Millersville Normal. Later he entered the Hahnemann Medical college in a member of the well known family of Philadelphia from where he graduated as a Grays living in that section. For a numhomeopathic physician. He located in Bellefonte and built up a good practice but lege and for two years or more has conducttwelve years ago went to Altoona and in ed an insurance business in this place in that city built up a large practice which he successfully held until he gave it up in him are his wife and four children, as well part to devote his time to outside interests. as a number of brothers and sisters. in Bellefonte he got out a patent fence which he felt positive would revolutionize the fence business and put thousands of Mr. and Mrs. John Hull, of Bishop street, dollars in his pockets, but it failed to prove is proving quite an expert in solving puz- a success. Shortly after locating in Altoozles printed in one of the Philadelphia pa- na he became interested in the Midland oil company, of California, but the fortune four prizes, a history of Russia, a pair of he anticipated reaping from it proved as mythical as the one he expected to get in the fence business. His last venture was his backing John Elmore, the Altoona cobbler, in his ash-burning scheme. In this Dr. Hoy spent considerable money and there is hardly any question but that the miserable failure it proved to be was directly responsible for the despondency which resulted in his suicide.

Dr. Hoy was twice married, his first wife being Miss Catharine Barnhart, by whom he had one child, Lulu, now Mrs. H. D. -A big band of gypsies have been en- Clark, of Clarksburg, W. Va. His second camped at the old nail works this week wife was Miss Grace Wobley, a niece of and deputy county treasurer George Wash- George B. Brandon and she with his daughington Rumberger is still wondering what ter and the following brother and sisters to do with them; inasmuch as he has not survive : Dr. F. P. Hoy, of California; yet been informed whether the act passed Misses Justia and Ida Hoy, of Altoona, and by the last Legislature providing that Mrs. Gibbs, of Irvona. Dr. Hoy was a by the Governor and is effective or not. ans. He also was a member of the Raue cemetery at that place.

DR. Hoy's Untimely End .- It is al- | medical club, of Altoona ; the State Homeways a source of the deepest sorrow and re- opathic Medical society and the Millersville society.

Fuperal services were held at his late business life, but how much greater the home at 9.30 o'clock on Monday morning. His death was the result of cancer which day and yesterday evenings, was a decided dist parsonage at Pleasant Gap, on Tuesreer is brought to a sudden termination by Presbyterian church, officiated. At noon his own wilfull act, and the only paliation the funeral party left Altoona for this place, railroad track. In falling he struck the had everything arranged in true Romany witnesses were present. Following the of the act is the belief in the minds of his arriving here on the 1.23 p. m. train, from friends that he was utterly irresponsible which the remains were taken direct to the for what he was doing, as it is hard to con- Union cemetery for interment in the Hoy jecture how any man in full possession of lot. The pall-bearers were Drs. E. H. Morrow, Amos O. Taylor, B. F. Brooks. W. J. Sharbough, D. M. Raudabush, of So it was when the news of the suicide Altoona, and J. M. Stitzel, of Hollidaysof Dr. Harvey K. Hoy, at his home in Al- turg, members of the Raue Medical club, his life. toona last Friday morning, was received in all of whom accompanied the body to this Bellefonte that his many friends and ac- place and before leaving for home gave the WATCHMAN the following:

We, a committee of the Raue Medical club. of Altoona, respectfully present the following resolutions: WHEREAS, Providence has removed our president and brother practitioner, Dr. H. K. Hoy, from our midst, we humbly bow to his will. Therefore,

Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy in this time of sorrow to his wife. daughter and sisters. The society and profession have sustained an irreparable loss in the death of our brother. Be it further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be given to the bereaved family and published in the daily papers. DR. E. H. MORROW, DR. J. W. STITZEL, DR. AMOS O. TAYLOR, Committee.

SWYERS. -On Monday morning Miss Georgia Swyers died at the home of her parents in Milesburg, after an illness extending over the past four or five years. Surviving ber are her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Swyers, and one brother, Alexander. She was a member of the Presbyterian church and Rev. William Laurie officiated at the funeral, which was held at 2 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, interment being made at Roland.

DEHAAS .- Alexander M. DeHaas died was the oldest representative of that prom-He went to the kitchen and from there more widely known than any man in that

He is survived by his wife and six chilactions to cause alarm Mrs. Hoy did not dren, all of whom were present when Mr. get up until about 7.30 o'clock. When DeHass died and attended the funeral she went down stairs she failed to find her which was held on Tuesday afternoon. husband in the main part of the house so Rev. H. J. Dudley, of the Disciple church, went to his office only to find the door officiated and interment was made in the

STEWART .- Mrs. Carrie Elnora Stewart, wife of Charles B. Stewart, died at the Gray, on April 19th last, so prayed on her

Deceased was born in Tyrone and was 37 years, 6 months and 14 days old. She was grave. the only daughter of Zane B. and Amanda Waddle Gray, a grand-daughter of the late of William and Philip Waddle, of this place. She was married to Charles B. Stewart in 1891. She had no children and is survived only by her husband and her mother. The funeral was held on July

GRAY .- John F. Gray died very suddenly at his bome in State College at eleven o'clock yesterday morning. He had been in Bellefonte on Wednesday looking after his insurance business and felt as well as usual. And as late as 9.30 o'clock yestrrday morning he was sitting on his porch and talked to his neighbors. Some time later he went into the house and lay down Dr. Hoy was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John on a couch and at eleven o'clook he was A physician was hastily summoned and gave the cause of death as heart disease.

Deceased was about fifty years of age and was born in Buffalo Run valley, being ber of years past he has lived at State Col-dent of State College but who for the last after an illness of only a few days.

At this writing no arrangements have been made for the funeral.

Deceased was sixty-three years of age and was born in College township. For many years he lived in State College and was one of the prominent merchants of that is that that crop is looking fair. place until he sold out and moved to Avis. He was a member of the Lutheran church and a man always held in the highest esteem by everybody who knew him.

His wife, who prior to her marriage was Miss Catharine Krumrine, died in 1896, but surviving him are the following children: Ira, in the west; John and Carl, of State College, Effie, who was recently elected a teacher in the Bellefonte public schools, and Minnie and Mary at home. The remains were taken to State College on Saturday, the funeral being held Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. Charles

Rev. H. L. Bowldy, pastor of the First had its inception in a fall he received six success in every way. And it had a per- day morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. J. B. side of his neck on the rail bruising the fashion and even the young ladies taking ceremony a wedding breakfast was served flesh quite hadly. Although at the time part were garbed so true to life that they the newly wedded couple at the home of he thought little of the injury it finally were taken to be members of the tribe of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James grew worse and at the solicitation of his real gypsies encamped at the nail works Brooks, and in the afternoon they left for a friends he went to a Philadelphia hospital and one Bellefonte gentleman at least was brief wedding trip to the western part of > highly respected by all who knew him. decked women and men was the greatest. little over three months since the death of chances to spend money on the ground; a

Lock Haven; Daniel, of Arnold; Thomas, double that quantity. of Oil City, and Margaret, of Bellefonte.

The funeral was held at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning, July 2nd, from the Catholic church, of which he was a devont council on July 1st the millage for the member. Interment was made in the next year was fixed at three mills for bor-Catholic cemetery.

DEATH OF CLARA MOYER.-The grim reaper in nowise relaxed his vigilance during the past two weeks and one of his victims in which Bellefonte feels a personal loss was the death of Mrs. Clara Roberta printed in the WATCHMAN two weeks ago. Moyer, which occurred at her home in Tyrone on Friday night, June 28th.

Deceased was a daughter of Willian and Ellen Pruner, and was born in Tyrone at his home in Beech Creek on Sunday July 13th, 1860, thus making her age 46 years, 11 months and 15 days. Her father meeting an accidental death when she was but three years old she was taken in charge by her uncle and aunt, the late Edward J. Pruner and Miss Margaret Pruner, and by compelled him to retire and was perhaps them reared to womanhood at the Pruner home in this place.

On April 18th, 1882, she was united in marriage to Andrew Curtin Moyer and for a number of years afterwards they made their home in this place, later moving to Sandy Ridge and from there to Tyroue. Her husband was killed in a wreck on the Cumberland Valley railroad January 1st, 1903, but surviving her are three children, namely: Mrs. B. J. Hiltuer, Miss Lucy and Edmund, all of Tyrone.

Funeral services were conducted at her late home on Tuesday morning, July 2nd, by her pastor, Rev. George T. Gunter, of from the Hoy residence, and he responded had not been in good health for several the First Presbyterian church. The same Bellefonte and interred in the Pruner lot in the Union cemetery, Rev. William Laurie, D. D. LL.D., officiating at the SEGNER.-After an illness extending over several weeks Mrs. Michael Segner died at her home in Boalsburg on the morning of July 4th. She was 60 years, 4 months and 7 days old, and was one of the best known women in that locality. Her husband died some time ago but surviving her are five sons and four daughters. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning, Rev. Ralph L. Bergstresser, of Pine Grove Mills, officiating at the services. Interment was made in the Boalsburg cemetery.

CRADER.-Gregg township lost one of its oldest citizens on Sunday in the death of James Crader, after an illness of several months with diseases incident to old age, he being 71 years, 5 months and two days DuBois as was at first intended. When it old. He is survived by his widow and four children, namely: Emanuel H., John C., Bois a deal could not be made. The man-Mary K. and James W., all of Gregg township. Funeral services were held on Wednesday, Rev. S. G. Haas, officiating. Interment was made in the Green Grove

-The farmers throughout the county are now busy making hay, and, contrary to expectations, the crop is a good one. connection with his son Oscar. Surviving The grass, instead of being short, grew quite rapidly the last two or three weeks, with the result that the crop is more than twenty per cent. better than was anticipated. While there has been no wheat cut so far it has been ripening very fast the past few SNYDER .- Mifflin Snyder, a former resi- days and it is quite likely that in some portions of the county, at least, harvesting year or two has resided at the new town of will begin some time next week, though Avis, near Jersey Shore, died quite sudden- the old-time weather prognosticators say ly on Wednesday of last week of dysentery, that very little wheat will be cut before the full moon, which falls on July 24th. rel fell on his leg. The lateness of the having and harvesting season gave the farmers ample opportunity to properly work their corn and the result

-The time of year is now approaching for the holding of family reunions and the date has already been named for the Schaeffer-Hazel families reunion, which will be held at Madisonburg on August stalled for the ensuing term of six months: 22nd. Announcement is made that a meetiag will be held at the store of D. O. Eberts, at Julian, on Saturday evening, July John D. Rumberger; sergeant, Newton 20th, to set the date for the holding of the Dunlap; physician, Dr. M. J. Locke; rec-Williams family reunion.

-On Tuesday James B. Furst and Charles McClure, of this place, successfully passed the examination before the ex-Mecklinger, of Jersey Shore, officiated at amining board of the Pennsylvania Bar the funeral services which were held in the Association, so that they are now fullgypsies must take out a license was signed member of the Heptasophs and the Artisinterment was made in the Lutheran any court in the State, including both the ten days with quinsy, is greatly improved the association, while he excels in social Superior and Supreme courts.

KANE .- James Kane, whose critical ill- THAT GYPSY CARNIVAL .- The gypey ness was noted in the last issue of the Carnival held by the ladies of St. WATCHMAN, died at his home near the old John's Episcopal church on the school in Altoona, and Miss Edith Lutz, of Centre glass works site on the night of June 29th. house grounds in the North ward, Wednes. Hall, were quietly married at the Methomonths or more ago while walking on the feet right to be for those at the head of it Durkee officiated and only the necessary but a severe case of cancer had already de- not only so mistaken but commented on the State. They will make their home in veloped and nothing could be done to save the fact that they were the first real pretty Altoona until fall when they expect to women and girls he had ever seen with any come to Centre county to live. Deceased was born near Hublersburg and gypsy band. Tents and wagons were scatwas fifty-five years old. He was a man tered over the ground in picturesque confuof unassuming character, a sterling, old sion and under the glare of the highly susfashioued Democrat and being industrious pended are lights the effect was very orienand conscientiously honest he was always tal, especially when the crowd of gaily

His death was the third in the Kane fam- As a moneymaker the carnival was also ily occurring within a year, as his sister a success, although most of the visitors died about six morths ago and it is only a complained that there were not enough rare state of affairs to be sure. The Surviving him are his wife and the fol- drawback on Wednesday evening was that lowing children: Losh, Gertrude, Stella, the ice cream tent ran out of cream and Agnes, Julia, John, James, Joseph, Bern- could not get an additional supply. They ard, Katharine and Vincent; also three only arranged for twenty gallons of cream brothers and one sister, namely: John, of and if they had had it they could have sold > COUNCIL AND THE PRUNER ORPHAN-AGE .- At the regular meeting of borough ough, five mills for street and five mills for interest purposes. The committee appointed to confer with a committee of the Tyrone council relative to the Pruner orphanage reported and was discharged. Their report was substantially as the facts Two years or so ago an ordinance was passed by council acceptingthe Pruner bequest. Later, after the matter had been more thoroughly considered and discussed, council passed a resolution rescinding the ordinance and so the matter stood until the last meeting of council when another resolution was introduced rescinding the former resolution and providing that the ordinance should stand. This resolution passed council but was vetoed by the burter now stands, no nearer a satisfactory friends to know that Harry F. Rerick, of settlement than it has been for two years.

> Tyrone will revert to the estate and be 27th. Their proposed marriage was kept added to the endowment fund set aside for as quiet as possible until it was all over the support of the orphanage. These and they returned home to receive the conproperties have an estimated value of four gratulations of their friends. thousand dollars and the annual income from them in rents is about $360 per year.

railroad. The total amount of stock is $1,-673,150, of which amount the Pennsylva- Ridge. nia company owns $769,800, or just enough to control the organization. They are now operating the road under a ninety. nine year lease made in 1864, but would like to secure the property outright. The $903,350 worth of stock is held by various Lettie Hartman, of Bellefonte. individuals and estates, and to secure this amount the Pennsylvania company will make an offer to merge the Bald Eagle with their own railroad, the present stockholders to accept stock in the Pennsylvania on a basis of the comparative market Lydia E. Long, of Fiedler. values of the two stocks in exchange for their present holdings.

THE BICKFORDS BUY CURWENSVILLE PLANT.-The new Bickford fire brick company, in which J. C. Meyer and John C. Rowe, of this place, are interested, two weeks ago bought the fire brick plant at Curwensville and will begin operations there instead of building a new plant near come to getting a suitable location at Duagement then contemplated going to Falls Creek but in the meantime the plant at Curwensville was closed down and the company went into the hands of a receiver. Negotiations were at once begun which re- in the field mowing when his horses frightsulted in the purchase of the plant by the ened and ran away. In attempting to stop Bickford company. It will be put in them he was knocked down and trampled operation just as soon as it can be arranged to do so.

SUSTAINED BROKEN LEG.-Harry Haag is undoubtedly a very unfortunate man in some respects. Only a year or so ago he was confined to the house a month or two Mill Hall have prepared a petition to prewith a broken leg, the result of a kick of a sent to the executive committee of the horse and now he is again laid up with a Centre and Clinton Counties Business broken leg sustained on Tuesday by a bar- Men's Pionic association asking that the rel of whiskey falling on him. He was assisting the drayman in unloading the whiskey when he slipped and fell and the bar-

Though his injury is bad enough it was fortunate the barrel did not fall on his body or he might have sustained injuries that would have resulted in his death.

KNIGHTS OF MACCABEES .- At a regular meeting of the Knights of Maccabees held in the Undine hall on Wednesday evening of last week the following officers were in-Commander, H. Laird Curtin; lieutenant commander, J. Thomas Mitchell; chaplain, ord keeper, Geo. T. Bush; master of arms, Harry Shreffler, master of arms 2nd., Albert Hurlebaus, nee Annie Elder, on July 4th. Thompson; master of guard, Samuel Ray; Thirty-eight responded to the roll call. A sentinel, Frank Woomer; picket, Arthur very sumptuous picnic dinner was served on Brown.

-Mrs. Harry Everbart, of east Lamb Reformed church at Pine Hall, after which | fledged Esqs., and entitled to practice in street, who has been quite ill for the past

BROOKS-LUTZ.-Elwood Brooks, formerly of Pleasant Gap but now employed

WEIDLEY-GATES .- Thursday evening, June 27th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Gates, near Warriorsmark, was the scene of a pretty wedding when their daughter, Miss Della I., was united in marriage to Albert A. Weidley, of Altoona. Rev. R. S. Stair, of Warriorsmark, performed the ceremony. The bride is a young lady well known in Centre county, her parents for a number of years living in Benner township. The bridegroom is superintendent of the Altoona Ice company and the young couple will make their home in the Mountain city, where they have already gone to housekeeping.

MILLER-RICE.-On Tuesday evening, July 2nd, Lewis Miller, of Bellefonte, and Miss Jennie Rice, of Pleasant Gap, went to the parsonage of the M. E. church in that place and at 8:30 o'clock were quietly married by the pastor, Rev. J. B. Durkee. A week's honeymoon was spent with friends in Mifflin county ere their return to this place to make their future home, the bridegroom being employed at the Nittany fur-

MITCHELL-SENSOR .-- The comfortable home of W. T. Irwin, in Union township, was filled with guests on July 4th, to witness the wedding of his grand-daughter, Miss Linnie Sensor, and Jacob D. Mitchell, of Union township. The ceremony was was performed by Rev. M. C. Pifer, of Milesburg. There were no attendants. Following the ceremony a lavish wedding dinner was served all present.

RERICK-COREGHAN.-Though a little gess, Gen. John I. Curtin, and so the mat- belated it may yet be news to some of their Bellefonte, a rural mail carrier, and Miss In the meantime, through the death of Bessie Coreghan, of Axe Mann, were mar-Mrs. Clara Moyer, two properties in ried in Buffalo, N. Y., on Thursday, June

KERR-VAUGHN .- Guy Thomas Kerr and Miss Ada Vaughn, two well known PENNSY WANTS BALD EAGLE.-The young people of Sandy Ridge, went to Pennsylvania railroad company is now Philipsburg on Wednesday of last week making an effort to get control of all the and were quietly married at the M. E. paroutlying stock of the Bald Eagle Valley sonage by the pastor, Rev. S. D. Wilson. They will make their home in Sandy

MARRIAGE LICENSES .- The following marriage licenses were issued the past week by Register Earle C. Tuten: Austin B. Ammerman, Tyrone, and Oran S. Houts and Martha Haz-l, both of State College.

Charles G. Schen, of Albany, N. Y., and Agnes S. Sweetwood, of Spring Mills. Harry S. Wantz, of Woodward, and Archie E. Whitmeyer, of Woodward, Ella E. Arney, of Fiedler. Joseph Mills and Carol May Pickel, both of Bellefonte.

Lewis Miller and Jennie Rice, both of Bellefonte. Benj. F. Fink and Tressie Ewing, both of Hannah. Jacob D. Mitchell and Linnie Sensor, both of Unionville.

Elwood Brooks, of Pleasant Gap, and Edith Lutz, of Centre Hall. Clyde Boob, of Aaronsburg, and Mary H. Hosterman, of Millheim.

-On Tuesday, Paul Witmer, son of W. W. Witmer, of Buffalo Run, was out upon, sustaining an ugly cut on the leg from the horses hoofs. No bones were broken and he fortunately escaped being caught in the machine.

--- The management of Agar's park at next picnic be held at Agar's park instead of Hecla park. The petition is signed by seventy-five business men of Mill Hall and Lock Haven.

FESTIVAL AT BUFFALO RUN.-The Presbyterian congregation of Buffalo Run church will hold a big festival in their church at Meyer's cemetery, tomorrow evening. There will be strawberries, ice cream and cake and everything to eat that is good and seasonable. Everybody is invited and all are assured of having a good Centre Countians in Ohio.

The third annual reunion of the Centre county association in Ohio was held at Medina, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George the lawn and ice cream and lemonade were on tap all the time. Games and sports were features of the day.

Rev. Jesse Hill, the ministerial member of qualities, was not the champion at quoits.